Index

access charge uplift 81 access pricing 53, 58
access requirements 131, 132, 134, 139
account management output 121, 122
accounting complexity 130
activity-based costing (ABC) 83, 84–5, 128–43 activity-based sorting outputs 229–31 adjusted separate approach to cost 118
advertising 171, 174, 178, 196, 197, 209–21
AJ effect 2
Amadeus 26
Ambrosini, Xavier 68, 69, 126, 207
ANACOM 34, 35–6, 38, 40, 41, 43, 47, 49
Anderson, Chris 315
ARCEP 74
Austria 322
Austrian Post 322, 323, 327–8 appraisal of 330–31
employee/management relationship 334 employees and change 326
image of 328, 329, 332–4
IPO 322, 327–8, 334
need for change 325–6
services offered 323
and USO 323
Austrian Post Corporation 327
Averch and Johnson see AJ effect
B2B parcel market (Germany) 280–96
B2B sector 276, 280–96
B2C sector 268–71, 280, 283
BAC company profile 299–300 cost-effectiveness of green strategies 304, 305 environmental footprint 301–2, 306 and environmental issues 299–300 GHG emissions 302–7
and mail 300–301
Bank of America see BAC barcode technology 313, 316
Belgium Post 178
Benjamin, Maynard 334
Benkler, Yochai 318
Boldron, François 68, 100, 109, 184, 205
Bosch, Christian 324, 325
Bozzo, A. Thomas 129, 227, 228, 229, 232, 237, 241 BSkyB 60
business models 163–5
business-mail zones 6
C&T mail 172
CAA 23
Canada
cost accounting in EPPML-enabled environment 135–40 postal price elasticity 167 transformational investment 311
Canada Post 128, 129, 136, 311
Castro, João 12, 16
Charan, Ram 315
Chicago Climate Exchange 300
Chronopost 282
CityMail 275
go-creation of value 316, 317–18
Coalition for Environmentally Responsible Economies (CERES) 299 collection point density 1 collective intelligence 318–19 communication in postal companies 327–8 communications networks see Internet compensation funds 81 competition law 273–6
Competitive Postal Market Model 105
competitive tendering 81
ComReg 24
Cornee, Joël 197
cost accounting in EPPML-enabled environment 135–40
costing ABC 83, 84–5, 128–43
accounting complexity 130
adjusted separate approach 118
attribution to individual elements 116–17
bottom-up method 117
calculation methods (USOs) 114–15 coefficients 123–4
combined obligations 124 complexity of 130
cost accounting 129–30, 135–40
cost attribution 116 cost driver profiles 136, 137 cost elasticities 121
cost function 122–3
cost structure of post offices 122
cost uniformity 241
cost variations 240
cost-causative attributes 136, 137 cost/revenue interaction 102
data use 123
delivery 147, 271
disaggregated approach 116, 119–20, 129
dynamic approach 103–6
economies of scale 121
employee wages 246
entry pricing (EP) 111, 114, 239 in EPPML-enabled environment 135–40 estimation results 123–4
European public sector procurement 258–59 FDC 223
first class letter cost 272 first round net costs 106 fixed 147
global approach to 116–18
growth strategies 313
incremental 85–6, 129
indirect costs 138
interdependencies in net costing 118 labour intensive delivery 271
mail processing cost 241, 245, 246, 247
net avoided cost (NAC) 114, 239, 248
net cost arbitrariness 117
NPOs 147–48
opening hours 122
physical capital for post offices 122
piggy-back factor 242
and policy 101–2, 114, 115
Postal and Logistics Consulting Worldwide (PLCWW) 105 potential entrants 146–7 price changes 106
and product innovation 129 profitability cost 101, 114–15
redirection 138
regional effects 122
sequential approach 118
service costing methodology 95–8
and service features 105
static approach 102–3
total net cost 117
total product cost 129
unit delivery costs 239 upstream 147
USO costs 67–8, 86, 95–8
USPS 223–4, 228
USPS unit mail processing cost 241, 242–3 VAT 57, 145–6, 147–61
volume dependent 129
wages 246
see also Royal Mail; USPS
Cowgill, Bo 319
Cremer, Helmuth 58, 64, 68, 100, 108, 125, 145, 146, 150, 155, 160, 161, 184, 185, 186, 280
Crew, Michael A. K. 3, 6, 8, 11, 12, 13, 16, 17, 23, 30, 35, 44, 53, 70, 78, 85, 126, 129, 140, 165, 280, 323, 324
customer-defined innovation 314–16 customer-directed information 134 customers, types of 4, 55–6 data elements in mail 131
De Donder, Philippe 53, 56, 58, 64, 145, 146, 150, 155, 160, 161, 184, 280
decremental costing 85–8 delivery cost 4, 89–90, 147, 271 delivery frequency 165 demand and substitution model 266–7 democratizing innovation 314–15
Denmark 253–4, 271, 274
Post Danmark 254, 274
deterministic quality attributes 13
Deutsche Post World Net 280, 283, 286, 290
Deutsche Post/DHL case 273–74
Deutsche Telekom 60
DHL (Deutsche Post) 165, 282, 283–5, 286, 288, 290–96
Dietl, Helmut M. 114, 180, 285, 323 direct incentive mechanisms 24
Direct Mail 163, 164, 166, 171, 172, 173, 175, 176, 178, 179
direct marketing value chain 311
DPAG 74, 274
DPD 282, 283, 284, 286, 288, 290–96
Dudley, Paul 16, 64, 145, 146, 150, 155, 160, 161 dynamic approach to net costing 103–6 econometric model 121–3
economies of scale 121
electronic communication 128, 130–35, 263, 266, 267, 268, 272, 276
see also internet
employees and change 326
End of Run (EOR) system 225 end-to-end service 7
entry pricing 111, 114
Envelope Manufacturers Association Global Envelope Alliance 310, 319 environmental issues 298–308 EPMU 87, 151, 152, 153
cPostal Commerce see electronic communication EPPML 128, 132, 133, 134–5 attributes 136
  enabled environment 135–40 models of 140–42
equi-proportional mark-up see EPMU
EU see Europe
Deutsche Post/DHL case 273–4 domestic letter post 174 and electronic communication 275 electronic communication regulation 275 European Commission 74
European Consumer Satisfaction Index 43
European Court of Justice 71 European Standards 48, 134 full market opening (FMO) (2011) 1, 35, 67, 163–4, 165, 324 legislation 67, 68, 73, 84, 113, 115–16, 118, 163, 223, 250, 251, 260, 263, 324 market liberalization 113 Postal Services Directorate 117, 118 public sector procurement 250–60
  advertising 251
  Article 30 in postal sector 253–6, 259, 261 Article 30 procedure 252–3, 275 and compatibility safeguards 259
  costing 258–9
  discrimination 251
  exemptions to legislation 254–5 as financing mechanism 259–60 and market forces 257 mechanism flexibility 256–7
  New Directive 256
  postal exemption 250
tendering 251
to compensate USC 257–8 to inject competitiveness 259
  Utilities Directive 251–2 and scope of USO 265
Third Directive and USO 265
USO compensation 113
ex ante regulation 57–60, 61 ex post regulation 57–60 express courier services 169
Extensible Postal Product Model and Language see EPPML
FaceBook 317, 318
FedEx 282
Filpo, Fabio 261
Finland 167, 212, 254–5, 266–71, 275, 277
Finland Post 255
first handling pieces (FHP) 225 first-class mail 3, 48, 108–10, 266–72, 311
Flat Sequence Sorter (FSS) machines 313
Florens, Jean-Pierre 121, 180, 185, 186, 205, 217, 271
FMO (full market opening) see Europe France 167, 196, 212
see also La Poste
Franco, Agostinho 12, 16
Fratini, Alessandra 261 fully distributed cost accounting (FDC) 223 GDP and postal volumes 173
Germany 202, 212
  B2B parcel competition 283
  B2B parcel market 280–85 competitive strategies 280–96
  innovation 311
  market entry 280–96
  parcel market growth 281 parcel market shares 292
  product segmentation 282 standard versus express parcel delivery 282–3 see also Deutsche Post; DHL; DPD; GLS; Red Parcel Post; UPS GHG (greenhouse gas) emissions 298–9, 300, 302–7 global approach to USO cost 116–18
Global Envelope Alliance (GEA) 310, 319
Global Innovation Networks 319
GLS (General Logistics Systems) 282, 283, 286, 288, 290, 291–6
GOI 282
Gore, Vice-President Al 298
green strategies 304, 305
Greene, Moya 311
Groupe La Poste 201, 204, 283
growth strategies 313
Henderson, Todd 319
household transaction costs 7
Huston, Larry 317
ICP-ANACOM see ANACOM
incremental costing 85–6, 129
information attributes of mail 131, 133 initial public offerings see IPO
innovation
  customer defined 314–16
  democratizing 314–15
  investments 309
  Proctor & Gamble model of 317 sustainable 319–20
Intelligent Mail Barcode (IMB) 313, 316
interdependencies in net costing 118
Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change 298
Progress in the competitive agenda in the postal and delivery sector intermedia competition 171–9 Internet

- advertising effects on direct mail 209, 211–12
- advertising expenditure 213, 220–21
- advertising model 213–17
- banking 270–71
- expenditure diffusion model 217–20
- post-Internet marketplace 314
- social networks 317–18
- technology 16, 172, 263
see also ePostal Commerce

IPO
- in Austria 322, 327–8, 334
- change management 322, 325–6
- change process 327–8
- customer orientation 322, 324–5
- historical roots 322–4
- impact of 328–9

Italy 165, 172
- advertising market 173
- Poste Italiane 69–70, 80

Jaag, Christian 16, 100, 102, 119, 121, 126, 169, 170
Joram, Denis 68, 100, 109, 184, 205
Joskow, P.L. 23

Klargaard, Olaf 207
Kleindorfer, Paul R. 6, 8, 11, 12, 16, 17, 23, 30, 35, 44, 53, 70, 78, 85, 126, 129, 140, 165, 280, 323, 324
Koppe, Peter 324, 325

La Poste 201, 204, 283
- labor demands and multiproduct firms 226–9
- labor input variability 223–37
- Lafley, A.G. 315
- Lewis, Kenneth 299
- liberalized market, competing business models in 163–5
- Lintell, Michael 268, 271
- Lisbon Protocol 264–6, 277
- LiveMeeting 317
- Lutzenberger, Martin 114

McKinsey & Co. 315, 318, 319
- mail
  - access requirements 131
  - data elements 131
  - information attributes 131, 133
  - letter services costs 263
  - output 121
  - physical attributes 131, 132
  - preparation costs 105
- processing cost variations 240
- processing rules 131–2
- product attributes 131
- rules 131, 133
- VAT rate on single-piece 157–60
- mail order businesses see MOB
- mail processing
  - hedonic output model of labor demand 231–3
  - operating data (MODS) 225–31
  - volume concepts 225–6
- mailshot packaging 201
- Malone, Thomas 318
- Management Operating Data System (USPS) 224
- margin squeeze 57–63, 64
- margins 29, 30
- market-based sorting outputs 229–31
- minimum quality standard 3

MOB
- addressed direct mail 197
- cinema 197
- costs 198
- customer database 199
- decline 283
- delivery price/mailing costs 205
- e-mails 197
- external database market 200
- mailing campaigns 198
- mailshot packaging 201
- media above line 196–7
- media below line 197–8
- media plan 198
- objective 197
- outdoor 197
- and postal operators 198–9, 202, 206
- press 197
- price discrimination 202–7
- price-sensitive demand 202
- prospective customers 199, 201
- radio 197
- response probability 198, 201
- ROI marketing 197, 198, 199
- television 197
- models
  - B2C letters 268–71
  - competing business models in liberalized market 163–5
- Competitive Postal Market Model (Frontier) 105
- demand and substitution 266–7
- econometric model 121–3
- EPPML 128, 132, 133, 134–5, 140–42
- hedonic output of mail processing labor demand 231–3 internet expenditure diffusion 217–20
market entry 126
MSM structure 168–9
parcel delivery system 288 postal network market 184–95 postal products 140–42
postal taxation 146–9
product segmentation (Germany) 282
Red Parcel Post market entry 288–90
Royal Mail collections model 89
Royal Mail costs summary model 90
Royal Mail delivery costs model 89–90
Royal Mail Inland Letter Traffic Model (ILTM) 104
Royal Mail mail center model 89
Royal Mail other costs model 90
Royal Mail regional distribution center model 89 sensitivities in calibrations 156 service quality, price caps and USO 4–10, 12–14, 19–22 service quality and price regulation 25–8, 32–3 shape-level automated processing 235 single-output operation-level 233–4 UK internet advertising 213–17 use of outputs 121–2 Monaco, Diane 224, 229, 230, 232, 246 monopoly 2, 4, 164, 202, 320 multi-sided market theory see MSM multiproduct firms and labor demands 226–9 MySpace 317, 318

national postal operators see NPOs Nature Conservancy International Leadership Council 299
net avoided cost (NAC) 114
Netherlands 202, 311
see also TNT
network externalities 184–95
new product introduction 129–30
Nikali, Heikki 266, 267, 268, 270, 278
Norway 271
NPOs
and competition 145
cost types 147–8
as UPS providers 145
VAT exempt 57, 145–6, 151–3, 161
VAT rate change on single-piece mail 157–60
VAT-rated 153–6
Obrea, Andrei 128, 129, 130, 131, 134, 143, 315, 319 observable quality metrics 13
Ofcom 60
Office of Fair Trading 60
Ofgem 23, 24
Ofwat 23
opening hours as cost driver 122
Osborn, Derek 334
OTTO 283
Oxera report 81, 114
parallel markets 277
parcel delivery system model 288
 parcel market shares 292–6 parcels output 121 parcels post analysis 128–43 pay-or-play 81
payment transaction output 121–2
PCR 1, 2–3, 12–15, 34–5, 38–40, 49 peak-load pricing 3
physical capital for post offices 122
piggy-back factor 242
Pintsov, Leon A. 128, 129, 130, 131, 134, 143, 315, 319 policy and postal cost 101, 114–15
Portugal
ANACOM as regulator 34, 35–6, 38, 40, 41, 43, 47, 49 Azores/Madeira factors 42 complaint handling 43
Correios de Portugal, S.A. (CTT) 35, 38, 40, 41, 43, 44, 47, 49, 50
legislation 38, 40, 41–2, 51
non-CEP/CTT providers 36–7 non-priority mail 48
operating income 35
Portuguese Competition Authority 51 postal employment 35, 36 postal market 35–7
postal price elasticity 167
postal services 35, 37
price caps 34–5, 38–40, 49 price regulation 38–49
regulatory framework 38 satisfaction/quality variables 44 service quality 40–49
service quality indicators 41, 42, 44–9 service-price link 41, 50
USO requirements 35
Post Danmark 254, 274
post office closure savings 126 post office cost structure 122
post-Internet marketplace 315
postal agencies, Switzerland 120, 121 Postal Commerce environment 134 postal employees and change 326
Progress in the competitive agenda in the postal and delivery sector

Postal and Logistics Consulting Worldwide (PLCWW) 105
postal modernization 128 postal network market models 184–95 postal operators and communication 327–8 and costs 147–8
  as customer-oriented 334 entrants 147–8
  and goods offered 146
  image 328, 329, 332–4 influences on 322
  and MOBs 198–9, 202, 206
  price discrimination 202–7 pricing policy 205–7
see also individual operators postal organization development 325
postal price elasticity 165–8
postal product
  cost accounting 142
  decomposition 136
  definition 131, 139
  innovation 129–30
  model 140–42
postal redirection 138
postal sector regulation 264–6
Postal Services Act (2000) 52 postal services monopolies 202
postal taxation 57, 145–6
postal taxation model 146–9 postal volumes and GDP 173
PostComm 23, 24, 94
POSTDIENST 74
PostReg 119, 125
Potter, John E. 311
price discrimination 202–7
price elasticity 165–8
price-cap regulation see PCR pricing 3
Proctor & Gamble 315, 317 product features of standard shipments 284 product innovation 128, 130–35
product segmentation (Germany) 282 profit maximization 191
profitability cost 101, 114–15
public sector procurement 250–60
see also Europe
public subsidy 81
quality see service quality QUELLE 283
random effects 3
rate of return regulation 2
Recency, Frequency, Monetary value see RFM Red Parcel Post 280, 285–96 regression estimators 225 regulating quality metrics 13
Reisner, Robert A.F. 310, 311, 312, 334 reliability 3
response probability 198
retail outlet density 1 revenue generation 312–13
RFM (Recency, Frequency, Monetary value) segmentation 200
Robinson, Matthew 57, 313
Rodriguez, Frank 58, 64, 69, 100, 114, 145, 146, 150, 155, 160, 161, 209, 213, 214, 271, 280
ROI marketing 197, 198, 199
ROR 2
Roy, Bernard 68, 69, 100, 109, 121, 184, 185, 186
Royal Mail
  access 53–60
  growth 55–7, 63
  pricing 58, 59–60
  to market 53–5
activity-based costing (ABC) 83, 84–5, 90, 93
addressed inland mail 56 alternative costing 85
bulk discounts 52
changes to postal market 83
collections model 89
Competitive Postal Market Model 105 contested products 105
cost allocations of 92
  alternative demand estimates 107 calculations of 91
  collection 106
  common costs 87
  cost comparisons 91–2
  cost/revenue interaction 102 costs summary model 90
decremental costing 85–8
decommental models 88–90 disaggregated 129
drivers 91
dynamic approach 103–6
dynamic approach 103–6
  entry pricing method 111 five-day week revenue loss 107 five-day week savings 107 high level results 92
  incremental costing 85–6, 92
  increments 87
  information used 88
  local distribution 105
  mail preparation (indoor delivery) 105, 107 of maintaining First-Class service 107–8 of maintaining six-day service 107–8, 110 net cost estimating 104
net cost of USO 100, 103
in non-USO scenario 99
outdoor delivery 107
price change 106
profitability cost method 101
service costing methodology 95–8 service costs 91
and service features 105
of single two-day mail product 109–10
static approach 102–3
transport 105
customer surveys 104
delivery costs model 89–90 delivery frequency reduction 165 delivery times 107
equi-proportional mark-up 87 financial difficulties faced 83
First-Class delivery targets 108
First-Class premium 109
First-Class service 3, 108–9 five-day service 106–8
Inland Letter Traffic Model (ILTM) 104
innovation 310
Inward Mail Centres (IMC) 54
LECG efficiency review 224
legislation 52, 59, 84, 93, 94, 106
Licence 52, 54, 59, 84, 93–4 mail center model 89
mail types 56–7
Mailsort 52
margins 53, 57–63, 64
monopoly abolition 202
need to compete 84
network facilities 87
new product introduction 129–30, 310
operating data suitability 224 other costs model 90
as owner of GLS 283
parallel networks 88
post office counters inefficiency 121
postal price elasticity 167
postal volume 52–3
price
  margins 53, 60
  regulation 57–60
profitable service selection 102–3 regional distribution center model 89
Regional Distribution Centres (RDC) 61, 63, 65 regional efficiency differences 121
regulation 53, 54
Second-Class service 3, 109 single two-day mail product 109–10 six-day service 106–8, 110 small competitors discouraged 55
two-class mail requirement 109
and UK Mail 52
uncontested products 105 and VAT 57, 145–6, 147–61 volume customer led 104
see also UK

Sakkab, Nabil 317
sale of optional products output 121, 122 Sappington, David E.M. 1, 2, 3, 23 search for innovation 309 second-class mail 3, 109, 109–10, 266, 270 second-line growth strategies 313 Sender-Directed attribute 137 service costing methodology 95–8
service quality 1
  constraints on 4
  customer reaction to change 104 and delivery reliability 3, 4 delivery times 107
  and demand 15
deterministic quality attributes 13
double penalty 46
First-Class premium 109
First-Class targets 108–9 and higher wages 29
incentives 1, 12–14, 23–5, 30 indicators 41, 42, 44–9 and internet/information technology 16, 83 investment in 15
levels 3
literature 1, 2–4, 25
minimum quality standard 3
model for service regulation 4–11 and monopoly 2
in Portugal see Portugal and price regulation 23–30 quality incentives 23–4
random effects 3
regulated prices and margins 29, 30
regulation 2, 3–4, 15, 25, 29–30
stochastic quality attributes 13, 14, 25 targets 44
variables 27, 44
service-differentiated pricing 3 service-price link 41
Severts, Jeff 319
shape-level automated processing model 235 single-output operational-level model 233–4
social networks 317–18
sorting outputs, activity- and market-based 229–31
Progress in the competitive agenda in the postal and delivery sector

Soteri, Soterios 209, 213, 214, 271
Spain 202
Spence, A.M. 25
stable product portfolio 130
stochastic quality attributes 13, 14, 25
substitution 266–8
and competition law 273–6 electronic 322
Surowiecki, James 319
Sweden 165, 202, 212, 275
Swinand, Gregory 25
Swiss Post see Switzerland Switzerland 113
account management output 121, 122
case study 119–26
combined obligations cost 124
cost function 122
disaggregated approach 119–20
econometric model 121
economies of scale 121
estimation results 123–4
front office elasticity 121 global approach to costing 120 mail output 121
opening hours 122
optimal post office network 119 optional product sale output 121, 122 parcel output 121
payment transaction output 121–2 physical capital of post offices 122 postal agencies 120–21
PostReg 119, 125
Swiss Post innovation 310
Swiss Post USO 119–20
Synthetron 317
tariffs 40
TCM 291, 293, 294, 295
Telecom 178
Telefonica 60
Telekom Austria 327
Telson, Michael L. 2
Third Postal Directive 106, 163, 263, 265, 276, 277
TNT (Netherland Post) 129, 165, 207, 282 top-line growth strategies 313 total contribution margin (TCM) 291, 293, 294, 295 total piece handlings (TPH) 225 total pieces fed (TPF) 225 transformation strategies 310–13 transport costs 105
Treaty of Lisbon 264, 277
Trinkner, Urs 16, 100, 102, 119, 121, 126, 169, 170, 221, 285
UK
addressed direct mail 209
advertising expenditure 212, 217, 220–21
changes to postal market 83
direct mail trends 210–13
direct mail volume growth 210, 211
Internet advertising model 213–17
Internet expenditure diffusion model 217–20 Internet growth 209, 211, 212 liberalization of 52, 84 mail decline 209, 211
market non-expansion 83, 93 small competitors to Royal Mail discouraged 55 see also Royal Mail
UNEX 26, 30
United Kingdom see UK
United States Postal Service (USPS) see US
Universal Postal Union (UPU) 26, 30, 310
Universal Service Obligation (USO) 1
Universal Service Provider see USP UPS 282, 286, 288, 290, 291–6, 316
US
Bank of America and environmental issues 299 cost coverage 223
costing 223–4
direct mail trends 210–13
direct mail volume growth 210, 211 environmental measures 298–308 Management Operating Data System 224 population/wage differences 246
Postal Accountability and Enhancement Act (PAEA) 223
Postal Regulatory Commission (PRC) 223, 224, 227
USO mandate 241
USPS 85, 129, 167, 172, 202, 223–37
accrued costs by function 240
cost uniformity 241
cost variations 240
data construction 241–3 delivery costs 239
employee wages 246
facility characteristics 241 facility-specific unit costs 242, 244
Flat Sequence Sorter (FSS) machines 313 future of 309–14
growth strategies 313
innovation 310–16
Intelligent Mail Barcode (IMB) 313
link to profitability 239
mail processing cost 241, 245, 246, 247
Index

mail processing operating data (MODS) 225–31 mailpiece density 243
piggy-back factor 242
revenue generation 241
route types 243
sorting operations (data) 223–37 total volume 243
Transformation Plan 311, 312 urbanicity of routes 243
USO mandate 241
variable costs 242, 247 workload measurement 242 worksharing discounts 223 user-defined innovation 314 USO
adjusted separate approach to cost 118
attribution to individual elements 116
Austrian Post 322–34
and B2B market 280
bottom-up method 117
calculating costs of 113–16 calculation methods 114–15, 239 competition 69, 277
as constraint 104, 113
costs 67–8, 86, 95–8
disaggregated approach to cost 116 economic justification 184 and EU Third Directive 265 in Europe 113
factors in 68–9
as financial burden on USP 71–2, 75, 76, 80 financial sustainability 69–71 and first-class letter cost 272, 273 first-class mail safeguards 266 and full market opening 163–5 funding in liberal market 74–7, 113
global approach to 116–18
importance to regulated industries 24 interdependencies in net costing 118
net cost 68–9, 70, 74, 113, 115–16, 117, 125
net cost arbitrariness 117
and network externalities 184–95 obligation on USPs 100–102, 277 and opening markets 11
policy issues 101–2, 113
in Portugal 35
potential derestriction of 100 regulators 1
and regulatory framework 75
and Royal Mail costing 85, 100 scope 241
sequential approach 118
and social benefits 184 in Switzerland 119–20
and Third Directive 277
total net cost 117
as two dimensional 116
two-class mail requirement 109–10
see also Portugal; Royal Mail; USPS USP competition and compensation 73–4, 78, 80
constraints on 4, 101
deficit 69–70
financial burden of USO 71–2, 80, 100–101 funding mechanisms 75–7, 81 graveyard spiral 70–71
liberalization threat 70 market conditions 71
loss 69
power 68
share 105
and NPOs 145
obligations 101
policy issues 101–2
profit 73, 74, 76, 100
and regulatory framework 75
and USO costs 67, 69, 101
USPS see US
VAT and postal operators 57, 145–6, 147–61, 157–60 Visco Comandini, Vincenzo 169, 170 volume dependent costing 129
Von Hippel, Eric 314
Wagner, Stephen M. 296
Webex 317
Wikinomiks (Tapscott and Williams) 317
XML schema 132, 135
YouTube 317
zonal structure 1