

Tables

2.1	European models and tradition indicators	34
2.2	Public and private social expenditure, 2001	39
2.3	Standardized unemployment rates	44
2.4	Income protection in eight European countries, 1973–95	46
2.5	Labor productivity in the business sector	47
3.1	An overview of PPP activity in the Nordic countries compared to three major European states in two selected welfare sectors	55
3.2	Public and private expenditure related to the implicit voucher form in two welfare service sectors and with focus on the administrative traditions of representative states	58
3.3	Outsourcing of public services	60
3.4	Business development in Norway	64
3.5	Public savings of outsourcing transformed to increasing outlays because of growing transaction costs over time, with stable service standard	69
3.6	Public and private institutions in long-term care for the elderly, late 1990s	78
5.1	Citizens per elected councilor and population per representative assembly of governments on national, regional and local levels in some European Continental, Scandinavian and Anglo-Saxon countries	98
5.2	The new administrative pattern of the Danish administrative reform concerning the number of municipalities, regions and elected authorities	101