

Contents

List of figures	vii
List of tables	viii
List of boxes	ix
List of contributors	x

Foreword Jon Sundbo	xiv
-------------------------------	-----

INTRODUCTION

1. Innovation with care: what it means Lars Fuglsang	3
--	---

PART 1: INVOLVEMENT

2. Innovation and involvement in services Jon Sundbo	25
3. Customer Relationship Management (CRM) as innovation: taking care of the right customers Jan Mattsson	48
4. Innovation with care in health care: translation as an alternative metaphor of innovation and change John Damm Scheuer	57

PART 2: IMPORTANCE

5. The public library between social engineering and innovation with care Lars Fuglsang	87
6. Getting waste to become taste: from the planning of innovation to innovation planning Gestur Hovgaard	112
7. Public innovation with care: a quantitative approach Lars Fuglsang, Jeppe Højland and John Storm Pedersen	131

8.	Meta-innovations on strategic arenas: innovative management in public organizations Jørn Kjolseth Møller	142
PART 3: POSITIONING
9.	The interaction between public science and industry, and the role of the Øresund Science Region's platform organization Povl A. Hansen and Göran Serin	169
10.	The role of a network organization and Internet-based technologies in clusters: the case of Medicon Valley Ada Scupola and Charles Steinfield	193
11.	The "Mad Max Puzzle": positioning and the lone inventor Jerome Davis and Lee N. Davis	212
PART 4: SENSEMAKING
12.	Sense caring in innovation Peter Hagedorn-Rasmussen	237
13.	Making innovation durable Connie Svabo	254
14.	Intrapreneurship: differences in innovations is a matter of perspective and understanding Hanne Westh Nicolajsen	275
15.	Mindful innovation Poul Bitsch Olsen	295
	Index	311