

Figures

| | | |
|------|---|-----|
| 1.1 | The dimensions of empirical research in the context of SD/CSR strategic decision-making processes | 6 |
| 2.1 | The UN galaxy: the institutional constellation of organs relevant to FDI/TNCs | 29 |
| 4.1 | Evolution of international business, stage one – export trade | 76 |
| 4.2 | Evolution of international business, stage two – multinational production | 77 |
| 4.3 | Evolution of international business, stage three – global business networks | 79 |
| 5.1 | A sustainability roadmap for production sites–exchanges in North America | 99 |
| 6.1 | Sustainable development – interface management | 107 |
| 6.2 | The different dimensions of a cooperative network: the case of a multinational in the domain of motorized recreational products | 113 |
| 7.1 | Conceptualizing pressures and commands in SD diffusion | 128 |
| 9.1 | The three pillars of sustainability | 166 |
| 9.2 | Research premise of indirect influence of sustainable practices | 171 |
| 9.3 | Hypothesized influence diagram for impact of unsustainable practices | 172 |
| 9.4 | The relationship between CSCI and SCPPI | 179 |
| 9.5 | The relationship between CSCI and cost deviation | 180 |
| 9.6 | The relationship between SCPPI and cost deviation | 180 |
| 9.7 | The relationship between CSCI and schedule deviation | 181 |
| 9.8 | The relationship between SCPPI and schedule deviation | 181 |
| 13.1 | Theoretical and empirical results | 256 |