Index

absorptive capacity 64
accounting system conversion to US GAAP standard 118 account management 170
activity-disaggregation exercise 50
agenda determining 19
airline industry 72
aluminium industry 55
Amazon
   on-line book reviews from customers 95 ambitions 65
analysis level 18, 114–15
Andechs Monastery, Germany, Benedictines rules of order as management tool 175 rule to ‘stop grumbling’ 175
Andrews, K.R.
   Business Policy: Text and Cases 7
Ansoff, Igor
   Corporate Strategy 7
Apple Computer
   co-evolutionary process with major industries 97 archival records and documents source of company evidence 111–12
aspartame (NutraSweet), artificial sweetener international patents on 55 asset management 137, 165
   efficient 47
   Hungary 129–30
asset management focus 119
asset utilization 48
AT&T’s corporate diversification ‘computers and telecom’ 100 simple rules, 100
Automation and Lighting Systems 121, 123 economic downturn 113–14
   machine-tool control technology 180 transparent factory 123
automation systems 122
automobile industry or transport industry 45 automobile industry, US 70
   definition 44–5
Automotive and Rail 114, 121, 123, 132, 137
on service sector 145
value-added services 163
Automotive and Rail Quality Management 133 autonomous behavior 7
balanced scorecards 199
banking industry 79
Barney (1991)
   creative imagination 35–6
barriers to entry 55
belief system in an industry 89
benchmarking 53, 192
   areas for 53
   by ElectroCorp 138
   definition 67
   projects 132
   technology 131
benchmarks 89, 180
best practice
   benchmarking 58
   competition 58
   core competencies 143
   sharing 143, 192
   transfer 89
Best Practice Marketplace 143
bid preparation 129
‘Black Belts’ Energy Solutions 134
Boston Consulting Group (BCG) 27, 30, 49, 54, 60, 92
brand awareness, deteriorating 56
brand investment 71
brand name, ElectroCorp 158
brand names, well-established barriers to entry 55
business development 129
business drivers 160, 199
Business Driver Scorecards 159 business ecosystem 97
Business Excellence Program 116, 119, 128, 151
on benchmarking 126
ElectroCorp 108
enhancement measures 117
portfolio management 125
six-step approach 133
business-relevant knowledge 129 business segment organizing 117 business units analysis 114–15
Communications Solutions Mobile 114
Calloway Golf 82
capacity-driven industries 149 capital intensity, degree of 47 capital structure improvement 118 case-study evidence 197
causal relationship 17
Center for E-Excellence
ElectroCorp as E-Company 164
central cost cutting 119
Chandler, Alfred
Strategy and Structure 7 changes in society 87
Cisco 96
Coca-Cola 56
codification of knowledge areas 150
coevolution 96–7
communities of practice 183–4 cognitive knowledge (know-what) 155 coherence ensuring 83–7, 168, 170 collaboration for solutions 92
collaborative relationships in business 96 common goals 92
communication frequency 18
Communication Solutions 114–19, 121, 123, 136
business units 139
sales, Germany 146
technology 141
unit 182
communication strategy 163 communities of practice, building of knowledge of 185–6
Community of Practice Knowledge 184 company and industry situation 112–14
company integration 186 company interaction
with stakeholders and shareholders 104 company internal communication 112 competencies, unique combination of 142
competition
anticipation of market trends 32 innovation and productivity 147
quick response to customer requirements 32
responsible 104
competition on basis of differentiation second generic strategy 58 competitive actions, types and range 44 competitive advantage 23, 32, 53, 59, 86, 102
local environment 46
competitive angst 59–60, 135, 138
cultivating 137
competitive benchmarking 66
competitive environment 26–7, 37, 61–2, 85
competitive intelligence 60
competitive landscape 35, 44, 72, 183 competitive pricing 177 competitive strategy 66
competitor benchmarking 60, 131–2 competitors
average 44
infatuation with 68
transcending 67–9, 146–9
complexity theory 39, 84
comprehensiveness 17
computers for children 86
conceiving strategies 19–20, 30 concepts, need for 19
configuration of value chains 129
consistency 201
constructive conflict 90 constructive criticism, insight from psychology 90
constructive dissent 91
culture of 89–92, 174–6
consumers as source of knowledge 95
continuous innovation 199
convergence 86
co-operation by co-evolving 96
co-operative strategy 104
coordination of globally dispersed firms 51
core competencies 36, 62–5, 140–44, 156, 195
transfer 76
core rigidities, challenging 39, 87 core skills, combining 69
corporate and business unit level 114–15
corporate development 156
corporate involvement and coherence 168
corporate knowledge pool 77
Corporate Responsibility Report 192–3 cost and efficiency factors 47 cost-leadership 58, 135
cost minimization, as first generic strategy 57–8 cost position 131
cost reduction and quality 197
cost-shifting 177
crafting strategy 60
creative capabilities of firms 34
generic steps 37
creativity 104
credit card industry 72
AT&T 70
crisis strategy 195
cross-industry technologies 141
cross-subsidies 173
cultural differences, coordination 51 customer competence 94–5 account management system 181
co-opting of 180–82
customer dimension 120
customer orientation, partnership 180 customer perspective 80, 148–9 customer planning 129
customer requirements 167
customers
demands 69
integration 95
into innovation process 162
irritations from industry 88 market and 159–60
needs, changing 66, 167
relationship management 95 satisfaction 164
Daimler Chrysler 70
data collection for ElectroCorp 109–12
data management solutions 189, 190 data resources 59
data triangulation 111
DAX Index, Germany 113
decision-making techniques 18 decision sciences 9
deconstructionist philosophy of science 39
deconstruction of concepts 40
Dell Computers 96
transaction segment, relationship segment 98 demand-side considerations 45 denominator management 67 dependent and independent variables 17
descriptive imagination 24, 26, 33, 44, 63, 196
strategy marking, ElectroCorp 119–26	hree-step approach 44–62
devil’s advocate position 111 differentiation creation 58 differentiation leadership 135 differentiation versus cost advantage 80 diffusion of knowledge areas 150
Digital Equipment Corporation (DEC)
microcomputer design 62
direct observation 166
company research 120, 175, 197
observational techniques 110–11 distinctive advantage of firm 57
divestments 50, 117
downsizing 66
Du Pont frameworks 24, 26
dynamic capabilities perspectives 24 dynamic capability approach 3, 5, 12
dynamic growth markets 156
dynamic interpretations of resource positions ‘challenging imagination’ 11
dynamic markets 41
dynamic process 201
dysfunctional personal conflict 91 earnings-oriented sales 197
Easyjet

- versus major airlines 65
- e-business 135
- Center for E-Excellence 181
- e-commerce 179
- economic cycles, national 126
- economic downturns 185
- economic environment, strategy making in 1
- economics of information, economics of things 93
- economic value-added 116
- economic value of company 56
- efficiency and profitability 48
- e-knowledge management 179
- electrical and electronic market, growth of 122
- electrical engineering and electronics 139–40
- ElectroCorp 1, 5, 107–94
  - automation 112
  - bid preparation 128
  - brand investment 133, 140
  - Business Excellence Program 108
  - business portfolio 126
  - communication solutions 112
  - customer-orientation 163
  - energy solutions 112
  - global business content 158
  - healthcare services 112
  - lighting systems 112
  - multidivisional firm, levels of complexity 109
- response to market challenges 118–19
- strategy-making process 108, 198
- technology base 140
- transnational company 109
- worldwide presence 140
- ElectroCorp Business Services 114
- ElectroCorp Communications Solutions Network 153–4
- ElectroCorp, Visions of Tomorrow, Business Excellence Program 144
- electronic bus and train ticket, 'The Card' 121
- electronic networking 179
- electronics and electrical engineering 142
- core business for ElectroCorp 169

Emotional appeal 81
- industry competition 80
- ‘Employee Dialogue’ 175
- employee forum 120, 166, 175, 197
- employee motivation 159, 160
- Encyclopedia Britannica, example 86
- energy industry and supply 124–5
- Energy Solutions 114, 121, 123, 160, 186
- enlightenment 33
- entrepreneurial spirit 20
- entry barriers 55
- environmental considerations 60–62, 138–40, 167
- environment, relating company to 26
- envisaging, conceiving and realizing strategies 197
- envisaging strategies 19, 30
- e-procurement 179
- E-readiness
  - Portfolio Optimization Program 179
  - established wisdom, disputing 87
  - ethics 9
  - evaluation in the global market 127
  - Evans and Wurster
    - on ‘information revolution’ 92
  - existentialist philosophy 33
  - external capital 79
  - extrapolation and retropolation 166–7
- factor input markets 63
- fax technology 172
- feasibility sieve 67
- feedback mechanism
  - quality assurance system 189
  - finance 159–61
  - financial claims, design of 48
  - financial performance, area for benchmarking 53
- Financial Times interview data 110
- firm resources 12, 64
- focused strategies 135
- formal processes for strategy 6, 7
- formulation 7
- Fortune 500 companies 89
- frame-breaking tactics 90–91
- frameworks, comparison 5–6, 28–30
- free competition 55
- functional appeal, industry competition 80 ‘functionality trap’ 173
functional performance, industry 80 future shock 78

Game, South African retail chain worries about competition 59
game theory 11
General Electric
competitive angst 60
intent to be primary contender in market 19
simple rules, ‘boundary’, ‘timing’ and ‘exit’ rules 100
General Foods, US coffee market 81
General Motors 69–70
competitive angst 59
regaining market share 54
generic positions, exploiting 55
generic steps 35
envisaging, conceiving, realizing 32, 37
generic strategies 55–6
discriminating, 56–9, 135–7
global configuration in value chain activities 130
global economy problems 113
globalization 167
governance structure of firm 48 growth opportunities 88
growth rate 47
growth share matrices 24

habitual interaction 101
Hamel, Gary on ‘strategy as revolution’
41
Healthcare industry 114, 121, 123
improved technology 124
healthcare services 89
healthy conflict 90
heedful interaction, 100–103, 187–91
Hewlett Packard
emergent and established technology link 98
high-resolution images for diagnostic accuracy 124
high-technology industry 203 Honda 69
competition with other companies 48 versus General Motors 59, 68

hospitality industry 79
human capital 79
human imagination 15
human invention 33
hyper-competitive environments 173 imagination challenging 38–42, 83–106, 204, 206
anti-imagination 40
defying old paradigms 87
disciplined 201
in strategy making 168–93 imagination, descriptive, creative and challenging 200
imagination in strategy crafting 1, 23–42, 56
Imagination Lab Foundation ‘heedfulness’ 101
imaginative strategies 15–43, 78–83, 196
conceiving 50–56, 69–77, 92–8, 128–35, 149–58, 176–86
envisaging 44–50, 62–9, 83–92, 120, 140–49, 168–76
realizing 98–106, 135–40, 158–67, 186–93
imitability 36
on Internet 56
imitation
involuntary external replication 103 implementation 7
incentives for shares 189
incentives, of individual managers coordination 51
incentive system 130, 199
Industrial Automation division major competitor, Mitsubishi 138 industrial organization approach 5, 12, 24, 39, 46
industries, driven by customer, capacity, knowledge, and service 71 condition, shaping of 34
growth rate 47
profitability 55
revolution, 39–40
structure, 24, 70, 205
wide variety 203
industry analysis 44
industry boundaries 31
defining, 44–8, 69–72, 87, 120, 149–51
industry dynamics, diagnosis 44, 46–8, 122 industry framework 27
industry knowledge, lack of 88 industry life cycle stages emergence, growth, shake out, maturity, decline 47 ‘Information Age’ 78
information and communications technology 167
  for hospitals, medical practices, pharmacies 124 information and knowledge 72 information as key resource 71 information goods
  and physical goods 93
information technology influence on value chain activities 52
  information technology networking 142 innovation 104, 131, 144, 148, 159–60, 193 integrated approach 4
intellectual capital 78–9
  competitive advantage 64
intelligent enterprises 75–7, 155–8 interaction, heedful 101–3 interdependent economy 104 inter-firm competition 63 internal capital 79
internal firm resources 195 internal processes 159–60
internal replication 102–3 international markets
  competitiveness 46
  interdependency 46
Internet and customer scrutiny 164
Internet applications, openness of 58 Internet business 179
  customer engagement as challenge 182
Internet, effect on barriers to entry reduction of 56
Internet, impact on value chain 52
Internet Protocol 123, 197
Internet, rapid diffusion 94
inter-product competition 63
interviews, qualitative, in social sciences 109 invasive techniques, minimal 124 investment portfolio, balancing 48–50, 125–7 invisible assets 64
issues, not personalities, focus 91
Japanese companies, success of, over US rivals 68
Japanese consumer electronics market 58
Japanese rivals to Xerox 66
joint value creation 181
key leverage points
  cost reduction and quality 116
  earnings-oriented sales 116
  optimization 116
  tied-up assets, reduction 116
key projects, investigation of 115–19 knowledge
  acquisition 102
  value generator 95
knowledge assets 64, 101
  internal replications 188 knowledge-based business 78 knowledge-driven industries 149 ‘Knowledge Economy’ 78
knowledge intensive industries 153 ElectroCorp competition in 149 knowledge landscape 96–8
  co-evolution with 183–6 knowledge leverage 85–6 knowledge links 75
knowledge management 34, 181–2, 192
  at ElectroCorp 171
knowledge maps 142
knowledge networks 141
knowledge resources 73–4 knowledge sharing 134, 168, 188–9 across corporate boundaries 103 knowledge, strategic importance of 64–5 ‘Knowledge Strategy Process’ 150–51
knowledge transfer 184
Knowledge Web initiative 155
Knowledge Web Quality Assurance and Reward System
  airmiles scheme 189
Knowledge Web Shares 188
Komatsu versus Caterpillar 68–9 language differences, coordination 51 Lao Tse, writings 59
law of diminishing returns 73
law of increasing returns 73, 92, 152
Index

Law of Nemesis, of economists 57 leveraging internal resources 151–5 leveraging resources across markets 35, 72–5 life cycle frameworks 26 life cycle of product 47
light bulbs 75
Lightings Systems business unit on speed in knowledge management 185 light trucks, for transport in US 45 limitations of the study 203–4 listening to customer, case-study evidence 148–9 local rivalry 48
logistical risks, outsourcing to suppliers plastic parts section 157 long-range price wars 156
low-growth markets 50
Lufthansa
  ground transport 83
magnetic levitation (Mag-Lev) train 124 magnetic resonance systems 148 managerial control, boundaries of 94
market expansion 47
market growth share matrices 26, 30 market power and profitability 46 market share 48, 50
market space, new avoidance of competition ‘head-to-head’ 81–3 Marks & Spencer, competition with banks customer financial services 70 ‘Matrioshka dolls’ approach dolls’ interdependence 203 maturity of industry life cycle 47–8 McDonald’s in US, growth of 87–8 media boom in US 113
media industry 167
medical care at home
  cardiac infarction, or stroke 124
medical doctors
  computer-aided diagnosis 124
  computer technology 124
microelectronics 142
Microsoft
  inefficiency in building shared identity 105 Microsoft Windows 2000
  customer testing 96
middle management 8
mimetic impulse 26
Mitsubishi, competitor 138
mobile phone games, partnerships 156 mobile phones 151
mobile telephony industries 79
modernity 33
monopoly rents 52, 55
motorcycles (BMW), Bayerische Motorenwerke 81
Motorola 97
multidimensional performance objectives 78, 159–60 multinational software firms 51
multiple alternatives 90
  precondition for dissent 91 multiple frames of reference 201 multi-service companies 125
music industry
  performers’ biographies 94
negation of sense of progress 40–41 Nestlé, US coffee market 81 networks of knowledge 141
new market space, creation of 164–7
New York Stock Exchange listing 118
Nissan 59
non-core competencies 64, 77
nuclear power plants 151
numerator management 65
objective determining 19 official company press releases 112 old paradigms, defying ‘shock therapy’ 173–4 online auctions 164
online business 178
operational effectiveness 57
operational management and strategy making 35 opportunities and threats 35 opportunities, emerging 65
optical networks 197
organizational knowledge 64 organizational sociology 9
overemphasis 31
participant observation workshop 111, 148 passenger cars for transport 45 past successes and future adversity 59 ‘patching’, re-mapping of businesses changing market opportunities 97–8 patent applications 165 path-dependent behavioral patterns 172 PayPal, settlement services on Internet 56 perfect competition 55, 89 performance yardstick (value-added) 197 personal computer industries 79 personal development targets 176 personnel management 199 perspectives of reality 201 pharmaceutical industry 93, 170
global industry 45
philosophy of science, constructionist 33 philosophy of science, positivist 26 physical distribution cost 86 physical goods and information goods 93 physical infrastructure 206 planning 18
political structures 167
Porterian industrial economics 3, 4, 11
Porter’s concept of framework 5, 6, 27, 30, 46
portfolio management 173, 197, 199
Portfolio Optimization Program 116, 128, 131, 136, 145, 151, 186
profitability growth 117
portfolio strengthening 117 position defending 54–6, 133–5 military origins of 54
position, establishing 52–4, 131–3 power generation 167
practice sharing 183
Prahalad and Hamel (1994) creative imagination 35–6
price/performance gap 69
price wars 68
prior industry knowledge 174
process benchmarking 131–3 ‘process’ clarification of term 2, 10, 17, 18 process excellence 157
process optimization 165
Procter and Gamble, US coffee market 81 product breadth 48
product development costs 73
product differentiability 47 product excellence 157
productivity, innovation and growth 116 product life cycles 27
product lines, extension of alternatives for 54 product market positioning 32, 35, 63 product quality 48
product standardization 132 product testing by customers 95 proficiency 150
profitability of particular industry 53, 91 prediction of 46
profit margins, eroding 68
psychology 9
quality management 66, 165
management attention 134 training programs 134
transparency and qualification 134 quality of services 48
R&D-intensive industries 93
R&D investment
Microsoft Windows 2000 96
rarity and competition 36 reach of a business 94
internet businesses 93
realizing strategies 19, 30, 56–62
organizational learning 20
real learning company 192 reduction of tied-up capital 118 research and development 3–4, 71 costs, 45
research avenues, further 204–6 research findings 112–19
research methodology and procedures 107–12 convenience of access for research site 108 research setting identification 108 resource allocation 49
resource-based approach 3–5, 12–13, 34, 39, 70–71 ‘creative imagination’ 11
resource-based industry typologies 24, 27 resource-based strategy 63
Index

resource blending and borrowing 74–7 resource endowments of firms 34, 63 resource-exchange partnerships 75–6 resource internalization 77 resource positions and competitive environment, 35–41 resources, firm
  creative imagination 204
resource stock 77
restructuring costs 118
retropolation 167
return on investment (ROI) 65–6 reuse feedback 189
revenue growth, sustained 89 rich customer information 94 richness, competing on 94 road-mapping (extrapolation) 166–7 role blurring of companies and consumers 94

SABRE airline computer reservation system 72
Sainsburys, competition with banks customer financial services 70 sales force 146
sales stimulation 165–6
scanning 18
scenario techniques 26
scorecards 160, 199
selective perception 58
self-motivated creativity (care-why) 155
semiconductor stabilization Semiconductor Technologies 117 service-intensive business 153 shared identity building 103–6, 191–3 heterogeneity 105
  inability to control or plan 105
  inefficiency in short term 105 mutual directedness 105 trust as key ingredient 105 shared identity in business 191
shareholder expectations 136–7 shareholders and stakeholders in business 191 share price of ElectroCorp 146 simple versus complex rules 99–100
  Portfolio Optimization Program 186
single-embedded case studies 203
Six Sigma approach, statistical techniques 134
skill-sharing 76
skills (know-how) 155
smart machines 78
social responsibility 192
social science literature
  challenging imagination 25
  creative imagination 24
  descriptive imagination 24
software agents 93, 122 software architecture development tools 51, 58 software packages, major 142 solution selling with competitors 129, 189 Sony music industry 94, 97
  versions of Walkman, rivalry in market segment 58 Southwest Airlines
  short-haul air transport 83
stakeholder theory 205
Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) 45
Starbucks coffee, US coffee market 81 static industry boundaries 32
steel industry 206
strategic alternatives, evaluation of 199
strategic assets 64
strategic choice, politics for 92
strategic intent, propagation of 65–7, 144–6 strategic nihilism 41–2
Strategic Planning Institute decision-making tools for investment opportunities 49 strategy conceiving 15, 17, 197 strategy content research 2–3, 8–14, 23–4, 135 strategy convergence 66
strategy crafting, with imagination 196 strategy envisaging 15, 17, 197 strategy framing 204
strategy making
  creative imagination 5–6
  diversity 201
  ElectroCorp 140–68
evolution of 7
generic steps 21–5
matrix 16, 44, 205, 206
steps 197–200
team 151
three imaginations 195–200
strategy process research 2, 3, 8, 9, 13, 23 strategy realizing 15, 17
Sun Tzu
  on victory without fighting 67 supply chain management 132 supply-side considerations 45 survivor bias 206
sustainability, overall 57
synergies 127
  usage of, 183
synergy potential of business opportunities 169–71 systems understanding (know-why) 155 tacit knowledge 155
tangible assets 78
target agreement process 176 targets, horizontal and vertical consistency 175 technicians, listening to 149
technological gadgets, mobile phones 162 technologies, new 98, 167 boom in US 113
telecommunications industry 139, 153, 154, 176 telecommunications value chain 177 telecom solutions 189, 190
telephone and Internet services 125 telephone companies, monolithic 177 telephone technology 197
telex technology 172
tertiary education system, Germany 173 tertiary education system, Japan 173
Texas Instruments 72
‘Third Wave Economy’ 78
tied-up assets, reduction of 197 top-management, strategy as province of 7, 8
Total Solution Value Chain 128–9
Toyota 59, 65
transcending competitors 146–9 transfer, voluntary and involuntary, of knowledge 102 transnational firms 201
transportation industry, dynamics driver assistance systems 124 unique selling propositions 81, 147, 161–4 drafting 79–81
unique value proposition 53
unit of analysis 115–19
units of analysis 201
value-added 71
value chain activities 50–52, 75, 93
  configuring 128–31
deconstruction of, time and location, irrelevant factors 92–4, 176–9 value creation activities 36, 63, 96, 181 primary and support, 50–53 value driver, new market space 82 value innovation 65, 69
value system 156
videos as data source 111
virtual interaction, software development 96 virtual marketplaces 164 Visions of Tomorrow initiative 166 vital functions, monitoring of pulse, respiratory rate, blood pressure 124 Volkswagen 70
voluntary external replication 103

Wall Street Journal interview data 110 wealth creation 78
Weil, Clive
  concept of ‘competitive angst’ 59 Wernerfelt (1984) 37
  creative imagination 35–6
wireline telephony 160
workflows 18
world, describing of 26
worldwide learning 51
Xerox Corporation and benchmarking 53
  Japanese competitors 66 Yahoo!
  success, difficulty of explaining 99