

Acknowledgments

This book is dedicated to the memory of Professor Malcolm Smith, friend, guide and mentor to myself and many others at the University of Melbourne.

I would also like to acknowledge the tremendous help and support of Professor Tim Lindsey, whose guidance and assistance made many things possible. Thanks also to my husband Ian for his love and support, for believing in me, and for picking up the pieces when necessary. Thanks to Kathryn Taylor for her patient and generous assistance in the final presentation of layout, and thanks also to Joseph Nunez for help in producing the graphs provided in Appendix 2.
