Index

accident processing, nuclear power, France 237 Accor-Orbis hotel chain 89–90
Accor-Pannonia hotel chain, Hungary union membership conditions 90–91 Accor trade union in Hungary, conditions 91 adaptation
Yacimientos Petrolíferos Fiscales (YPF) 173–6
Advisory Conciliation and Arbitration Service (ACAS) 224 agency work 2, 40
agreements, national to European level Ford, GM, Daimler 73 agricultural firms, investigation for infringement of rules ‘illegal’ employment 103–5 agricultural sector, competitive in Mediterranean 98 agricultural workers, migrant legal support for, in Southern France 5 agriculture in European Union seasonal workers from non-EU countries 98 agriculture in Mediterranean lawless areas in seasonal work 100–101 American car industry 44, 49
AP Management study (2007) 135 apprenticeships 29
arbitration system 118
arboration in Provence Ecuadorians, suspense from work by Moroccans 108–9 Argentina in 1990s trade union responses to privatization 163–79
two state-owned companies 163–79
Argentine Navy 166
Argentinian economy, 1990s productive restructuring process 168–9 trade union strategies 168–9 assets, state-owned, fewer in Argentina 168 Astillero Río Santiago (ARS) Buenos Aires, transfer to government of 170 confrontation and resistance 178 domestic market profile 176 industrialization plan by Perón 166 labour resistance and state grant 170–73
shipyard, Argentina 164
Astra production sites, Antwerp and Bochum 70–71
Astra/Zafira model 71
Atos Origin, France, consulting and IT service 135
Aubry law (1) and (2), 13 June 1998 on working time 157
Australia, precarious employment, union responses 114–29
Australian Centre for Industrial Relations Research and Training (ACIRRT), legislative problems 124
Australian Council of Trade Unions (ACTU) 119–20
Australian Education Union (AEU) improved conditions for fixed-term teachers 124 Australian Nurses Federation (ANF) growth in membership 122 authoritarian management 3, 10–21 auto industry 7
negotiations 62–75
automobile companies, Europe 63 trade union stronghold 73

Carole Thornley, Steve Jefferys and Beatrice Appay - 9781849808095
Downloaded from Elgar Online at 12/19/2018 04:43:10AM
via free access
Globalization and precarious forms of production and employment

Automotive Product Operation (APO), later Visteon 66 autonomy model, controlled, constant change 29 award system erosion 122 AZF factory disaster, Toulouse, 2001 highly toxic gas creation 231 bargaining power, lack of 28 ‘behavioural problems’ cases, France employers’ accusations 210 Bouches-du-Rhône Collective Agreement, 1986 contract exemption for seasonal workers 103 exploitation of agricultural workers 104 high level of foreign agricultural workers 99 Tunisian or Moroccan long-term seasonal workers 101 brownfield union presence, Hungary and Poland French MNCs accepted 92
Bulgaria 4
Communist Party 85–6
Bulgaria, Socialist Party trade unions as workplace employee voice 87
Bulgarian National Commission four employment organizations 84 Business Objects, France, software publishing 135 business restructuring
Yacimientos Petrolíferos Fiscales (YPF) 174
Cap Gemini 135
capital and labour, conflicts 50 capitalism 41–3
contemporary, new forms of activity 133 entrepreneurial, international, managerial 80 twenty-first century 10 world 10
car assembly lines 47, 53 segmented 55
car and auto industry, US 51 car industry capitalist character 43–4 job losses in Europe 70 product variety 44–5
car sales crisis, autumn, 2008 71 career prospects in IT sector, France 138 Carrefour multinational 10 trade union in a Polish store 92 casual employment, Australia, union responses 125 casual waged work, Australia exemption from all rights and benefits 114–15 casual work 4, 23, 34, 121, 126 catering sector employment tribunal cases, France 208–12 regional collective agreements, fragmented 208 weak trade union movement 208–9 Central and Eastern Europe (CEE) 4 trade unions 77–95
union weakness, uncertain future 94–5 chain store shops, Paris 204–8 Chamber of Agriculture of Marseille on ‘illegal’ workers 105 chemical companies, France, relocation in Asia 230 chemical sector international trade secretariats (ITTs) 63 China authoritarian governance 20 rebirth of laissez-faire capitalism 20 ‘circular’ migration 110
Citizens Advice Bureau (CAB) 224 civil servants (fonctionnaires), France rights and privileges 185 cleaners in France 182–97 from ethnic minority backgrounds, France 189 mobilization for collective action 191–5 trade union activity, SUD-Rail 188 cleaners’ working time conditions 122 cleaning sector workforce, France 182–7 mainly women, young people, immigrants 182 vulnerability of 182
working conditions 182
Clothing and Allied Trades Union (CATU) 123 CODETRAS campaign group on ‘illegal’ workers 105 collective bargaining agreements 62, 83–4, 118, 160 for health and well-being of worker 160 collective bargaining analysis, France 147, 159 collective bargaining with management 63, 78, 122 collective identity, decline in 222 collective responses 199–212 command economies, under Russian influence India, China, South East Asia 1
Communist Party 77
in Bulgaria 85
in Czechoslovakia 85
company agreements, negotiation of labour conditions 159 company assets, state-owned obstacle to economic growth 168 competitiveness, lack of 25 computer-aided design and engineering 46 computer industry, flexibility collective labour agreement, France 139–41 computer science, occupation dominated by men 137 Confederación General del Trabajo (CGT), Argentina 175 self management of conflicts 186 Confédération Générale du Travail (CGT), France trade union opposition to nuclear power, Golfech 233–4 contract system, working hours 141 contract work insecure without social protection 31 Contrat Nouvelle Embauche (CNE, Contract for New Employment) 32 Contrat Première Embauche (CPE, First Employment Contract) 32 street protests against 32 youth protests in France 37 ‘contrat unique’, Nicholas Sarkozy, 2007 abandonment of 32
American ‘employment at will’ 32
‘core’ work groups, in railways in France 186 corporate social responsibility (CSR) 62 corporate tax system 18 corporations, powerful 48–9 corporatization 119
Corsa production sites, Saragossa and Eisenach threats to 70
Creys-Malville, Superphenix 241 crude oil discovery, south of Argentina 167 customization and Japanese car making 58
Czechoslovakia, effect of Communist Party 85
DaimlerBenz 65, 72–3
Daimler in Germany 72
DaimlerChrysler 65
separation, 2006 72
danger, or loss of control 34, 37 Dassault Systems, France, software publishing 135 day labour in Chicago 32 decentralization of industrial relations 151 decision-making processes 77 ‘deindustrialization’ 10
Delabarre law, 26 February 1986, France 153 Delta Group plants 71
deregulation, global and international 168 de Robien law, 11 June 1996, France turning point in collective bargaining 155 developed and developing countries subcontracts, outsourcing to 215 discrimination against seasonal workers, legal aid for, in France 101 Globalization and precarious forms of production and employment against Tunisian or Moroccan workers 101 against women and indigenous workers, Australia 121 discriminatory restrictions on seasonal workers, Mediterranean 100 dismissal facilitation 31–2

Eastern European workforce 98 ecological protests, global Greenpeace, Friends of the Earth, WWF 231 economic challenges 79–81 causing growth of casual workers 128 fuelling precarious employment 127 recoveries 118
Economic Emergency and State Reform Acts, Argentina 170 economic integration of CEE countries 107 economic regulation, Fordist to post-Fordist 151 economies, emerging
Brazil, Russia, India, China (‘BRICs’) 214 Ecuadorian and Moroccan workers, France fruit and grape picking 108 education
continuing, in IT, France 137–8
teachers on fixed-term contracts 124
Electricité de France (EDF) trade union veto in Poland and Hungary 88 electricity supply industries, strong unions Bulgaria, Poland, Hungary 93–4 Electronic Data Systems (EDS) 135 employee representation French trade unions 189 legal context, Bulgaria and Poland 87 national and European level 73 retail sector, France 204 welfare versus employment 150 employees, private, and firms 45–7 employer legacy for CEE countries 91–4 employers’ associations 93

employment
by hour, Wal-Mart 17, 19
law 101
non-standard 5, 114
protection rights, loss of 227 regulations, rigidity of 25 stable and precarious 27–8 focus of employers and unions 148 employment conditions, degrading of 48 employment continuity, liquidation of company 211 employment contracts, open-ended 138 employment, different types in Australia types and figures 116
employment flexibility, France and Europe 26–7, 142
Yacimientos Petrolíferos Fiscales (YPF) 174 employment of foreigners with no legal right to stay punishments in France 102 employment insecurity 5, 221 employment structure fragmentation 117 Employment Tribunal, France cases, variety of, in catering trade 210 trade union role 209–11 employment in USA, rule of instant dismissal 31 energy companies, France, relocation in Asia 230 engineering and IT services, France (SSII) 134–6, 143 engineers, professional, union representation 123 enterprise bargaining, single-employer 119 environmental movements 165 questioning of dangerous activities 230–31 versus trade unions, on dangers of nuclear energy 241
Environmental Protection Agency, US (EPA) 51 EU Information and Consultative Directive on employment representatives 87
Index 249

Europe, construction as an entity 150
European Agricultural Workers Federation trade union 109
European Council, on legal fairness to migrant workers 110
European Economic Area (EU) plus Norway, Iceland and Liechtenstein 65
European Economic Community enlargement from Central and Eastern Europe 77 European employers’ organization (UNICE) 64
European Metalworkers’ Federation (EMF) 67
European pressurized reactors (nuclear) 239–41
European Trade Union Confederation (ETUC) 65 European Union, new members from CEE worker treatment in France 105 European Union social policy 77–8
European Union White Paper (1993), Jacques Delors 26
European Working Conditions Survey (EWCS) job quality measures 216 European works councils (EWCs) 62, 64–6, 71, 73–4, 78 export zones, China, Central America, South Asia 12, 14 factories as pollutants 231 factory-style production 43 farm inspections by police, France finding ‘illegal’ workers 102 farm worker trade unions, France 99 finance sector in CEE countries 91 financial markets, liberalization of, trade union power 79 fixed-term contracts
Australia in public sector 114–15, 124 in CEE countries 81 flexibility 27, 133–4, 149 in industrial relations 144 and mobility in IT sector 138 negotiation of 141–3 positive, and precarity versus rigidity 25–6 flexibilization, precarious outcomes 36 flexible specialization 48 ‘flexible workers’, France 136–9 food manufacture 11
food sector, international trade secretariats (ITSs) 63 Ford Europe, European Works Council 65–8 management agreements 68
Ford Model T motor car 44
Ford River Rouge factory complex 43 Fordism and Post-Fordism 41–2 employment relations 26 mass production, 1950s America 44, 46, 48 working class mobilization, promotion of 50 foreign capital in economy 169 foreign direct investment 79, 80, 215 foreign labour market, ethnic segmentation 105–9 foreign markets of Yacimientos Petrolíferos Fiscales (YPF) 176 40-hour work week 19
framework agreements, European Daimler 72 France
anti-CPE movement, 2006 34 seasonal workers in agriculture Morocco, Tunisia, Portugal, Spain, Italy, Yugoslavia 98–9 freight transport, France, open to outside competition 185 French Communist Party (PCF) in favour of nuclear power 234
French employers, preference for, in France 109
French Ministry of Labour (DARES) 91, 95
French National Immigration Office (OMI) foreign workers 99
French trade union, SUD-Rail cleaning sector in France 6–7 fruit farm, Dordogne murder of labour inspectors by farmer 104 ‘full-time’ work at Wal-Mart 17
Globalization and precarious forms of production and employment

Fund for the Merchant Navy, dissolution 170
‘gangmasters’ in UK, acting as slave traders 109
General Confederation of Labour (CGT) trade union 107 General Motors (GM) 65 industrial unrest 46
return on investment 10–11
General Motors Europe (GME) agreements, signing of 68–72 generalization law, France 157 Getrag Ford Transmissions (GFT) agreement 67 global union federations (GUFs) 62 globalization 1, 10, 62, 163, 214 in developed countries 133
‘Glorious Thirty Years’ 23, 28
GM–Fiat alliance agreement 69 government pension reforms, France 186 government policy and neo-liberalism, Australia 117 Great Depression 18, 118 greenfield investments by MNCs 91 no encouragement for union presence 92 Guangdong Province, China ‘workshop of the world’ 12–13 health and safety at work 147 nuclear safety, union neglect 237 heavy industry in Argentina 166 holiday pay demand 210
homecare workers in Australia 126 hotel business, state, in Poland 91 strong unions 89
human relations, firms’ investment in 18 human resource (HR) policies, non-wage issues 78 Hungarian Interest Representation Council nine employment organizations 84 Hungarian Labour Code
problem of work-place representation 88
Hungarian Socialist Party 86
Hungary 4
dual representation system 87 free expression, free elections 86 insider reform and outsider support 86 reformers in government 86 ‘hyper-flexibility’ in IT sector, France 5 IG Metall, agreement 69 ignorance of work rights, exploitation of 205 immigrant workers 33
precarization process accentuated 102 immigration control, France, fight against illegal work 104 immigration policies, European 100, 110 income levels 216–20, 225 independence from employer 79 independent software vendors (ISV), France 136 individual contractors, increase in, cheaper labour costs 123 individualization 7, 199–212 software SMEs need for collective action 203–4 types of defence 211 workers in SMEs 202–3
industrial design standards 45 industrial legacy for CEE countries strength of trade unions in heavy industry 88–91 industrial outsourcing 47–8 industrial production, high risk 231 industrial and productive restructuring, Argentina 169 industrial relations, European trade union members 82

Industrial Relations in the New Europe 150 industrial relations systems, Europe 150 industrialization strategy 168 inequality increase, by precarization 37 information technology (IT), France 134–7 consulting sector 144
engineer and consultant, France typical profile 144
globalized markets 134
hyper-flexible skilled workers 133–45 ‘hyperflexibility’ 5–6 merits open to question 134
offshoring from France 139 Inland Revenue, legal aid provision 224 insecurity increase 36 insecurity in new model of production 30 Institut Nationale de la Statistique et des Etudes (INSEE) on ‘precarious employment’ 28–9 inter-contracts, periods between assignments 143–4 international competition in work 25, 29
International Convention of 1990 protection of migrant workers 110 International Federation of Chemical and General Workers’ Unions (ICF) 63 international framework agreements (IFAs) 62 International Labour Organization (ILO) 1, 105 International Motor Vehicle Programme (IMVP) research project at MIT 50 international trade secretariats (ITSs) metal-working, chemical and food sectors 63 international union co-ordination historical perspective 63–6 International Working Men’s Association 62
Irish Centre for Rights of Migrants employment agency crime, discovery of 110
IT see information technology
Japanese car makers, vertical de-integration 49–50, 59
Japanese labour costs, low 54
Japanese-style methods, transforming labour productivity 52 jobs creation 155
insecurity 23, 27
quality, autonomy, task discretion, skills 216 relocation, threat to employment 64 safeguarding in severe downturn 227 saving in Europe 63
just-in-time retailing 55
‘lean retailing’ 12
‘Justice for Janitors’ campaign, USA 122, 183 labour codes 82, 189 labour contracts, open-ended 144 labour force, destabilization of 36 malleability and mobility 27 labour growth, Argentina 167 labour law 148
exemptions for seasonal workers 103 France, modification of 32 ignorance of 211
labour markets in CEE, unemployment rates higher 81 flexibility increase 117 seasonal 102–5
segmentation 2, 27, 28
transformation 36
labour mobility, between EU and Third World countries 98 labour movement 26, 48
labour and product markets, greater flexibility 214 labour regulation 118 restrictive 121
labour relationships 169 positive importance of 226 labour security/insecurity aspects 216 ‘labour suppliers’, commission taking 109 language problems 109
Larcher, Gerard, Minister of Labour fight against illegal work 104 Latin American seasonal workers 98 law enforcement by dedicated inspectors on working time 148 law infringement among foreign workers 107 layoffs 15
‘lean production’ 4, 40–59 legitimating device 51
leave entitlements 122
legal action as conflict resolution, France 211 Globalization and precarious forms of production and employment legal aid to migrant workers, France Bouches-du-Rhône region 99–100 temporary employment 36 legislation on work and employment 36 legislation of working time in France 148 Levinson, Charles

International Metalworkers’ Federation (IMF) 63 legal enactment 77
Liquor, Hospitality and Miscellaneous Union (LHMU)
Australia 122
loneliness at work in small shops 205–6 Maastricht Treaty agreements 150 management strategies against recognition of people’s aptitudes 133 managerial hierarchy, Wal-Mart 17 market research jobs, France 143 markets 6, 27–8, 40, 163 and collective bargaining 150 concept of 153–9
rule over welfare state 25
Mediterranean agriculture, lawless areas in seasonal work 100–101 merchants, Argentina 166
mergers and acquisitions, Argentina 168 metal-working sector 46
international trade secretariats (ITs) 63
Metals, Engineering and Associated Industries Award, 1998
Mémoire des Entreprises de France (MEDEF) 140
Movement for a National Union of IT Consultants (MUNCI), France 140–41
multinational companies (MNCs) 4, 63, 77, 80
Argentina 168
mergers and acquisitions, Argentina 168 subcontracting and outsourcing 215
takeovers 88
unwillingness to join host country’s employers’ associations 93
multinational consulting firms, France 144
multinational, investing in CEE companies, 1990s 80, 91
national economic development, Argentina 166
income level falls 218–20
interviews of different profiles, findings 217–18
job insecurity after 215–16, 220–21
labour market status 214–27
loss of faith in union 223 unfair dismissal claims and tenure 220
microprocessing techniques, car industry 49
Microsoft, ‘permatemps’, precarious workforce 31 migrant workers 2
China 12
migrants, Eastern European and non-community competition and change in origin 107
migration, ‘illegal’ networks
over-exploitation of foreign workers 109–10
militant unionism of cleaners, France 191–5
military origin of Astillero Río Santiago (ARS) 167
miners’ strike, defeat in UK, 1980s 93
‘modernization’ or ‘social change’ 152
‘modulation’, varying duration of work 153–5
Mouvement des Entreprises de France (MEDEF) 140
Movement for a National Union of IT Consultants (MUNCI), France 140–41
multinational companies (MNCs) 4, 63, 77, 80
Argentina 168
subcontracting and outsourcing 215
takeovers 88
unwillingness to join host country’s employers’ associations 93
multinational consulting firms, France 144
multinational, investing in CEE companies, 1990s 80, 91
national economic development, Argentina 166
Mouvement des Entreprises de France (MEDEF) 140
Movement for a National Union of IT Consultants (MUNCI), France 140–41
multinational companies (MNCs) 4, 63, 77, 80
Argentina 168
subcontracting and outsourcing 215
takeovers 88
unwillingness to join host country’s employers’ associations 93
national economic development, Argentina 166
international trade secretariats (ITs) 63
Metals, Engineering and Associated Industries Award, 1998
on casual workers 126–7
MG Rover (MGR), survey of ex-Rover workers belief in value of collective voice 223–4 employment precariousness 214–27
income level falls 218–20
interviews of different profiles, findings 217–18
job insecurity after 215–16, 220–21
labour market status 214–27
loss of faith in union 223
unfair dismissal claims and tenure 220
microprocessing techniques, car industry 49
Microsoft, ‘permatemps’, precarious workforce 31
migrant workers 2
China 12
migrants, Eastern European and non-community competition and change in origin 107
migration, ‘illegal’ networks
over-exploitation of foreign workers 109–10
militant unionism of cleaners, France 191–5
military origin of Astillero Río Santiago (ARS) 167
miners’ strike, defeat in UK, 1980s 93
‘modernization’ or ‘social change’ 152
‘modulation’, varying duration of work 153–5
Mouvement des Entreprises de France (MEDEF) 140
Movement for a National Union of IT Consultants (MUNCI), France 140–41
multinational companies (MNCs) 4, 63, 77, 80
Argentina 168
subcontracting and outsourcing 215
takeovers 88
unwillingness to join host country’s employers’ associations 93
national economic development, Argentina 166
international trade secretariats (ITs) 63
Metals, Engineering and Associated Industries Award, 1998
on casual workers 126–7
MG Rover (MGR), survey of ex-Rover workers
belief in value of collective voice 223–4
employment precariousness 214–27
income level falls 218–20
interviews of different profiles, findings 217–18
job insecurity after 215–16, 220–21
labour market status 214–27
loss of faith in union 223
unfair dismissal claims and tenure 220
microprocessing techniques, car industry 49
Microsoft, ‘permatemps’, precarious workforce 31
migrant workers 2
China 12
migrants, Eastern European and non-community competition and change in origin 107
migration, ‘illegal’ networks
over-exploitation of foreign workers 109–10
militant unionism of cleaners, France 191–5
military origin of Astillero Río Santiago (ARS) 167
miners’ strike, defeat in UK, 1980s 93
‘modernization’ or ‘social change’ 152
‘modulation’, varying duration of work 153–5
Mouvement des Entreprises de France (MEDEF) 140
Movement for a National Union of IT Consultants (MUNCI), France 140–41
multinational companies (MNCs) 4, 63, 77, 80
Argentina 168
subcontracting and outsourcing 215
takeovers 88
unwillingness to join host country’s employers’ associations 93
national economic development, Argentina 166
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Index</th>
<th>253</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Economic Studies (INSEE), France 135</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>National Tertiary Education Union (NTEU) mobilizing casual academics 125–6</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>naval industry development, Argentina state intervention 166</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Navy strategy, Argentina for Astillero Río Santiago (ARS) 172</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>negotiation process, labour and union movement 147</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>neo-liberal policies Astillero Río Santiago (ARS), losses 163, 171</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>politics in USA and Great Britain 168</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>‘new forms of employment’ (NFE) French Ministry of Labour 28</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>nuclear energy, civil, France 7–8, 231–2 challenge for unionism 230–44</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Golfech power plant 233–5 politicization of production 232</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>nuclear safety, trade union, neglect of 236–7, 240</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>shopfloor level approach 235–9</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nuclear Safety Transparency Act 2006, France health and safety issues 238</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>nurse–patient ratios 122</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>occupational protections, France 185–6</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>offshoring to India, China, Philippines 138–9, 144</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>oil company, Argentina 166–76</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>oil production, Yacimientos Petrolíferos Fiscales (YPF) 174</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Olympia Plan framework agreement, GM management and EWC 70</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>open trade with foreign markets, Argentina 168</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>opposition strategy by union leaders, Argentina 171</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Orbis-Novotel Hotel, Poland 90</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) 27</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises 64</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>organizational work 158 collective bargaining with management 151–9 experimental phase 156 outsourcing technological innovations 48, 53 Yacimientos Petrolíferos Fiscales (YPF) 174 overtime 19, 122, 154, 158, 210</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>paid work concealment by seasonal workers from non-EU countries 102 part-time work 2, 29, 70 in CEE countries 81 women and young people 204 Pearl River Delta, China, virtual free market 13 penal law 101–2</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Pensions Protection Fund 68 personnel management 18 petrochemical companies, France, relocation in Asia 230 petrol, national, union leaders, Argentina, strategy of 175 Poland 4 1989 defeat of Communist regime, total 85 employee representation by trade unions 87 Polish company, illegal practices, rental of workers 108 Polish and Moroccan workers 107 political democracy, CEE countries, adjustment problems 80 post-Fordism 40–59 postal and telecommunications services, France SUD-PTT 185–6 power asymmetries, growing 199–212 power relationships 11, 35, 165 precariat (‘precarious’ and ‘proletariat’) 34 precariously employment 3, 10–21 deficient in labour security 114 forms of work, increase in 123 France 182–97 job tenure and security 40–59 legitimating of 48–50</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Carole Thornley, Steve Jefferys and Beatrice Appay - 9781849808095
Downloaded from Elgar Online at 12/19/2018 04:43:10AM
via free access
rise in Australia 116, 120–21 union responses 127
trends, shop workers in France 204–5 Precarious Generation (Collectif Génération Précaire), 2006 34 precariousness in labour market 216 precariousness/precarity concept 2, 36 from Latin, precare (to pray) 34 précarisation, common term in France see precarization precarization contemporary capitalism 25 contradiction to progress in democracy 23 imposing law, employer’s use of 29 major trend in capitalist societies 36 negative consequences 36 transformation of full-time and permanent employment 31 privatization dynamic, international 163, 168 public companies, Argentina 168 service sector in CEE countries 80 privatization policies 1, 119, 172 of telecommunications, gas, electricity in France 185 trade union power 79
trade union responses, Argentina 163–79
Yacimientos Petrolíferos Fiscales (YPF) 173
privatization practices in state-owned shipyards 170–76 Proctor & Gamble (P&G) 11 product markets, commercialization of trade union power 79 production restructuring in Argentina 163
two state-owned companies 163–79 professional communities, disintegration of 133 professional destinies, control over 134 professional technical knowledge
Yacimientos Petrolíferos Fiscales (YPF) 174
professional training 143
Program of Participated Ownership, Argentina 175 protection for people at work 160 protest, forms of, absenteeism, meetings, petitions 208 public–private partnership strategies 30 public sector unions, France 184 radioactive risks from nuclear power trade union reaction 235 railway sector, France collective trade union action since mid-1980s 183–4 job insecurity 183–4
pension scheme 186
stronghold for trade union organization 186 railway workers (cheminots), France rights and privileges 185–6 recruitment networks for migrant workers increase in intensive agricultural sector 106 redundancies, forced 70 redundancy payments 223 regulation of working time 147 representation security, fall in 225 fall in trade union density 222–5 retail chains 7, 10
employee representation, poor in France 204–8 retail supremacy, Wal-Mart 3 retail work transformation 15–20 rights, sub-standard 5 risks to workers 27
safety annual report, trade union neglect of 238 seasonal workers agriculture in southern Europe 98 in Mediterranean agriculture 98–112 weakening of contractual relation 103
segmentation 27, 107–9
Seguin law, 11 June 1987, France 153 self-employment 31
Australia 114, 123
CEE countries 81
Service Employment International Union (SEIU), US 183 service markets, commercialization of trade union power 79 service providers
Index

CEE countries 91
Europe 105–6
Shenzhen, China, economic zone 12–13
shipyard, Argentina 166–76
shop stewards, weak presence in SMEs 201 shops, independent, France individual loyalty 205 precarious working relationships 204–8 repressive regime 205–6 short-term contracts 29, 133, 142
Europe 71
Sindicato Unidos Petroleros del Estado (SUPE)
  Argentina 174–5
  single currency, Europe 150 single-employer collective bargaining 120 60-hour week, Wal-Mart 19 small and medium enterprise (SME) sector, France 7 difficulties in trade union joining 199 social and economic dynamics 36 social and industrial unrest after World War II North America, Western Europe 40 social rights diminishment 32
Social Security Act, 1935, USA 18 social security system
  Sindicato Unidos Petroleros del Estado (SUPE) 175
social/work identity
  Astillero Río Santiago (ARS) 173
Société Nationale de Chemins de Fer Français (SNCF) rail freight, France 152 trade union 184
software engineers
  employment relations in SMEs 202 software firms
  individualized workers and collective challenges 199–204 temporary contracts, graduate labour, high-skills 199–204 software services production means industrialization of 136
Solidaires, Unitaires et Démocratiques (SUD), France 183 solidarity between workers 211
Solidarność trade union, social movement 85–6
'specific forms of employment' (precarious jobs) definitions of 29
  formes particulières d'emploi (FPE) 28 stability of employment, less 133
'standard employment relation' (SER), Australia 116–17
  gendered model 118
state role over working-class organizations 50 state withdrawal as employer, Argentina 169–70 state's role in economy, Argentina 169–70, 177
status fragmentation 102–5 store managers at Wal-Mart 16–17 student working, restriction of working time 103 subcontracted cleaners, France 183 subcontracting 29, 230
  China 14
  and outsourcing 215
  in software firms 200–201 subprime crisis, US 33
substandard employment rights 114
SUD-Rail
  French union of railway workers 183 legal advice service to workers 190–91 militant approach 184–8 trade union activities 187–8 SUD trade unions, France democracy emphasis, member increase 184 legal expertise 189
  militant unionism 184
  workers from specific occupations 184 Sunday as rest day, 1906 law 149 supermarket work, precarious employment 133 Superphenix fast-breeder reactor symbol of anti-nuclear movement 241 supply chains, drivers of global economy 12, 20
Wal-Mart, Target, K-Mart, Carrefour 11
Syntec, France 135, 140, 142
Syntec Informatique, France 135–6, 139, 141 interests of SSII and software publishers 139 tax benefits, elimination 170 tax credits for working poor 225

teachers on fixed-term contracts 125 telecommunications in France 185 telecommunications infrastructure 14 tempering, international in Europe 105–6 temporary work agencies 2, 29, 115, 201 avoidance of employment relationship 124
CEE countries 81
criminal activities 110 knowledge of European legislation 107
Terra Fecundis company
Spanish employer in Bouches-du-Rhône 108 temporary work contracts for life retirement pensions, low 101 temporary work, cross-border in CEE countries 110 tenure 216–17, 220–21, 225
Theory of Contingency, organizational analysis 165
Time Saving Accounts, law of, 1994 154 Toyota cars and lean production 50, 53–6 trade barrier reduction 214 trade union rounds (tournee syndicale) collective action for cleaners in France, SUD-Rail 193–4 activists, cheminot status, France 188 some Arabic-speaking 195
Argentina Asociación Trabajadores del Estado (ATE) 171, 176–7 automobile sector 74–5
campaigns, Australia, on casual work 117–21, 126 Central and Eastern Europe 77–95 civil nuclear energy question 235, 239–40 cleaning sector, France 182–3 confederations, names of, Bulgaria, Poland, Hungary 89 employee voice 92
federations in France 186, 230–44 Golfech, France 233
input in production sites (EWC) 71 intervention, requests for 207–8 involvement in nuclear power industry, low levels 239 opposition 77
from independent shops, France 206–8 pluralism in Hungary 86 political legacy for CEE countries 85–8 privatization, Argentina in 1990s 6 representation in CEE, weaknesses 79 revitalization 33
sponsoring of self-organization 125
UK, current low levels 215 US manufacturing industries 47, 57–8 weakening of, 30, 48
worker protest versus public protest 241–2 Transformation of American Industrial Relations 150 transformation in retail work 15–20 transition process from Communism 88 translation and language problems, immigrant workers 108 transnational collective bargaining (TCB) 62, 73–4 transnational companies (TNCs) 1, 62 global restructuring 62–75 job relocation 64
union action 63, 65
travel costs, reimbursement to employer forbidding of, for seasonal workers 101
Index 257

tripartism in Central and Eastern Europe 87 Bulgaria, Slovak Republic, Slovenia 84 doubtful good 78
Trotskyites in France 186 turnover, high, Wal-Mart 18–19

unemployment 23, 25
Australia 117
insurance 18
rise in CEE countries 80
Wal-Mart 19
UNITE, Australia, sponsoring self-organization 125
United Auto Works (UA W), US 66 university academics, casual (‘sessional’), Australia 125 urban and regional development strategy, Argentina 167 vertical integration and de-integration 42, 47–8 Visteon agreement, file for bankruptcy 68 terms of employment for Fords’ workers 66–7 Vizcaino v. Microsoft, employee status for permatemps 31 voluntary retirements

Yacimientos Petrolíferos Fiscales (YPF) 174
voluntary severance 70
Vredeling directive 64

wage-earning society, downgrading of 24 wages 7, 82, 115, 156
Walesa, Lech, Solidarnośc chairman, Poland 86
Wal-Mart, US, global supply chain 3, 12
China 13–14
precarious work, authoritarian management 10–21 waterfront dispute 1997–98, Australia 122 weekend working, in CEE countries 81 welfare state 18, 26, 36

white-collar workers, unemployment 72 women in labour force, more in CEE countries 81 Woolworth, Frank W. 15 work agency subcontractors, service provision 106 work concealment by seasonal workers from non-EU countries 102 work forms, ‘atypical’ 62 work intensification 123
IT sector, France 144
work permit exemption in Europe 105 for seasonal agricultural workers 106 work permits for temporary work French regulations against, from non-member states 106 work and production systems, reorganization 36 work week as five and a half days, Wal-Mart 19 worker availability, cases, France 210 worker quotas involving migrants 98 workers degrading conditions 3
and global supply chain, mainly female 12 representation in European TNCs 64 workforce in Guangdong migrant workers, insecurity of 13–14 workforce skills 41–2, 48 working conditions, control over 134 industrial restructuring, CEE countries 81 working hour extensions 144, 158 working poor, effect of precarization 30, 37 working schedules, flexibility in 7 working week, 35 hours, France 142 working-times
laws, changes since 1982 153 negotiation 147
reduction 148–9, 155–7
union objective 153–4
regulation, and the market 148–53 union policies 149–50
works councils, Bulgaria and Poland 87–8

Carole Thornley, Steve Jefferys and Beatrice Appay - 9781849808095
Downloaded from Elgar Online at 12/19/2018 04:43:10AM
via free access
Globalization and precarious forms of production and employment

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Construct</th>
<th>Details</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>World Congress of Sociology</td>
<td>Bielefeld, 1994, 24, 35</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>World Employee Committee, Daimler</td>
<td>agreement 72</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>World works councils (WWCs)</td>
<td>63</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Yacimientos Petrolíferos Fiscales (YPF)</td>
<td>created by national government, Argentina 167</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>nationwide company, economic significance 176</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>negotiations and adaptation 178</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>oil company, Argentina 164</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>personnel rationalization 174</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>public company, private investments 167</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>