

Index

- Agulnik, P. 50
Amato, G. and Marè, M. 171
Anderson, K.M. 24, 82, 83, 84, 248
Anderson, K.M. and Immergut, E.M. 248, 249
Anderson, K.M. and Meyer, T. 195
Aposori, E. and Millar, J. 5
Armingeon, K. and Bonoli, G. 19
Augusztinovics, M. 3
- Baldwin, P. 24
Barnes, M. et al. 5
Barr, N. 3
Behrendt, C. 7
Benetti, M. 187
Bertelsmannstiftung Stiftung and Leinert, J. 159
Berthoud, R. and Iacovou, M. 5
Bertozzi, F. et al. 108
Betzelt, S. 161
Bonoli, G.
 2000 108
 2003 23, 25
 2004 249
 2005 128
 2007 24, 128
Bonoli, G. and Gay-des-Combes, B. 112, 122, 126
Börsch-Supan, A. 156
Botoli, G. and Shinkawa, T. 5
Botoli, G. et al. 3, 7, 223
Bottero, W. 15
Bridgen, P. 66
Bridgen, P. and Lowe, R. 66
Bridgen, P. and Meyer, T. 2005 4, 52, 70, 225
Broda, M. 201, 215
Brown, K. 60
Brugiavini, A. 190
Brugiavini, A. and Peracchi, F. 171
- Britain's pension system 23, 27, 49, 225–6 see multi-pillar pension systems Basic State Pension 23, 48–9, 56–7
 credits 48, 50–51
 declining value of 48, 50, 51 home responsibilities protection 48, 50–51
 caring 48, 57, 69
 disability 50, 51, 57
 divorce 51, 52, 62, 63–4
 informal work 57
 Labour government policy 66–7
 low pay/qualification 54, 56, 60–61
 marriage 62
 occupational pensions 23, 24, 25, 52
 coverage 25–6, 53, 55, 58
 defined benefit 53, 57, 58, 60 defined contribution 53, 58
 fund assets 28–9
 public sector 48, 57, 60
 paid work 48, 57
 part-time work 48, 60
Pension Credit 51
performance in relation to risk
 biographies 55–6
 couples 62–5, 238–40
 divorce 63–4, 240–42
 first pillar 56–7
 gender 59–60
 individuals 56–61, 232–4
 second pillar 58–9
 third pillar 60–62
public expenditure 28
redistribution 50, 51, 56
reform debate 66–71, 246–7
 Pensions Commission and government's response 67–78 replacement rate for average worker 50
Savings Credit 51
savings disincentives 61, 69

- self-employment 51, 58, 62
- social exclusion 54–66
- Stakeholder Pensions 54
- State Earnings Related Pension Scheme (SERPS) 23
- State Second Pension 23, 50, 56
 - contracting out 50, 52, 70
 - credits 50, 56–7
 - statutory pension age 68
 - variability of outcome 47, 58
 - unemployment 51, 56–7
 - women 48, 52, 53, 56, 57, 59–60, 69
- Burchardt, T. 7

- caring 8, 14, 19, 48, 57, 69, 96, 117, 120, 145, 151, 155, 203–4, 212
- Casey, B. and Yamada, A. 3
- Castellino, O. and Fornero, E. 174, 178
- Castles, F.G. 19
- Cesari 17
- Chłoń, A. 216
- Chłoń-Domińczak, A. 195
- Clark, G.
 - 2000 24
 - 2001 51, 65
 - 2002 51
 - 2003 84
 - 2006 71, 249
- Clark, G. and Whiteside, N. 5, 24
- Clark, G. et al. 24, 249
- Cozzolino, M. et al. 177, 178
- Czapiński, J. and Panek, P. 206

- Davies, B. et al. 66
- Deakin, N. and Parry, N. 66
- Demographic change 18–19
 - low fertility rates 26
 - population ageing 3, 26
- Di Nicola, F. 188
- disability 8, 15, 50, 51, 57, 90–91
- Disney, R. and Johnson, P. 5
- divorce 5, 8, 14, 15, 17, 18, 21–2, 51, 52, 62, 64, 85, 113, 153–4, 240–42
 - see* ‘divorce’ in country entries and under multi-pillar pension systems
- Drakeford, M. 7

- early retirement 21, 83–4, 118, 139
- Ebbinghaus, B. 142, 144, 162
- Esping-Andersen, G. 7, 233

- European Commission 3
 - Social Protection Committee 8
- European Council 3
- Evandrou, M. and Falkingham, J. 16, 51
- Evandrou, M. et al. 67

- Fachinger, U. 153, 160
- Ferrera, M. 244
- Ferrera, M. and Jessoula, M. 25, 190, 246, 249
- Foriero, E. and Castellino, O. 171, 179
- Foriero, E. and Fugazza, C. 174
- Forni, L. 174
- Fracaro, M. 168
- Franco, D. 171, 186
- Franco, D. and Marè, M. 171
- Fultz, E. and Silberstein, S. 212

- Gabriele, S. et al. 180
- Germany’s pension system 25, 27, 139–41, 154–5, 161–3, 224–5, 226
 - see* multi-pillar pension systems
 - caring 26, 142, 145, 149, 151, 155
 - divorce 153–4
 - low pay/qualification 150, 152, 155, 156
 - occupational pensions 25, 142–4, 148, 155, 157–9
 - book reserves 142, 144
 - corporatism 144, 162
 - coverage 142, 144, 146
 - defined benefit schemes 143
 - defined contribution schemes 143
 - divorce 153–4, 240–42
 - employers 144
 - fund assets 28–9
 - public sector 142–3, 150, 153
 - trade unions 143–4
 - variability of outcome 150–51, 153
 - vesting 143
 - women 143, 155, 161
 - part-time work 26, 155
 - performance in relation to risk
 - biographies 145–6
 - couples 153–4, 238–40
 - divorce 153–4, 240–42
 - first pillar 150, 153, 154–5
 - individuals 146–51, 232–4

- second pillar 148 see occupational pensions
- third pillar 151–3
- public expenditure 28, 155–6
- public pension 141–2, 146, 147, 156–7
 - coverage 141, 148
 - pre-reform rates for the average worker 25
 - redistribution 26, 155
 - reform of 26, 139
 - relationship with social assistance 142
 - replacement rate 139
- reform debate 155–61, 246–7
 - direction of reforms 161–3
 - first pillar 156–7
 - second pillar 157–9
 - third pillar 159–61
- ‘Riester pension’ see third pillar
- ‘Rürup plans’ see third pillar
- retirement age 156 see retirement ages
- second pillar see occupational pensions
- self-employed 141, 145, 152–3, 160–61
- social inclusion 139, 148, 154–5, 156
- third pillar 144–5, 159–61, 162
 - state support for 145, 151
 - take-up since 2001 145
 - women 145, 151
- unemployment 142, 150, 155
- unpredictability of for the individual see occupational pensions and variability of outcome
- Giannini, S. and Guerra, M.C. 175
- Ginn, J. 24, 53, 60, 66
- Ginn, J. and Arber, S. 53, 60
- Golinowska, S. 215
- Goodin, R.E. et al. 5, 231
- Góra, M. 209, 214
- Green, F. et al. 24
- Gronchi, S. and Nisticò, S. 171
- Groves, D.
 - 1983 25, 52
 - 1987 25, 209
- van Gunsteren, H. and Rein, R. 7
- Hannah, L. 23, 24
- Hantrais, L. 19
- Hart, R.A. 24
- Haverland, M. 3, 24, 25
- Hawkesworth, R.I. 24
- Hinrichs, K. 110
- Hollis, Baroness 60, 66
- Honeyball, S. and Shaw, J. 52
- Hyde, M. et al. 7
- Immergut, E.M. et al. 5
- informal work 14, 57
- Italy’s pension system 25, 27, 168–71, 190, 224–5, 226 see multi-pillar pension systems
 - atypical workers 172, 179–80, 182, 186
 - exclusion from TFR 184
 - caring 26, 173, 180, 184, 185, 187
 - divorce, 185
 - early retirement 171, 179, 186–7
 - fiscal incentives 175, 189
 - informal work 179 see atypical workers
 - male breadwinner model 185, 186, 235–6
 - occupational pensions 25, 174–7
 - corporatism 174–5, 177, 189
 - coverage 175–7, 179
 - fund assets 28–9
 - trade unions 177
 - part time work 26
 - performance in relation to risk
 - biographies
 - couples 184–6, 238–40
 - divorce 185, 240–42
 - individuals 180–82, 185, 234–6
 - second pillar see occupational pensions
 - third pillar 182–4
 - public expenditure 27–8, 168–9, 173, 186–7
 - public pension 172–3, 187
 - equivalence of contributions and benefits 171, 172, 180–81, 186, 226
 - notional defined contributions benefit formula (NDC) 168, 171
 - pre-reform rates for the average worker 25, 172
 - privileged workers 25

- redistribution 26, 172, 173 see
 - public pensions, equivalence of contributions and benefits
 - reform debate 186–90, 246–7
 - reform of 26, 168–9, 171
 - replacement rate 169, 172, 187
 - risk of exclusion of atypical workers 187–8
 - shift from defined benefits to notional defined contributions 171
 - women 173, 180–81, 184–5, 186, 187
 - retirement age 168, 187 see
 - retirement ages
 - second pillar see occupational pensions
 - self-employment 172, 179, 181, 182, 184
 - shadow economy 172, 180
 - social assistance (assegno sociale) 173
 - social inclusion 168, 169, 173
 - couples 184–5
 - Southern Italy 180, 186, 188 see
 - shadow economy
 - TFR (trattamento di fine rapporto)
 - 174–5, 177–8, 179, 183, 184, 188, 189, 244, 245–6
 - third pillar 175, 176, 182–4
 - distrust for 177
 - self-employed 184
- Jansen, S. 87
- Johnson, P. and Rake, K. 5, 18
- Karch, H. 144
- Kaufmann, F.-X. 141, 142, 157
- Koch-Baumgarten, S. 159
- Kotowska, I. 212
- Lamping, W. and Rüb, F.W. 161
- Langelüddeke, A. et al. 156
- Leinert, J. 158
- Leisering, L. 7
- Lelièvre, F. 127
- Lewis, J. 208, 238
- Lindlar, L. and Scheremet, W. 155
- Lynes, T. 47, 52
- male breadwinner model 18, 62, 63, 145, 185, 195, 208, 212–14, 235–6
- Mares, I. 24
- marriage 5, 8, 14, 15, 18, 62–3, 95–6, 97, 111, 120–21, 149, 153–4, 184–6, 206–7, 238–40 see ‘couples’
 - in country entries and under multi-pillar pension systems
- Mazey, S. 25, 52
- means-tested benefits 15, 17, 51, 61, 69, 110–11, 141–2, 173
 - social exclusion 15, 173
 - take-up 15
- Meyer, T. and Bridgen, P. 24, 47, 65, 69, 234
- Meyer, T. and Pfau-Effinger, B. 238
- Michaelis, K. and Thiede, R. 156
- microsimulation 5, 162–3
 - illustrative biographies 5, 6, 7–16, 18
 - occupational pensions 16
 - private savings 17
 - public pensions 16
- migrant workers 8, 16, 19, 21, 61, 99, 149
- Muehlberger, U. and Pasqua, S. 188
- Müller, K. 3, 25
- multi-pillar pension systems 4–5, 23, 27, 171, 194–5
 - Beveridgean and Bismarckian legacies 23, 110, 139, 193
 - features of inclusive pension systems 242–3
 - performance in relation to risk
 - biographies in six countries 226–42
 - Britain and Germany 232–4
 - couples 238–40
 - divorce 240–42
 - gender 235–6 see male breadwinner model
 - individuals 227–8, 229–30
 - Italy and Poland 234–6
 - median savings rates and tax regimes 237–8
 - Netherlands and Switzerland 230–32
 - self-employment 236
 - third pillar 236–8 see private savings

- variability of outcome 234
 - reforms of see reform debates and prospects for change
 - social inclusion 242–3, 248–9
 - three patterns of collective provision 226, 230–42
- Myles, J. and Pierson, P. 24
- The Netherlands' pension system 23, 27, 80, 101, 225–6 see multi-pillar pension systems
- AOW (General Old Age Pensions Law) see public pension
- divorce 85
- occupational pensions 24, 81–4, 87–8, 90–93, 99–100
 - corporatism 81, 82, 83, 84, 100
 - coverage 81–2, 100
 - disability 90–91, 97
 - divorce 85, 89, 90
 - early exit 83–4
 - fund assets 28–9
 - franchise 82–3, 90
 - 'obliged voluntarism' see corporatism
 - part-time work 83, 90, 91
 - pre-pension benefits 83–4, 85, 87
 - shift from final salary to average wage schemes 83, 93, 100
- performance in relation to risk
 - biographies 85–6, 96–7
 - couples 95–6, 97, 238–40
 - divorce 89, 90, 91, 92, 240–42
 - first pillar 86, 91, 96
 - franchise 90, 91
 - individuals 87–93, 97, 230–32
 - informal work 92
 - second pillar 87–8, 90–93 see occupational pensions
 - third pillar 93–5
- public expenditure 28
- public pension 23, 81, 98–9
- reform debate 97–101, 247–8
 - first pillar 98–9
 - second pillar 99–100
 - third pillar 100
- replacement rate 84, 94–5
- second pillar see occupational pensions
- social inclusion 79, 81, 84, 87, 96–7
- unpredictability of for the individual 79, 96, 97 see occupational pensions and variability of outcome
- third pillar 84–5, 93–5, 97, 100
 - 'life-course policy' 85, 87
 - self-employed 85
- Neilson, J. 52
- Nowakowska, U. and Piwnik, E. 213
- occupational pensions 23–4, 52, 58–9, 122–3, 142–4, 157–9, 174–7, 225–6 see occupational pensions in country entries
 - auto-enrolment 68, 69
 - compulsion 24–5, 122
 - coverage 53, 81–2, 100, 224–5
 - corporatism 232 see country entries
 - declining level of 52, 70, 83, 93, 100, 113, 118, 123, 126–7
 - employers' interests 243–4
 - European Court of Justice 52
 - small businesses 58, 82, 144, 157–8, 177
 - variability of outcome 47, 58, 79, 96, 97, 113, 244
 - voluntarism 24–5, 52, 81, 82, 83, 84, 108, 139, 162, 174, 199–201, 214–16, 224, 226, 232, 233, 243–6
 - women 52, 53
- OECD 7–8
- Omachel, R. 210
- Onida, F. 174, 177
- Pammolli, F. and Salerno, N.C. 177
- part-time work 14, 20–21, 49, 83, 90, 91, 122, 125–6
- Pedersen, A.W. 3, 7
- Pemberton, H. et al. 66
- pension regimes see multi-pillar pension systems
- pensioner poverty
 - in industrialized world 3, 4
 - measurement 17
- Pensions Commission (Britain) 67–8
- Personal Accounts (Britain) 69
 - possible effect on existing provision 70
- Pickering, A. 66

- Pierson, P.
1994 98
2001 19
- Pizzuti, F.R. 168, 171, 176, 187
- Pizzuti, F.R. and Raitano, M. 179, 189, 190
- Pizzuti, F.R. et al. 169, 172, 177, 188
- Poland's pension system 25, 27, 193–5, 207–9, 216–17, 224–5, 226 see multi-pillar pension systems
- employers 200–201, 214–15
- European Union 213–14
- informal work 298
- male breadwinner model 195, 208, 212–14, 235–6
- occupational pensions 25, 199–201
coverage 200–201
fund assets 28–9
- part-time work 26
- performance in relation to risk
biographies 207–9
couples 206–7, 238–40
divorce 207, 240–42
individuals 234–6
long-term insured workers 203, 208 mothers 203–4, 208–9
second pillar see occupational pensions short-term insured workers 204, 208
third pillar 205–6, 208
- privileged workers 214
- public expenditure 27–8, 195, 209
- public pension 195–9
caring 26, 198–9, 203–4
coverage 198
divorce 199
equal retirement age for men and women 213–14
equivalence of contributions and benefits 195–6, 202, 208, 226 funded account defined contribution 196–7
indexation 196, 209, 210–11
minimum pension guarantee 210
notional account defined contribution 195–6
pre-reform replacement rates for the average worker 25
reform debate 209–17, 246–7
reform of 26
retirement age 196, 213–14 see retirement ages schemes for privileged workers 25, 198
social inclusion 198–9, 201
unemployment 199
women 198, 199, 209, 211–14
- redistribution 26, 202
- second pillar see occupational pensions
- self-employed 196, 205–6, 211 see self-employment
- social inclusion 195, 207–9
- third pillar 199–201, 202, 205–6, 214–16
- trade unions 213, 215
- voluntary pillars 214–16
employment and wages 216 public knowledge 215–16
women 211–14
- World Bank 193
- population ageing see demographic change
- Powell, M. 66
- 'private' and 'public' pension definition 6–7
- public–private mix see multi-pillar systems
- public sector occupational pensions 226
Britain 48, 57, 60, 233–4
Germany 142–3
Switzerland 112, 113, 115, 150, 153, 233–4
- Private Savings 17, 54, 60, 93, 100, 113–14, 123–5, 131–2, 144–5, 151–3, 159–61, 182–4, 205–6, 214–16, 224, 236–8 see third pillar
- in country entries
- disincentives caused by means-testing 51, 61, 69, 124, 133
- low take-up among risk groups 54, 60, 67, 94, 124, 125, 201, 205, 226, 236, 237, 249
- self-employment and 62, 85, 114, 118, 125, 152–3, 205–6
- privatization 7, 223–6, 243
active 7

- newcomers 224–5
- passive 7, 223–6, 235, 240
- veterans 225–6
- public expenditure 225 see country entries
- Quaisser, M. and Vittas, D. 132
- Raitano, M. 175, 180, 186, 187
- Rake, K. 18
- Rake, K. et al. 65
- Rawnsley, A. 66
- reform debates and prospect for
 - change in six countries 246–8 see country entries
 - awareness of poverty risks 246–8
 - employers' interests 243–4
 - prospect for more compulsion 245–6, 248–9
- Rein, M. 24
- Rein, M. and Schmähl, W. 5
- Rein, M. and Wadensjö, U. 7
- retirement ages 21
 - increase of 71, 128, 139, 156, 168
 - men and women 213–14, 187
- retrenchment
 - public 224–5
 - second pillar 225–6
- van Riel, B. et al. 4, 24, 81, 82, 83, 85
- Roma, R. 180
- Rossi, N. 180
- Rowlingson, K. 67, 237
- Sandler, R. 66, 67
- Sass, S. 24, 249
- Scheel, C. 160
- Schmähl, W. 139, 155, 163
- Schulze, I. and Jochem, S. 26
- Schwind, J. 142
- Seeleib-Kaiser, M. et al. 155
- self-employment 15, 19, 20, 51, 58, 62, 85, 114, 149, 160–61, 181, 196, 203, 204, 211, 236, 244
- Shalev, M. 5, 7
- Sinfield, A. 24
- social exclusion 227–8
 - measurement in relation to pension outcome 17
- social inclusion 242–3 see country entries
- Stanowski, J. and Tigges, U. 158, 160
- Storm, A. 158
- Stroinski, K. 25
- Swiss pension system 23, 27, 108–9, 121–2, 132–3, 225–6 see multi-pillar pension systems
- AVS/AHV see public pension
- caring 117, 120, 121
- corporatism 121
- low wages 107, 117, 119, 120, 122, 125, 129
- occupational pensions 24, 107, 111–13, 117–18, 119, 122–3
 - conversion rate 113, 115, 123, 126–7
 - coverage 108, 111, 122
 - decline 107, 113, 118, 123, 126–7
 - divorce 113
 - fund assets 28–9
 - low income employees 126, 127
 - obligatorium 111–12, 118
 - part-time work 111, 117, 119–20, 122, 125–6
 - redistribution 112
 - women 108, 111, 117, 122
- performance in relation to risk
 - biographies 107, 114–15, 120, 121
 - below old age social assistance 116–17, 119, 121, 127
 - couples 116, 117, 120–21, 238–40
 - divorce 119, 126, 240–42
 - first pillar 117, 122, 127
 - individuals 115–20, 230–32
 - informal work 117
 - second pillar 117, 119 see occupational pensions
 - third pillar 113–14, 123–5 see private savings
- public expenditure 28
- public pension 23, 108–11, 117, 122
 - divorce 110, 111
 - early retirement 118–19, 120
 - marriage status 111, 119
 - projected solvency of 128
 - splitting mechanism 117, 120
- reform debate 125–32, 247–8
 - affiliation to central public default fund 130–31

- atypical workers 125–6, 127, 129, 132
- centre-right government 128, 129, 130, 131
- first pillar 127–8
- insurance industry 126, 131
- the left 126, 129, 131
- more freedom of choice 129–30
- second pillar 128–31
- tax financed subsidies 132
- third pillar 131–2
- trade unions 126, 127, 128, 129, 131
- relationship to social assistance 110, 133
- replacement rate 108, 112, 114, 122
- second pillar see occupational pensions
- self-employed 114, 118, 125, 126, 129
- social inclusion 107, 110, 116–18, 122, 133
- supplementary benefits 110–11, 117
- third pillar 108, 113–14, 123–5, 131–2, 133 see private savings
- trust in 133
- unpredictability of for the individual see occupational pensions and variability of outcome
- vertical redistribution 110
- women 111
- Taylor-Gooby, P. 159
- Thane, P. 60
- Tijdens, K. and van Klaveren, M. 94
- Titmuss, R. 24
- Townsend, P. 16
- Trampusch, C. 139, 143, 162
- unemployment 15, 19, 20–22, 51, 56–7, 91, 96, 110, 150, 155
- Vontobel, W. 112
- de Vroom, B. and Bannink, D. 84, 97
- de Vroom, B. and Guillemard, A. 84
- Waine, B. 54
- Walker, A. 47
- Weaver, K. 110
- Whiteside, N. 24, 249
- women 48, 52, 53, 56, 57, 59–60, 69, 153, 173, 180–81, 184–5, 211–14
 - labour force participation 19–21, 185
- World Bank 3, 6, 132
- Zaidi, A. et al. 3, 5
- Żukowski, M. 193