

Contents

---

Editor biographies	vii
List of contributors	ix
Introduction	xi

PART I SOCIO-ECONOMIC CONTEXT OF KNOWLEDGE WORK

- |   |    |
|---|----|
| 1. What makes a knowledge society? Privileging discoursesJennifer Adelstein  | 3  |
| 2. Global knowledge workers: an eye on the senior executives of the Middle East by Stanton Chase InternationalPanos Manolopoulos and Konstantina Sakellariou | 22 |

PART II MOBILITY, MIGRATION, AND DIVERSITY MANAGEMENT OF KNOWLEDGE WORKERS

- |  |     |
|--|-----|
| 3. Immigration and emigration decisions among highly skilled British expatriates in VancouverWilliam S. Harvey  | 33  |
| 4. Transnationality in small-scale cities? Integration of, and cooperation between, creative and knowledge-intensive workers in the stagnating socio-economic landscape of Leipzig (East Germany)Bastian Lange and Juliane Schröder | 57  |
| 5. Entrepreneurship, culture and mobility of knowledge workers in European ICT SMEs: a theoretical frameworkKanellos-Panagiotis Nikolopoulos  | 78  |
| 6. The important role of refugee and migrant community organizations in bringing out highly educated refugees' potential as knowledge workersMaria Psoinos  | 95  |
| 7. Social exclusion in information capitalism: a study of online recruitment advertisements in the Indian software industryC.M. Malish and P. Vigneswara Ilavarasan   | 114 |

PART III RELATIONALITY, SOCIAL NETWORKS AND KNOWLEDGE WORK
8. How the emergent properties of social networks support knowledge sharing in dynamic labour environments: lessons from the hospitality sector in Australia's Northern Territory Kalotina Chalkiti	143
9. Relationality in global knowledge work teams Olivia Kyriakidou	163
10. Women in public relations and profit organizations in the UAE: how gender influences practice Badreya Al-Jenaibi	185
PART IV KNOWLEDGE WORKERS, TECHNOLOGY AND SKILLS DEVELOPMENT
11. The role of technology-enhanced learning in the development of global knowledge workers Lisa Harris, Paul Harrigan and Jean Leah	207
12. Digital skills for digital disruption and value creation Lorraine Warren	230
PART V MOTIVATIONS AND FORMS OF CAPITAL IN THE CONTEXT OF KNOWLEDGE WORK
13. Autonomy as a stressor in knowledge work Peter Holdt Christensen	243
14. Multiple understandings of time: academics' experiences of the work–family relationship Gina Gaio Santos	255
Index	269