

Index

- Academy of Sciences, Czech Republic 47
- acquisition FDI 48–9
 - Czech life sciences 49–50
- Alternative Energy Act, Japan 151
- alternative energy systems 149–63
 - firm strategies 159–61
 - government support 161–2
 - market developments 150–58
 - reasons for market changes 158–62
- asset exploitation motive for innovation 26
- asset-seeking FDI, CEE life sciences sector 46
- asset-seeking motive for innovation 26

- Base of the Pyramid 166–7, 167–71
- Baxter Corporation 49
- Beamish, P.W. 80
- Bell, M. 118
- biofuels industry 157
- Bottom of the Pyramid 166–7, 167–71
- Brazil
 - biofuels industry 157
 - government role in oil industry 121
 - oil industry 113–14, 116–18, 121, 122, 146–7
- bridging, multinationals and low-income markets 170

- California Fuel Cell Partnership 160
- cars, alternative fuel technology 155–6
- Casas Bahia 174
- Central and Eastern European (CEE) countries, life science industry 42–54
 - Czech Republic 46–54
 - FDI 45–8
- Certified Emission Reduction (CER) 127

- China
 - energy needs and alternative technologies 156–7
 - FDI from Hong Kong 92–107
 - government role in oil industry 121–2
 - innovativeness of foreign firms 24–5, 28–37, 31–4
 - motivations for international alliances 78–88, 145
 - oil industry 114–15, 119–20, 121–2, 122–3, 146–7
- circles of Thailand 13–14
- Clean Air Act 152
- Clean Development Mechanism (CDM) 127
- climate change conferences 154–5
- clinical research
 - Czech Republic 47–8
 - in developing countries 58–70
 - Mexico 64–9
- CNPC (China National Petroleum Corporation) 115, 120
- COFEPRIS 67
- competition, alternative energy industry 159–61
- consortiums, alternative energy industry 160
- cooperation, alternative energy industry 160–61
- Cowan, R. 161
- Crawford, R.J. 175
- cross-border investment see FDI
- cross-cultural intelligence 11–12
- cultural intelligence 10–12
- cultural onion model 11
- cultural units 11
- cultural webs 11–12
- culture and multinationals 6–20
 - attitudes to deadlines 7–8, 16
 - attitudes to mistakes 8–10, 17–18

- culture, definition 10
- Czech Republic, life sciences sector
 FDI 46–8
 greenfield investments 51
 multinational companies 48–53
 partnerships 51–2
 takeovers 49–50
- Dachs, B. 23
- Dacin, M.T. 80, 81
- Dantas, E. 118
- deadlines, cultural differences 7–8, 16
- Denmark, alternative energy firms 153
- developing countries clinical trials 58–70
 low income markets 166–81
 and multinationals 171–3
- dispersed locations, low-income markets 175–6
- disposable income, low income markets
 173–5
- Dutch culture
 and deadlines 7–8, 16
 and mistakes 8–10, 17–18
 view of ‘environment’ 15
 view of ‘others’ 14
 view of ‘self’ 12–13
- Ecair 138, 140
- education and low-income markets
 176–7
- efficiency-seeking FDI, CEE life sciences sector 45–6
- egalitarianism as Dutch trait 12–13
- emerging economies 2–3
- energy industry
see alternative energy systems; oil industry
- environment, cultural interpretations
 15–16
- ethics committees and clinical trials,
 Mexico 68–9
- European Union
 accession, effects on life sciences,
 CEE countries 45
 waste management industry 134–5
- FDI (foreign direct investment)
 CEE life sciences sector 45–6
 Czech life sciences 46–8
 Guangdong 93, 96, 146
 oil sector 112–15
- Feenstra, R.C. 92
- Ferring-Léčiva 51
- foreign direct investment see FDI
- foreign ownership and innovation
 23–37
- Frenz, M. 23
- Fung, K. 103
- Galena 49
- Gilead Sciences 51–2
- government policies and waste management industry 131–5
- government role alternative energy industry 161–2
 oil industry 121–2
- greenfield FDI 48–9
 Czech Republic 51
- Grontmij 139–40
- Guandong 92–107
 economic relations with Hong Kong
 93–6, 145–6
 Hong Kong FDI 93, 96, 146
 labour productivity 97 technological catching-up through
 FDI 96–103
 total factor productivity 97–103
- Gunby, P. 161
- Guo, W.X. 83–4
- Haier Group 175
- Hart, S.L. 168
- healthcare system, Mexico 65–6
- Hirschman, A.O. 3
- Hitt, M.A. 80–81
- Hofstede individualism index 12, 13
- Holmes, H. 13
- Hong Kong 92–6, 104–7
 economic relations with Guangdong
 93–6, 145–6
 FDI in Guangdong 93, 96, 146 history of manufacturing development 104–6
- Hopstaken, F. 133
- human resources and clinical trial market 63–4
- Ietto-Gillies, G. 23
- Immunotech Czech Republic 49

- incentives, alternative energy industry 154
- India, energy needs and alternative technologies 156–7
- individualism index 12, 13
- industrial output dynamics, Guangdong 97
- infrastructure and low-income markets 178
- innovation 3–4
- impact of foreign ownership 23–37
- China 28–37
- measurement 29–31
- and multinationals 1–2, 25–8
- innovation intensity 24, 30
- innovation novelty 29–30
- and foreign ownership 30–31
- intensity 32–4, 34–5
- propensity 24, 30, 31, 34
- innovation process, pharmaceutical industry 59–60
- innovation propensity 24, 30
- Innovation and Technology Fund (ITF), Hong Kong 106
- intangible assets motive for Sino-Triad alliances 86–7
- intensity indicator of innovation 24, 30
- intensity of innovations of high novelty 32–4, 34–5
- International Clinical Research Centre, Czech Republic 47–8
- internationalization of clinical research 60–64
- drivers of 60–62
- internationalization of R&D 27–8
- internationalization, waste management industry 133–5
- and Kyoto Protocol 130
- Japan
- alternative energy developments 151–2
- alternative fuel vehicles 155–6
- Jiangsu Province, China 28–37
- innovation and foreign firms 31–4
- Joint Implementation (Kyoto Protocol) 127
- Kemp, R. 154, 155
- Klausner, W.J. 15
- knowledge-based competition, alternative energy industry 160
- knowledge-based theory and knowledge transfer 27
- Komin, S. 13
- Kwong, K. 104, 105, 106
- Kyoto Protocol and waste industry 127–41
- and Dutch waste firms 137–40, 147
- and firms' international expansion 130
- labour productivity, Guangdong 97
- Lachema 49
- Laminar Medica 51
- Léčiva 49, 51
- Lemoine, F. 103
- leverage
- Hong Kong 105–6
- multinationals and low-income markets 170
- Li, H.G. 97
- life science industry 41–54
- CEE countries 44–5
- Czech Republic 46–54
- FDI 45–8
- Lin, X.L. 83–4
- locational conditions and impact of innovation 26–7
- Lonza 50
- low-income markets 166–81
- characteristics 173–8
- market opportunities 170–71
- and multinationals' strategy 178–80
- Luo, Y.D. 84
- Maiti, R. 61
- managerial capability motive for Sino-Triad alliances 86
- manufacturing development, Hong Kong 104–5
- market access as motive for Sino-Triad alliances 84–5
- market size, low-income markets 170–71
- market-based approaches to low-income markets 168–70
- market-based instruments and waste management firms 129–30

- market-seeking FDI, CEE life sciences sector 45
- Mexico, clinical research 64–9
- mistakes, cultural differences in attitudes 8–10, 17–18
- Moser Baer 156–7
- motivations, Sino-Triad alliances 78–88
 Chinese perspectives 82–7
 Triad perspectives 81–2, 84–7
- multinationals 1–2
 Czech life sciences sector 48–53
 in developing countries 171–3
 and innovation in host countries 25–37 and low-income markets 178–80 as multicultural units 18–19
 R&D expenditure 41–2
- National Renewable Energy Laboratory (NREL) 155
- Netherlands
 culture see Dutch culture waste firms and Kyoto Protocol 137–40
 waste management industry 135–7
- Ng, L.F. 105, 106
- Nokia, consumer education program 177
- oil industry 111–23
 Brazil 113–14, 116–18
 China 114–15, 119–20
 FDI 112–15
 role of governments 121–2
- others, cultural interpretations 14–15
- outputs, waste management industry 133
- Paine, S. 175
- partnerships
 alternative energy industry 161
 life sciences sector, Czech Republic 51–2
- Petrobras (Petróleo Brasileiro) 113–14, 116–18
- PetroChina 119–20
- pharmaceutical industry and biotechnology companies 43–4 innovation process 59–60
see also clinical research
- Pliva-Lachema 49
- Prahalad, C.K. 168, 174
- private firms, waste management industry 136
- product innovation novelty 29–30
- pro-poor innovations 172–3
- propensity indicator of innovation 24, 30, 31, 34
- public healthcare system, Mexico 65–6
- Public Utilities Regulatory Policy Act, US 152
- purchasing power, low-income markets 174
- R&D see research and development
- Raghavendra, M. 61
- regulatory issues and clinical trials, Mexico 66–8
- reputational capital as motive for Sino-Triad alliances 87
- research and development (R&D)
 CEE countries 42
 Chinese oil firms 119 expenditure, multinationals 41–2 life sciences sector 43–4
 Czech Republic 46–53
- research and development unit
 acquisition as FDI 50, 53
- research institutes, Czech Republic 47 acquisition 50
- Robson, M. 30
- Root, F. 42
- Sadowsky, B.M. 23
- Sadowsky-Rasters, G. 23
- scalability, pro-poor innovations 172–3
- self, cultural interpretations 12–14
- Sino-Triad alliances 78–88
- skill levels, low-income markets 176–7
- social circles, Thailand 13–14
- Soete, L. 155
- Solar Energy Laboratory, US 152
- solar industry, US 152
- strategic motivations for international alliances 78–88
- Sun, Y. 93–4
- sustainability 4

- takeovers, Czech life sciences
49–50
- Tangtongtavy, S. 13
- technological access as motive for
Sino-Triad alliances 85–6
- technological accumulation, oil firms
115–20
- Thai culture
 - and deadlines 7–8, 16
 - and mistakes 8–10, 17–18
 - three circles of Thailand 13–14
 - view of ‘environment’ 15–16
 - view of ‘others’ 14–15
 - view of ‘self’ 13–14
- total factor productivity, Guangdong
97–103
- transaction cost-based theory and knowledge transfer 27
- Triad multinationals alliances with Chinese partners 78–88
- Tuan, C. 105

- Unal-Kesenci, D. 103
- United States, alternative energy developments 152–3, 155

- Valdez-Martinez, E. 69
- value added manufacturing, Hong Kong 105–6
- van der Horst, H. 12–13
- Van der Wiel Holding BV 137–8
- Veluwse Afval Recycling BV 138–9

- waste as commodity 131–2
- waste industry 127–41
 - government policies 131–5
 - internationalization 133–5
 - Kyoto Protocol and firms’ international expansion 130
 - Netherlands 135–40
 - internationalization 137–40
- waste processing 132
- waste-to-energy 140
- webs of culture 11–12
- wind energy 152–3, 156, 157
- Wong, K. 93–4
- World Wide Recycling BV 138–9, 140

- Yeung, G. 94

- Zentiva 49

