Index

abuse see dominant position abuse access denial and consumer and market disadvantage 211, 278–9
and interoperability information 388–90
LDAP and Kerberos 293–4, 306, 308 market, through alternative distribution channels 386 and passwords, work group servers 293–4, 296–7
patent rights and information access 252–5
prices, penalty for unreasonable 425–6
source code 417
source code request by Sun 86–8, 412–13
Sun letter, absence of request for technology access 169, 178, 196 third-party see third-party access and work group servers passwords 293–4, 296–7
Acohido, B. 443, 444
Active Directory 21, 25, 29–32, 84–5, 94, 97, 101, 104–5, 115, 255–6, 405, 411
directory products leading to 22–3 and emerging standards and innovation 293, 294–5, 300 key distributed feature of 26–7 and LDAP 25
and mixed-mode operation 27–8
Adobe Flash Player 40, 148–9, 430, 431, 443
Ahlborn, C. 320, 324, 325, 339, 340
Airbus intervention 162
Albors-Llorens, A. 325, 332, 335 algorithm development and protection 295, 313
Anderman, Steven 258–73, 286, 300
Andreangeli, Arianna 167, 193, 195, 197, 200, 318–43
Apple
Apple Computer, Inc. v Microsoft Corp. 209, 310
iTunes format 443
iTunes, revenue from 441
Mac OS X operating system 10, 39 Microsoft interoperability collaboration 119, 425
Microsoft sued by, for copyright infringements 209
QuickTime 38, 131, 146, 224, 249–50 refusal to license technology 208, 300 Safari 430, 450–51 software availability and developer-related activities 349–50 and Windows Media Player 39, 65 applications barrier entry barrier, US 454–5 reduction of 456–8
applications programming interface (API) 8, 14, 22, 30, 37, 240–41, 407
Areeda, P. 234
Arhel, P. 187
AT&T 97, 404, 405, 452, 454
AT&T Corp. v Iowa Utilities 246 authentication 23–4, 25
Averitt, N. 476
Ayres, I. 441–2
Azure cloud platform 356
Baldauf, Markus 369–92
Banasevic, Nicholas 47–75
Baskin, E. 284, 297, 298, 300, 302
Be Inc. lawsuit 221
Bebchuk, L. 480
Bellis, Jean-François 127–65
Bergqvist, C. 197
Blue Bubble and intra- and inter-domain interoperability 27
Blue Bubble replication mechanism 295
Bomse, S. 338
Bork, R. xv, 235, 237, 279, 471, 472, 475
Boughs, S. 334
Bowman, W. 102, 236
Bratton, W. 480
Brazil, open source software switch by government 457 Bresnahan, T. 348, 352–3 Brodley, J. 475
bundling see tying case Calabresi, S. 483
Calkins, S. 433
Camilli, E. 431
Carlton, D. 344, 373
cartels 116, 196, 459, 463, 464, 466, 479 criteria for tying as abuse 380–87 foreclosure theory 144–56, 160, 164 foreclosure theory, broader consequences 154–6
interoperability issue 260–72
and new evidence, considered relevance of 143–4 objective justification for tying 156–61 objective justification, broader consequences 160–61
objective justification, Microsoft arguments 156–8 period following 423–7 reflections 187–200
standard of judicial review 48–9 two products, existence of, broader consequences 142–4
two products, existence of 137–44 Windows Media Player tying case 134–61
Chicago School
and international agreement on abuse of market power, possibility of 472, 475, 478–9 post-Chicago School arguments 373–5, 383 pricing perspective on non-price abuses (tying) 372–3, 374 versus incentives to foreclose potential competitors 355–7 Childers, S. 221, 407, 408, 418, 419, 423, 424, 425, 438
Chin, A. 297
Chrome 430, 450–51
CIFS (Common Internet File System) 15–16, 28–9 cloning 94–5, 409, 410, 414–15 cloud computing 216
codec compression technique 34, 35, 36, 38
COM/DCOM object-management system 13–14, 40 Commission Vertical Restraints Guidelines 128, 137, 138, 142 common platforms and technological integration 324, 327–8, 332, 333–5, 339, 342–3 see also tying, technological integration and Article 82 EC after Microsoft communications protocols see protocols Compaq 210
competition
agreement to enhance 118–20 common international rules, objections against 468–70 in computer industry, nature of 352–4 dominance of platform and anti-competitive harm 399, 404, 405, 414, 434–5 elimination, extent of 286 elimination of 54–5, 58, 105, 264, 265–6, 378, 411 elimination risk in second market, significance of 264–6, 269 entry barriers to competitors 356–7 and European integration as policy 473–4, 479 exclusion on secondary market 171, 172–3, 177, 184, 191, 276 foreclosure effect on 180 forward-looking provisions and 408–9 international competitive process protection 470–71
and interoperability 242–5
law, and interoperability and emerging standards 284–9 law and innovation protection, international 482 law and monopoly 397, 400 law remedies, aims of 395–6 middleware, competitive importance of 219 network, and coordination problem 358 and network effects 396–7 network, and ‘tipping equilibria’ 358–9, 361, 362, 363 and networks, dominance and compatibility 360–64 restoration of 396–8
Schumpeterian markets dynamics 346–7, 352–4, 356, 365, 367 standards and interoperability, consequences of 300–301 and systems with network effects, basic aspects of 357–60 and tying and technological integration 323, 339–42 Windows Media Player and other media players 38, 62–3, 70, 73, 74, 222 compulsory licensing 76–126 challenging factors 77–9 and cloning 94–5, 409, 410, 414–15 communications protocols 84, 85, 87–8, 89, 100, 119, 124, 250, 255–6 company’s dominance, challenge of 79–81, 90, 92, 99, 101 confidentiality controversies 120–21 and consumer demand 266 criteria for imposing 169–78 disclosure scope and adequacy controversies 121–2 divulgation principle 80, 81, 87, 88, 98–102 EC Regulation 1/2003, Article 24 (1) 122
EC Treaty, Article 11 EC 93
EC Treaty, Article 30 99, 106
EC Treaty, Article 81 102, 114
EC Treaty, Article 82 78, 80, 88, 89, 91, 98, 100, 101, 105, 107, 114, 116, 125, 126
EC Treaty, Article 82 (d) 88
EC Treaty, Article 295 99, 105–6
EEA Agreement, Article 54 91
facts and the law 92–115 file and print services 83, 90, 94
fines 91, 115–18, 122, 125 general principle questions 115 and IMS Health tests 108–11 and innovation incentive 99–101, 104–5, 123–5, 248–9 and intellectual property rights 88, 98–9, 100–101, 119, 121 intellectual property rights, different 111–13 intellectual property rights and IMS Health criteria 102–8 and interoperability across mixed networks 84–6 ‘Interoperability by Design’ initiative 119 interoperability with competitors, agreement to enhance 118–20 interoperability debate 92–5 and interoperability information 81, 88–9, 90–91, 94, 99–100, 104–5, 250 interoperability and open industry standards 110 interruption of previous supply, question of 95–7 legal certainty, need for 113–14 legal precedents on setting 116 licensed material, nature of, and rights covering it 105–8 licensing cases and follow-up 120–25 market share analysis 146–8 open source software 121 and patent, copyright and trade secret law 79, 100, 104, 107, 111–13, 251, 253 PC revolution effects 82 price controversies 122–5 refusal to licence see refusal to licence relevant market question 90–91 request and complaint 86–92 research and licensing remedy and specification 97–8 reverse-engineering characteristics, problems with 93 server revolution, effects of 82–4 and service boundaries 94–5 source code copyright 112–13, 122 Statements of Objection 88–92, 128, 132, 136 subsequent developments 118–20 Sun source code access request 86–8, 412–13 supposed absence of novelty of infringements 115–16 and technical background 81–6 US antitrust lawsuit agreement 88 US jurisprudence and EC practice on 78–9 user and group administration services 83, 90, 94 ‘Windows Principles: Twelve Tenets to Promote Competition’ 119 and work group servers 83–4, 90–91, 99–100 see also licensing, interoperability computer systems, definition and elements 347–9
confidentiality controversies 120–21
consumer choice
and compulsory licensing 266
and distinctness of products 141
EC Treaty, Article 82 477
EC Treaty, Article 82(b) 100, 173, 174, 177, 194
and interoperability 359
and market power leverage 374–5, 376–8 and marketing new products 477 and new customers and interoperability 363 new product rule 267–8, 269–70, 276, 402–3 non-work group server operating systems considered better by consumers, effect of 173–4, 194 perceived demand and tying case 64–5, 67–8, 69–70, 73–4 and tying case 65–6
Windows 2000, and lock-in of customers 300, 308, 309 consumer welfare and technical information limitation 173, 174, 175–6, 193–6 as basis for international agreement 475–8 definition 476
EC Treaty, Article 81 416, 488–9
EC Treaty, Article 82 341, 372, 378, 384, 473, 477, 489
and lack of interoperability and compatibility 399–400, 402 and remedies in EC Microsoft cases, quest for 399–401, 410–11, 414
and tying 384
see also social concerns container files and libraries 35, 36 copyright
infringements, Microsoft sued by Apple 209 protection, extent of 312
source code 112–13, 122
Sun, and Microsoft antitrust violations and copyright infringement lawsuit 221–2 see also intellectual property rights; patents CORBA (Common Object Request Broker Architecture) 14
Crane, D. 320
Crémer, J. 361, 362, 363
damages
Netscape Navigator private suit 435 private suits, lack of, in EU 436 private suits, US 221–2, 435–6 remedies in EC Microsoft cases, quest for 434–6 see also fines
DAP (Directory Access Protocol) 17–18
DEC, Alpha processors 10
Denaeijer, N. 114
Derclaye, E. 284, 285, 290, 310, 312 digital media description 33–4, 37, 38 directory description 16–17 disclosure of information and interoperability, emerging standards and innovation in software industry 308 licence agreement and disclosure of source code 404, 405 reasonable and non-discriminatory requirements 416 scope and adequacy controversies 121–2 see also compulsory licensing Distributed File System (Dfs) 16, 29 divestiture plan and dual monopolies claim (US) 218 divulgation principle (EC) 80, 81, 87, 88, 98–102 Dolmans, M. 77, 300, 322, 331 domain controllers 18, 20–21, 22, 25, 26–7 domains, role of 18–21, 28 and group behaviour 30–31 key distribution centre (KDC) 24

and mixed-mode operation 28, 29 and SAMBA 29
dominant position abuse challenge of 79–81, 90, 92, 99, 101 entrepreneurs and consumer welfare effect, international 471–2 and leverage of monopoly power onto server operating systems market, threat of 408–9 market dominance see market dominance and monopoly 217, 230, 238, 240–41, 245–7, 248–9, 261–3 platform dominance and anti-competitive harm 399, 404, 405, 414, 434–5 see also tying, compulsory licensing DOS 9, 82
elimination of need for 213, 214, 223 predatory use of 221
Drexl, J. 77
duty to deal 95, 245, 246
see also interoperability, transatlantic divide and duty to deal

Easterbrook, F. 478
EC
All-IP Agreement (EC) 421, 423
Council Regulation 1/2003, Article 7 395
Council Regulation 1/2003, Article 9 394, 440, 448
Courts, name changes xix
European integration as competition policy 473–4, 479
‘implementation doctrine’, and international agreement on abuse of market power 463 Microsoft problem in Europe, roots of 399–436
No-Patent Agreement 421, 422–4 Treaty of Lisbon xix
US case, comparisons with 40–43, 60, 176, 184, 188–9, 234, 242, 247–53, 399, 400, 405–6, 415
EC Treaty, Article 11, and compulsory licensing 93
EC Treaty, Article 30, and compulsory licensing 99, 106
EC Treaty, Article 81
and consumer harm 416, 488–9 and exclusive distribution rights 474
remedies in EC Microsoft cases, quest for 396 and technology transfer agreements 102 and tying restrictions 128
EC Treaty, Article 82
commercial usage and tying 134–6 competition, elimination of 55, 56, 105, 264, 265–6, 378, 411
and compulsory licensing 78, 107
and consumer welfare 341, 372, 378, 384, 473, 477, 489 customer demand and distinctness of products 141 enforcement safeguarding, effective 55 essential facilities 383–4 and foreclosure, liability of 71, 72, 154, 339, 372 and future predictions 147
and innovation 325, 332, 341, 342, 464–5
and intellectual property rights 80, 98, 174–5, 188, 197, 261–3, 309 and international rules, uniform 483 and interoperability, emerging standards and innovation in software industry 284, 286, 291–3, 309 interoperability information, refusal to supply 91, 116, 291–3, 383–4, 404, 405 interoperability issue 258, 259, 260, 261–3, 264, 266–71, 273 licence refusal and exceptional circumstances 266–71 licence refusal as infringement 52, 168, 170–73, 190, 198, 259–63, 383, 402–3 limiting technical development, meaning of 286 and objective justification 323
pricing perspective on non-price abuses (tying) 370, 371–2, 375, 376–7, 378, 382, 383–4
remedies in EC Microsoft cases, quest for 394, 402–3, 404, 405, 411, 427, 436–7, 442, 445
and separate products 65, 66, 182, 183, 382
and objective justification 323
pricing perspective on non-price abuses (tying) 370, 371–2, 375, 376–7, 378, 382, 383–4 remedies in EC Microsoft cases, quest for 394, 402–3, 404, 405, 411, 427, 436–7, 442, 445
and separate products 65, 66, 182, 183, 382 technological development and add-on integration 324 third-party lockout 383, 384, 391–2, 445 and tying abuse 64, 131–2, 139, 140, 163, 179, 181, 199, 427 tyling, earlier cases 321–5 and tying, technological integration after Microsoft see tying, technological integration and Article 82 EC after Microsoft Windows Media Player and distribution advantage 155 Windows Media Player tying case 127, 128, 132, 135–6, 140, 141, 147, 154, 155, 163
EC Treaty, Article 82(b) abusive practices, prohibition of, and consumer prejudice 56, 57, 173, 174, 177, 194 and consumer choice 100, 173, 174, 177, 194 and interoperability, emerging standards and innovation in software industry 284, 289, 309–10 interoperability issue 258, 268, 270–71, 272
and media functionality in Windows 88, 128
remedies in EC Microsoft cases, quest for 402–3
and Statement of Objections 88, 128, 136 technical development limitation and consumer choice 173, 174, 177, 195, 268, 270, 271, 284, 289, 309–10 Windows Media Player tying case 128, 136
EC Treaty, Article 82(d) abusive tying 63–4, 67, 68, 128, 132, 181, 183, 184 and coercion 329, 336
and foreclosure requirement 134
and Statement of Objections 132, 136
tyting and commercial usage 134–6, 321 tyting, technological integration 321, 329, 336 and tying/bundling element 181, 183, 184
Windows Media Player tying case 128, 132, 134, 135, 136
EC Treaty, Article 295, and compulsory licensing 99, 105–6 economic aspects 344–68 antitrust process, longevity of 368
Chicago School see Chicago School competition between networks, dominance and compatibility 360–64 competition between systems with network effects, basic aspects of 357–60 competition in computer industry, nature of 352–4 competition dynamics in Schumpeterian markets 346–7, 352–4, 356, 365, 367 computer systems, definition and elements 347–9 foreclosure and competition between systems 354–64 globalization and international courts 368 indirect market entry 353 indirect network effect 349 innovation and competition 352–3 intellectual property protection of open interfaces 365–6 interoperability with smaller Internet providers 361–2, 363 market dominance and antitrust intervention, arguments for and against 353–4 market dominance and creative destruction 352, 355–6 market level elasticities for servers study 350–51 market separation and price theory 351 monopoly and innovation, effects on 365 network competition and coordination problem 358 network competition and ‘tipping equilibria’ 358–9, 361, 362, 363 network economies and innovation 361 network effects 349–50, 352, 353, 357–60 network externality and new customers 362 and networks 213–14, 218 new entrants and technology sponsorship 361 PC operating systems market 350 platform complementarities 349 platform definition 347–8 predatory pricing 361 principles of tying 371–80 relevant markets definition 350–51 software availability and developer-related activities 349–50 substitutability survey by Commission 350 technological innovation and changes by competitors 356 technology sponsorship and market dominance 361 and tying and technological integration 319–27, see also economic aspects, tying work group server operating system 348, 350, 354–5, 356–7, 359 economic aspects, interoperability and consumer choice 359 degradation and market superiority 359–60 and entry barriers to competitors 356–7
full, and new customers 363 innovation and welfare 364–6, 368 and price theory 355
and smaller Internet providers 361–2, 363
economic aspects, tying 371–80 Chicago School 372–3
post-Chicago School 373–5 as pricing concern 375–80, see also pricing perspective on non-price abuses Economides, Nicholas 353, 393–462
EEA Agreement, Article 54
and compulsory licensing 91
Windows Media Player tying case 128, 138, 225
efficiency defence concept, and tying and technological integration 325, 328, 339–41, 343 distribution argument and pricing perspective on non-price abuses 387 enhancing effects and threat of foreclosure 319–20, 323, 324, 336 gains, and tying case 325, 328, 339–41, 343 and international agreement on abuse of market power 481 Eklöf, D. 191
Embrace Extend Extinguish approach 305 EMC, Microsoft interoperability collaboration 119
enforcement costs, responsibility for 438–40 monitoring of interoperability problems, institutional aspects 437–40
and remedies in EC Microsoft cases, quest for 400
safeguarding effective 55
essential facilities
interoperability, transatlantic divide and duty to deal 280 and pricing perspective on non-price abuses 383–4 reasoning 261–2, 264, 265–6 US cases 110–11, 192, 193, 245–6
Evans, D. 167, 319, 320, 321, 324, 325, 327, 332, 334, 336–42 passim 348, 349, 353
exclusion competition on secondary market 171, 172–3, 177, 184, 191, 276
leveraging exclusionary abuse 264 work group server interoperability 411–13
exclusive distribution rights, and Article 81 EC 474
extraterritorial application of competition law 465–8, 483 Farrell, J. 298, 300, 301, 303, 304, 306, 309, 312, 313, 314, 315, 358, 360–61
Fejø, Jens 166–201
file and print services 15–16, 34–5, 83, 90, 94
fines 91, 115–18, 122, 125, 422, 425–6, 431–4 arithmetic of 116–17
and effect on infringement 431–2 increases 117–18
Intel 432
interoperability issue 260
see also damages
First, H. 433, 434, 460, 461
Flint, D. 296, 312
Flynn, L. 221
foreclosure
analysis, and tying case 68–72, 73 and CFI judgment 144–56, 160, 164 Chicago School versus incentives to foreclose potential competitors 355–7
and competition between systems, economic aspects of 354–64 competition, effect on 180 of competitor’s development, and monopoly 374
distorting market effects 329, 330 efficiency enhancing effects and threat of 319–20, 323, 324, 336 liability, and Article 82 EC 71, 72, 154, 339, 372 requirement, and Article 82(d) EC 134 roll-over discount effects 376–8 of stand-alone competitor, and tying 383, 384–5 of stand-alone providers 386–7 and tying and technological integration 322–3, 324–5, 331, 337–9, 340–41 and tying of Windows Media Player 180, 184–5 Forrester, Ian S. 76–126
Fox, Eleanor M. xv, 274–81, 320, 395, 465, 467–72 passim 480, 481, 482, 484, 485 France 467, 474
Friedman, D. 303
Gastle, C. 334
Gates, Bill (quotes) 166, 217, 290
Gateway 133, 210, 435
Gavil, A. 461
Geradin, D. 77
Gerber, D. 469
Germany 474
open source software switch by government 457
Gil-Moltó, Maria J. 344–68
Gilbert, R. 364, 365
Glaser, R. 133
Global Catalog 20–21, 294–5 globalization and international courts 368 trade, advancing understanding of 484–5 see also international agreement on abuse of market power, possibility of Google Chrome 430
Gordon, S. 312
Graf, T. 77, 322, 331
Greenstein, S. 348, 352
Group Policy 22, 28, 91
Gstalter, J. 167
Guzman, A. 480, 482
Hageman, K. 417
Hart, R. 291, 295
Hausmann, H. 187
Hawk, R. 114
Hellström, Per 47–75
Hogan, J. 309
Hovenkamp, H. 456, 478–9, 484
Hylton, K. 459
IBM
German contract 457
IBM Undertaking 290, 311, 403, 404
Innovation Data Processing v IBM 326, 327, 333
and interoperability 92, 94, 272, 435
and Linux 425
market security 90 and Microsoft MS-DOS operating system 9, 208–9, 210, 211, 213
and Microsoft’s interoperability principles 435, 457–8 OS/2 Warp operating system 214, 242, 249–50
SMB (Server Message Block) 16, 28–9
UNIX server 83
Windows 95, pre-release access withheld 211
IDL (Interface Definition Language) 13
Idot, L. 188
indispensability access and interoperability, transatlantic divide and duty to deal 275 background and interoperability 288–9 and IMS Health test 109–10 information, nature of 172, 175, 190–93, 197 interface protocols 261–4 and network effects 402, 403–4, 414, 428
product 171, 251
question 53–4
and reverse-engineering 296–7 and tying, technological integration and Article 82 EC after Microsoft 323 of Windows 241
industry standards
information and interoperability 240–47 open, and interoperability 110
innovation
after Magill 309–10
and Article 82 EC 325, 332, 341, 342, 464–5 and competition, economic aspects of 352–3 competition and consumer harm 247–56 deterrence and tying 428–9 and emerging standards in software industry see interoperability, emerging standards and innovation in software industry and genuine technical development 311 incentive 99–101, 104–5, 123–5, 248–9 incentive, and interoperability 403 incentives, and third-party access 174, 175, 176–8, 196–7
and interoperability 409–10, 415
and monopoly, effects on 365 and new or enhanced products 310–11 and open source model 313–14 predatory 212–13, 216–17, 229, 231 quality and consumer value 315 reduction, and cloning by rivals 59–61 restriction, and interoperability 289 in software industry 307–9 technological, and changes by competitors, economic aspects of 356 and trade secrets 426 welfare-enhancing, risk of deterring 89 Intel
fine imposed 432
In re Intel Corp. 244
Intergraph Corp. v Intel Corp. 244
and Microsoft’s interoperability principles 458 technical information, refusal to disclose 244 as Windows development 10 intellectual property rights abuse and alleged harm to consumers 57–8 antitrust debate 251–5
and Article 82 EC 80, 98, 174–5, 188, 197, 261–3, 309 and choice of business partners 52 different 111–13
and IMS Health criteria 102–8
and interoperability 306–7, 309–10, 316 licensing refusal and dominant position abuse 59 and pricing perspective on non-price abuses 389 protection 88, 98–9, 100–101, 119, 121, 488 protection impeding software innovation 314–15 protection of open interfaces, economic aspects 365–6 protection of software, current appropriateness of 312–13 protection for software innovation, considered necessity of 313–14 questions 113
refusal to licence as infringement of Article 82 EC, exceptional circumstances of 266–71 refusal to license and interoperability issue 62–3 see also copyright; patents international agreement on abuse of market power, possibility of 463–86 advanced and developing economies, differences between 469 and cartel duration 479 and Chicago School 472, 475, 478–9 common international competition rules, objections against 468–70 competition law and innovation protection 482 and competitive process protection 470–71 consumer welfare as basis for international agreement 475–8 and consumer welfare definition 476 consumer welfare effect and dominant entrepreneurs 471–2 dominant entrepreneurs and prevention of effective competition 471–2 and economic efficiency 481 and EU ‘implementation doctrine’ 463 European integration as competition policy 473–4, 479 exclusionary practices and consumer toleration 476 and export cartels 466 extraterritorial application of competition law 465–8, 483 global trade, advancing understanding of 484–5 globalization and international courts 368
and international cooperation 439–40 international regulatory competition in competition law 480–82 international rules, uniform, and Article 82 EC 483 market entry, factors affecting 470–71 new product marketing and consumer choice 477 policy objectives in US and EU, evolution of 472–3 and race to top and bottom 480–81, 482 refusal to deal cases and consumer choice 477 and regulation exploitation 466 self-destruction monopoly and laissez-faire 478–9 and social concerns 469 state competition and individual competition law 481–2 and territorial sovereignty 467, 468–9 uniform international rules, benefits of 483 unilateral practices and problem of different policy goals 470–72 see also globalization International Trade Organization (ITO) 463–4 Internet Engineering Task Force (IETF) 14, 16, 23, 24, 306 Internet Explorer
architectural bundling allegation 211–12 architectural bundling and reduced performance 212, 213 and ‘ballot screen’ distribution 447–50 download proposal 447–51 inability to delete 212, 232 integration and contract 406–8, 445–7 integration into Windows operating system 41–2, 88–9, 210–11, 215, 217, 218, 220, 224, 228–31, 233, 238 litigation 332–6
Microsoft bundling of 206 and Mozilla Firefox competition 430–31, 446 redundant Windows functions outsourced to 212 Interop Vendor Alliance (IVA) 119 interoperability 49, 55, 92–5, 258–73 across mixed networks 84–6 and applications programming interfaces (APIs) 8, 14, 22, 30, 37, 407 and causal connection 407
and compatibility 401–27
compatibility and refusal to supply information 401–2 competition elimination risk in second market, significance of 264–6, 269 and competition 242–5
with competitors, agreement to enhance 118–20 compulsory licensing and consumer demand 266 and consumer choice, economic aspects of 359 degradation and market superiority, economic aspects of 359–60 and discontinuation of supply 268 enforcement problems see enforcement and entry barriers to competitors, economic aspects of 356–7 essential facilities reasoning 261–2, 264, 265–6 full, and new customers, economic aspects of 363 and incentive to innovate 403
and innovation 409–10, 415
innovation and welfare, economic aspects of 364–6, 368 and interchangability, difference between 409–10 monopoly abuse and dominance 261–3 network effects and barrier to entry 263–4, 265 new entrant requirements 270
new product rule 267–8, 269–70
and objective justification 267 objective justification, finding of an absence of 271–2 and open industry standards 110 and ‘patent maps’ 425
and PC revolution, effects of 82
and price theory 355
principles 457–8
questions 95
refusal to license and competition elimination in secondary markets 266–7, 268 refusal to license IPR as infringement of Article 82 EC, exceptional circumstances of 266–71 remedies in EC Microsoft cases, quest for see remedies in EC Microsoft cases, quest for interoperability requisite degree of 404–16 and smaller Internet providers, economic aspects of 361–2, 363 systems and definitions 5–32 ‘Interoperability by design’ initiative (EC) 119 interoperability, emerging standards and innovation in software industry 282–317 access standard 295–7 and Active Directory 293, 294–5, 300
algorithm development and protection 295, 313
‘as intended’, ambiguity of phrase 291–2
Blue Bubble replication mechanism 295
comparative advantage improvement 308–9 competition consequences of standards 300–301 competition, extent of elimination of 286 and competition law 284–9 copyright protection, extent of 312 and disclosure order 308
Embrace Extend Extinguish approach 305
Global Catalog 20–21, 294–5 incentives, innovation and intellectual property 311–12 indispensability and reverse-engineering 296–7 and information availability 292 and innovation see innovation and intellectual property 306–7, 309–10, 316 intellectual property rights see intellectual property rights interoperability and indispensability background 288–9 interoperability information, identification of 294–5 interoperability, nature and extent of 290–97 LDAP and Kerberos access 18, 22, 24–6, 293–4, 306, 308 licensing and standards 301 and limiting technical development, meaning of 286 network effects, significance of 287 new product test 289
and objective justification 286
passwords, work group servers and access 293–4, 296–7 platform protection 301–4 protocol extensions and competitor restrictions 306 protocols, changes to basic 293–4 refusal to deal 285–6
and right to use 292
security risks to information 294–5 software sector background 286–7 source code protection 313 source code publication, early 299 and standardization of interfaces 297 standardization and technology levels 304 standards, background 298–300 standards, curtailing potential in emerging 305–7 Windows 2000 and lock-in of customers 300, 308, 309 and Windows as de facto standard 299, 303 and Windows lagging behind technologically 307–8, 314 Windows Media Player and standardization 303–4 Windows operating system 287–8 work group server
interoperability
interoperability information 81, 88–9, 90–91, 99–100, 104–5, 250
access 388–90
and stand-alone providers 379–80, 385–6 updating of, for new versions of products 416 withholding 231–2, 242–5, 248, 249–50, 385–6 interoperability, transatlantic divide and duty to deal 274–81 access denial and consumer and market disadvantage 211, 278–9 competition exclusion on secondary market 276 and Computer Software Directive 277 essential facilities doctrine 280 indispensability of access 275 leverage strategies 276–7 new product rule and consumer demand 276 precedents and limits 275–6 US perspective 279–81 work group systems survey 277 see also international agreement on abuse of market power, possibility of; US Microsoft case IP (Internet Protocol) 14, 25
Jackson, Colin 3–44
Java licensing and alteration by Microsoft, and Sun 215, 216, 221–2, 406 litigation settlement 221–2 and Microsoft-specific interfaces 42–3, 211, 446
as middleware threat 406 Native Interface (JNI) 42, 215, 219 as object-oriented language 13 and operation system independence 40, 41, 250, 435 Remote Method Invocation (RMI) 42–3 and standards, importance of 299 Sun experiment 305–6
Virtual Machine (JVM) 41
Jenny, F. 400–401, 431
Jones, A. 326, 335
Kahneman, D. 445
Kaplow, L. 237, 484
Kasten, Tim 127–65
Katsamakas, E. 456, 457
Katz, M. 357, 358, 359, 360, 361, 362
KDC (key distribution centre) 24
Kerberos client authentication 23–4, 25, 26
Killick, J. 104, 301, 310 Kingstone, S. 457 knowledge consistency checker (KCC) 26–7, 30
Knox, N. 443, 444
Korah, V. 114, 287
Körber, T. 77, 200
Kovacic, W. 431
Krechmer, K. 284, 297, 298, 300, 302
Krim, J. 222
Kühn, K. 356, 357, 365
LAN (local area network) 26
Lande, R. 476
Langer, J. 195, 197
Larvick, M. 304
Lawsky, D. 248
Laycock, D. 396
LDAP and Kerberos access 18, 22, 24–6, 293–4, 306, 308
Lessig, L. 212, 224
Leupold, H. 77
Lévéque, F. 285, 286, 298, 302, 303, 308, 310, 312, 315 leverage argument and tying 427–8 exclusionary abuse 264 and interoperability, transatlantic divide and duty to deal 276–7 market power and consumer choice 374–5, 376–8
of monopoly power onto server operating systems market 408–9
and remedies in EC Microsoft cases,
quest for 399, 400, 402
technological, EC comparison of US 234
theory as the logic for tying 233–8 Lianos, Ioannis 393–462
licensing
after case concluded, problems with 242–3 agreement and royalties for Windows OS 211, 214
agreements, separate 421 Apple refusal 208, 300 cases and follow-up (EC) 120–25 compulsory see compulsory licensing
cross-licensing 426 and disclosure of source code 404, 405 fee levels 388–9
GPLv3 (General Public Licence), incompatibility with 424 and Java 215, 216, 221–2, 406 licence agreement and disclosure of source code 404, 405
licensed material, nature of, and rights covering it 105–8 obligations 220–21 refusal and dominant position abuse 59 refusal and exceptional circumstances, Article 82 EC 266–71
refusal as infringement, Article 82
EC 52, 168, 170–73, 190, 198, 259–63, 383, 402–3
restrictions on OEMs for Internet Explorer 406
and royalties (EC) 420–21 and royalties (US) 410
source code 421–2
and standards 301
Windows licensing to PC manufacturers 219–20
Linux 10, 29, 92, 110, 242, 288, 303, 307, 313–14, 425
Linux Information Project (LINFO) 347–8
success of 83, 85, 90, 96, 100, 102, 220
Lohr, S. 216, 217, 220, 239, 248
Lopatka, J. 324, 335, 336, 338, 339, 428, 434
McCrudden, C. 456
McGowan, D. 206
Mahlug, D. 358, 363
market access through alternative distribution channels (competing media players) 386 behaviour coordination suggestion 196 consumer choice and new products 477 demand 171
distorting foreclosing effects 329, 330 distribution advantage 155–6, 163 elasticities for servers study 350–51 entry, indirect 353 entry, international factors affecting 470–71
evidence for allegation, lack of 128–9, 131, 133, 153–4 foreclosure, and tying and technological integration 322–3, 324–5, 331, 337–9, 340–41 marketing previously separate products in innovative manner 323–4, 332
network effects and competition 396–7 relevant market question and compulsory licensing 90–91 relevant markets definition 350–51 separation and price theory 351 share analysis 146–8 market dominance and antitrust intervention, arguments for and against 353–4 and creative destruction 352, 355–6 and degradation 359–60 effect 52, 55–6
factors explaining 213–15 leverage, and consumer choice 374–5, 376–8
and pricing perspective on non-price abuses 372 and technology sponsorship 361 and Windows Media Player tying case 163 and work group server interoperability 413–14 see also dominant position abuse
Markoff, J. 222
Marsden, P. 75
Matutes, C. 359
media functionality and Article 82(b) EC 88, 128 and commercial usage, alleged failure of Commission to show link 183, 199 lack of investigation into demand for 129–30, 140, 141–2, 143 media player
description 35–6
multi-format of 441–2 streaming, and client PC operating systems as separate products 179, 180, 181–2 streaming and downloading 36–7, 38
and tying 32–40
Windows distribution with rival, dismissal of suggestion 429, 440–51, 461 Windows Media Player see tying and Windows Media Player Microsoft Office 2007 service pack 2 launch and interoperability 458 middleware 40, 43
and interoperation information disclosure 219
Java as threat 406
Netscape Navigator as threat 215, 224, 276, 406 protection, and monopoly 406, 408–9 threat 215–16, 224–5, 242 Milgrom, R. 112
MIT, and Kerberos 23, 306 mixed-mode operation 27–8, 29–31 modular library structure 231 Moldén, R. 167, 196 Monitoring Trustee 122, 438–9
monopoly
and competition law 397, 400
and dominant position abuse 261–3 and foreclosure of competitor’s development 374 and innovation, effects on 365 predatory innovation 212–13, 216–17, 229, 231 and product tying 372–4 protection and middleware 406, 408–9
Montagnani, M. 324, 338
Motorola, Microsoft interoperability collaboration 119 Motta, M. 346, 362
Mozilla Firefox 430, 446
multi-master replication technique 26 Nalebuff, D. 319, 320, 372, 441–2
Neelie Kroes–Steve Ballmer agreement 423, 424
Netscape Navigator and Java 42, 43, 215, 303, 435 Microsoft and AOL/TimeWarner lawsuit 221
as middleware threat 215, 224, 276, 406
Mozilla Firefox 430, 446
NetWare 307
and operation system independence 40, 41, 210–11, 215, 356, 435 private information withheld claim 406–7 network competition and coordination problem 358 competition and ‘tipping equilibria’ 358–9, 361, 362, 363 economics 213–14, 218 economies and innovation 361 externality and new customers 362 heterogeneous 10, 21, 84–5, 92–3, 414 membership, value of 240–41, 242
Microsoft Developer Network 51
Microsoft on trial
network effects
barrier to entry 263–4, 265, 411
and competition 396–7
economic aspects of 349–50, 352, 353, 357–60
and incompatibility 405 indirect 349
and indispensability 402, 403–4, 414, 428 significance of, and interoperability 287
and tying and technological integration 331, 338–9 new entrants 84, 268, 270, 352 new product criterion, application of 56–9 denied to customer, and IMS Health test 108–9 interoperability information, updating of 416 interpretation of concept 193–4 marketing and consumer choice, international 477 prevention of appearance of 171, 173, 174, 193–4, 195 qualification of meaning 58 rule and consumer choice 267–8, 269–70, 276, 402–3 test, and interoperability 289 Windows Media Player contested as 328–9 Novell
Microsoft interoperability collaboration 119, 277, 414, 425, 435
and Microsoft’s interoperability principles 89, 92, 457–8, 483
NetWare 83
private damages suit 435
Nullsoft, Winamp 38 object-oriented programming, distribution of 12–14 objective justification 58, 59–61, 63 absence of, Windows Media Player tying case 132
and Article 82 EC 323
CFI judgment 156–61
CFI judgment, broader consequences 160–61
CFI judgment, Microsoft arguments 156–8 finding an absence of, interoperability issue 271–2
and IMS Health test 110
and interoperability 267, 286
pricing perspective on non-price abuses (tying) 387
remedies in EC Microsoft cases, quest for 402
and tying case 72–4, 183, 186–7
and tying and technological integration 323, 325, 330, 332, 339–42, 343
O’Brien, K. 248
OECD 464
Ong, B. 324
open source developers, pledge not to sue 424–5 products 29
software, and compulsory licensing 121 software and government bidding process 456–7 Opera 394, 447, 450–51 operating systems 7–8, 10–11, 23–4, 38, 42, 65 Oracle 119, 290, 356
O’Rourke, M. 290
Luca Rubini - 9781849807142
Downloaded from Elgar Online at 03/18/2019 11:39:20PM
via free access
PAC (privilege access certificate) 24
Padilla, J. 319, 320, 321, 324, 325, 327, 332, 334, 336–42 passim Pardolesi, R. 331, 332, 338 passwords, work group servers and access 293–4, 296–7
patents
description and enablement requirement 254 disclosure requirement, possible effects of 255–6 No-Patent Agreement (EC) 421, 422–4 patent, copyright and trade secret law (EC) 79, 100, 104, 107, 111–13, 251, 253 ‘patent maps’, and interoperability 425 rights and information access 252–5 trade secrets and innovation 426 see also copyright; intellectual property rights Pautke, S. 77
PC
manufacturers and browser installation 451 operating systems market 350 pre-installed, and tying case 65–6, 67–8, 74 revolution, effects of 82 Peeperkorn, L. 102
penalties see fines
Peritz, Rudolph J.R. 205–57
Petrucci, Carlo 463–86
PFIF (Protocol Freedom Information Foundation) Agreement (with SAMBA) 424–5 Pitofsky, R. 395
platform
complementarities, economic aspects of 349
definition 347–8
dominance of, and anti-competitive harm 399, 404, 405, 414, 434–5 neutrality problem 404–5 protection, and interoperability 301–4 plug-ins 41
price theory discrimination theory, and tying 236–8
and interoperability 355
and market separation 351 pricing controversies 122–5
predatory 320, 329, 331, 337, 361
pricing perspective on non-price abuses 369–92
bundling, EC definition 371–2 bundling and foreclosure of stand-alone competitor 383, 384–5 bundling intervention and efficiency and consumer harm 375 CFI criteria for tying as abuse 380–87
Chicago School see Chicago School consumer power and market power leverage 374–5, 376–8 dominance in tying product 381
EC Treaty, Article 82 370, 371–2, 375, 376–7, 378, 382, 383–4 economic principles of tying 371–80 efficiencies in distribution argument 387 essential facilities cases 383–4 foreclosure effects from a roll-over discount 376–8 foreclosure of stand-alone providers 386–7 incremental pricing incentives of supplying WMP 379
and intellectual property rights 389
interoperability information access 388–90 interoperability information and stand-alone providers 379–80, 385–6 interoperability information, withholding 385–6 licence fee levels 388–9 market access through alternative distribution channels (competing media players) 386 and market dominance 372 market power leverage 374 Microsoft’s abuses in a pricing framework 378–80 mixed bundling 371
monopoly and foreclosure of competitor’s development 374 monopoly and product tying 372–4 objective justification 387
pure bundling 371 refusal to supply cases 383–4 and remedies in EC Microsoft cases, quest for 435, 442–3 remedies, implications of 388–91 royalty rates 388, 421, 422–4 separate products 381–5
and third party access 387–91 third party server software providers, effect on 386–7 ty ing and consumer welfare 384 ty ing and normal value-added economic activity, problem of difference between 382 ty ing as a pricing concern 375–9 ty ing product not offered separately 385–6
and Windows Media Player 378–9 Windows Media Player unbundling with no price difference 390–91 protocols 10, 11–12, 84, 85, 87–8, 89, 100, 119, 124, 250, 255–6 changes to basic 293–4
Communications Protocols
Licensing programme 412 extensions and competitor restrictions 306 extensions to standard 15 and free competition 174–5
and interoperability 409, 410
PFIF (Protocol Freedom Information Foundation) Agreement (with SAMBA) 424–5 server-to-server 412–13 standards and documentation 14–15, 30, 31
US Communications Protocol programme (MCPP) 417–18, 419, 423, 426 Psalti, E. 417

public procurement procedures as antitrust remedy 456–8 Rahnasto, I. 304, 316
Raw Native Interface (RNI) 42
RealNetworks
RealAudio format 441
RealOne Player 38, 222
RealPlayer 62–3
and tying case 89, 130, 133–4, 139, 148, 149, 152, 158, 276, 435
Reback, G. 431
Red Hat 458
refusal to deal
and consumer choice, international 477 interoperability, emerging standards and innovation in software industry 285–6 refusal to license
as abuse 402–3
and competition elimination in secondary markets 266–7, 268 IPR as infringement of Article 82 EC, exceptional circumstances of 266–71 IPR and interoperability 62–3 questions concerning 87, 89 refusal to supply abuse, case law 51–2
cases 262, 268
cases and pricing perspective on non-price abuses 383–4 interoperability information abuse 50–61
Regibeau, P. 359
Reimann, C. 285, 286, 307, 312
remedies in EC Microsoft cases, quest for 393–462 access prices, penalty for unreasonable 425–6 Active Directory 405, 411
All-IP Agreement 421, 423 alternative remedies 455–9 applications barrier, reduction of 456–8 open source software and government bidding process 456–7
open-source developers, pledge not to sue 424–5 PC manufacturers and browser installation 451
and penalties 420, 421, 422, 431–2 PFIF Agreement (with SAMBA) 424 platform neutrality problem 404–5 and pricing strategy 388–91, 435, 442–3
private damages suits, lack of in EU 436 private damages suits, US 435–6 public procurement procedures as antitrust remedy 456–8 refusal to licence as abuse 402–3 royalty pricing levels 421, 422–4 server-to-server protocols 412–13 source code access 417 source code licences 421–2 standard setting organization 458–9 structural remedy option 451–9 substitutionary remedies 431–6 suspension of Decision, Microsoft application for 419–20 technical documentation, lack of sufficient 420–22 technical information withheld 406–7
third party developers, lack of active support for 421–2
trade secrets and innovation 426 tyning and innovation deterrence 428–9
tyning, lack of specific US remedy 427–8
tyning and leveraging argument 427–8
tying of Windows Media Player 427–31
US case 406–10
US case comparison 399, 400, 405–6, 415
US Communications Protocol programme (MCPP) 417–18, 419, 423, 426
US and EC compliance 418–19
US Technical Committee monitoring 418, 419, 439–40 Windows 2000, lack of interoperability information and lock-in of customers 413–14 Windows distribution with rival media players, dismissal of suggestion 429, 440–51, 461 Windows N remedy and ‘must carry’ proposal 428–31, 440–51, 461 WordPerfect and lack of interoperability information 435–6
work group server interoperability 402, 404–5, 416
work group server interoperability, exclusion of, and consumer harm 411–13
work group server interoperability, and refusal to supply full specification of protocols 413, 415–16
work group server, market dominance 413–14
Work Group Server Protocol programme (2004 WSPP) 417–18, 419, 420–21, 422–3, 426 remedies in EC Microsoft cases, quest for, interoperability and applications programming interfaces (APIs) 407
and causal connection 407
and compatibility 401–27
compatibility and refusal to supply information 401–2 duty and incentive to innovate 403 efficiency problems, institutional aspects 437–40 information, updating of for new versions of products 416
and innovation 409–10, 415
and interchangability, difference between 409–10
and ‘patent maps’ 425
principles 457–8
remedies imposed 259–60
requisite degree of 404–16
Renda, A. 331, 332, 338 reverse-engineering characteristics, problems with 93
and indispensability 296–7
and specification 8, 29
Rhapsody subscription service 222
Ridyard, Derek 77, 320, 324, 331, 369–92
Riordan, M. 365
Ritter, C. 272
Rochet, J. 239
Rotenberg, B. 287, 290, 301, 302, 304, 310 royalties 388
and licensing (EC) 420–21 and licensing (US) 410
pricing levels and competitive disadvantage 421, 422–4
reductions 423–4
RPC (remote procedure call) 12–13, 26 ‘rule of reason’ standards, and tying and technological integration 327, 334–6, 337, 339–40, 341
Saloner, G. 358, 360–61
SAM (security accounts manager) registry 22, 23
SAMBA 28–9, 90, 296, 418, 435, 438
PFIF Agreement 424–5
Samuelson, P. 289, 296, 305, 366
Samuelson, W. 445
SASL (Simple Authentication and Security Layer) 25–6
Schmalensee, R. 325, 338, 353
Schoechle, T. 289, 298, 300, 305, 307
Schumpeterian markets dynamics 346–7, 352–4, 356, 365, 367
Schwarz, M. 358, 363
Scotchmer, S. 125, 289, 296, 305, 349, 357, 366
security risks to information 294–5
SASL (Simple Authentication and Security Layer) 25–6
source code protection 313 separate companies, break-up into two companies proposal 452–5 separate products 65, 66, 182, 183, 381–5, 382
and distinct demand for each product 321–2, 336, 339–40 marketing previously separate goods in innovative manner 323–4, 332 streaming media players and client PC operating systems as 179, 180, 181–2 and tied products and coercion of customers 321–2, 324, 325, 326, 328–9, 330–31, 335–7, 341, 343
server-to-server protocols 412–13 service boundaries, and compulsory licensing 94–5
Shapiro, C. 357, 358, 359, 360, 361, 362, 455, 460
Shavell, S. 484
social concerns international 469
see also consumer welfare software availability and developer-related activities, economic aspects of 349–50
development kits (SDKs) 37
EC Software Directive 50, 53, 113, 178, 272, 277, 287, 291–3, 310, 349–50
integration strategy, judicial defence to 222–38 integration strategy, Microsoft’s 223–5
levels of 6–7
Sony Ericsson 119
source code
access 417
commingling and technological integration 231–2
copyright 112–13, 122
licensing 404, 405, 421–2 programs 6–7, 60
protection 313
publication, early 299
standardization
de facto 330, 331, 338, 342, 458–9 emerging standards and innovation in software industry see interoperability, emerging standards and innovation in software industry of interfaces 297 ‘rule of reason’, and tying and technological integration 327, 334–6, 337, 339–40, 341
standard setting organization 458–9 Microsoft on trial

state challenges, individual 407, 408, 410, 442 competition and individual competition law 481–2 Stephan, P. 479, 482, 483 streaming media players and client PC operating systems as separate products 179, 180, 181–2 see also separate products substitutability survey by Commission 350 substitutionary remedies 431–6
Sullivan, L. 469, 472
Sun Active Directory information request 4, 14, 22 and centralized computing model 356 innovations, proposed 310 and Java see Java letter, absence of request for technology access 169, 178, 196 Microsoft antitrust violations and copyright infringement lawsuit 221–2 Microsoft interoperability collaboration 119, 277, 354–5, 411, 425, 446
Microsoft refusal to provide interoperability 401–2 Microsoft SASL allegations 25–6 Microsoft settlement impact 60–61 and Microsoft’s interoperability principles 89, 90, 92, 290, 457–8 private damages suit 435
Solaris operating system 10, 259, 267, 269–70, 354–5, 357, 359, 360, 412–13 Solaris and Windows Media Player 65 source code access request 86–8, 412–13 Sun Microsystems, Inc. v Microsoft Corp. 216 tying claim under rule of reason approach for IE rejected 406

UNIX server 83
switching costs and customer lock-in 241 Symbian 119
Systems Network Architecture (SNA) 14
Taylor, M. 468
TCP (Transport Control Protocol) 14, 25 technological tying 218 interrelated products and consumer preference 327 and net competitive restraints 226–7 progress of 323
technology bundling, judicial deference to 225–33, 251 constraints, lack of evidence of 330 definitions and explanations 3–44 development and add-on integration 324 development limitation and consumer choice 173, 174, 177, 195, 268, 270, 271, 284, 289, 309–10 development limitation 57, 286 development, and tying case 198–9 documentation disclosure, difficulties with accuracy of 420 documentation, lack of sufficient 420–22 information limitation 173, 174, 175–6, 193–6 information withheld 406–7 innovation and changes by competitors, economic aspects of 356 integration and US antitrust rules 332–6 leveraging comparison 234 licensing see licensing sponsorship and market dominance 361 technical background and compulsory licensing 81–6 technical compatibility 213–14 transfer agreements 102 transparency and problems with non-Microsoft servers/operating systems 29–30 Windows Media Player, alleged technical reasons for 182–3 Temple Lang, J. 104, 266 territorial sovereignty 467, 468–9 third-party access developers, lack of active support for 421–2 lockout and Article 82 EC 383, 384, 391–2, 445
and pricing perspective on non-price abuses 387–91 programs, functionality issues 140, 150–51, 156–60 server software providers, effect on 386–7 Thyri, P. 77
Tilbury, M. 396
Tirole, J. 239
trade secrets
and innovation 426
patent, copyright and trade secret law (EC) 79, 100, 104, 107, 111–13, 251, 253 see also patents tree domain hierarchy 19–21, 22
Treo Smartphones, Microsoft interoperability collaboration 119 Tridgell, A. 28–9
tying abuse, and EC Treaty, Article 82 64, 131–2, 139, 140, 163, 179, 181, 199, 427 and bundling as common practices 371–2 bundling, EC definition 371–2
bundling and foreclosure of stand-alone competitor 383, 384–5 and causation concerns 233–4 and commercial usage 134–6, 321
and consumer welfare 384
and innovation deterrence 428–9 intervention and efficiency and consumer harm 375 lack of specific US remedy 427–8 leverage theory as the logic for 233–8 and leveraging argument 427–8
and monopoly 372–4
and normal value-added economic activity, problem of difference between 382 and price discrimination theory 236–8 as a pricing concern 375–80 pricing perspective on non-price abuses see pricing perspective on non-price abuses product not offered separately 385–6 restrictions, and Article 81 EC 128 technological see technological tying tied product, no compulsion to use 329 see also dominant position abuse ty ing case, Windows Media Player Airbus intervention 162
and Apple 39, 65
applications and systems software, difference between 64 balancing test and disregard of certain benefi ts 160–61 and bundling 65, 68, 70–71, 73 bundling element and efficiency gains 186 bundling and harm to consumer 225 and case law (EC) 63–4, 69 CFI judgment see CFI judgment and codec 34 and coercion denial 67–8 Commission Vertical Restraints Guidelines 128, 137, 138, 142 Commission's decision 128–32 and competition with other media players 38, 62–3, 70, 73, 74, 222 c oncentration cases comparison 129, 135, 139, 141, 145
and consumer choice 65–6 content providers and software developers, effect on 69–70, 72 contested as new product 328–9 cost element 184, 199 costs involved in multiple formats 146–7, 151, 152–3 Devil’s advocate panel 129 and digital media 33–4, 37 and distribution advantage 155 Microsoft on trial
earlier cases, and Article 82 EC 321–5
EC Treaty, Article 81 128
EC Treaty, Article 82 127, 128, 132, 135–6, 140, 141, 147, 154, 155, 163
EC Treaty, Article 82(b) 128, 136
EC Treaty, Article 82(d) 128, 132, 134, 135, 136
EEA Agreement, Article 54 128, 138, 225 files, formats and media file standards 15–16, 34–5, 83, 90, 94 and foreclosure analysis 68–72, 73 foreclosure effect 180, 184–5 format standardization and third-party usage 149, 150 incorporation in operating system 38–9 integration, alleged technical reasons for 182–3 lack of choice to obtain without tied product 180, 182, 183–4 market distribution advantage 155–6
and market dominance 163
market evidence for allegation, lack of 128–9, 131, 133, 153–4 as ‘media functionality’ 61–2 media functionality, lack of investigation into demand for 129–30, 140, 141–2, 143 ‘must-carry’ provision 131, 225, 429, 440–51, 461
and objective justification 72–4, 183, 186–7 objective justification, absence of 132 and perceived customer demand 64–5, 67–8, 69–70, 73–4 and pre-installed PCs 65–6, 67–8, 74 and pricing perspective 378–9 and principle of proportionality breach 186–7 Redistributable Code 39
remedies in EC Microsoft cases, quest for 408, 427–31 remedy phase 224–5 remedy requirements 132–4
and separate products 64–7 and ‘shoes without laces’ analogy 137–8, 142 and standardization 303–4 and static and dynamic theories, difference between 234–8 streaming and downloading 36–7 and technological development 198–9 third-party programs, functionality issues 140, 150–51, 156–60 tying to Windows operating system 47, 49, 61–74 unbundled version requirements and failure 132–3 unbundling with no price difference 390–91 uninstallation not technically possible 184
US 221, 224
Windows version that did not include (Windows XP N) 132–3, 330, 428–31 tyi–ng, technological integration and Article 82 EC after Microsoft 318–43 alternative approach to technological tying, search for 336–9 and common platforms 333–5
and competition 323, 339–42
and de facto standardization 330, 331, 338, 342 dominance abuse 327–8 EC case against Microsoft 327–32 economics and Article 82 EC 319–27, 332 economics-based approach, call for 323, 325, 332 and efficiency defence concept 325, 328, 339–41, 343 efficiency enhancing effects and threat of foreclosure 319–20, 323, 324, 336 future directions 342–3
and indispensability 323 Internet Explorer litigation 332–6 and market foreclosure 322–3, 324–5, 329, 330, 331, 337–9, 340–41
Luca Rubini - 9781849807142
Downloaded from Elgar Online at 03/18/2019 11:39:20PM
via free access financial incentives of 213–14, 215 not backward-compatible 214, 241 Windows 2000
lack of interoperability information and lock-in of customers 413–14 and lock-in of customers 300, 308, 309 Windows Media Player see tying case, Windows Media Player Windows Media Rights Manager 37 Windows Media SDK 37 Windows NT development 10–11, 16, 22, 23, 26, 29 and native mode upgrade 27–8 ‘Windows Principles: Twelve Tenets to Promote Competition’ (EC) 119 Winterscheid, J. 283
Woodard, L. 314
WTO
TRIPS Agreement 112, 169, 178, 186 Working Group on the Interaction between Trade and Competition Policy 463–4 X.500 directory standard 17, 22
Zeckhauser, R. 445