

Tables

3.1	Breeding grounds for strategic behaviour	37
5.1	Differences between bilateral and Open Skies Agreements	61
5.2	United States	71
5.3	European Commission	72
5.4	Government of United Kingdom	72
5.5	British Airways and Virgin Atlantic	72
6.1	Changes in California's electricity industry structure as a result of restructuring	77
6.2	California PX day-ahead prices	81
6.3	Total costs of California's electricity market	82
6.4	Overview of Enron strategies described in various investigations	85
6.5	Enron	101
7.1	AT&T	118
7.2	Entrants	119
7.3	Judicial authorities	120
8.1	Germany	135
8.2	Italy	136
8.3	Austria	136
8.4	The Netherlands	136
9.1	Microsoft	152
9.2	European Commission	154
9.3	Competitors	154
10.1	Strategic use of control over so-called 'bottleneck facilities' and other crucial technical facilities and standards	161
10.2	Strategic utilization of intertwined relations with government agencies and other actors	163
10.3	Strategic use of rules: legal rules and contracts	165
10.4	Strategic use of the factor 'time'	167
10.5	Strategic use of financial resources	168
10.6	Utility character and rules	170
10.7	Rules and time	171
10.8	Bottleneck facilities and rules	172