

Tables

1.1	Consumption as a percentage of GDP	6
1.2	Mean value of outstanding debts by family income percentile	9
1.3	Ratio of the mean value of outstanding debts to mean family income, by percentile	10
1.4	Net change in home equity and consumer credit loans, 1991–2006	12
3.1	Monthly payment and debt ceiling for a median-income family	66
3.2	Average number of credit cards, average total credit limit by income level, selected years	75
4.1	The saving rate, unemployment, employment and personal income growth, 1993–2006	86
4.2	Median value of unrealized capital gains	88
4.3	Simulated effects of an increase in income equality: soft budget constraint model	97
4.4	Simulated effects of a decrease in income equality: hard budget constraint model	97
4.5	Pairwise Granger causality test	99
6.1	Estimates of total and discretionary repayments on installment loans, 1929–32	134
6.2	Debt-to-income ratios by quintile	138
6.3	Proportion of households with debt-to-income ratios exceeding 0.4 and 0.6, by quintile	139
6.4	Forecast assumptions of λ_t	141
6.5	Forecasted values of λ_t	142
7.1	Contributions of trading partners to the US current account deficit, 2007	154