Index

Note: Page number in italics represents tables and figures added worker effect, in case of economic crisis and civil war 40–42 adolescents

cognitive and social development in industrialized countries 67–8 effects of maternal employment on negative behaviors 68
adult literacy 11
American Academy of Pediatrics 60
Bangladesh
adult literacy rate 11
adverse effect of maternal employment 148 Centre for Policy Dialogue 25, 38
children’s nutritional status 111–13
child stunting, probability of 144 child wasting, probability of 80, 107, 122, 149–51, 156, 169 garment industry 3, 38
Grameen Bank 80, 169
Gross National Income (GNI) 9
population 11
poverty rate 11
risk of exposure to toxins in children 115
United Nation’s Human Poverty Index 3
work hours 39
Bangladesh Rural Advancement Committee (BRAC) 169 “baseline” model for estimation of women’s employment 96, 129 risk of childhood stunting in biomass fuels 62 birth size vs. birth weight 99–105 birth weight vs. birth size 99–105
definition of 99
body mass index (BMI) 50, 74–5
Bolsa-Familia program, Brazil 176
Brazil
Bolsa-Familia program 176
cash transfer programs, effects of 175 childcare in slum areas 172 effect of maternal education 78 women participation in labor market 18 women’s control over money 80 breastfeeding 2, 13, 46–7, 92, 115 continuation of 54
for extended period 166
gender gap in 86
health benefits for children 60 impact on child development 70–71 and nutrient deficiencies 51 public health initiatives for 60 special weaning foods 60–61 termination of 57, 152
time availability for 81–3 VIF values 131–2
World Health Organization (WHO) recommends for 60
Cambodia
birth size vs. birth weight 100
children’s small birth size 133–5
child stunting, probability of 129, 141–3, 146
child wasting, probability of 149–51, 163 effects of father’s education on socio-economic status 137 female labor 8, 127
kru khmer 61
maternal education and children’s nutritional status 98 maternal schooling 137
public health facilities 61, 91 social and economic prosperity 6 Maternal employment and child health social development 11

textile and garments industry 167 care behaviors, factors influencing 60–62

childcare support alternative provisions for 55–6, 83–4

gender discrimination and 58

non-parental 68–70

public initiatives for 170–72

child health
breastfeeding
benefits of 60
weaning foods 60–61
father’s education, influence of 48

gender discrimination and 58

household income, influence of 48

indicators of 72

in industrialized countries
childhood obesity 73–5

overall health status 72–3

nutritional status in developing countries long-term impacts 75–6

nutritional deprivation, measures of 75 proximate determinants of 13, 59 relationship between parental time inputs and 52–3

UNICEF model of nutrition and care 48

childhood obesity see obesity, in children childhood schooling 56

children’s cognitive and social development, in industrialized countries adolescents 67–8

breastfeeding impacts 70–71

maternal stress 71

non-parental childcare 68–70

young children 66–7

children’s nutritional status 111–13

anthropometric indicators of 105–10

gender differences in 85–6 impact of maternal employment on alternative provisions for childcare support 83–4 employment and time availability, type of 81–3

mediating conditions 84–6

mothers’ autonomy and control over resources 80–81 mothers’ education and knowledge 77–9 mothers’ physical and mental health 79–80

indicators of 14

by mother’s employment status 120

in urban and rural sectors 58

Children’s Recode, DHS 13, 92–5, 106

descriptive statistics by country 94

children’s small birth size 133–5

conditional cash and in-kind transfer programs 175–7 contamination

fetal 62

of household food 62

contraceptives, use of 62

dairy farming 28, 30

daycare centers 52, 56, 176

Demographic and Health Survey (DHS) 2

birth size vs. birth weight 100

Children’s Recode 13, 92–5, 106

Household Member Recode 95

low birth weight, prevalence of 104 sample composition and sizes by country 94 small size at birth, prevalence of 103 stunting, prevalence of 108 techniques and methodology for data collection and coding 159 wasting, prevalence of 109 diseases, caused by nutritional deficiencies 59

Duncan Index 24

definition of 21

Durbin–Hausman–Wu tests 99, 131 education and knowledge of mother, influence on child well-being 49, 77–9 stylized health production function 53 education-in-entertainment programming 137, 145 education programs, public support for 170

employment, of women

crisis and women’s added work 40–42
Index

gender segregation in 166
labor force participation 17–20 occupational and industrial segregation in 20–24 relative wages 24–6
self-employment 26–30
and time availability for taking care of children 52–5 types of 52–5, 81–3 unpaid work and 30–36
women’s work and globalization 36–40 employment status, categories of 95 “equal pay for equal work” policy 166 equal-pay legislation 166 Fair Labour Association (FLA) 38 family and community welfare 31 fathers’ education, impact on child health 56–7, 137 fecal contamination 62
fee-waiver schemes 174
female labor force, participation rates of 17–20 female/male wage ratios, for Asian countries 25
food contamination 62
Food-for-School program, Philippines 176 formal education, mitigating effect of 145 “FULL” model regressions 97, 128–9, 131–2 for children’s stunting 140–48 gender differences, impact of in childcare 58 in employment shares 20
Grameen Bank 80, 169
Gross National Income (GNI) 9
health care services 5–6, 61–2, 162, 173–4 health insurance coverage 72, 174 health of newborns 50, 61–2 healthy feeding practices 60–62 height-for-age index 80, 105, 107 HIV/AIDS treatment 174
household income and care resources 60
influence on child’s health 48
Household Member Recode, DHS 95 household wealth, effect of maternal employment on 127 housework, average number of hours spent per day in Vietnam 35 human capital development 46 hygienic household practices 62 immunization 11, 62, 75, 85, 175
India
agricultural growth 3
birth size vs. birth weight 100
children’s nutritional status 111–13
children’s small birth size 133–5, 140
child stunting, probability of 141–3, 145
child wasting, probability of 149–51 economic development and trade policies 3 food processing industry 37
formal education, mitigating effect of 145 import and export 5
maternal employment 146, 161
nationalization of banks 5, 28
poverty rate 11
risk of exposure to toxins in children 115
rural social banking program 5, 28 school-based nutrition programs 177 Self Employed Women’s Association (SEWA) 169 son preference 86, 91
stunting incidence 107
textiles and garment industry 37 trade and industrial policy reforms 3 trade liberalization policy 39
women’s control over money 115
women’s self-employment in rural sector 28 Indonesia
birth size vs. birth weight 100
children’s nutritional status 111–13
children’s small birth size 133–5
DHS surveys 93
Duncan Index 21
economic reforms 8
labor force participation 8 “scorched earth” campaign 9 unemployment and poverty rates 8 women’s labor force participation rates 41
infant mortality 58, 75 infrastructure and health, public sector investments in 173–5
International Institute for Popular Science (IIPS) 5
International Labor Organization’s core labor standards 167
International Monetary Fund 3
Khmer Rouge violence 6, 8 kru khmer (traditional healers) 61
labor force participation 17–20
and women’s share of the labor force 19
livestock farming 28
Macro International 5
Maldives
birth size vs. birth weight 100
children’s nutritional status 111–13
children’s small birth size 133–5
child wasting, probability of 149–51
Duncan Index 24
economic development 122
Gross National Income (GNI) 9
maternal education in 101, 121 maternal schooling, effects of 145
per capita income 11
population size 11
prevalence of stunting among children 121, 141–3, 153, 160, 162
public and private sector health care services 5
tourism and fishing industry 5 women’s literacy rates 12 maquiladoras 37
maternal employment, effects on children’s health 67
child nutrition in developing countries alternative provisions for childcare support 83–4
employment and time availability, type of 81–3
mediating conditions 84–6
mothers’ autonomy and control over resources 80–81
mothers’ education and
knowledge 77–9
mothers’ physical and mental health 79–80
in industrialized countries
childhood obesity 73–5
overall health status 72–3 probability of small at birth in nested models 139 stunting in nested model 147 proximate determinants
alternative provisions for childcare
support 55–6
child health 59
employment and time availability,
type of 52–5
fathers’ education 56–7 framework 47–8, 48
mediating conditions 57–9
mothers’ autonomy and control over
resources 51–2
mothers’ education and
knowledge 49–50, 54
mothers’ physical and mental health 50–51
maternal employment, effects on
children’s nutritional status bivariate results of analysis of 119–29 dependent variables for analysis of birth size vs. birth weight 99–105 stunting and wasting 105–10 independent variables for analysis of 110–17
method for analysis of methodology 95–9
sample construction, from demographic and health surveys 92–5
multivariate results of analysis
of 129–32
small at birth 132–40
stunted 140–48
wasted 148–55
maternal health
factors influencing 59
nutrient intake 59
during pregnancy and lactation 50–51 maternal participation in labor market, effects of 46
maternal schooling 78, 137, 145
maternal stress, impact on child development 71
  child wellbeing 51, 72
maternity and parental leave benefits, policies for 165–6
maternity benefits legislation 165
Measure DHS Project 92, 102, 105, 107
Mexico
  cash transfer programs 175, 177 demand for health and education services 177 PROGRESA program 175
microenterprises, assessment of 169–70
microfinance 168–70
“missing women” problem 58 mothers’ autonomy and status within household, impact of on child nutritional status 80–81 on child wellbeing 51–2 Nepal
  agrarian-based economy 5 agricultural self-employment 27
  birth size vs. birth weight 100
  children’s nutritional status 133–5
  Children’s Recode 93
  children’s small birth size 133–5, 156
  child stunting, probability of 141–3
  child wasting, probability of 149–51
  female labor force 27 foreign direct investment 6 formal education, effect of 145 gender gap in literacy 12
  Gross National Income (GNI) 9
  labor market effects 40 likelihood of small birth size in 14 Maoist insurgency 5–6
  maternal employment 140, 146
  poverty rate 11
  risk of exposure to toxins in children 115, 146 top five occupations for employed women in 27 trade liberalization in 40 newborns, health of 61–2
  non-parental childcare 67–70 nutritional deprivation 14, 52, 76, 79, 87, 152, 155–7, 162
  effects of 106
  measures of 75, 157
  and mortality of girl child 59 risk of 13, 164, 175
  nutritional literacy 50 nutritional status of children see children’s nutritional status obesity, in children 73–5 occupational and industrial segregation, in employment of women 20–24 occupational distributions, gender differences in 17 onsite nurseries 52
  on-the-job training opportunities, for women 37 oral rehydration therapy 61 Ordinary Least Squares regressions 129 out-of-home childcare services 170 Pakistan 2–3, 6, 110, 159, 161
  adult literacy 12
  birth size vs. birth weight 100
  children’s nutritional status 133–5
  children’s small birth size 133–5, 138
  DHS surveys 93
  household composition 114
  macroeconomy 6
  maternal employment 138
  parental education 114
  population size 11
  risk of exposure to toxins in children 115
  trade liberalization 40
  women’s labor force participation 18
  women’s unpaid work burdens 34 parental leave policies 165–6
Pearson chi-squared test statistic 97, 119 Philippines 2, 8, 127–8, 159, 161
  birth size vs. birth weight 100
  children’s nutritional status 133–5
  children’s small birth size 133–5, 137
  DHS surveys 93
  employment changes by worker status in 42 financial crisis 9
  Food-for-School program 176
  gender wage equality 26
  labor force participation rates 41 maternal education 78, 101, 114
People Power Revolution 8 per capita income 11
political and economic crises 8 poverty rates in 11
variance inflation factor (VIF) 93, 132
Women Workers Employment and Entrepreneurship Development
(WEED) program 168
physical and mental health of mother, influence on
child well-being 50–51
nutritional status and caregiving behavior 79–80
policy reforms, for improving societal well-being 164
conditional cash and in-kind transfer programs 175–7 maternity and parental leave benefits 165–6
public sector investments in infrastructure and health 173–5
public support of child care 170–72
self-employment and microfinance 168–70
women’s wages and working conditions 166–8
poverty reduction 3, 9, 28, 30, 169, 173, 176
preventive health care services 62 probit coefficients 98, 129, 160 probit models 98, 129, 131, 160
PROGRESA program, Mexico 175
public sector investments, in infrastructure and health 173–5
public support, of child care 170–72
rural banks 168–9
school-based nutrition program 176–7 self-employed women 26–30 in home-based enterprises 30 and microfinance 168–70
and most common occupations by loan status 29
opportunities for 12, 167
Self Employed Women’s Association
(SEWA), India 169
“SES & Environ” model 97, 129, 138, 160
“SES & HH” model 96–7, 129, 138, 160
“SES” model 96–7, 129, 138, 140, 146, 155, 160
socio-economic status indicators, by mother’s employment 123–6 South Asia 3–6
children’s nutritional status in 117
Duncan Index 21
gender inequality 12
intra-household food allocation 85
map of 4
maternal employment 155
poverty rates 11
rates of stunting among young children 107
selected development indicators
for 10
son preference in 85–6, 164 women’s decision-making power in
the household in 116
Southeast Asia 2, 6–9, 36, 85 birth size and birth weight 102
children’s nutritional status in 117
Duncan Index 21
gender inequality in 12
map of 7
poverty rates in 11
rates of stunting among young
children 107
selected development indicators
for 10
women’s decision-making power in
the household in 116
Stata’s cluster-analysis management tool 98
STATcompiler 102
stunting 14, 105–10
effect of maternal employment on
probability of 147
“FULL” model for 140–48
marginal probabilities and standard errors from FULL model 141–3 stylized health production function, for maternal care and child health 53
System of National Accounts (SNA) 31
Taiwan
employment opportunities for women 37
gender wage gaps 26
maternal education 78
maternity leave legislation 165
Thailand
childcare supervision 82
Duncan Index 21
gender wage equality 26
village-level microfinance groups in 169 Timor-Leste 9, 157, 161, 164, 178
birth size vs. birth weight 100 childhood stunting tests 129
children’s nutritional status 111–13
children’s small birth size 133–5, 138 children’s wasting, prevalence of 107, 122, 149–51
maternal employment 14, 140, 156
maternal schooling, effects of 145 per capita income ranks 11
population size 11
stunting, rates of 107, 141–3 unpaid workers 114

UNICEF model of nutrition and care 48
United Nations Children’s Fund (UNICEF) 99
United Nation’s Human Poverty Index 3 unpaid work 30–36, 114, 128, 170–71, 173 and affects on child wellbeing 55 and gender equality in employment 12, 43 hours spent per day on by country and gender 33
by region and gender 32
in less developed countries 17
US Agency for International Development (USAID) 92

variance inflation factor (VIF) 131–2 Vietnam 34, 36
average number of hours spent per day on housework in 35

Duncan Index 21
war 6

wages
female/male wage ratios, for Asian countries 25
gender differences in 17, 24 relative wages, of employed women 24–6 wasting 105–10
adverse effect of current maternal employment on 148 effect of maternal employment on 154 marginal probabilities and standard errors from FULL model 149–51
probability of 148–55
wealth index 127
weight-for-height index 105, 107 welfare-enhancing social policies 20, 24 welfare-to-work program 72 women’s education, impact on child health 77–9, 137 women’s decision-making power, in the household in South and Southeast Asia 116 women’s wages and working conditions, policy reforms for 166–8 women’s work and globalization 36–40
Women Workers Employment and Entrepreneurship Development (WEED) program, Philippines 168 workplace code of conduct violations, in clothing factories 38, 39 World Health Organization (WHO) 60, 99
Child Growth Standards 102, 106

young children, cognitive and social development in 66–7