Contributors

Steven Anderman, Professor of Law, University of Essex.

Arianna Andreangeli, Lecturer in Law, Liverpool Law School, University of Liverpool.

Markus Baldauf, Senior Associate, RBB Economics, London.

Nicholas Banasevic, Deputy Head of Unit, Mergers – Task Force Financial Crisis, DG Competition, European Commission. Formerly member of the DG Competition Microsoft case-team.

Jean-François Bellis, partner at the law firm Van Bael & Bellis, Brussels, Professor, Institute of European Studies, University of Brussels (VUB). He has represented Microsoft in the EC case on the tying issue and the imposition of the monitoring mechanism.

Nicholas Economides, Professor of Economics, Stern Business School, New York University; Executive Director, NET Institute.

Jens Fejø, Professor, Dr.jur., Copenhagen Business School.

Ian S. Forrester, Queen’s Counsel at the Scots Bar, Visiting Professor, University of Glasgow; partner at White & Case, Brussels. He has represented Microsoft in the EC case on the interoperability issue.

Eleanor M. Fox, Walter J. Derenberg Professor of Trade Regulation at New York University School of Law.

Maria J. Gil-Moltó, Lecturer, Department of Economics, University of Leicester.

Per Hellström, Head of Unit, Antitrust: IT, Internet and Consumer Electronics Unit, DG Competition, European Commission. Formerly member of the Legal Service team representing the European Commission in the Microsoft case, including before the Court of First Instance.

Colin Jackson, PhD, independent advisor in information technologies. He led the team of technical experts appointed by the European Commission to support the case team investigating Microsoft and its behaviour in the server and media player markets in Case T-201/04 and the interim measures part of the case. Trained as a physicist, he moved into information technology. He was a founder and managing director of OTR until 2005 when he sold his interest in the company.

Tim Kasten, partner at the law firm Van Bael & Bellis, Brussels. He has assisted Jean-François Bellis in the EC case on the tying issue and the imposition of the monitoring mechanism.

Ioannis Lianos, Reader in Competition Law and Economics, Faculty of Laws, University College London (UCL); co-Director Centre for Law and Economics; Jevons Institute of Competition Law and Economics, UCL; Emile Noel Fellow, New York University Law School.

Rudolph J.R. Peritz, Professor of Law and Director, IProgress Project, New York Law School.

Carlo Petrucci, Ph.D candidate and Postgraduate Teaching Assistant, School of Law, University of Birmingham.

Derek Ridyard, Partner, RBB Economics, London.

Luca Rubini, Lecturer in Law and Deputy Director of the Institute of European Law, School of Law, University of Birmingham.

Bo Vesterdorf, Dr.iur. hc; consultant to the law firms of Herbert Smith LLP, UK, and Plesner, Denmark; former judge of the Court of First Instance from 1989 to 2007 and its President from 1998 to 2007.

Ann Walsh, University Tutor, School of Law, University of Leicester.