Index

accident investigations 121 actors external 9–10
  innovative 26, 35
interactions between 25–6 pooling knowledge 37–8
reconfiguring 36–9
aerospace industry 120, 135
Air Traffic Control (ATC) 127, 130 American Association for the Advancement of Science 64
Anthony, R.N. 65
applied psychology 120
Aristotle 72
Arnold, Malcolm 73
Asia, innovation in 45, 46, 245
‘Asian Tigers’ 19, 245, 246, 247, 260, 261, 262
ASIC manufacturers 52, 53
Austria 35
Automatic Dependent Surveillance Broadcast 129
automation 51
  automation solutions 53 automobile industry 47–8, 50, 59 aviation industry 118 accidents and safety 121, 124–5, 134
data collection and interpretation 129–30
and high technology 119 innovations in 118–9, 123
models 132–4
regulation of 119, 122
see also EFB, HILAS, human factors
Beijing, China 249, 250
Bell, Daniel 268–9
Bernal, J.D. 64, 65
biotechnology 5, 108, 110, 147 ‘blocked societies’ 273
‘Bologna process’ of university reform
  (EU) 274
Boretsky, M.T. 68
Botswana, cellular mobiles in 249 British Association for the Advancement of Science 71
Bulgaria 233
Bureau of Census (US) 69
Bureau of Labor Statistics (US) 66 business system standards, development of 49
business models 168 ‘capabilities’ (term)
  absorptive capacity/capabilities 28, 34, 39, 47
  capability building 28
  configurational capabilities 29–30, 34–5
  creation of capabilities 260 defined 27–8
  dynamic capabilities 28
  reconfiguring 37
  transformational 28, 32–4, 39
Capital (Marx, Das Kapital) 95 capital investment 88, 99 capital productivity 180–82 catching-up countries 256, 261
Cattell, J.M. 65 CEDEFOP (European Centre for the Development of Vocational Training) 280
Central and Eastern Europe (CEE) 195 and EU accession 232–3 foreign direct investment in 206 and interdependence 237 transition from planned to market economies 197, 237
Chengdu (Sichuan) China 249
Index

China 16, 245, 246
dyads and triads 72–3
dynamic capability’ concept of 9, 16–17
economics of science 67 economics of innovation 95
economy
economic development 251–2
giant economies 246
knowledge economy 94–5, 262
learning economy 4, 281
LMT sectors and economic growth 140
mature 188
moral economy 71–5, 76
shift from manufacturing to services 5
see also China
ECTS (European Credit Transfer System) 274 education and jobs 272–8
EFB (electronic flight bag) 125, 127, 128–30, 132, 135
see also aviation industry, human factors
efficiency 142–4
Emilia Romagna region, Italy 13, 273
research project 150–55
employment and innovation 88–9
Erasmus Programme 274
ergonomics 120–21
‘escalator cities’ 273
Ethernet 52
EU Industrial R&D Investment Scoreboard 44–5 Europe 108
aviation in 132–4
balance of payments deficit 67 distribution of LMT firms in 233, 236
Eastern 6, 233
East-West relation 236
European economic landscape 15
industries in 43
industries innovation practices 226–7 markets fields in 44
Middle 6
policy makers in 267
R&D and innovation 45–6
relocation of companies within 237 complexity of innovation and economic systems in 249, 250–51, 252
disequilibrium phenomenon 250–51
effects of physical size 252
ICT in 246, 247
increase in high-tech trade 246–7, 251
R&D 248–52, 261–2
S&T 246, 248
scientific publishing 247–8
velocity phenomenon 250–51
Chongqing, China 249
classification 72–3
Cleaning in Place (technique) 34
clusters of firms 15
diffusion and innovation 87–8
and technology 102, 222
‘Community Innovation Survey’ (CIS, EU) 99
cost efficiency 169
Crew Resource Management (CRM) 127, 131
culture 73
significance of 121
Czech Republic 233
de-industrialization, debate on 5
Denmark 44, 233, 278
Department of Commerce (US) 68, 69
Department of Labor (US) 69
design rules’ 143
developing countries 5
department of innovation 87–8
and technology 102, 222
decomposition of complexity 253–60
dealing with complexity 144–6 linear model of complexity 260
models 253–5
nature of complexity 258–60
understanding complexity 256–60
CoPS (complex products and systems) 165
‘corporate culture’ 270–71
cost efficiency 169
culture 73
significance of 121
de-Industrialization, debate on 5
department of commerce (US) 68, 69
department of labor (US) 69
design rules’ 143
developing countries 5
diffusion and innovation 87–8
and technology 102, 222
complexity of innovation and economic systems in 249, 250–51, 252
disequilibrium phenomenon 250–51
effects of physical size 252
ICT in 246, 247
increase in high-tech trade 246–7, 251
R&D 248–52, 261–2
S&T 246, 248
scientific publishing 247–8
velocity phenomenon 250–51
Chongqing, China 249
classification 72–3
Cleaning in Place (technique) 34
clusters of firms 15
‘Community Innovation Survey’ (CIS, EU) 99
competences
core 28, 29
high quality zero defect competence 28 technological 107
de-composition of complexity 253–60
dealing with complexity 144–6
linear model of complexity 260
models 253–5
nature of complexity 258–60
understanding complexity 256–60
CoPS (complex products and systems) 165
‘corporate culture’ 270–71
cost efficiency 169
Crew Resource Management (CRM) 127, 131
culture 73
significance of 121
Czech Republic 233
de-Industrialization, debate on 5
denmark 44, 233, 278
department of commerce (US) 68, 69
department of labor (US) 69
design rules’ 143
developing countries 5
diffusion and innovation 87–8
and technology 102, 222
dyads and triads 72–3
dynamic capability’ concept of 9, 16–17
economics of science 67
economics of innovation 95
economy
economic development 251–2
giant economies 246
knowledge economy 94–5, 262
learning economy 4, 281
LMT sectors and economic growth 140
mature 188
moral economy 71–5, 76
shift from manufacturing to services 5
see also China
ECTS (European Credit Transfer System) 274
education and jobs 272–8
EFB (electronic flight bag) 125, 127, 128–30, 132, 135
see also aviation industry, human factors
efficiency 142–4
Emilia Romagna region, Italy 13, 273
research project 150–55
employment and innovation 88–9
Erasmus Programme 274
ergonomics 120–21
‘escalator cities’ 273
Ethernet 52
EU Industrial R&D Investment Scoreboard 44–5 Europe 108
aviation in 132–4
balance of payments deficit 67
distribution of LMT firms in 233, 236
Eastern 6, 233
East-West relation 236
European economic landscape 15
industries in 43
industries innovation practices 226–7 markets fields in 44
Middle 6
policy makers in 267
R&D and innovation 45–6
relocation of companies within 237
Index 287

social policy 280
traditional industrial strengths 50–51 Western 6, 12, 68, 233
see also European Union ‘European Employment Strategy’ 274
European Foundation 278
European Manufacturing Survey (EMS) 177
European Research Council 275
European Union 3, 4, 7, 16, 40, 69, 99, 197, 260
Accession Countries 199
Bologna process 274
collaboration rates 205 and education 278–80
enlargement of 225–6, 229, 232–6, 280
EU15 199, 200, 201, 203, 206
EU25 199, 204
European Commission 237
‘Fourth Community Innovation Survey’ (CIS 4) 223, 226 high tech industries 199 Industrial R&D Scoreboard 44–5 innovation policies 40
as knowledge-based economy 5 as knowledge society 3
liberalisation of 199
Lisbon and Barcelona documents 253, 259, 274
‘new’ states 18, 210
‘old’ EU states 198, 207, 208, 212, 213, 233
Poland and 198
protectionism 3
and research budget 274–5
and R&D 5

Federal Aviation Authority, US 132
Federal Ministry of Research and Technology, Germany 52 Federation Aviation Authority Notices to Airmen (Notam) 129
Finland 33, 44, 278
FIP 51 firms absorbing new technologies 44 becoming service providers 161 165–6
boundaries of firms 141, 142, 144 capital and labour productivity 180–82 challenge of becoming a service provider 166–7 and competitors 165
complex knowledge bases 259 and complex problem handling 145–6, 147 differences between 26 distributed knowledge bases 100–102 external environment of 97, 98–9, 111 firm specific knowledge 27, 99–100 firms and complexity 141, 148
foreign-owned companies (FOCs) 208, 209, 201–12 heterogeneity of firms 26, 27, 151, 175 high tech 12
homogeneity 26
innovation activities 32–3, 184–5, 226–7
and innovation 94, 103
integrators and non-integrators 152–5 integrators 151–3
and knowledge 144–5
knowledge base 100, 257 ‘knowledge businesses’ 133–4 and knowledge creation 98–9
knowledge sharing 133
low tech 12
low-, medium- and high-tech firms 178 relative performance of low-, medium- and high-tech firms 178, 191, 199 nature of 26–7
problems of incumbent firms 31
and problem solving 146–7
and provision of complete solutions to customers 190
and R&D 94, 98, 208
relationship between low-, medium- and high-technology firms and sectors 188–9 relations between 12 relevance of services to competitiveness 182–8 research-intensive 12
resource based theory of the firm 260 scale intensive firms 224
and services 160
service innovators 184–5 services as share of turnover 185–8, 189 shifting from goods-focused production to service-orientated 166, 176–7 size and participation in services 182–4 size and productivity 180 supplier-dominated firms 221–2, 224 and systems integration 44–6 technology and firm size 179 and transformational capabilities 32–4 see also globalization, IEC, industries, mechatronics, problem handling and solving, R&D, service sector, SMEs Flight Data Monitoring (FDM) 126, 130, 131
Flight Operation Quality Assurance (FOQA) 127, 130
Fliigstein, Neil 49
Florida, Richard 268, 270–71 food-processing and distributed knowledge 108–11 and packaging 111–12
foreign direct investment (FDI) 204, 206
foreign-owned companies (FOCs) 208, 209, 210, 212
and R&D 210–12
see also firms
France 51, 222, 247, 273, 279, 280
Frascato manual 69, 75–6
Fraunhofer Institute for Systems and Innovation Research (ISI) 177 Freeman, C., R. Poignant and I. Svennilson, OECD study 67, 68 generative frameworks 96
German Automobile Manufacturers’ Initiative (AIDA) 53
German Manufacturing Survey 2006 18, 177
Germany 5, 16, 43, 87, 88, 222, 247, 273, 279, 280 industry 262
and innovation 49–50
regulation of labour market 223 and standardization 49–50 Giddens, Anthony 273 going global’ 13–16
globalization 13, 255, 268, 269 goods 161
combining goods and services 163–5
Great Depression 66
Gross Expenditure on R&D (GERD) 204, 248, 249 high- and medium-high-tech industries (HMHT) 222, 225, 227, 228, 229, 239 and EU enlargement 232, 233, 236 interdependencies between 236 high-technology definition of 65, 66–9, 97 ‘high tech myopia’ 221
and knowledge creation 98–8
over-emphasis on high-tech 197–8 research intensive industries 67 see also knowledge, R&D high tech (HT) sector of industry 98, 118, 119, 199, 210, 217, 222, 249 focus on 4
ratio of high tech to economic development 6–7 relationship with LMT firms 12–13, 15–16, 118, 221, 236, 241 high throughput experimentation (HTE) 48 higher education and jobs mismatch 272–3 HILAS (Human Integration into the Lifecycle of Aviation) project 120–34, 135 aims 123
Flight Operations 122, 128 innovation 128–32
as knowledge-innovation project 132 and reporting 129
as a R&D consortium 123 tools 125–7, 130–31, 132–3, 135 see also human factors Hoffmeyer, E. 67
human error and accidents 121
human factors (HF) concept 120
HF improvements 122–4
HF knowledge 135
HF tools 125–7, 130–31, 132–3, 135 human-factors studies 121
see also HILAS
human resource management (HRM) 278–9 IMF 245
incumbent countries 260–61 India 245, 270
industrial complementarities 221 concept of 222–3
between firms 221
between industries 223–4 between sectors 223–6 industrial development 255 institutional 223
Industrial Development Agency (ARP), Poland 238 industries ‘servicizing’ manufacturing industries 176–7, 188 high tech (HT) industries 44, 199, 210, 212, 213, 214, 215, 216, 217, 218 high, medium and low tech defined 5, 175, 176, 178–82 interdependencies between different sectors 224–5 intra-sectoral heterogeneity 175 involvement in innovation of different categories 212–16 low tech (LT) 199–200, 210, 213, 214, 215, 216, 217, 218 mature industries 6
medium high tech (MHT) 16, 199, 200, 210, 212, 213, 214, 215, 217, 218 medium low tech (MLT) 199, 212, 213, 214, 215, 216, 217, 218 medium-tech industries (MT) 43 relationship with economic growth 6–7 shift between categories 210 technological basis 43, 44 technologically intensive 68 traded and untraded interdependencies 225, 226–32
see also firms, knowledge intensive industries, LMT
Information and Communications Technology (ICT) 5, 248–52, 258
ICT complex 102
ICT development 258
information economy 75
information networks 104–5, 131 innovation enabling capabilities (IEC) 17, 26–39, 40, 51, 52, 54 innovations basis of innovative organization 26 comparison of forms 56 contexts of innovation 77 diffusion and innovation 87–8, 93
dynamics of open innovation 45 high performance in innovation 32 high-tech innovation 245 innovation analysis 100 innovation and employment 88–9 innovation in usage 120 innovation quality 87
innovation resources in new EU states 198 innovation studies 77, 93, 278 innovation systems 104 innovation without R&D 76, 221 innovative activity by sector 230–31, 232 input to innovation 85 linear model of innovation studies 25 and LMT industries 93
and ‘newness’ 172
non-incremental 245
non-technological innovative activities 99 open, semi-open and closed forms 54–8 practical problems for innovators 30–31 proximity and innovation 133 science-based innovation 40 spending on innovation 45 stages of innovation 86 technical-scientific basis of 14 types of innovative activities 227 Intel 48
intellectual property rights (IPR) 54, 56, 123, 124 inter-agent and inter-industry flows 102–3 disembodied flows 102 embodied flows 102–3
International Ergonomics Association (IEA) Council 120–21 international trade fairs 49
Ireland 233, 248, 272, 275, 279
ISA/ANSI (standards) 51
Italy 43, 222, 233, 248, 273

Japan 5, 60, 69, 108, 140, 243

knowledge ability to utilize knowledge 9 acquisition and use of knowledge 7–8 analytical-synthetic knowledge 256–8 application of generally applicable knowledge 29 barriers to knowledge transmission 104 configuring and reconfiguring distributed knowledge 34–9 defining and failure to define term 96–7 differentiation of 102 diffusion of knowledge 258 distinction between types of knowledge 257–8 distributed knowledge 34, 35–6, 38, 100, 101–2, 103, 112 distributed knowledge base 8, 38, 100–101 empirical evidence of content 106 external knowledge sources 8, 102, 227, 228, 229, 238 firm specific 27
generation of knowledge 38, 93 globally available knowledge 28, 29 global transfer of knowledge 258–60 innovative knowledge 7–8 integration of dispersed knowledge 29–30 knowledge intensity 5 internal knowledge sources 227, 229 knowledge as productive force 4
knowledge base 104, 113
complexity of 256–62 knowledge R&D activities 261
knowledge sharing 123–4
local knowledge 29
management and organization of knowledge 8–10 mapping distributed knowledge 103–6, 113 nature of knowledge 95–7, 267 outsourcing of knowledge acquisition 103
pooling knowledge 37
‘practical knowledge’ 7, 8 protected knowledge 98–9 relationship between knowledge and occupation 268 repositories of knowledge 36–9 as a resource 4
scientifically generated knowledge 7, 8 specialization in knowledge production 103 synthetic knowledge 256–8
and technology 144
technological knowledge 145 transition between global and local knowledge 29 types of knowledge 7, 28–9 sources of knowledge 94, 104 and trust 133
use of knowledge 282
vocational knowledge 279–80 workplace knowledge 278–9 ‘knowledge society’ 3, 4, 94, 280 knowledge-based society (KBS)/knowledge-based economy 5, 19, 75, 94–5, 267, 281–2 term defined 95–6, 267 ‘catch up’ 19
centrality of knowledge to 274 knowledge and innovation 221, US 278 social structure of KBS 268–73 and use of knowledge 278 Knowledge Based Economy (OECD document) 98 knowledge-intensive business services (KIBS) 171 knowledge-intensive industry 94, 97–8 knowledge workers 269, 270, 272 see also symbolic analysts Korea, South 245, 248

labour force 88
market 10, 11, 279
productivity 180–82
Latvia 233
Lean Flight Initiative 120
‘Learning Economy’ 4, 281
Levi, L. 64–5
life-cycle concept 167–8 linear model of innovation 25
Lisbon Strategy and Process 5, 253, 280
Lithuania 233
low- and medium-technology (LMT) industries 3, 4, 99, 111 in California 6
capabilities 32
and complementarities 224–5, 229–30
configurational capabilities 34–9 contribution to industrial innovation 16 distributed knowledge and 11, 35–6, 101–2 and economic growth 7
and educational qualifications 9, 10 employees of LMT firms 9 enlargement and dynamics 232–6 expansion of links 13
and EU enlargement 232–6
European LMT 46, 233
firms and vocational education 10–11 and HT firms 12–13, 15–16, 118, 221, 236, 241 and human factors 121 improvements in innovation 198 and industrial regions 221 industries and innovation 7–10, 11, 12, 25, 31, 135, 221 industries and standard setting 47–50 influence on high-tech innovation 12–13, 110 knowledge base of LMT firms 7, 9, 11–12, 14
LMT countries 6
LMT enterprises and knowledge management 8–10
LMT firms and their environment 112
LMT innovation 122–4, 134
LMT sectors 95, 102, 118, 140 low level of R&D 7, 95
as market for high-tech products 12, 15–16, 224–5 mature industries 6
mode of innovation 7–10
as part of advanced industrial regions 221 perceived impact 197
place in economic and industrial context 11–12
in Poland 198
productivity 180–81
and policy-regulatory context 11 proximity to markets and customers 14 and regional ties 13–14 relations with developers and manufacturers of production technologies 12 role in economy 101, 176 role of in economic growth 140 role of information sources 228, 229 role of standard setting in 47–53 role of 198
shift of LMT industries in Europe 226, 241 significant relationships 241 societal and institutional conditions 10–14 as supplier-dominated 221–2, 229 working in network 11–12, 104 case studies 108–12
see also PILOT, Poland, service sectors and industries ‘low-skill equilibrium’ 272–3 low-tech (LT) industries 76, 199–200, 210, 212 and human factor improvements 122–4 low technology and growth 88
low-tech innovation patterns, debate on 221 relevance of low technology 87–8 and traded and untraded interdependences 225

see also Poland

Luxembourg 233

Maclaurin, R.W. 70–71

macroeconomic discussions 88

Main Science and Technology Indicators (MSTI) 70, 74 maintenance and after-care services 168

Malaysia 245

managers and career paths 271

Managers/management 10, 93 manufacturers transforming into service providers 161 transition from LMT to high-tech industries 6 mapping knowledge sources 103–6 markets

complexity of markets 259

incumbents and challengers 44

market failures 143

markets as fields 44

players in 44

stable markets 49

Marx, Karl 95

Matthew effect 34

‘mechatronics’ 140, 149–55

and technology fusion 141 metrics 66

Microsoft 48

MIT 70

models of economic growth 253–6 modes of organizing production 142

modularities 103, 148

modularity, product and organizational 143–4

molecular modeling 48

MROs (maintenance and repair organizations) 119

nanotechnology 5, 111–12, 248, 256

National Association of Manufacturers (US) 66

National Research Council (NRC, US) 66

National Science Foundation (NSF, US) 66, 67, 69

‘National Strategy for Regional Development’ (Poland) 237

networks research 110, 112

network-centric perspective 131

New Zealand 111

newly industrialized countries 16

Nicomachean Ethics (Aristotle) 72

non-research-intensive sector 9, 11, 69

innovations in 25, 43

Norway 109, 110, 117

OECD 66, 67–8, 69, 85, 245

analysis of technological development 69–70 concept of technology gap 68 campaign for science policies 67 classification of firms and R&D levels 97–8 classification of industries 3–4 definition of technology levels 69–70

Frascati manual 69, 75–6

knowledge economy 95, 97

OECD classification of industrial sectors 5–6, 175, 178

OECD Council of Ministers 69

OECD countries 6, 68, 74, 87, 250, 260

OECD economies 6

OECD science policies 67

Oslo manual 87, 203, 205, 213

and R&D 74

storytelling functions of 75

and the term ‘high technology’ 69, 97–8

OECD NESTI Group 74

OMROM 52

Open-Source General Public License 56

‘Operational Process Model’ 134

Oracle 48

organizations, layered 54

organizational proximity 133

outsourcing 169–70, 222

strategic aspects of 170 packaging and innovation 111–12

‘paradox of territories’ 13 patents 246, 259

patent rights 54

patenting 95

Paul, St 73
performance improvements, transfusion between firms and industries 102 persistent errors, potential fruitfulness of 25
Personal Digital Assistants (PDAs) 126
PILOT (Policy and Innovation in Low-tech Industries) 17, 26, 31, 35, 118, 281
PISA reading literacy scale 277
Poland 18–19, 197
and low-quality trap 203 changes in sectoral productivity 201–2 comparison to EU15 states 199, 201, 203, 206, 240 competitive performance of manufacturing 199–203 decentralization in 237 determinants of change 198 development programmes 238 economic growth 199
exports to EU 203, 208, 239 firm size and proportion of innovative spending 208 firm size and spending on R&D 208 increased innovation 217 innovation in 202
investment in 204
labour force in 202, 204 level of technology and collaboration 215 licensing of technology 205–6 LMT in 198, 239
regional policies 237–40 reorganisation of firms 202–3 skills barrier 210
technological development 204 unit labour costs and relative unit labour costs 200 variations in innovation activity 212–16 variations in sectoral innovation 207–12 Policy and Innovation in Low-tech Industries see PILOT policy makers 93
Portugal 233
prisoners’ dilemma 119–20, 133 problem handling and solving 145–7, 257 product development 143–4, 180 and organisations 144 product services 164
production technologies 10 product decomposability 147–9 product interdependences 148–9
productivity 180–82
and firm size 180
types of 180
PROFIBUS 50, 51, 52–3, 54, 59
PROFIBUS & PROFINET
International (PI) 58
PROFIBUS International (PI) 52, 55
PROFIBUS User Organization (PNO) 51, 52, 53, 57–8
Advisory Board 57
PNO Business Office 54
PNO IPR Policy (2006) 54
PNO Board of Directors 56, 57
WG 56–7
PROFINET 52, 54, 59
use in real time 53, 54 proximity – global, cultural and spatial 13–14 public innovation support programmes 11 public research and technology policies 221 ‘qualifications, hybrid’ 10–11 qualification deficits 10–11 qualifications and firms 10–11 vocational training 11
RAND-terms 54
‘rationalization’ 88
regional ties, erosion of 13–14
Reich, Robert 268, 269, 270–71, 272
R&D (research and development) 3, 4, 11, 13, 74, 95, 96, 118, 142, 144, 203, 246 advanced 49
analysis of level of R&D intensity 177 Chinese R&D 248–52
comparison of regions 44–7 components of 76
definitions 32
effects of outsourcing R&D 145 European R&D 45–6
examples 32–4, 37–8
as form of knowledge creation 39–40 government R&D 50, 64
growth in 49
indirect relationship with knowledge interaction with innovation 85, 86–7, 118, 119 internal R&D 106–8
intramural R&D 100, 102, 205, 227 investment patterns 45
networks research 110, 112
non-diffusion of R&D 217 OECD definitions 97
organization of R&D activities 147, 155 and other scientific activities 72
in Poland 204–6
and problem decomposability 146–7
and problem solving 147
R&D capacity 26
R&D departments in firms 27
R&D facilities 30
R&D and innovation, interaction between 85–7
R&D intensity 87, 177, 179, 180, 189
and competiveness 180
and size of firms 190
R&D intensive products 85
R&D spending 45, 75
R&D strategies 43
relationship between R&D intensity
and services 186–7
research into 65–6
and research intensity 67, 251 and return on investment ratios 65, 66 and Schumpeter 89
and statistics 74, 75
traditional forms 59
and universities 274
verticalization and de-verticalization 145
see also HILAS, mechatronics, technology
research budget and national income 64–5
in aviation industry 119, 123 ‘effectiveness’ of research 65 and linear model 254 industrial R&D 49
research intensity 67–8, 89
R&D capacity and innovation 26 research, pure, significance of 275 evaluation of effectiveness 65–6 research-education-development 65 ‘return on investment’ (ROI) ratios 65 risk model 130
risk sharing 120
Romania 233
Rosa, E.B. 74
S&T 245, 246, 261
safety management 121, 124–5, 134 Schumpeter, Joseph 70, 171, 172 concepts 85, 87
and R&D-intensive products 89
Schumpeterian competition 202
Science and Technology Indicators
(OECD publication) 69
Science and Technology Studies (STS) 27, 28–9, 30
science and technology 75, 76
Science Research Board (US) 64 science and trust 71
scientific truth 71
service sectors and industries 160, 269
and R&D 87
combining goods and services 163–5
cultural provision of service provision 166
distinction from goods 161 inclusion of services in costs 190–91 industrial services 163–4 innovation and services 162, 165, 171 interrelationship with R&D 187 life cycle service provision 167, 168
models 161–2
nature and components of 161–3, 164 pricing of services 188, 190 product related services 176, 182–8 purchase of services 169–71 relevance of services 176 ‘service concept’ 162 service providers 12
service provision by low-, medium- and high-tech firms compared 178 services in manufacturing industries 176–7 see also firms, R&D
Shanghai, China 249
Silicon Valley, significance of 271
SIMATIC solutions 57
Singapore 245, 248
skills requirements 168
SMEs (small- and medium-sized enterprises) 76, 99, 112–13
and services 186, 190
and technology level 179, 190 society 77
‘post-industrial society’ 268 sociology, industrial and organizational 27 solution providers 53, 165
Soviet Union 64
Spain 273
Springer, Jerry 278
standard, defining the global 52 European Standards 50–53 standardization processes 51 standard-setting institutions 49 role of standard-setting 47–53 standard-setting dynamics and innovation process 51–2 standard setting partnership 57 statistics 74, 75
statistical agenda 77
STEP (Science Technology Economic Policy) group, Norway 109–10 substitution effects 88–9 suppliers and knowledge provision 8 supply chains 15
Sweden 44, 262, 278
Switzerland 43
‘symbolic analysts’ 269–71, 272 systems integration theory 145 coupling of systems 148–9 system standards 47–50
Taiwan 245
Tayloristic forms of work organization 9, 270 technical and engineering societies and standards 49

technology
adapting new technology 46, 48 advanced knowledge-based technologies 102–3 attendant /partial effects of technical progress 86 concept of high, medium and low technology 70–71 defining high technology 72–3 domestic technological expertise 36 embodied and disembodied technology 203, 205 and employment 88–9, 234 high and low technology, interaction between 72, 88 high/low technology dichotomy 72–3 ‘high technology’ 69–71, 73, 74, 85, 87, 89 integration of different technologies 141 integration of technologies 141 intensity 68–9
knowledge based technologies 103 labelling of technologies 72–3
low technology and growth 88
low technology 87
mixing technologies 103
moral economy of high technology 71–5, 76, 88 nature of technical change 149 novel technology 87
patterns of technological change 221–2 quantifying high technology 74
and R&D 75
technological competition and diffusion of technology 102, 222, 224 technology gap 68
technological process 86 technological progress and innovation 25–6, 70 technology fusion 141 technology standards 48 technology and trust 71, 119 terminology and classification 72–3 types of technologies 69, 70–71 technological complementarities 141
patterns of technological change 221
Technological Gap Study Program (US) 68 technological intensity 68–70
Thailand 245
Threat and Error Management (TEM) reports 127, 131 trade, global, increase in 246 in high tech products 246 transaction-cost theory 142–3, 144
Truman, President Harry 64 trust 71
and knowledge sharing 119, 123
TU Munich, Institute for Information Technology (ITM) 58
UK 247, 272, 273, 279
call centres in 270
LMT industries 233
and R&D 67
research budget 64, 275
UN 245
‘unit export value’ (UEV) and ‘relative unit export value’ (RUEV) 201, 203 unit labour costs (ULC) 200, 201 relative unit labour costs (RULC) 200, 201, 207 universities, research and access 274–7
US Bureau of Standards 65
US Century Fund 277
balance of payments deficit 67
development of rhetoric of high technology 66 education in 267, 274, 276–7 educational deficiencies 277 government policy 269 growing inequality in 276–7 influence of US universities 275–6 market fields in 44
as most ‘knowledgeable’ society 277–8 protectionism 3
and R&D 67, 68, 274
research budget 64
research in 268
and standard setting 51 and technology gap 68–9 see also knowledge based society value chains 15, 38
Vietnam 245, 246
vocational education and training 278–80
WBRD 245
World Bank 280
WTO 245
Xian, (Shaanxi) China 249–50