

---

Tables

---

1.1	Types of third-party regulatory designs	9
5.1	Instruments of managing delegated authority	74
6.1	The regulation dilemma	87
7.1	Competing models of regulatory administration	99
7.2	Validating evidence for the models of regulatory administration	100
7.3	Basic structure of regulatory administration in four European countries, 1980–2000	105
13.1	Regulation, legal measures: a formalistic taxonomy	189
13.2	The role of law in regulation: fuzzy practices	193
14.1	Operationalizing the independence of regulatory authorities	203
25.1	The universe of global private environmental ordering (partial picture)	351
27.1	Variation in performance-based regulatory regimes	377
27.2	Accountability considerations	381
28.1	Historical developments in the use of CBA in the United States regulatory process	392
29.1	Major steps in the evolution of the EU Commission's impact assessment system	399
30.1	Base VSL estimates used in US regulatory analyses	414
31.1	Categorization of regulatory institutions	424
31.2	Ranking process-oriented regulation in comparison with prescriptive and outcome-oriented regulation	428
34.1	Overview of strengths and weaknesses of different modes of private regulation	481
43.1	Private and public–private social standards matrix	593
43.2	Overview of main private standards certification initiatives ranked by sector	597
44.1	Summarizing strengths and weaknesses of hard and soft law	609
46.1	Summary of main regulatory approaches to climate change mitigation	633