

Tables

1.1	A typology of risk biographies	9
1.2	Employment and inactivity in the six countries	20
1.3	Employment interruptions in the six countries	22
1.4	Divorce in the six countries	22
1.5	Public expenditure on pensions in the six countries	28
A1.1	Assumptions for working time and earnings in relation to average per year, all biographies	36
A1.2	Details of assumptions used in the simulations in all countries	40
2.1	The three pillars of the British pension system	49
2.2	Pension income of the unqualified male worker (bio 4b) in Britain in 2050 by different forms of provision	59
2.3	The effect of divorce on the pensions of female biographies in Britain, as percentage of social exclusion	64
2.4	The effect of divorce on the pensions of male biographies in Britain, as percentage of social exclusion	64
A2.1	Periods and type of employer-supported pension coverage assumed for each biography in the British simulations	76
3.1	The three pillars of the Dutch pension system	80
3.2	Percentage of overall pension gained/lost through divorce in the Netherlands, January 2050	89
A3.1	Pension schemes used for simulations	104
4.1	The three pillars of the Swiss pension system	109
5.1	The three pillars of the German pension system	140
5.2	Second pillar schemes used for simulations in Germany	147
6.1	The three pillars of the Italian pension system	170
6.2	Authorized Italian pension funds in 2005	176
6.3	Rates of return of pension funds and TFR in Italy	178
7.1	The three pillars of the Polish pension system	194
8.1	Comparative country performance in relation to social inclusion	229
8.2	Comparative country performance in relation to social inclusion by gender	229
8.3	Comparative range of pension outcomes for individuals	230
8.4	Median required saving rates and current tax rates	237

8.5	Comparative country performance of couples	239
8.6	Comparative household pension of mother and unqualified part-time worker as percentage of social inclusion by marital status and partner	241