

Contents

Acknowledgements	x
Table of cases	xi
Table of legislation	xxi
Other official documents	xxiii
1. Introduction	1
1. Introduction: aims and objectives	1
2. The role of the Commission in competition enforcement: a problem of fairness	2
3. Outline: the protection of human rights in EC law and competition proceedings: general issues	6
4. The development of fundamental rights standards in the Community context: perspectives from the ECJ	6
5. EC fundamental rights principles and the European Convention on Human Rights: the view from Strasbourg	10
6. Human rights and business entities: the reach of the European Convention on Human Rights in the corporate context	15
7. Competition enforcement and the reach of Article 6(1) of the ECHR: the nature of the antitrust and merger proceedings in EC law	23
2. The right to be heard in EC competition proceedings between ‘administrative due process’ and a right to a ‘fair trial’	31
Introduction	31
1. The right to be heard in EC competition proceedings: from the ‘general principles of law’ to the Implementing Regulations	31
2. The right to be heard in administrative proceedings having a ‘civil’ or ‘criminal’ nature under the ECHR: the application of Article 6(1)	51
3. ‘Administrative fairness’ and competition proceedings: the Commission’s enforcement action and Article 6(1)	55

3. Access to the evidence in competition proceedings as a ‘right of the defence’ between professional secrecy and ‘equality of arms’	62
Introduction	62
1. The function and the legal basis of the right of access to the file	63
2. The scope of the right of access to the file in antitrust and merger proceedings	65
3. Ensuring the effective exercise of right of access to the file: the role of the Hearing Officer	82
4. The disclosure of evidence gathered in the course of ‘administrative’ procedure under the ECHR: a principle of ‘equality of arms’ Strasbourg style?	86
5. The right of access to the Commission’s file in the light of the ECHR: tentative conclusions	90
4. Protection against forced disclosure of ‘sensitive evidence’: the legal professional privilege and the privilege against self-incrimination in EC competition investigations and procedure	92
Introduction	92
1. The confidential treatment of lawyer–client correspondence in EC law	93
2. The protection of lawyer–client confidentiality in the European Convention on Human Rights	115
3. Legal professional privilege in EC law and in the ECHR: towards a redefinition of A.M. & S. ?	119
4. The privilege against self-incrimination in EC competition proceedings	123
5. Privilege against self-incrimination in EC law and in the European Convention: in search of consistency?	142
6. Lawyer–client confidentiality and privilege against self-incrimination in EC law and in the ECHR: tentative conclusions	149
5. Judicial review of competition decisions: a guarantee of fairness in EC competition enforcement?	152
Introduction	152
1. Judicial review of competition decisions in EC law: access to the Luxembourg courts and scope for judicial scrutiny	154
2. Judicial control of non-judicial decisions having a ‘criminal’ and ‘civil’ character according to Article 6(1) ECHR: what are the requirements of a ‘full jurisdiction’?	178

3.	Judicial review of EC competition decisions and the Convention: differing standards?	184
4.	'Due process' in competition proceedings: from 'centralisation' to Modernisation	188
6.	The Modernisation of the enforcement of Articles 81 and 82 EC Treaty and the right to a 'fair procedure'	189
	Introduction	189
1.	The main characteristics of the new framework for the enforcement of Articles 81 and 82 of the EC Treaty: the European Competition Network	190
2.	Case allocation and Community 'due process' in competition proceedings	192
3.	The exchange of information within the ECN and the protection of fundamental rights. The case of legal professional privilege	199
4.	Decentralised application of Articles 81 and 82 EC Treaty in the face of national autonomy as regards procedures and sanctions and its consequences for the position of the investigated undertakings	206
5.	The Modernisation of enforcement of EC competition law: what future for the rights of defence?	219
6.	Conclusions. Regulation 1/2003 and NCAs: towards new (judicial) challenges?	223
7.	Conclusions: 'Article 6-proofing' EC competition proceedings?	224
	Introduction	224
1.	Human Rights and EU competition enforcement: towards a new EU 'due process' clause?	226
2.	Is a 'Competition Court' the response to the needs of the new 'EU due process clause'? The pros and cons of a 'jurisdiction on the merits' in antitrust enforcement	235
3.	Redesigning DG Competition: a separate investigative task force for antitrust cases?	238
	Conclusions: the future of Community 'due process' in competition cases	244
	Bibliography	246
	Index	261