

---

Index

---

- abandonment 125–9
  - adverse possession, and 142–3
  - costs of abandonment 127–8
    - confusion as to state of ownership 127, 137
  - deterioration of asset value during abandonment 127
  - disposal costs and race costs 127–8, 136–7, 138–9
  - demonstrating abandonment 135
  - destruction of property compared with 135–7
  - informational intervention in law of abandonment 137–8
    - negative externalities, controlling 138
  - law of abandonment 128–9
    - permissive regimes 128, 137, 138
    - prohibition regimes 128, 137
    - real property 128–9, 142–3
  - transaction costs 136–7
  - why people abandon property 126–7
- Adler, Barry 4
- Administrative Procedure Act (1946) (United States) 83
- adverse possession 142–3
- airspace 79
- Alexander, Gregory 315, 354
- alienation and alienability
  - asset identification and alienability 201
  - clogs on alienability 300
  - inalienability 78–9, 85
    - meshing of property rights 159
  - restraints on alienation
    - numerus clausus* and 151
    - servitudes, and 298
- Almeida, Ana L.O. 25
- Alston, Lee 1, 26, 28
- American Law Institute 296
- Andorra 241
- anticommons see under commons, anticommons and semicommons
- Aristotle 57
- Arrow, Kenneth J. 106, 112
- Arruñada, Benito 5, 248
- assembly of rights 42–3, 67, 93–4, 97–9
  - transaction costs 94, 95, 98
  - see also* commons, anticommons and semicommons
- asset partitioning 117–18
- auctions 361–2, 364
  - ‘SP’ auction mechanism 361
  - Vickrey-Clarke Groves auction 361, 364
- Australia
  - frontier settlement see under property rights, land settlement and conflict on frontiers
  - hybrid regime managing fish resource 65
  - registration of rights 166, 240
  - RS system of land demarcation 260, 268–9
- Ayotte, Kenneth 4, 177–8, 181, 201, 214
- Ayres, Ian 303
- Baigent, Elizabeth 283
- Baines v. Baker* (1752) 335
- Baird, Douglas 209, 247
- bankruptcy as property law 4–5, 206–17
  - bankruptcy governing mutually insupportable obligations 206
  - insolvency as part of broader doctrine 213–16
    - contract law doctrine of substantial performance/material breach 215–16
    - ownership/transfer of land and public filings 213–14
    - property law, meaning of 214–15
    - restitution doctrine and constructive trusts 214
- process versus property 206–13
  - absolute priority and reorganization 209
  - Butner* principle 207–12
  - Butner* principle, application of 208
  - Butner* rationale 210–12
  - continuation bias 209, 211
  - forum-shopping, avoidance of 210–11, 216–17
  - non-consensual claims 212–13, 216–17
  - proceduralist arguments 209–11, 213
  - substantive entitlement left to state law 207–8, 209, 212, 216
  - United States Bankruptcy Code’s process-centric approach 206–7
  - use of capital structure to externalise risk 212–13
- Bankruptcy Code, United States 206–7
- Barzel, Yoram 258
- Bentham, Jeremy 375, 379

- Berle, Adolf 190
- Bernstein, David 311
- BFP v. Resolution Trust Corp.* (1979) 208
- bilateral monopolies 92, 93, 95
- eminent domain, and see under eminent domain and takings law
- see also* monopolies
- Bill of Rights (1789) (United States) 84
- Blackstone, William 62, 84, 296, 374
- Blume, Lawrence 376
- Bolton, Patrick 4, 177–8, 181, 214
- Boomer v. Atlantic Cement Co.* (1970) 339
- Borenstein, Severin 228
- Bourke, Richard 16
- Brandeis, Justice Louis D. 75
- Brazil
- abandonment and rain forest management 129
- frontier settlement see under property rights, land settlement and conflict on frontiers
- land demarcation 269, 290
- Breyer, Stephen 96
- Brinig, Margaret F. 233–4
- Brooks, Richard 311
- Buchanan, James 41, 66
- bundle of rights/‘bundle of sticks’ view of property see under property
- Burk, Dan 68
- Burnham, Daniel 132
- Butner v. United States* (1979) 207–11
- Calebresi, Guido 78, 351, 373, 376
- Canada, RS system of land demarcation in 260, 267–8
- Carter, John 262
- Centre of European Law and Politics (University of Bremen) 249
- changed circumstances, doctrine of 303, 304–5
- common interest communities, and racial covenants, and 310, 311
- see also* servitudes
- Che, Yeon-Koo 216
- Civil Rights Act (1964) (United States) 83, 84
- Coase, Ronald 5, 10, 87, 89, 93, 111, 192, 326, 373
- Coase Theorem 227, 230–31
- Cohen, Lloyd R. 357
- Cohen, Morris 75
- Commentaries* (Blackstone) 296
- common interest communities 296, 297, 311–16
- declaration of servitudes 312
- governance mechanisms 313–15
- objections to 312
- positive obligations 305
- public policy constraints 312
- reasonableness review 314–15
- ‘touch and concern’ covenants 304, 313
- see also* servitudes
- commons, anticommons and semicommons 1, 35–50
- anticommons 2, 41–6, 57–9
- assembly of rights problem 42–3, 67, 93–4, 97–9
- commons, and 42–3
- commons, and semicommons, and 48–9
- conservation easements, and 70
- content of property rights mattering as much as clarity 58
- continuum of ownership, and 64–5
- economics of 67–8
- ‘game of chicken’ 43–5, 67
- group property, importance of 66, 70
- linked tragedies and solutions 45–6
- moving resources to private or common ownership 39
- overuse, possibility of 69–70
- problems requiring the assembly of permissions/entitlements 41–2
- psychology of 68
- public use takings 97
- servitudes and vertical privacy 302
- transaction costs of assembly of rights see under transaction costs
- true anticommons 93
- veto or exclusion rights 2, 41, 43, 48
- when is an anticommons tragic 41–2, 43
- commons 2, 35–41
- advantages of 70
- ‘comedy of the commons’ 70
- commons without the tragedy 35–6
- ‘creative commons’ 91
- distinction between open-access resource and limited-access commons 36
- group access 62, 63, 65, 66
- lessons from 65–6
- group property, importance of 66
- misaligned incentives generate inefficient results, conditions when 36, 48
- open access see open access
- Prisoner’s Dilemma 2, 37, 43, 45, 46
- problem of scale 37–40
- property, nature of 62–3
- property rights evolving from 2, 3
- commons and anticommons 42–3, 57–9
- linked tragedies and solutions 44, 45–6
- rejection of symmetry in 68
- symmetry in 66–7

- commons, anticommons and semicommons 47–8
- group property 62, 63, 65
  - exponentially more important than extremes of open access/full exclusion 66
  - hybrid schemes managing 65
- optimal level of use 63–4
- ordinary use 61–2, 63, 64
- overuse 42, 57–8, 59–60
  - meaning 61, 63–4
  - possible in anticommons 69–70
- ownership of property 62–3, 64
- problem of scale 37–40
  - delinking right from individual to single or collective ownership 38–40
  - mix of individual and common ownership producing the dilemma 37–8
  - parcelization 38–9, 45, 48
  - rescaling to reduce the risk of mismatch 38, 39
  - transaction costs of shifts of ownership 39
  - unitization addressing overextraction 38
- reversibility in property arrangements 48, 50
- semicommons 2, 46–9, 114
  - commons and anticommons, and 48–9
  - commons tragedy growing out of 38
  - historically in farming 47, 49
  - information 114
  - interacting mixtures of private and common property 46–7
  - seeing the semicommons 47–8
  - strategy-proof solutions 49
  - temporal semicommons 48–9, 50
  - ‘true semicommons property’ 47
- spillovers 36, 48, 50
- tragedy of the anticommons 41, 44, 45–6, 57–9, 60–61, 64–5, 66
  - expropriation of fragmented rights, addressing problems by 65
  - fragmentation and wasteful underuse 58, 60, 64, 65, 68, 69
  - full exclusion, addressing problems by 65
  - group exclusion 65–6, 70
  - hybrid systems, addressing problems by 65
  - individualistic behaviour, increase in 68
  - invisibility of underuse 65
  - lack of knowledge about 61
  - linked tragedies and solutions 45–6
  - monopolies, and 69
  - multiplicity of players blocking use of resource 60
  - privatization going too far 59, 60–61, 64
  - self-regulation 66
  - technological development, and 67–8
  - underuse 2, 42, 57–8, 60–61, 65, 68–70
  - unitization 68
  - veto, advantages of 70
- tragedy of the commons 1, 2, 10, 35–6, 66
  - dilemma driven by two or more activities on different scales 38, 48
  - examples of overuse tragedies 59, 70
  - overuse 42, 57–8, 59–60, 62
  - use privileges 43
- tragedy of the commons, addressing 40–41, 45, 57–9
  - anticommons dynamic, and 46, 50
  - cooperative engagement 59, 60, 62, 65, 66, 70
  - ‘grandfathering’ provisions curtailing draws on common resources 46
  - hybrid systems 65
  - ‘mutual coercion, mutually agreed upon’ 40, 45
  - privatization, markets and private property 57–8, 59–60, 61, 62–3, 66, 70
  - ‘property’ solution may create tragedy of the anticommons 45–6
  - regulation and political advocacy 57–8, 59, 60, 62, 65, 66, 70
  - repricing, forms of 40, 45
  - requirement to give up untrammelled access to resource 46
  - use rights constrained by customs or rules 2
- underuse 2, 42, 57–8, 60–62, 65, 68–70
  - continuum of resource use, and 64
  - design, by 70
  - invisibility of 65, 70
  - justifiability of 70
  - meaning 63
  - monopolies, and 69, 70
  - rarely the optimum 70
- compensation see under eminent domain and takings law
- compulsory purchase see eminent domain and takings law
- conservation servitudes 70, 296, 297, 305, 316–18
  - criticisms of 317–18
  - easements 70, 317, 374
  - no requirement for benefitted land 317
  - renegotiability and termination 318, 319
- contracts
  - contract rights, rights on assets as 237

- doctrine of substantial performance/material breach 215–16
- economic theories of property in information 111–12
- standardization and numerus clausus principle 151
- see also* financial contracts, covenant lite lending, liquidity and standardization of
- transaction costs of contracting 111–12, 191, 198–9
- conveyancing see property titling and conveyancing
- copyright 77
  - commercialization theory 107
  - creative commons license 119
  - exclusion, and 116–17
  - fair use doctrine 76, 113
  - see also* intellectual property
- Courant, Paul 228
- Cournot, Antoine-Augustin 67
- covenants
  - easements, and 300–301, 302
  - financial contracts, in see under financial contracts, covenant lite lending, liquidity and standardization of
  - fragmentation 302–3
  - horizontal privity 301, 302, 307
  - information requirements 301
  - not to compete 305, 310, 311
  - obsolete covenants and doctrine of changed circumstances 303, 304–5
  - positive 301, 305
  - racial see racial covenants
  - running with the land 299, 301, 302
  - ‘touch and concern’ covenants 304, 313
  - see also* ‘touch and concern’ doctrine
  - vertical privity 302, 304, 307
  - zoning, alternatives to 6
  - see also* servitudes
- Crafton, Steven M. 233–4
- Craswell, Dick 215
  - ‘creative commons’ license 119
  - open source software 91
  - protecting against enclosure 78
  - public domain, and 91
- Cuba 279, 290–91
- Dee, Thomas S. 233–4
- delineation and enforcement see under information
- Demsetz, Harold 3, 60, 116, 248, 296
- Dennen, R.T. 19, 20, 21
- destruction of property 129–35
  - abandonment compared with 135–7
  - costs 136–7
  - courts’ hostility to destruction plans 129–30, 131, 133–4, 140
  - destruction via wills 133–5, 139
    - lack of rational judgment 133–4
    - negative externalities 133
  - ex ante perspective on destruction 130–33
    - demolition of buildings 131
    - historic preservation of buildings 130–31
    - landmark designation 131–3
    - Presidential papers 130
  - informational intervention in law of destruction 139–42
    - destruction by living owner 140
    - surreptitious destruction 140
    - when destructive will provisions should be permitted 140–41
- Dukeminier, Jesse 258
- easements 70, 299
  - appurtenant 299
  - conservation 317, 374
  - covenants, and 300–301, 302
  - implied 92
  - in gross 299–300, 301–2, 304, 307
  - information, and 299–300
  - necessity, by 349
  - negative 299
  - positive 299
  - see also* servitudes
- economic theory of property in information 104–20
  - applications 116–20
    - comparative statics 116–17
    - intellectual property compatibility 118–20
    - modular intellectual property and asset portioning 117–18
  - information-cost theory 104–5, 108, 115, 116
  - modularity theory 109–10, 113, 114–16, 188
    - modular intellectual property and asset partitioning 117–18
- property in New Institutional Economics and Law 108–16
  - contracting 111–12
  - modularity theory 109–10, 113, 114–16
  - property in information and rights to things 113–16
  - ‘quantitative’ thin property rights 108, 113, 118, 120
  - tracing and restitution 112–13, 118

- theories of intellectual property see under intellectual property
- Eisenberg, Rebecca 67
- Elgueta, Giacomo Rojas 202
- Ellet, Charles 67
- Ellickson, Robert 298
- eminent domain and takings law 7–8, 344–64
- administrative costs
    - eminent domain 355–6, 360
    - land assembly districts 360
  - alternatives to 356–62
    - auction mechanisms 361–2, 364
    - land assembly districts 358–9, 364
    - secret purchases 357–8, 363
  - bilateral monopolies 344, 345, 348–9, 353
    - land assembly districts, and 360
  - compensation 79, 80, 82, 85, 99, 344
    - costs of dispersed 354–5
    - ‘fair market value’ as objective measure of damages 351–2, 353, 354
    - ‘just compensation’ law see Michelman 1967
  - consensual transactions 344, 345
  - holdout problem 345–8, 362
  - idiosyncratic owners 348, 351
  - large number of owners 346–7
  - strategic owners 345–6
  - justifications for eminent domain 344, 345–8, 362–3
    - bilateral monopoly problem 344, 345, 348–9, 353
    - externalities 350
    - holdout problem 345–8
    - other transaction costs 349–50, 353
  - limitations of eminent domain 344, 351–6, 363
    - administrative costs 355–6
    - secondary rent seeking 354–5, 362, 363
    - valuation difficulties 351–3
  - Michelman’s views see Michelman 1967
  - nature of eminent domain 344
  - private commercial development, and 94, 97–8, 350, 354–5
  - ‘private’ eminent domain 349
  - public use justifying compulsory transfer, nature of 80, 373
  - public use takings, private property and 79–80, 85, 94, 97
  - regulatory takings doctrine 82, 86
  - risk of erroneous transfer 357
  - secondary rent seeking 354–5, 362, 363
    - concentrated benefits, diffuse costs 355
    - lobbying for and against condemnation 354–5
  - subsidiarity principle 99
  - transaction costs of eminent domain 98, 344, 349–50, 353, 355–6, 362–3, 373
  - valuation difficulties 351–3
    - assessment costs 353, 360, 363
    - risk of undesirable transfers 351–2
  - zoning regulations, and 7, 82, 358
- England
- abandonment 126–7, 128–9
  - Corn Laws abolition 373
  - covenants running with the land 298
  - historic land demarcation in 259
    - Gunter’s chain 262, 263
    - open-field village model 263
  - non-possessory interest 150
  - public nuisance 81
  - registration of rights and title records 165–6, 240
    - licensed conveyancers 244
    - servitudes see under servitudes
- Ensign v. Walls* (1948) 338
- Environmental Protection Act (1970) (United States) 381
- Epstein, Richard A. 168, 304, 305, 313, 372
- European Mortgage Federation 248
- Eyerman v. Mercantile Trust Co.* (1975) 133–4, 139–40
- ‘fancies’ 119, 152, 165
  - disallowing from registration 307
- Farber, Daniel A. 373
- Federal Land Law (1785) (United States) 285
- Fennell, Lee Anne 2
- financial contracts, covenant lite lending, liquidity and standardization of 4, 174–88
  - collateralized loan obligations 174
  - covenant lite lending 175
  - expansion of securitization to corporate loans 174–5
  - liquidity benefits of standardized contracts 174–6
    - related literature 176–7
    - summary of Ayotte and Bolton 177
  - model 177–81
    - contracting assumptions 179–80
    - liquidity preferences and loan sales 180–81
    - parameter assumptions 178–9
    - technological assumptions 177–8
  - open-ended standardization 174–5
  - optimal contracting 181–8
    - closed-ended standardization 187
    - contracting and trading game with no standardization 182–3
    - law and standardization 187–8

- optimal contracting with open-ended standardization 183–6
  - sales of junior loans 186–7
- optimal contracting with no information costs 181–2
  - first-best contract 181
- Fischel, William 7, 131, 311, 376, 377
- France
  - land demarcation by long lots 263
  - recording of deeds in 166, 239, 242, 243–4, 246, 250
- Franzese, Paula 314
- free riding
  - collective action, and 13, 373
  - covenants not to compete 305
  - development, and 69, 355
  - eminent domain 355
    - collective action, and 13, 373
  - frontier settlement 30
  - public goods, and 13, 373
- Freedom of Information Act (1966) (United States) 83
- frontier property rights see property rights, land settlement and conflict on frontiers

- Gale, D. 176
- Garner v. Gerrish* (1984) 155
- Garoupa, Nuno 248
- Gasques, José G. 26
- Germany
  - historic land demarcation in 259
  - registration of rights in 166, 240, 246, 247
- Gibson, Robert 262
- gifts 3, 125, 127, 137–8, 142
  - transaction costs 136
- Goldstein, Paul 258
- governance structure see under information; personification and property of legal entities
- Governing the Commons* (Ostrom) 60
- Gray, Jeffrey S. 234–5
- Grayson, William 285
- Grossman, Sanford J. 192
- Grotius, Hugo 345

- Hadacheck v. Los Angeles* (1915) 372, 374, 380
- Hamilton, Alexander 286
- Hansmann, Henry 195, 201, 214
- Hardin, Garrett 1, 35–6, 38, 40, 42, 57, 59
- Harris, Edwyna 1
- Hart, Oliver D. 192
- Hazlett, Thomas 68
- Heller, Michael 2, 41, 42, 43, 358–60, 361

- Hicks, John R. 372, 373
  - Kaldor/Hicks criterion 372–3, 374, 375, 380
- high-value users 137, 303, 345, 349, 353
- Hills, Rick 358–60, 361
- Hirsch, Adam 139
- Hobhouse, Leonard 372, 376
- holdouts
  - addressing holdout problem
    - auction mechanisms 361–2
    - eminent domain see eminent domain
    - land assembly districts 358–60
    - liability rules 49, 351, 353
    - secret purchases 357, 358
  - ‘honest holdout’ 347, 348
  - idiosyncratic owners 348, 351, 362
  - large number of owners 346–7, 358, 362
  - strategic owners and holdouts 345–6, 348, 362
    - compared with ‘honest holdouts’ 347
    - land assembly districts, and 360
    - secret purchases, and 357, 358
  - transaction costs 353
- Holmes, Oliver Wendell 372, 376
- horizontal privity 301, 302, 307
  - racial covenants, and 309–10
  - see also* servitudes
- Houweling, Molly Van 119, 120, 318
- hunting
  - general privilege to hunt on unenclosed rural land 76
  - land demarcation 257
- Hylton, Keith 7

- Iacobucci, Edward 199
- idiosyncratic rights 7, 119, 149, 152, 157–60, 165, 169
- inalienability see under alienation and alienability
- India, land demarcation in 271–3, 274
- information 2–3
  - abandonment, controlling negative externalities of 138, 142, 143–4
  - Arrow’s paradox of information 106, 112
  - asymmetries and hidden property rights 238–9
  - costs see information costs
  - economy 69
  - exclusion-governance regimes 2–3
  - fancies, and 119, 152
  - imperfect information and eminent domain 346–7, 352, 353, 360, 362–3
  - nonexcludability 105, 106
  - nonrivalrous 105–6
  - problems, legal entities and adverse selection 190

- complete contracting impeded 191
- disrupting renegotiation 192
- external and internal capital 199–200
- imperfect information and financial
  - contracting 194
  - moral hazard 190
- property, in see economic theory of property in information
- servitudes, and see under servitudes
- special publicness, effect of 2
- unbiased, obtaining 49
- veiled or blurred 49
- information costs 3
  - abandonment and destruction 143–4
  - contract rights, and 151
  - custom into law 168–9
  - delineation and enforcement 2–3
  - economic theory of property in information 108, 119, 120
  - meaning 157
  - numerus clausus*, and see under numerus clausus principle
  - optimal contracting with no information costs 181–2
- information-cost theory
  - economic theory of property in information 115–16,
  - standardization in property law 150, 152, 157, 160, 165, 167, 169
  - see also* standardization in property law
- insolvency see bankruptcy as property law
- intellectual goods
  - nonrivalrous 88
  - protecting the ‘creative commons’ against enclosure 78
  - public domain, and 77, 91
- intellectual property
  - Arrow’s paradox of information 106, 112
  - assembly of licenses 94
  - copyright see copyright
  - intangibles excludable by law, making 88
  - intellectual goods protected by 77
  - judicial innovation 156
  - licenses 94
    - compulsory licensing 94
  - patents see patents
  - property rights see economic theory of property in information 104–20
  - public and private rights 114
  - rights, scepticism towards 78
  - servitudes see under servitudes
  - theories of 105–8
    - commercialization theory 107–8
    - prospect theory 107
    - reward theory 106
  - trademarks see trademarks
  - United States’ system 106
- International Association for the Study of the Commons 59
- International News Service v. The Associated Press* (1918) 156, 168
- Italy, historic land demarcation in 259
- Jackson, Thomas 209, 247
- Janczyk, Joseph T. 246
- J.C. & Associates v. District of Columbia Board of Appeals & Review* (2001) 131
- Jefferson, Thomas 285, 286
- Johnson v. Whiton* (1893) 155
- ‘just compensation’ law see Michelman 1967
- Kain, Roger J.P. 283
- Kaldor, Nicholas 372, 373
  - Kaldor/Hicks criterion 372–3, 374, 375, 380
- Kelly, Daniel B. 7, 349, 357, 361
- Kelleher v. Schoene* (1926) 378
- Kelo v. City of New London* (2005) 348, 373
- Keppell v. Bailey* (1834) 151–2
- Kitch, Edmund 107
- Kominers, Scott Duke 361
- Kraakman, Reinier 195, 214
- Krier, James 40, 258, 304, 351–2, 353
- land assembly districts 358–60, 364
- land demarcation systems 6, 257–92
  - Australia 260, 268–9
  - Brazil 269, 290
  - Canada 260, 267–8
  - Cuba 279, 290–91
  - economic framework for understanding land demarcation 273–9
    - coordination and collective action in a land demarcation system 277–8
    - land demarcation in a decentralized system 273–7
    - land demarcation in a rectangular system 278–9
  - economic implications and economic history 279–91
    - Cuban circular system 279, 290–91
    - demarcation in urban areas 289–90
    - demarcation under metes and bounds 280–84
    - demarcation under United States rectangular system 285–7
    - land markets 287–8
  - England 259
  - Geographic Information Systems 279, 284
  - Germany 259
  - Gunter’s chain 262, 263

- historically 257, 258
  - Roman system of centuriation 259, 260
- India 271–3, 274
- Italy 259
- land markets in United States 287–8
  - market transactions, land values and infrastructure investment 288
  - property disputes 287–8
- long lots 263
- metes and bounds (MB) system 257–8, 285
  - alignment of parcels 282
  - boundary conflicts 282–3, 286–7, 287–8
  - complexity 283–4
  - coordination and collective action 277
  - costs 279, 283–4
  - decentralized system in 276, 280–81, 282
  - demarcation under 280–84
  - economic disadvantages 259
  - individual surveys required 278
  - limiting market trades 259
  - market transactions, land values and infrastructure investment 288
  - size and shape of parcels 280–81, 286–7
  - United States, in 260–63, 264, 265, 285, 286, 287–8
  - unsystematic 261
  - when effective 258
- New Zealand 260
- rectangular system (RS) 257–8
  - advantages 278–9, 287
  - Australia 260, 268–9
  - Barcelona 269, 271, 272, 290
  - Brasilia 269, 290
  - Canada 260, 267–8
  - Chandigarh, India 271–3, 274
  - cities 269–73, 289–90
  - costs 258–9, 279, 285–6, 287
  - decentralized system in 276–7
  - features of major historical and contemporary RS systems 261
  - land demarcation in 278–9
  - market transactions, land values and infrastructure investment 288
  - metes and bounds systems surrounding 269–71
  - New York City 269, 270–71, 290
  - New Zealand 260
  - Philadelphia 269, 270, 290
  - South Africa 260
  - United States 260, 262, 265–7, 269–71, 285–7
  - Washington 289
  - when chosen over MB system 250, 278–9
- South Africa 260
- Spain 259, 269, 271, 272, 290
- survey of land demarcation systems 258–73
- Tunisia 259
- transaction costs 259, 278
- United States, land demarcation in 259, 260–67, 269–71, 278–9
  - adoption of the rectangular system 285–6
  - cities 269–71
  - frontier regions 261–2, 287
  - gains from coordination 286–7
  - land markets 287–8
  - metes and bounds 260–63, 264, 265, 285, 286
  - New York City 269, 270–71, 290
  - other systematic land demarcation systems 263–5
  - Philadelphia 269–70, 290
  - rectangular survey 265–7
  - urban land demarcation patterns 269–71
  - Washington 289
  - urban areas 269–73, 289–90
- Land Ordinance (1785) (United States) 6, 265, 286, 291
- land settlement see property rights, land settlement and conflict on frontiers
- Landes, Elisabeth M. 226–7, 230
- Latin America 241
- Legal Realist movement 75
- Lehavi, Amnon 361
- Lemley, Mark 68
- liability rules 108
  - eminent domain 318
  - holdout problem avoiding 49, 351
  - imperfect information 353
  - transaction costs 353
- nuisance 327, 340
- servitudes
  - changed circumstances 303
  - extinguishing 318
  - undermining stability of property rights 303
- Libecap, Gary 6, 26, 28, 279, 287–8
- licensing 118–19
- Licht, Amir N. 361
- limited commons see common property owned by groups
- Linklater, Andro 282, 287
- Llewellyn, Karl 214
- Lochner v. New York* (1905) 81–2, 86
- Locke, John 106, 296, 374
- Lucas v. South Carolina Coastal Council* (1992) 381
- Lueck, Dean 6, 279, 287–8

- Madison, James 373
- Mahoney, Julia 317–18
- marital property, law and economics of 5, 221–35
- consumption within marriage, nature of 231–4
  - definition of marital property
    - formal/legal marital property 221, 230
    - functional/practical marital property 221, 230–31
  - degrees and professional licenses 228
  - domestic violence 233–4
  - female labor supply 234–5
  - modelling marriage, divorce and marital property 221–6
  - role of the law 226–35
    - changes in the size of divorce settlements 226–8
    - expanding scope of marital property 228–30
    - switch to no-fault divorce 230–34
  - transferability 221
- Marx, Karl 374
- matching principle 96–8
- Means, Gardiner 190
- Melamed, A. Douglas 78, 351
- Merges, Robert 117
- Merrill, Thomas W. 2, 3, 214, 258, 306
- eminent domain 349, 353, 354, 355–6, 357
  - standardization in property law 152, 154
- Michelman, Frank 41
- Michelman 1967 7–8, 372–81
- compensation 373–4
    - demoralization costs 375–9
    - institutional arrangements for securing just compensation 380
    - Michelman's tests for 375–9
    - settlement costs 375–6, 377, 379
    - triple-negative rule 379
  - judicial rules 379–81
    - diminution of value 379
    - fairness discipline 380
    - investment backed expectations 379
  - philosophical conundrum of citizen versus society 372
  - purposes of collective action 372–3
    - Kaldor/Hicks criterion 372–3, 374
    - Pareto superiority 373
    - public goods and free riders 373
    - social efficiency 373
  - theories of government 372–4
    - fairness machine 380
  - theories of property 374–5
    - desert theory 374
    - personality theory 374–5
    - social functionary theory 374–5, 376
    - utilitarianism 375–6, 377, 378, 379
- Miller v. Schoene* (1928) 374, 377, 381
- misappropriation 156–7, 168
- modularity see under economic theory of property in information; standardization in property law
- monopolies
- anticommons, and 69
  - bilateral monopolies 92, 93, 95
    - eminent domain, and see under eminent domain and takings law
  - holdouts as 346
  - limiting property rights, and 91–2
  - natural monopolies 91, 99
  - public rights, and 91–2
    - limiting abuses of monopoly power 95
  - situational or locational monopolies 92, 93, 95
  - transaction costs 91, 95
- monopsonies 92
- Moore, John 192
- Mueller, Bernardo 1, 26, 28
- Munch, Patricia 357
- Nash equilibrium 37, 45, 225
- Nash v. Atherton* (1840) 287–8
- navigable waterways see under waterways
- Neponsit Property Owners' Association v. Emigrant Industrial Savings Bank* (1938) 313, 315, 316, 319
- network effects 90–91, 97
- application of network theory 113
  - property used in consumption with 159
  - transaction costs 90, 95
- New Institutional Economics 2, 104
- property in see under economic theory of property in information
- New Zealand, RS system of land demarcation in 260
- Nixon v. United States* (1992) 130
- Nobelman v. American Savings Bank* (1993) 208
- nuisance and the economics of nuisance law 7, 326–40
- definition of a nuisance 333
  - economics of nuisance 326–33
    - activity levels, care levels and externalities 327
  - economics of activity level choices 327–31
  - externality model and regulatory function of nuisance law 326–7, 340
  - law 331–3

- transaction cost model, nuisance and trespass and 326–7, 340
- economics of activity level choices 327–31
  - cost and benefit externalization: single activity model 328–9
  - cross externalization of costs and benefits: dual activity model 329–31, 334
- injunctions 339–40
- intentional, meaning of 333, 334
- law 331–3
  - coming to the nuisance 338–9
  - dual activity case 332–3
  - extra-sensitive plaintiff 337
  - intent 333, 334
  - negligence 331–3
  - proximate cause 336–8
  - reasonableness 334–5
  - single activity case 331–2
  - strict liability 331–3, 334, 336–7, 339
  - theory of nuisance law 333–40
- nontrespassory, meaning of 333
- private nuisance 81
  - injunctions, and 339–40
- private property rights qualified by 76, 80–81
- public nuisance
  - assembly of rights 97
  - concept of 80–81
  - enforced by public officials 89–90
  - injunctions, and 340
  - negative spillovers 93, 97
  - networks effects 97
  - police power, and 82, 85–6
  - private rights, and 80–81, 85–6
  - remedies for 82
- public rights regulating 95
- theory of nuisance law 333–40
  - coming to the nuisance 338–9
  - extra-sensitive plaintiff 337
  - intentional invasions 334
  - nontrespassory invasions 333–4
  - proximate cause 336–7
  - Rylands v. Fletcher* 334–5
  - scope of liability 336–9
  - shut downs 339–40
  - unreasonable invasions 334–6
- transaction costs 326, 340
- numerus clausus* principle 3–4, 6, 112
  - custom, and 168–9
  - explanations and understandings of 148–9, 152
  - feudalism, and 148
  - implications for institutional choice 155
  - in rem character of property, and 149
  - information and courts of equity, and 306–7
  - information costs 148, 149, 150, 152, 156, 169
    - custom, and 168–9
    - model where numerus clausus solution to communication tradeoff 160–65
    - registries, and 165–7
    - standardization and third-party information costs 157–65
    - third-party information costs 158–60
  - judicial approaches, and 155–7
  - meaning of mandatory standardization 148, 150
  - property forms in
    - building blocks as 152, 155
    - recursive 152
  - registries, and 165–7, 245
  - standardization through 150–52
- O'Brien v. O'Brien* (1985) 228
- oceans
  - fishing quotas and licences 60, 65
  - non-excludable nature 87
  - open access 62
  - see also* water
- open access 1–2
  - direct command resource addressing problems 65
  - frontier settlement, and see property rights, land settlement and conflict on frontiers
  - group access, and 65–6
  - group norms not effective in extreme open access 65
  - hybrid rights addressing problems 65
  - intellectual goods, and 77
  - land demarcation system creating 257, 273–5
  - meaning 1–2, 62
  - navigable waterways 78–8
  - property rights evolving from 1, 3
  - property rights left de jure or de facto as open access 10
  - public domain in United States, and 77–8
  - public streets, highways and navigable airspace 79, 87–8
  - public trust, and 78
  - ruined if full users bear only fractional cost 1–2
  - solutions to commons property dilemmas 65
  - see also* common, anticommons and semicommons
- Ostrom, Elinor 60

- overuse see under commons, anticommons and semicommons
- Pareto superiority 373
- Patent Crisis, The* (Burk/Lemley) 68
- patents and innovation 67–8, 77, 106
 commercialization theory 107
 exclusion, and 113, 116–17
 exhaustion doctrine 120 experimental use, privilege of 76 incentives to disclose information 107 monopoly effects of 69 patent protection theories 106–7
see also intellectual property
- Penn Central v. New York* (1978) 379
- Penn, William 269, 285
- Pennsylvania Coal v. Mahon* (1922) 372, 374
- Pennsylvania Coal Co. v. Sanderson* (1886) 335–6
- People ex rel. Marbro Corp. v. Ramsey* (1960)
- personification and property of legal entities 4, 190–202
 asset identification and alienability 201 capital structure tailoring 193–8 definition of persons to include entities 190 economic boundaries of control 191–3 control over critical physical assets 192 incomplete contracts 191–2, 193 opportunistic hold-up 191–2 third party financing 193
 why firm activity rather than individual contracts 191–2
- internal capital markets tradeoff 199–200 informational obstacles raising cost of external capital 199–200
- legal boundaries of a firm 193–9 advantages of contracting through firms 193 assets and debts 193–4, 195 governance or control rights in firms, tailoring of 197–8 hostile takeover bids 198 minority shareholder or creditor protection 194 optimal capital structure varying with asset type or venture 194–7 private debt more easily renegotiated 196 legal separation and economic integration, tension between 198–9
- Peters, William 282
- Pincus, Jonathan 361
- Plassmann, Florenz 361
- Plato 77
- Plotkin, Wendy 309
- Pocono Springs Civic Association v. MacKenzie* (1995) 128, 143
- Poletown Neighborhood Council v. City of Detroit* (1981) 354
- police power 81–2
 negative spillovers, and 93
- Polinsky, A. Mitchell 353
- Polsby, Daniel D. 28
- Popov v Hayashi* (2002) 126, 127, 138
- Portugal, historic land demarcation in 259
- Posner, Richard A. 258, 357
- Powell, John Wesley 22
- Presidential Records Act (1978) (United States) 130
- Prisoner's Dilemma 2, 37, 42, 45, 46
- private property 1
 definition 62
 land as an excludable good 87 more valuable because of public rights 95–6 owned by no-one 1
 overburdening with obligations, danger of 95–6 public rights, and see private property and public rights rights qualified 76
- private property and public rights 2, 75–99 legal doctrines on property and public rights 76–86
 police power 81–2, 85–6
 private property rights qualified by jus publicum 76 public accommodations 84–6
 public domain 77–8, 85, 86
 public enforcement 82–4, 85, 86
 public nuisance 80–81, 85–6 public rights, nature of 76 public streets, highways and navigable airspace 79, 85–6 public trust 78–9, 85–6
 public use takings 79–80, 85–6
 public utilities 85, 86
- Legal Realism, rights dependent on collective recognition and enforcement, and 75
 matching principle 2, 96–8 normative guidelines 95–9 public/private distinction 75 public rights, economic concepts and 86–95
 assembly of rights 93–4
 externalities 87, 90, 92–3
 monopoly 91–2
 network effects 90–91
 public goods see public goods
 spillovers 92–3

- subsidiarity principle 2, 98–9
- transaction costs 87, 89, 90, 91, 94–5
- privatization see under commons, anticommuns and semicommons
- property
  - bundle of rights or ‘sticks’, as 1
  - economic theory of property in information, and 104, 105, 109, 115, 120
  - standardization in property law, and 149
  - commons see under commons, anticommuns and semicommons
  - definition of 213
  - entity property 150
  - see also* personification and property of legal entities
  - frontiers, on see property rights, land settlement and conflict on frontiers
  - group property see under common, anticommuns and semicommons
  - law see property law
  - private see private property
  - records 118
  - see also* land demarcation systems
  - relinquishing see unilateral relinquishment of property
  - rights see property rights
  - standardization see standardization in property law
  - state property 62–3
- property law
  - bankruptcy, as see bankruptcy as property law
  - direct co-ownership, forms of 150
  - marital property see marital property, law and economics of
  - meaning of 214–15
  - ownership types 62
  - standardization see standardization in property law
- property rights
  - catalog of estates 150–51, 155
  - evolution 1, 3
  - evolving to meet changing needs for resource management 296
  - increasing costs 3
  - institutions forming to prevent externalities 3
  - naive theory of property rights 12–13
  - formal and informal 9
  - frontiers see property rights, land settlement and conflict on frontiers
  - full set of property rights never exists 10
  - ‘running with the land’ 237
  - property rights, land settlement and conflict on frontiers 1, 9–30
  - Australian frontier, settlement of 9, 14–18
  - claims (runs) enforced against later arrivals 15
  - collective goods with private benefits, agreed norms as 15
  - conflict 15, 17–18, 29
  - de facto* rights respected/determined by arbitration 15
  - de facto* rights strengthened as wool production value increased 14, 15–16
  - de jure* rights, demands for 15–17
  - exhausted gold fields leading to increased land demand 12, 17
  - land occupation by squatters outside the Nineteen Counties 14–15
  - land selection before survey and information asymmetries 17–18
  - leases granted to squatters 16–17
  - licences granting de jure and de facto rights to squatters 15–16
  - reform 17–18
  - rent dissipation when formal rights did not recognise status quo 14
  - social norms developed to reduce losses from open access 15
  - sources of change affecting scarcity 12
  - squatters’ ability to evade redistribution to new small holders 18
  - Brazilian Amazonian frontier 1, 9, 23–9
  - ‘Brazilian Miracle’ 24
  - colonization projects 24, 25, 26–7
  - commons arrangements formed 26–7
  - conflict 25, 26–8, 29–30
  - devastation of forests 24
  - fiscal incentives 25–6, 27, 30
  - INCRA (National Institute for Colonization and Agrarian Reform) 25, 28–9
  - integration and occupation of the Amazon, policies for 24
  - lack of clear property rights leading to rent dissipation 25
  - land reform of compensated forced expropriation 28, 29
  - Landless Peasants Movement 28–9
  - norms established 26–7, 29–30
  - premature settlement 24, 26, 29
  - property rights, emergence of 26–7
  - rent dissipation when formal rights did not recognise status quo 14
  - road construction increasing competition 24, 25–6

- scarcity values increasing, effect of 26–7
- social norms developed to reduce losses from open access 15
- squatters' rights and adverse possession 27–8, 30
- titles to land 27–8, 29
- formal and informal property rights 9
- model of land settlement 9–14
  - asset value in commons arrangement versus open access arrangement 13–14
  - conflict 12, 13, 14
  - content of full set of property rights 9–10
  - de facto* property rights 13–14
  - de jure* property rights advantageous 14
  - demand for more secure property rights as function of scarcity value 10–13
  - dissipation of rents, incentives leading to 13, 14
  - 'dumming' 18
  - exclusivity agreements and common collective good 11
  - formal property rights 9, 12–14
  - informal property rights 10–12, 13
  - measures of scarcity 10, 12
  - naive theory of property rights 12–13
  - open access, effect of expropriating use rights over 10
  - scarcity values increases leading to formal property rights 12
  - sources of change affecting scarcity 12
- United States Great Plains frontier 1, 9, 19–23
  - cattle branding and collective action 19–20, 23
  - cattlemen's associations 19, 20–22, 23
  - commons arrangements, emergence of 19–22
  - conflict 18, 21–2, 23, 29
  - de facto* rights of ranchers and de jure rights of homesteaders 22, 23
  - dissipation 13
  - General Land Office 22–3
  - Great Plains, value of 19, 20, 22
  - Homestead Act 1862 20, 22
  - illegal fencing by ranchers 22–3
  - informal commons arrangements replaced with leases 23
  - range rights and management 20–21
  - rent dissipation when formal rights did not recognise status quo 14
  - social norms developed to reduce losses from open access 15
  - sources of change affecting scarcity 12
  - sub-optimal use of land 13
  - technological change of barbed wire 12, 22
- property titling and conveyancing 5–6, 237–52
  - consent requirement
    - effects of 237–8
    - enforcing individual consent as a requirement 240
    - hidden property rights 238–9
  - contract rights, rights on assets as 237
  - empirical arguments for a comparative analysis 245–52
    - dubious cost advantage of recording 245–6
    - need for adaptation 248
    - quantitative comparison 248–52
    - risk of ineffectual registration 246–8
  - frontier settlement 14
    - fiscal advantages only available in Amazon to titled land 25–6
    - titling costs affected by land distance from market centre 14
  - notice and information about real property 42, 118, 166, 213–14
  - numerus clausus* and registries 165–7, 245
  - priority rule 239
  - privacy of rights 238–9, 241
  - recording of deeds 239, 241–2, 245–6, 248–52
    - servitudes, and 299
  - registration of rights 240, 242–4, 246–8, 248–52, 306–7
  - rights which 'run with the land', meaning of 237
    - enforcement advantages 238
    - requirement of consent 237–8
  - role of conveyancing services in each titling system 240–44
    - conveyancing under privacy 241
    - conveyancing under recording 241–2
    - conveyancing under registration 242–4
      - how to regulate conveyancing 244
    - servitudes, and 306, 317
  - title assurance 245, 246, 247, 248
  - title plants 242, 245–6
  - title reports 239
  - titling systems
    - privacy of rights as a benchmark 238–9
    - recording of deeds 239
    - registration of rights 240
    - transaction costs 241, 244, 250, 251
- public accommodations 84–5, 86
  - locational monopolies, and 92
- public domain 77–8, 85–6
  - network effects, and 91

- public enforcement 82–4, 85–6 of private rights constituting state action 83–4
- public goods
definition 87
elimination of a public bad, as 88 enforcement of public goods 89–90 excludability as function of technology 87, 88–9 intangible goods as nonrivalrous 88 limiting property rights, and 87–90
Michelman, and 373
nonexcludable 89, 105
nonrivalrous 87, 88, 95, 105
partial 88
rivalrous and nonrivalrous goods 87, 88 tangible goods as rivalrous 88
transaction costs 89, 95
- public nuisance see under nuisance
- public rights see private property and public rights
- public streets, highways and navigable airspace 79, 85, 86
- public trust doctrine 78–9, 85, 86, 94
- public use takings see eminent domain and takings law
- public utilities 85, 86
matching principle, and 96–7
- Puerto Rico, registration of rights in 247
- Quanta Computer v. LG Electronics, Inc* (2008) 120, 168
- racial covenants 83, 167, 296, 297, 301, 308–11 changed circumstances, and 310, 311 courts' approach 309–10
effects of 310–11
history 308–9
neighbourhood agreements 309 racial zoning 308, 311
- Rajan, U. 176, 192
- Rawls, John 7, 49, 372, 378–9
maximin principle 378, 379
- recording see under property titling and conveyancing
- registration see under property titling and conveyancing
- regulatory takings doctrine see eminent domain and takings law
- Reichman, Uriel 304
- rent seeking 304 auctions, and 362, 364 costs of 363
secondary 7, 344, 351, 354–5, 356, 360, 361, 363
- Researches into the Mathematical Principles of the Theory of Wealth* (Cournot) 67
- Restatement (Second) of Contracts* (United States) 215
- Restatement (Second) of Torts* (United States) 81, 335
- restitution and tracing 112–13, 118
- Rich, Judge Giles 107
- Roberts, S.H. 15, 18
- Roosevelt, President Teddy 23
- Rose, Carol 6, 36, 70, 167
- Rubinfeld, Daniel L. 376
- Rylands v. Fletcher* (1868) 334–5
- Sax, Joseph 131–2
- Scandinavia, registration of rights in 243, 246
- Schelling, Thomas 311
- Schwab, Stewart J. 351–2, 353
- Schwartz, Alan 216
- Second Treatise of Government* (Locke) 296
- secret purchases 357–8, 363
- semicommons see under commons, anticommons and semicommons
- Seru, A. 176
- servitudes 6–7, 159, 296–320 advantages of stability over space and time 297–8 changed circumstances, doctrine of 303, 304–5 common interest communities, and 135
racial covenants, and 310, 311
common interest communities 296, 297, 311–16
declaration of servitudes 312 governance mechanisms 313–15
objections to 312
positive obligations 305
public policy constraints 312
reasonableness review 314–15
'touch and concern' covenants 304, 313
conservation servitudes 70, 296, 297, 305, 316–18
criticisms of 317–18
easements 70, 317, 374
no requirement for benefitted land 317
renegotiability and termination 318, 319
- covenants
fragmentation 302–3
horizontal privity 301, 302, 307
information requirements 301
not to compete 305, 310, 311
obsolete covenants and doctrine of changed circumstances 303, 304–5 positive 301, 305
racial see racial covenants

- running with the land 299, 301, 302
- 'touch and concern' covenants 304, 313
- see also* 'touch and concern' doctrine
- vertical privity 302, 304, 307
- zoning, alternatives to 6
- easements 70, 299
  - appurtenant 299
  - conservation 317, 374
  - covenants, and 300–301, 302
  - implied 92
  - in gross 299–300, 301–2, 304, 307
  - information, and 299–300
  - necessity, by 349
  - negative 299
  - positive 299
- England 301, 306–7
- equitable servitudes 299
- events with differing size effects 298
- evolution 296–7
- horizontal privity 301, 302, 307
  - racial covenants, and 309–10
- implied easements 92
- information or notice concern 118, 298, 299–301
  - easements versus covenants and the 'horizontal privity' puzzle 300–301
  - general rule 299
  - horizontal privity 301, 302, 307
  - information and easements – 'in gross' versus 'appurtenant' 299–300
- intellectual property servitudes 119–20, 168, 296
- involuntary servitude, courts' antipathy to 305
- new uses of servitudes 308–18
  - common interest communities 311–16
  - conservation servitudes 316–18
  - racially restrictive covenants 308–11
- personal property servitudes 167–8
- private governance regime 118
- public easements 99
- public rights of way 85, 86, 99
- racial covenants 83, 167, 296, 297, 301, 308–11
  - changed circumstances, and 310, 311
  - courts' approach 309–10
  - effects of 310–11
  - history 308–9
  - neighbourhood agreements 309
- renegotiability concern 298, 301–3, 304–5, 319
  - fragmentation of interests 302–3
  - general rule 302
  - liability rules 303
  - vertical privity 302, 304, 307
- 'running' to successive interest-holders 297
- standardization 150, 167–8
- 'touch and concern' doctrine 167, 303–6, 311
  - common interest communities, and 304, 313
  - concept of 303–4
  - positive obligations 305
  - value doctrine 304–5
- traditional concerns and formalities 298–307
  - information or notice concern 298, 299–301
  - numerus clausus*, information and courts of equity 306–7
  - renegotiability concern 298, 301–3
  - value concern – 'touch and concern' 298, 303–6
- transaction costs 298, 301, 302, 305, 319
- United States 301, 306–7
  - racial covenants 83, 167, 296, 297, 301, 308–11
  - Restatement of servitude law by American Law Institute 296, 303
  - vertical privity 302, 304, 307
  - common interest communities, and 313
- Shapiro, Carl 67
- Shapiro, Perry 361, 376
- Shavell, Steven 258, 347–8
- Shelley v. Kraemer* (1948) 83, 84, 310, 311, 312, 315
- Sherwin, Emily 214
- Simon, Herbert 109, 118, 157
- Smith, Henry 2, 3, 13, 188, 214, 258, 306
  - commons, anticommons and semicommons 46–7, 49
  - eminent domain 349, 353
- social functionary theory 374–5, 376
- South Africa, RS system of land demarcation in 260
- Spain
  - historic land demarcation in 259
  - Barcelona 269, 271, 272, 290
  - long lots 263
  - registration of rights in 240
- Spencer, Herbert 107
- spillovers 2, 3, 99
  - commons, anticommons and semicommons, and 36, 48, 50
  - limiting property rights, and 92–3
  - nuisance, and see under nuisance
  - positive or negative 92
  - transaction costs 93, 95
- standardization in property law 3–4, 148–69, 306–7

- implications 165–9
  - complexity externalities 169
  - custom 168–9
  - numerus clausus* and registries 165–7
  - servitudes 167–8
- numerus clausus* see numerus clausus
- principle
- servitudes, and 306–7
- standard features in property 149–57
  - flexibility of standardized modular building blocks 152–3
  - intermediate situations 154
  - judicial and other institutional approaches to standardization 155–7
  - standardization through numerus clausus principle 150–52
- standardization and third-party information costs 157–65
  - model where numerus clausus solution to communication tradeoff 160–65
  - third-party information costs 158–60
- see also* financial contracts, covenant lite lending, liquidity and standardization of
- state action doctrine see public enforcement
- state property 62–3
- Sterk, Stewart E. 349
- Stevenson, Betsey 235
- Strahilevitz, Lior 3, 311
- subsidiarity principle 98–9
- Sussman, O. 176

- takings law see eminent domain and takings law
- Talley, Eric 303
- technology
  - anticommons, and 67–8
  - excludability
    - technological change of barbed wire 12, 22
  - technology, as function of 87
  - technology of exclusion too expensive 88–9
  - technology too expensive 88–90
- Theory of Justice* (Rawls) 378
- Thompson, Barton H. Jr. 258, 317
- Thrower, Norman W. 288
- Tideman, T. Nicolaus 361
- title see property titling and conveyancing
- ‘touch and concern’ doctrine 167, 303–6, 311
  - common interest communities, and 304, 313
  - concept of 303–4
  - positive obligations 305
  - ‘touch and concern’ covenants 304, 313
  - value doctrine 304–5
- tracing and restitution 112–13, 118
- trademarks 77
  - commercialization theory 107–8
  - see also* intellectual property
- tragedy of the anticommons see under
  - commons, anticommons and semicommons
- tragedy of the commons see under commons, anticommons and semicommons
- Tragedy of the Commons* (Hardin) 1
- transaction costs
  - abandonment 136–7
  - assembly of rights 94, 95, 98
  - consensual transfer 126
  - contracting 111–12, 191, 198–9
  - eminent domain 98, 344, 349–50, 353, 355–6, 362–3, 373
  - externalities, and 87
  - gifts 136
  - land demarcation systems 259, 278
  - monopolies, and 91, 95
  - network effects 90, 95
  - nuisance 326, 340
  - prohibitive 230
  - property titling 241, 244, 250, 251
  - public goods 89, 95
  - public rights and private property 87, 89, 90, 91, 94–5
  - public use takings 98, 344, 349–50, 353, 355–6, 362–3, 373
  - servitudes 298, 301, 302, 305, 319
  - spillovers 93, 95
- Treatise of Practical Surveying* (Gibson) 262
- Triantis, George 4, 199
- Tunisia, historic land demarcation in 259

- underuse see under commons, anticommons and semicommons
- unilateral relinquishment of property 3, 125–44
  - abandonment see abandonment
  - abandonment and destruction compared 135–7
  - methods of relinquishing property 125
  - real property 142–3
  - right to destroy see destruction of property
- United States
  - abandonment see abandonment
  - Administrative Procedure Act (1946) 83
  - bankruptcy see bankruptcy as property law
  - Bankruptcy Code 206–7
  - Bill of Rights (1789) 84
  - Civil Rights Act (1964) 83, 84
  - Davis-Bacon wage rules 83, 84

- eminent domain 345
  - see also* eminent domain and taking law
- Environmental Protection Act (1970) 381
- Federal Land Law (1785) 285
- financial tailoring within firms 202
  - see also* personification and property of legal entities
- free land and personal property 125–6
- Freedom of Information Act (1966) 83
- frontier settlement see under property rights, land settlement and conflict on frontiers
- intellectual property system 106, 120
- land demarcation see under land demarcation systems
- Land Ordinance (1785) 6, 265, 286, 291
- marital property see marital property, law and economics of
- non-possessory interests 150
- numerus clausus* 155
- police power 81–2
- Presidential Records Act (1978) 130
- Presidents' destruction of papers 130
- property law 2
- public accommodations 84–5
- public domain 77–8
- public enforcement 82–4
- Public Land Survey System 6
  - see also* land demarcation systems
- public nuisance 80–81
- public streets, highways and navigable airspace 79
- public trust doctrine 78–9
- public use takings 79–80
- public utilities 85
- recording of deeds 166, 239, 242, 246, 247
  - servitudes, and 300, 301, 306–7
  - title companies 244
  - title insurers 243
- Restatement (Second) of Contracts* 215
- Restatement (Second) of Torts* 81, 335
- right to destroy see destruction of property
- servitudes see under servitudes
- Uniform Commercial Code 187, 212, 214
- utilitarianism 375–6, 377, 378, 379
- vertical privity 302, 304, 307
  - common interest communities, and 313
  - see also* servitudes
- Vig, V. 176
- Washington, George 285
- water 85
  - access to 17
  - common ownership 39
  - land with water, value of 20
  - law 119, 159
    - correlative rights 76
    - exclusion, difficulties of 117, 119, 159
    - governance regime 159
  - oceans
    - fishing quotas and licences 60, 65
    - non-excludable nature 87
    - open access 62
  - property right, as 21
  - public goods aspects 114
  - rights 21, 159
  - utilities as monopolies 69
  - watershed 19
- waterways
  - common ownership 70
  - navigable
    - blocking 81
    - public trust doctrine, and 78, 86
- Weaver, John C. 15
- Weyl, E. Glen 361
- Widen, William 201
- Yengin, Duygu 361
- Yokomizo, Clando 26
- Yoon, Yong 41, 66
- Young Surveyor's Instructor: or, An Introduction to the Art of Surveying* (Carter) 262
- Zelder, Martin 5, 228, 230
- Ziedonis, Rosemarie Ham 68
- Zingales, Luigi 192
- zoning 154, 243
  - alternatives to 6, 7
  - environments 132
  - grandfathering non-conforming uses 379
  - laws 82, 93, 115, 244, 358, 373, 377, 380
  - racial 308, 311

