Tables

4.1 Attitudes towards immigration 60
4.2 Perceptions of the scale of people smuggling 61
4.3 Perceptions of the involvement of crime gangs in people smuggling 61
4.4 Perceptions of the collusion of corrupt state officials in people smuggling 62
4.5 Perceptions of the types of state official that cooperate most with organised crime gangs in people smuggling 63
4.6 Perceptions of the dominant nationality among members of organised crime gangs involved in people smuggling 64
4.7 Presumed intentions of people smuggled into your country 64
4.8 Anticipated or assumed impact of EU membership on people smuggling 65
4.9 People smuggling as an abuse of human rights 65
4.10 Perceptions of the authorities’ approach to people smuggling 66
4.11 Attitudes towards whistleblowers 67
4.12 Perceptions of the problem of people smuggling 67
4.13 Levels of empathy with those seeking assistance from people smugglers 68
4.14 GDP growth rates in selected CEE and CIS states 70
4.15 Annual inflation rates (consumer price increases – %) in selected CEE and CIS states 70
4.16 Average annual unemployment rates in selected CEE and CIS states 71
7.1 Number of investigations and convictions in Sweden for trafficking and procurement, 1998–2006 122
9.1 Interviews with Balay Isidora clients 163
9.2 Mode of detection of clients to enter Balay Isidora for 2006 165
10.1 Scores of selected countries in selected years on Transparency International’s (annual) Corruption Perceptions Index (TI CPI) 194