

Index

- 'Administration, Business and Management'
 - percentage of migrant workers in 109
- admission to EU, conditions
 - level of development of country 28
- advanced passenger information (API) 237
- Afghanistan, safety problems 289
- ageing and dependency 19–22
- ageing of demographic structure 140
- ageing population increase in Spain
 - drop in fertility 162–3, 165
- agencies for immigration 158
- agency workers, underpaid 109
- agricultural employment collapse 22
- agricultural work in Poland, fruit picking 154
- agriculture,
 - demand for cheap labour 2
 - need for service workers 145
- aircraft personnel acting under Norwegian law
 - extraterritorial responsibility 279
- Airline Liaison Officers (ALOs) 239
 - pre-screening passengers 237
- Algarve, retired migration 124
- Antalya, Turkey 125–41
- anti-communism
 - Polish older generation 113
- Armenia, Ngorno-Karabakh 146
- Armenian preferred destinations for migrants
 - Russia, Turkey and Great Britain 152
- assimilation
 - of ethnic groups 204–5
 - of minorities 196
- asylum claims, multiple filed by one individual 262
- asylum seekers 10
 - control of documents in country of departure 273
 - and irregular migrants 260
 - link to terrorism 286–7
- 'asylum shopping', in more than one country 260
- Austria
 - employed foreigners in 1995 to 2006 43
 - employment developments in 1990s 38
 - immigration from Germany 43
 - labour migration to 32–40
 - low intentions to move 59
- Austrian Federal Economic Chamber
 - adoption of four freedoms 42
 - smaller businesses 41
 - worker shortage projections 47
- Austrian Institute for Economic Research
 - worker shortage projections 47
- Austrian labour market
 - developments 1985–2006 33–6
 - effect of eastern enlargement of EU 40–48
- Authorised Economic Operator (AEO) process
 - simplified customs controls 238
- balance of power in employment relations
 - home countries 111
- 'Balkanization' of labour market in UK
 - separation of indigenous and migrants 116
- Baltic States, high intentions to move 66
 - Lithuania, Latvia, Estonia 59
- basic education, return migrants 220
- Belarus, male preference for Russia 152

- benefits of migration, perceived
 - improvement in income or employment 63
 - improvement of social contacts 63
 - opportunities for new people, scenes 63
- biometric data
 - fingerprints and photographic data 259
 - technological developments 241–3
 - tracking overstayers 238
 - on visa applicants 258
- birth rates 2
 - changes by emigration 26–7
 - fall in Europe 19
- blame avoidance in UK government 244
- blanket controls, impracticability of 241
- Border Agency creation as delegation strategy 244
- Border and Immigration Agency (BIA) 232
- border closing
 - to new member states 52
 - to refugees 274
- border control 10, 229–47, 250
 - differentiated 236, 240
 - facilitate beneficial flows, prevent threatening flows 230
 - increased visibility 239
 - restrictionist policy 241
 - UK 231–40
 - visas needed 273
- Borders and Immigration Agency (BIA) 235–6
- border strengthening 249
- bottleneck management on entry to UK
 - targeting 233
- Bourgass, Kamel, failed asylum seeker 242
- ‘brain drain’ problem for country of origin 18
 - from new member states 61
- British Anti-terrorism, Crime and Security Act 2001
 - detention against asylum seekers 286
- building, demand for cheap labour 2
- Bulgaria in EU 21, 23
 - bureaucracy and red tape, for retirees to Turkey 138
 - InterEthno project
 - national quality of life 198
 - retired migration in 124
 - Turkish ethnic minority, interethnic tensions 192
- Bulgarian newspaper, Trud 194
- Bulgarians, British borders closed to
 - restrictions to agriculture and self-employment 108
 - Bulgarian women migrants 109
- Cabinet Sub-committee on Border and Migration (DA(BM)) 235
- capital mobility 102
- care
 - responsibility for person’s life 177–8
 - ‘women’s work’ 181
- ‘care drain’ in Europe 103
- care of children, sick, elderly, disabled in Spain 162, 178
- caring for elderly, and domestic service 176
- caring resources, users in Spain 166
- Carrier Liability Regulations 237
- car seat belts, fatality causing 246
- catering industry
 - need for service workers 145
- Caucasus, respondents facing prejudice 154
- census data, observation plan, Finland 211
- Central Asian Republics of former USSR
 - Uzbekistan, Kazakhstan 193
- Chamber of Labour, Austria 47
- cheap labour in Spain for women’s occupations 161
- Chechnya conflict 146
- Chernobyl nuclear explosion
 - environmental devastation 146
- child persecution 290
- children, reduction in likelihood of mobility 64
- Christians in Muslim country (Turkey)
 - no problems practising religion 139
- citizen rights 10–11

- citizenship adoption 1 civil agents on immigration control 280–82
 class-based associations 113 ‘class unity’ 110 communist countries, former joining of EU 21–3 community attachments 78
 Computer Assisted Personal Interview
 (CAPI) 56
 conflicts in interethnic relations 202 construction industry need for service workers 145
 construction, wage increases in 112
 Conthonou Agreement, EU and ACP-countries
 recording of readmission clauses
 254
 ‘control’ and ‘facilitation’ at UK borders 234 control, deprofessionalized civil agents on immigration control 281–2 control measures 229 inadequate, pose security threats and fear 230 control-oriented policies unintended effects 230
 Convention against Torture (CAT)
 non-refoulement 278
 Costa del Sol, retired migration 124 cost-benefit analysis for Europeans 68 costs and benefits, perceived 55 lack of language knowledge 63 loss of social contacts 63 countries of origin (CoO) 86–93
 attachment levels 96
 countries of residence (CoR) 86–93
 attachment levels 96 countries with long tradition of immigration
 US, UK, Germany 158
 Crimean Parliament official newspaper,
 Krimskie Izvestija 194
 Crimean Tatars in the Ukraine 193 conflicts in interethnic relations 203–4
 unemployment and poverty 199
 Crimean-Tatars movement in Crimea
 US support 204
 Crimea, populated by Russians and Ukrainians 193
 crime, organized 230
 ‘criminalization’ of asylum seekers 274, 283–7
 cross-agency training 239 cross-border flows, legitimate 232 linkages, Poland and UK
 Trades Union Congress and Solidarność 110
 migration 64
 mobility, yearly rate 51
 cross-country transportations 85 cultural communication problem 130 cultural-ethnic associations 113 cultural studies expertise 105
 Culture, Youth and Future Life
 Orientations
 (CYFLO) 74–5
 qualitative analysis 79–80 quantitative analysis of mobility issues 75–9
 customs control, simplified 238–9
 customs officials, police control tasks
 Norway, regulation of foreign nationals 281
 Cyprus in EU 21
 Czech Republic, low intentions to move 59
 database systems for tracking migrants 253 data collection survey, Turkey 129–30 data exchange in EU
 DNA profiles 255
 fingerprints 255
 personal and nonpersonal data 255 vehicle registration 255 day centre use in Spain 166 death rate changes by emigration 26–7
 demand for cheap labour 2
 demographic changes in Europe 2 demographic characteristics of retired migrants, Turkey
 Europeans in Turkey 130–31
 questionnaire 130
 Department for Business, Enterprise and Regulatory Reform (BERR)

- ministerial representation on border control 235
- Department for Culture, Media and Sport (DCMS)
 - ministerial representation on border control 235
- Department for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs (Defra)
 - ministerial representation on border control 235
- Department for Transport (DfT)
 - ministerial representation on border control 235
- Department of Health (DoH)
 - ministerial representation on border control 235
- 'dependency ratio', Europe 20–21
 - support for non-employed persons 19
- dependent population in Spain 164
- destination countries for NIS migrants
 - national choices 152–3
 - Russia, Poland and US 152
- detection and identification tools 252–3
- detention as preventative measure 284
- detention centres, resembling prisons 284
- detention of asylum seekers, Europe
 - by immigration authorities 283–4
- digital databanks 253
- disabled in Spain 164
- documentation
 - exclusion from and exclusion through 267
- domestic labour market in Spain 162
 - impact on immigrant women 172
 - includes care for elderly 172–3, 183
- domestic service sector in Spain,
 - changes 176–84
- domestic staff 145
- Dublin Convention 254, 260
- e-Borders Operation Centre (eBOC)
 - risk programming before arrival in UK 238
- e-Borders programme 242
 - biometric and information systems technologies 237–8
- economic aspects of immigration
 - 15–29
 - economic assistance to families in Spain
 - often used to employ immigrants 175
 - economic characteristics
 - educational level, status in employment 62
 - homeownership status 62
 - economic differences between countries 88
 - economic growth, need for skilled labour 230
 - economic impact
 - of immigration 15–18
 - of retirees 125
 - economic models of human behaviour 105
 - economic motives of migrants 146
 - economic recessions and upswings,
 - Finland 214
 - educational level and migration 63
 - educational qualifications
 - harmonization 74
 - education levels of retirees 131–2
 - elderly population in Spain by age group 163
 - electronic surveillance 249–50
 - emigration out of communist eastern Europe
 - permanence of 145
 - see also* immigration, migration
 - emotional states of carers of elderly
 - causing psychological exhaustion 179
 - invisible as a job 180–82
 - employee growth in Austria 32–3, 37, 43, 47
 - employer associations, role in shaping migrant patterns 105
 - employer/employee relationship, Spain
 - childcare, potential jealousy of mother 183
 - emotional qualities sought 182
 - relief to delegate elderly care 183
 - employer sanctions 250
 - employers' interests in Austria 41
 - employers' use of migrant labour 104
 - employment, illegal 107
 - employment in caring for elderly, Spain
 - inclusion of all housekeeping work 177

- employment in host country, important determinant 66
- employment odds of return migrants by duration subsequent to return migration, men 222
by educational level 221
Finland, 208–24
- employment, part-time 43
- English proficiency tests for migrants from outside the EU 119
- Entry Clearance 239
- entry control in country of departure 276–80
- entry displacement to smaller ports illegal immigrants 246
- equal rights for agency workers, opposition to 109
- Erasmus programme for students 61, 74
grants 88
- estimates of citizens who would migrate to UK 244
- ethnic-based events, major participants 200
- ethnic interaction, social integration 205
- ethnic minorities 191
- ethnic prejudice 117
- ethno-survey of migration in NIS countries
Belarus, Georgia, Moldova, Ukraine 148–55
- Eurobarometer Mobility Survey (EB64.1) 4–5, 53, 56–7 on Portugal 73
- European Dactylographic system,
Eurodac 259–60
central database of fingerprints 10, 250, 254 entries and ‘hits’ 261, 262 linked to Dublin II regulation particular use by Germany, UK, Netherlands and Czech Republic 262
- ‘European care chain’ 108
- European Commission, Return Action Plan (2002) on legal procedure for immigration 255
- European Commission, White Paper A New Impetus for Youth 74
- European Committee for the Prevention of Torture 284
- European Convention on Human Rights, 1950 278 asylum seeker detention not unlawful 285
- European countries, eastern revival of guest worker migration 6
- European Data Protection Supervisor on reliability of biometrics 259
- European Foundation 56
- European integration as efficiency enforcer 40, 253
- ‘European Internal Movers Social Survey’ (EIMSS) 89–90
- Europeanization of asylum policies and refugee protection 289–92
- European labour market 102
- European mother tongue publications in Turkey 137
- European Policy, lack of impact on mobility 81
- European retirees to Mediterranean Turkey mainly British, German, Dutch, Scandinavian 140
- European retirement to Muslim country
Turkey, and international retirement migration 126
- European Union (EU)-citizenship and cross-border communication 106 competition with Russia, or US attracting future migrants from border regions 159
- cosmopolitans, experience in more than one country 106
- eastern enlargement, effect on Austrian wage rates 40
- five largest, Germany, UK, France, Italy, Spain 85–100
- enlargement 21–3, 102
- migration databases, internal control on irregular migrants 249–68
- movers, population survey 88
- official statement about boundaries 24

- Qualification Directive, definition of 'refugee' 288
- third country nationals 288–92
- European Year of Workers' Mobility, 2006 51
- European Youth Studies 75
- Europe, geographical 24
- Europol, access to SIS data 258
- Europol and Eurojust, access to SIS site 259
- 'Eurostars', free-moving professionals in capital cities 88
- Eurostar trains 85
- EU/Schengen states
 - customs officials, police control tasks 281
 - geographical limitations investigating asylum claims 287
- exchange rate trends 104
- exclusion
 - from documentation and registration 252
 - from public services 250
 - through documentation and registration 252–3
- exclusion and surveillance link 251–2
- 'exit' and 'voice' in labour market 110
- 'exit' in central European workforces various forms 111
- exploitation of Polish migrants in Germany 107
- expulsion of Egyptians by Swedish government 291–2
- expulsion policy, Eurodac value in reidentification 262–3
- failure to deport foreign national prisoners 244
- false document production, increase in 283, 290
- family and peer relations, influence 75–7
- family as main care providers in Spain
 - little complementary help 166–7
- family attachments 76–7
 - Portugal 79–80
- family life in new member states 197
- family network without social service network, Spain 167
- family preference for immigrant carers
 - Latin American females to Spain 171
- Federation of Austrian Industry 42
 - large businesses 41
 - on transitional arrangements 44
- Federation of Austrian Trade Unions 47
- female domestic workers in Spain, nursing skills 179–81
- female employment
 - in care of elderly, southern Europe 158
 - under communism 109
- female immigrants to Spain 161–85
 - working in hidden economy 175
- feminist initiatives 110
- fertility decline in eastern European member states 68
- financial assistance schemes
 - Spanish Regional Governments 176
- financial situations influencing migration 147
- fingerprinting categories 260
- fingerprint scanners 241
- Finland
 - census data on return migration 210–14
 - employment rates of return migrants 208–24
 - return migrants by census, men and women 212
 - return migrant's employment rates 214
- Finland to Sweden migration
 - for labour in industry 209
- first return migration 210
- fiscal contributions, negative and positive 16
- fluency in a foreign language 80
- Foreign and Commonwealth Office (FCO)
 - ministerial representation on border control 235
 - readmission agreements 234
- foreign distribution in Turkey 129
- foreigners
 - in EU countries, numbers 86
 - marginalised, Algerians in France 106
 - total population, highest proportion 2

- Foreign People Employment Act,
Austria 38, 42
forms of authorization 43 foreign population employed in domestic service 173 foreign travel growth 123
foreign unemployment rate in Austria 37 foreign workers in Austria 32–3
Foundation for Science and Technology (FCT), Lisbon 74 free movement impact, quantitative and qualitative 107
free movement 68, 85, 88
population profile problems 85
Freight Targeting System (FTS) 238
- ‘gated communities’ Turkey preferred option for European retirees 136
gender composition of migration 103
Polish migrants 116
women in health and hospitality work 108–9
gender persecution 290
gender-specificity, Polish situation 108 gender studies expertise 105 geographical moves, longest 62 geographical segregation of nationalities in Turkey 128
Georgia
migration, prefer Greece, Turkey, France 152, 157
secession of South Ossetia, displaced persons 146
German interest in Antalya, Turkey
131–2
German language use in Alanya,
Turkey 132
German newspaper, Berliner Zeitung
194
German-Turkish Friendship
Association 139
German withdrawal of residence permits 286
Germany
computer profiling ‘suspect’
foreigners 286
expulsion facilitating 253
InterEthno project, national quality of life 198
Kurdish ethnic group 192
low intentions to move 59
globalization, international competitiveness 39
Gobierno de Navarra (Regional Government of Navarre) 175 goods, movement of, ‘smart-trade initiatives’ 238
‘Greater European Union’, migration projections 24–8
Greece, ‘domestic services’, immigrant workers employed 174
guest-worker migration 85, 88
- Hampton Report on risk assessment
243
Helsinki summit 1991
Turkey with EU candidacy status
135
Her Majesty’s Revenue and Customs
(HMRC) 236
High Commissioner for Human Rights, United Nations 286 high-risk passenger categories 231 high school dropouts in United States effect of economic status 17–18 home help service users, Spain 165–6 home hospitalization, poor situation in Spain 165
Home Office and Treasury, single minister 235
Home Office, immigration policy 235
Homo economicus 105 housing in Turkey 134–6 housing market exclusion 252 human-rights abuses 272 human rights and detention 284–5 human trafficking, trade in 145
Hungarian women migrants 109
Hungary, low intentions to move 59
- identificational integration 96–7 identity management, secure 238 identity orientation 95 identity papers, lost or stolen 256 illegal border crossing 283 illegal immigration 10, 147 into Europe 230, 244

- Italy and Spain 86
- Schengen Information System (SIS) 257
- immigrants
 - and loss of jobs for native workers 17
 - as care providers for elderly 8
 - as 'live-in' carers in Spain, no legal papers 162, 169, 171
- immigrant workers, temporary, unskilled
 - most valuable to sending country 18
- immigration 3, 4
 - policy on border control 249
 - policy outside the state 249
 - policy under Home Office 234
- Immigration and Nationality Directorate (IND)
 - 'urgent organisational reform' 235
- immigration and negative risks 229
- immigration control 2, 11
 - deprofessionalization 280–82
 - policies in Europe 272–93
- immigration risk as threat
 - of crime 229
 - cultural anxiety 229
 - public health 229
 - of social disorder 229
 - of terrorism 229
- immigration system changes
 - result of media-fuelled scandals 244
- immigration trends, variability of 86
 - see also* emigration, migration
- impact of migration 230
- income and expenditure in Turkey 134–5
- income in host country, important determinant 66
- income, internal distribution of 16–17
- income levels in Austrian employment, decreases in 36
- industrial relations 105
 - ethnicity-blindness of 105–6
 - gender-blindness of 105–6
- information and communication technology (ICT) 253
- information on persons, stored in SIS 256
- information systems, technological developments 241
- institutionalization in Spain 165
- integration, identificational, attachment to CoR 95
- integration of minorities 196
- intentions to move, determinants of 58–9
- interethnic integration, research into events in published sources 193–7
- internal control of irregular migrants 266
- internal migration control 249–50
- internal surveillance on irregular migrants
 - Visa Information System (VIS) 264
- International Association for Cooperation with Scientists (INTAS) 146
- International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights 278
 - right to leave country 276–7
- internationalization of Austrian economy 38–9
- International Retirement Migration (IRM) 7, 123–42
- interviews from ethnic minority successful members (elites) 195
- Iris Recognition Immigration System 238, 241
- irregular migrants
 - and EU cooperation, creating digital borders 254–66
 - exclusion by digital means 250–54
- Islam, dominant religion in EU if North Africa and Turkey included 28, 204
- Italians in Germany 86, 95
- Italy, retired migration 124
- job reservation for local workers 18
- Joint-Borders Operation Centre (J-BOC) 237, 239
- Joint Supervisory Authority of Schengen (2004)
 - major trends 258
- Justice and Home Affairs agenda 255
- labour competition in Austria after 1989 37
- labour law deregulation in EU 104
- labour market 5, 31, 68, 69, 252

- labour migrants in western Europe, industrial workers 145
- labour migration, high-skilled and low-skilled 87–8, 99
 - liberal approach in UK 241
- labour migration to Austria 32–40, 43–5
- labour shortages in all new member states (NMS) 111
- language at time of migration 93–4
- language barriers
 - no deterrent to new member states 67
 - no deterrent to retirees in Turkey 140
- language-based minorities 191
- language of host country, Turkey
 - limited knowledge among retirees 56, 137–8
- language proficiency at time of migration 96–7
- Latin American females in Spain 161, 171, 182
 - with Hispanic culture 175
- law enforcement agencies, VIS
 - database access 266
- legal age of retirement, decline in 123
- legal and illegal migration and residence 158, 250
- legal entry channels, contraction of, push towards illicit entry 230
- legal obligation of asylum seeker
 - to provide correct identity 285–6
- legal safeguards, undermining 272–93
- living standard increase in southern Europe 85
- logistic regression analysis 78
 - determining migration reasons 155
 - mother tongue, region of residence 217
 - returned migrants 156
- lost contact with home country labour market 223
- male and female return migrants, Finland
 - progress in rates of employment 220
- male employed foreigners, Austria
 - unskilled and clerical 32–3
- male migration to Spain 161
- Malta, retired migration 124
- marginalization of minorities 196
- marriage migration 88–9
- mass migration 241
 - east to west, fear of 52
- media opinion on migration 245
- Mediterranean Welfare system 167
- member state responsible for asylum application
 - Dublin II regulation 254
- migrant activities, students, service occupations 153–4
- migrants
 - for labour shortages, UK 233
 - returned, demographic factors 150
 - returns within three years, Finland 213
 - voices of 114–15
 - workers getting new jobs, row about 244
- migration
 - barriers, Belarus, Russia, Ukraine 111
 - controls 231
 - costs and benefits 3–5, 53–6, 63
 - criminal individuals or groups
 - data collection from NIS 147–8
 - decision, factors affecting 54
 - duration subsequent to return 220–24
 - essential to UK
 - Europe 1–11, 24–8, 51–70
 - irregular, 249–68
 - job-related reasons 55, 95
 - less well-policed ports 230
 - mobility patterns 6–8
 - peaking since EU accession of new member states 111
 - reasons for 15
 - ethnic and civil strife in post-Soviet period 146
 - security agenda and counter-terrorism 230
 - temporary circulation of people 8
- Migration Advisory Committee 235
- stronger for unemployed 64
- migration intentions data 4–5, 57–9
- migration management as risk management 230
- prominent from eastern borderlands of Europe 145

- migration state, UK as 229–47
see also emigration, immigration
- migratory model of southern Europe high number of female immigrants 174
- Minister for Borders and Immigration, Liam Byrne 231–2
- mobility 5, 58–9, 66
 in Europe 1–11, 52, 99–100 integral to learning 74
- mobility survey, all of Europe 56–7
- mobilization potential of new migrants 110–12
- models 62
- Moldova Autonomous Gagaouz Republic (Turkish-speaking Christians) 192
 Gagaouz people, want political independence 203
 InterEthno project, national quality of life 198 national newspaper ‘Vesti Gagauzii’ 194 secession of Transnistria 146
- Moldovan emigrants, Romania 157
- Moroccan labour, Spain, political factor 175
- mortality increase in eastern European member states 68
- movers among Western European countries
 Britain, France, Germany, Italy, Spain 87
- Muslim immigrants, North Africa, Portugal, Turkey 27, 81
- Muslim target group in Germany 286–7
- myths as instruments in labour market matters 45–6
- national identity problems 15
- nationalism, peripheral 191
- nationality segregation 140
- national quality of life, InterEthno project 197–8
- National Scientific and Technological Research Council of Turkey (TUBITAK) research study on retired migration 125
- national security grounds for exclusion 291
- national segregation in Turkey 137
- neighbourhood preferences in Turkey
 British, German, Dutch, Danes, Norwegians 136–7
- Netherlands, expulsion facilitating 253
- Netherlands Privium scheme at Schiphol airport 238
- Newly Independent States (NIS) 144–59 care workers, illegal workers at first 154 demographic characteristics 148–49 emigrants to northern and southern Europe, agencies 157 emigrants to North America, agencies 157 reasons for migrating 150–51 student schemes, au pair or agricultural worker 154 new member states (NMS) 158 jobs through agencies 109 migration to UK 106 newspapers, content analysis on interethnic situations 195 non-migrant categories in Finland 213
 non-refoulement 279
- Norway, regulation of foreign nationals 273
- Norway, Welfare State foreign population employed in care work 174
- Norwegian consulate, visa attaché positions in Islamabad, for document control 275–6
- Norwegian Customs Official Union contribution of customs officials 281
- Norwegian Immigration Act 1988 275, 278, 280, 285 agrees to detention of asylum seekers 284 claims for protection 277–8
- Norwegian Ministry of Justice, on asylum 273
- Norwegian police at foreign airports extraterritorial responsibility 279
- Norwegian police in Middle East Africa, Asia
 control of travel documents 275

- Oake, DC Stephen, murder of 242
- octogenarians in Spain, growth in 164
- odds for employment of return and non-migrants 218–19
- ‘open’ border effect 106–8
- operational procedures 239–40
- opposition to immigration, increase in 15
- panopticon Europe, parallel societies 199
- passengers, counting out of UK 238
- passengers deemed low-risk, flow facilitation 238
- past mobility
 - influence on migration 55–6
 - predictor of future mobility 64
- people-smuggling criminal organizations 230
- personal home care services, Spain, female immigrants 161–85
- PIONEUR project, 2003 89
- points-based economic migration system 231
- Poland, high intentions to move 59, 66
- police authority to demand travel documents before entry
 - Norway, regulation of foreign nationals 275
- police control tasks, transference to civilians
 - legal safeguards, weakening 282
- police governing immigration 280
- Polish Catholic Association
 - created by World War II veterans 113
- Polish Club, Birmingham 118
 - cooperation with Trade Union Councils 113–14
- Polish government promise to graduates
 - two-year exemption from social contributions 112
- Polish-language union sections, community unionism 110
- Polish media, frequent use, TV and telecommunications 115
- Polish migrants
 - comparison of countries UK and Germany 115–16
 - interviews, low-pay sector 114–15
 - UK, ‘transnational’ lives organized across borders 7, 119
- Polish workers in West Midlands, England 102–20
- population censuses of Puerto Rico, returns from US 223
- population
 - in greater EU 24–8
 - of cross-state migrants in European Union 87
- Portugal as receiving society 73
- Portugal, student case studies 79–81
- Portuguese questionnaire for youth in academic disciplines 74–5
- Portuguese, young population, low migration 5
- privatization of home help services, Spain 175
- productivity growth in Austria, 1960–2003 39
- professional presence at UK borders 234
- profiling systems 239
- Project Semaphore
 - analysis of API on key routes 237
- protections by border controls 232
- protection, maximising breadth of, at UK borders 234
- pseudo self-employment, Austria 44
- public opinion on migration 245
- public provision of social services, absence in Spain 176
- public service provision in Spain, low for elderly 165
- Qualifications Directive, crimes by refugees 291–2
- qualifications for international protection
 - EU asylum law 290
- quality-of-life migrants, free selection of CoR 95
- Raytheon Systems 242
- Real Decreto (Royal Decree) 1985
 - abusive working practices 173
 - Service in the Family Home, Spain 172

- real estate industry in Turkey 135–6, 141–2
- real-time risk analysis 241
- real wage growth in Austria, 1960–2003 39
- reasons for migrating from NIS countries 151
- refoulement, forced return, prohibition against 291
- Refugee Convention 1951 274
- refugee policy and asylum seeking 274, 278
- refugee protection 272–93
- refugees from Azerbaijan 146
- Régimen Especial de Empleados de Hogar
 - Special Regulation for Home Workers, Spain 173
- ‘regionalization’ of refugee protection 287–9
- rejection policy, of potential asylum seekers 273
- relocation within the region 62
- ‘remote controls’ use of, for migration 237
- residence permits in Turkey 126
 - costly and not permanent 138
- residential centre use in Spain 166
- restrictions on inward migration
 - not imposed by Britain and Ireland 21
- retirement migration 89, 97, 124
 - Austria 38
 - middle class British, Costa del Sol 87
 - Spain 87
 - upper class British, Tuscany 87
- retirement to Antalya, Turkey,
 - motivating factors 133
 - local opinion about in Turkey 140–41
 - locations favoured 126–7
 - reasons given 132
- return migrants
 - Finland 214
 - higher-educated re-employment 217
 - re-employment 9, 208
- right to leave country, undermining of 276
- right to seek asylum 277
- Risk Assessment Units in ‘high-risk posts’
 - forged documents 237
- risk-based migrant management 233
 - reconfiguration of migration controls 231
- risk management 10
 - of migration in UK 229–47
 - first-order risks 230
 - political considerations 243–4
 - second-order risks 230
 - public perception of, or actual 239–40
- Romania and retired migration 21, 23, 124
 - British borders closed to except agriculture and self-employment 108
- rule of law, police training in
 - civil agents no training in 282
- Russia as main destination for NIS emigrants 158
 - Poland, Italy and Great Britain 157
- Russia, InterEthno project, national quality of life 198
- Russian Federation, Autonomous Republic of Tatarstan 192
- Russian language newspaper, Respublika Tatarstan 194
- ‘safe country of origin’, asylum claims dismissed 288
- ‘safe third country’ policy, rejection of asylum claims 287–8
- salaries paid in kind, food and lodging
 - Spain, domestic workers 173
- Schengen agreement (1985)
 - abolishment of internal borders of EU 254
 - carrier sanctions 280
- Schengen Convention (1999) 257
- Schengen III, signed in German city of Prüm
 - Justice and Home Affairs issues 255
- Schengen Information System (SIS) 250, 265, 267
 - data-base C-SIS registration / surveillance system 255–9
 - hits, notification to relevant state 257

- N-SIS 256
 - selected entries and 'hits' 258
- Schengen Information System (SIS II)
 - 10, 255-9
 - expensive system 259
 - second generation of system, not in operation 257-8
- scientists' mobility 88
- second home buying in Turkey 128, 135
- securitization and liberalization, and risk 241
- security and facilitation in
 - immigration, balance 230, 236
- security measures in US and Europe, from terrorism 286
- self-employment as service provision
 - 43, 107
- separation of minorities 196
- Serious Organised Crime Agency (SOCA) 236
- sex industry 145
- shame at being treated as criminals, asylum seekers 284
- Single European Market 42
- single people, mobility likely 64
- skilled and unskilled labour 4, 17, 31-49
- 'skilled worker shortage', myth in
 - Austria 46-8
- skills, undervaluation of 181
- 'smart borders' in US, response to 9/11
 - 240
- 'smart trade' pilot project, UK with
 - China 238
 - UK with Netherlands 238
- smuggling of people, increase in 283
- social and cultural integration 96-7
- social and employment rights 113
- social capital of migrants 147
- social cohesion problems 15
- social integration in interethnic societies
 - equal opportunities and rights for all 195-9, 205
- social integration of retirees 125
- social interaction strategies 204
- social networks, migrants in
 - destination country 151-2, 197
- social service spending in Spanish regions 176
- social status and integration 6-7
- sociocultural characteristics 93-4
- socio-demographic variables
 - gender, age and household type 62, 65
- sociological migration studies 105
- Socrates programme for students 61, 74
 - grants 88
- Somalia, safety problems 289
- South Americans to Portugal 73
- southern Europe 174
- Soviet Union, former member
 - countries emigration 8
- Spain
 - female immigrants 161-85
 - high number of immigrants, 2000-2005 174
 - low intentions to move 59
- Spanish labour market, Latin
 - American carers 184
- Spanish Welfare State, welfare based and familistic 167
- Statistics Finland, data compiler 210, 213
- status dimension 97-8
 - education and social class 96
- Strategy Unit report on migration and border controls
 - high use of 'risk' vocabulary 232
- student increase in migration 5, 61, 88, 89
 - important for NIS countries 158
- sub-letting homes in Turkey, by retirees
 - hotels, adverse effect on 135
- success of immigration work in UK
 - 107
- Supplément d'Information Requis a l'Entrée Nationale* (SIRENE)
 - 257
 - auxiliary system to SIS 255-9
- surveillance by police 250
- 'suspicious patterns of behaviour'
 - 239
- Swedish government, criticism of
 - by Amnesty International 291
 - by Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination (CERD) 291
 - by UNHCR 291

- targeting effort to control borders 233
- Tatars in Russia
 - language status conflict 203
 - oil production and successful regional policy 199
 - political independence, want 203
- tax and social security systems
- triggers for migration 54
- technological developments, importance of 250
 - step-change in migration policy 242
- temporary work agencies 109–10, 112
 - negative opinions about 116–17
- temporary work and illegal status 147
- territorial identification 95–7
- terrorism risk balance 230
- terrorist attacks in New York and Washington
 - 11 September 2001 242, 286
- terrorists, exclusion, or arrest and trial 286
- threat identification before reaching UK 233
- Tönnies, German meat-packing company 107
- tourism industry, need for service workers 2, 145
- tourism-related migration 123–4
- tourist visas, outstaying 250
- Trades Union Congress, Commission for Vulnerable Workers 110
- Trade Union Councils, cooperation with Polish Club 113–14
- trade unionism 107, 110
 - migrant lack of interest 118
 - Polish workers and 104
 - role in shaping migrant patterns 105
- traffickers and people smugglers, targeting of 255
- travel opportunities for post-communist people 145
- Treasury, growing influence
 - more powerful role in immigration policy 235
- Treaty of Amsterdam 254
- Triesman, Lord, Special Envoy for Returns, UK 2007 234
- Trusted Borders consortium 242
- ‘trusted traveller’ scheme, Project IRIS 231, 238
- Turkey, and international retirement migration 123–42
- Turkey and North Africa as members of EU
 - social and political implications 27–8
- Turkey retirees
 - returns to home country, reasons 139
 - want membership of European Union for Turkey 138
- Turkey’s wish to join EU, Giscard D’Estaing on 23
- Turkish citizenship, acquirement of 138
 - Europeans in Turkey 7–8
- Turkish immigrants in Austria, Germany 32, 192
- Turkish people
 - disapproval of foreign property buyers 136
 - wishing to live away from retirees 137
- Turkish minorities in Europe
 - Bulgaria, conflict in political and cultural areas 203
 - social integration or ‘parallel societies’ 191–206
- Turkish Riviera, Antalya, favoured for tourism 127–8
- Turkish-speaking ethnic group, Germany
 - conflicts in interethnic relations 203
- Tuscany migrants well integrated 137
- UK migration policy
 - in near permanent revolution up to 2006 231
 - risk/risk management, absent from policy discourse 231
- Ukraine
 - Autonomous Republic of the Crimea 193
 - InterEthno project, national quality of life 198
 - national newspaper, Golos Ukraini 194
 - political instability, 204

- Ukrainian community in Canada 154
- Ukrainian emigrants, Poland, Italy, Portugal 157
- undergraduate education, return migrants 220
- unemployment levels, effect on migration 54
- unemployment rate in Austria, male employees 33–6, 38
- United Kingdom (UK)
 - migration policy major overhaul, 2006 231
 - Visa Waiver Test, under review 236, 237
- United Nations Refugee Convention, 1951, 1952 278, 290
 - protection of refugees 277
- Universal Declaration of Human Rights 1948
 - right to leave country 276–7
- unmarried women migrants 103
- urbanization, rapid, caused by residential tourism 140
- USA migrants, on cultural exchange or grants 154
- use of non-state people for migration functions
 - transfer of liability for failure 244
- US-VISIT programme
 - response to 9/11 240
- utility in destination country, expected migration decision 53
- validity of travel documents, carriers' liability 280
- Vienna Convention on the law of treaties 1969 277
- Visa Information System (VIS) 10, 250, 265, 267
 - central database C-VIS 254, 264
 - identification of illegal immigrants 263–5
 - method of working 265
 - national interface N-VIS 264
 - terminals for the police and immigration authorities 264
- visa policy, stepping up 254
- visa regimes, country-by-country risk assessment 236
 - visa requirements 249
 - for 'high-risk countries' 237
 - visas for entering EU territory, lists of states
 - mandatory for all EU/Schengen states 272
 - vocational education, return migrants 220
 - 'voice' in post-communist Europe
 - weakness of 111
 - wage growth, limited by immigration in UK 106
 - wages, minimum, for immigrants 108
 - wages rises in Austria and new member states 38, 44, 111
 - because of exit threats 112
 - watchmen 280
 - wealth creation and security provision
 - organised crime balance 10
 - terrorism risk balance 10
 - wealth increase 123
 - wealth redistribution 31
 - welfare benefits, generosity of 22
 - welfare externalisation in Spain, immigrant women 168
 - welfare state and immigrants 16
 - western and eastern European workers, division 106
 - Western Christendom as boundary to Europe 24
 - Western Europeans, free-moving 85–100
 - West Midlands case 112–18
 - wider risk management orthodoxy in British Government 243
 - women, growing employment of 38
 - women in Spain as main providers of care
 - work place conflict 167, 169, 170
 - women, self-organization in trade unions 105
 - women's mobility 87
 - Worker Registration Scheme 103, 112, 119, 120
 - worker resurgent assertiveness in NMS 112
 - workers' movements in EU 103
 - workers' rights, migration as catalyst 109–10
 - work ethic of migrant workers 105

- workforce supply extension, Austria 46
- working class use of immigrant carers 183
- working conditions in care professions 108
- work niche for immigrants
 - ethnic group as carers in Spain 171
- World War II veterans, Polish community 112
- youth and migration 63
- youth migrations from Portugal
 - lower than European average 73
- youth mobility encouragement 81
 - in tertiary educated 74
- Yugoslavia and employment in Austria 32
- zero-migration scenario and economic dependency 20–21