

Index

---

- Accessibility Axiom 45
Ackerman, Bruce 149
Acta Politica 61, 220
Allott, Phillip 6
Amsterdam treaty 7, 65
Attac France 152, 156–8, 160
attachment to Europe 75–8, 82, 102, 106, 111, 225, 245, 250–251
- Barrès, Maurice 129
Barroso commissions 7
Bartolini, Stefano 16
Beetham, David 29
Bellamy, Richard 4–5
Blok, Vlaams 187, 197
Brewer, Marilyn B. 37, 47
Brubaker, Roger 35
Bruter, Michael 35
- Calhoun, Craig 145
Castiglione, Dario 4–5
Cerutti, Furio 39–40, 257–9
Christodoulidis, Emiliós 149
citizens' satisfaction with democracy of EU 65–6, 72–4
Civil Society Contact Group (CSCG) 152–4, 158, 160
civil society organizations (CSOs), in EU context 170, 252–4
Attac France 152, 156–8, 160
Civil Society Contact Group (CSCG) 152–4, 158, 160
in constitution making 148–9, 253 consultation vs deliberation 159–62
deliberative democracy, contribution of CSOs 145–8
Democracy International (DI) 152, 154–6, 160
European Convention's initiatives for public hearings 148–51 involvement in the Constitutional Convention, case examples 151–8 public sphere, role in constructing identity 145–6 purpose of CSOs 144
collective identity 35–8, 225–6, 247, 258
among Europe's citizens 80 citizens' mode of identification with the nation-state 96–7 codes for constructing 88–91
conceptions of national community 91–3
dimensions 37
macro-sociological constructivist approach to 89
and political attitudes of citizens 38
primordial codes 89, 92
segregationist multi-cultural approach to 'Europe' 93 in terms of psychological processes 38–9 sociological theories 36–7 traditional codes 89–90, 92
on the transnational level 93–5 universalistic codes 90, 92
collective self-determination, norm of 30
Common Agricultural Policy 9
Common Market Law Review 6 constitutional moment, concept of 19, 148–9, 159–62, 252–3 constitutional patriotism 18–19, 40, 146, 149, 163
Cooper, Frederick 35
cross-cutting identities 90, 113n10
cueing messages 43, 46–7, 226
cultural conflicts, related to European integration 174–6 cultural/identity-based fears, associated with European integration 33, 179–84, 226, 245
Dahl, Robert A. 9, 30

- Dalton, Russell J. 62
- decision-making
   non-majoritarian 13
   politicization of process for 15–17
   prerogatives of European institutions 9–10
   politicization of process 15–17
- Dehaene, Jean-Luc 150
- deliberative democracy theories 145–8
   civil society in 147–8
- Democracy International (DI) 152, 154–6, 160
- democratic deficit 6, 8, 201
   according to Simon Hix 15
   myths 11
- democratic integrity 5
- democratic legitimacy, of the European Economic Community/European Union (EEC/EU)
   boundaries, issue of 17–20
   definition 4
   dimensions 4–5
   EU as a superstate 12–14
   first wave of responses 8–11 original academic formulations 8
   politicization of decision making process 14–17
   revisionist formulations 11–14
   short history 5–8
   summary 248–56
   three phases of debate 27–8
- ‘de-parliamentarization’ of national political systems 8
- Déroutède, Paul 129
- Deutsch, Karl 19, 145
- de Vries, Catherine E. 48, 221, 254–5
- diffuse support 21, 31–2
- dual identification, to EU and own country 104–10
- Easton, David 20, 31–4, 123, 222, 249, 259
- economic fears, associated with European integration 181, 183–4, 192–5
- Edwards, Erica E. 48
- Eichenberg, Richard C. 62, 65, 209
- elite discourse 42–3, 46–8, 237
- emotional attachment to Europe, degree of 103–4
- ethnic countries
   attitude towards immigrants and
   European identity 109, 120, 122, 250–251
   citizens’ acceptance of minorities and immigrants 99
   dual identification to EU and own
   country 107
   on Eurocentrism 108
   mobilization of potential economic
   and cultural resistance to European integration 196
   multiple attachments to nation and Europe 106
   national pride 106, 122
   see also France and national identity
- Eurobarometer indicator 62, 79, 119
   attachment to Europe 75–8
   European identity 74
- Europe, as a hegemonial empire 93
- European Charter of Fundamental Rights 7
- European citizens 4, 7
   level of acceptance of European institutions and decisions 5
- European Community legitimacy 5–6
- European Council, institutionalization
   of 7, 203
- European Court of Justice (ECJ), rulings 14
- European demos 10, 17, 20, 28, 86, 111, 146, 159, 247–8
- European identity 74–6, 231, 245, 249–50, 257, 259–60
   acceptance of minorities and immigrants and expectations of assimilation 96–100, 120
   according to social psychological theories 36–7
   attachment to Europe, degree of 102
   collective identity 35–8 compatibility with national identity 39, 41–2, 76–82, 125
   conceptualization 34–9
   construction of mass opinion towards 42–50
   and ‘cultural threats’ 33
   demarcation methods 40–41
   dual identification to EU and own
   country 104–10

- elements of 81
- emotional attachment to Europe,
  - degree of 103–4
  - and European integration 36
- Europeans with no identity 79–80
- legitimacy of 29
- mass-elite linkage, influence of 48
- misunderstandings 35–6
- multi-culturalism, degree of 96, 100
- multiple identity 79–80
- normative conceptualizations 35
- as political identity 39–40
- problems of 39–42
- self-description in terms of their
  - nationality only 100–102
  - sense of national pride 102–3
- strategies to remove ambiguity 35
- types of 79
- value orientations and rationality
  - standards of citizens, influence of 49
- European integration 87, 93–4, 241–2, 256
  - analysis using subjective predictors 222–7
  - attitudes of citizens towards 224
  - and conflicts at national level 176–7
  - cultural conflicts 174–6
  - cultural or identity-based fears
    - associated with 179–84
  - dimensionality of orientations post-enlargement of EU 192–5
  - discourse on 9
  - economic fears regarding enlargement process 181, 183–4, 192–5
  - exploratory factor analysis of indicators 227–33
  - issue of social integration 177
  - left-wing parties, response from 189–92
  - libertarian-universalistic vs traditionalist-communitarian values 174–6
  - mobilization of cultural and economic fears associated with 183–4
  - mobilization of opposition against 177–8
  - and national political conflict 173–4
  - ranking of significant predictors 236
  - relationship between national conflicts and orientations regarding EU 178–83
  - right-wing populist parties, response from 175–6, 184–9
  - structural imperatives of Maastricht treaty, disagreements over 176–7
- European Monetary Union (EMU) 10, 176, 203, 224, 241
- Europeanness 100, 110, 112, 146, 156
- European New Right 175
- European Parliament (EP) 7–9, 16, 161, 203, 206, 215
- European political culture 147
- European polity 4, 31, 110, 143, 171, 184, 226, 248, 254
- European Union (EU)
  - legitimacy of 29–34, 249
    - construction of mass opinion towards EU identity 42–50
    - Easton's views 31–4
    - input-oriented legitimization 30
      - as justifiability 29
      - normative legitimacy 29–30
      - objective vs subjective legitimacy 31
    - output-oriented legitimization 30
    - political and economic integration 33
      - and political support 31–3
      - sub-constructs 32–4
      - support regime 31–3
    - as superstate 12–14, 248–9
  - Euroskepticism 17, 65, 69, 114n26, 131, 171, 173, 181, 184, 188–90, 192, 196–7, 250, 252–4
- Follesdal, Andreas 8, 29
- formal legitimacy 4
- framing messages 45–6
- France and national identity 128–9, 132, 251–2, 254
  - attachment to Europe 75, 77
  - citizens' acceptance of minorities and immigrants 99, 109, 120, 122
  - citizens' perceptions towards European integration 181
  - collective identity 80
  - compatibility difference with European identity 136

- France and national identity (continued) cultural type vs political type 133–5 declining support for the EU 62, 70–71 degree of exclusivity 130–131
 and European identity 81, 126, 131
 foreigners as source of France's economic problems 129–30 French conception of a nation 127
 as historical and individual variable 126–31
 multiple attachments to nation and Europe 106 organizations and parties 129–30
 right-wing populist parties views on European integration 184–6 satisfaction with functioning of democracy in the EU 72–3 sources of national pride 122, 125–6, 133
- Franco–Prussian War 127
- Geddes, Andrew 8, 20
 generalized support 33, 82, 221–2, 224, 249
 for European Union 74
 contemporary state 66–9
 development 61–5
- Germany 127, 129, 155, 181
 attachment to Europe 75, 77
 citizens' acceptance of minorities and immigrants 98–9, 109, 120, 122
 collective identity 80, 231
 European identity 81, 109
 European integration perceived as cultural threat 196–7 mobilization of potential economic and cultural resistance to European integration 196–7
 multiple attachments to nation and Europe 106–8
 party electorates' views about European integration 187–8
 party-voter correspondence on preferred EU legislation 208
 satisfaction with functioning of democracy in the EU 68, 72–3
 sense of national pride 102
 support for EU 64, 70–71, 232, 234, 236, 257
- Gogh, Theo van 100
- Great Britain
 association of attitudes towards immigrants and European identity 109
 European integration perceived as cultural threat 196–7
 level of national pride 103
 party electorates' views about European integration 187
 politically based national identity 135
 support for EU 70–71, 232, 234, 236, 257
- Greece
 attachment to Europe 75, 77
 citizens' acceptance of minorities and immigrants 98–9, 109, 120, 122
 citizens' perceptions towards European integration 181
 collective identity 80
 declining support for EU 62, 70–71
 European identity 81, 109, 231
 multiple attachments to nation and Europe 106
 party-voter correspondence on preferred EU legislation 208
 satisfaction with functioning of democracy in EU 72–3
 sense of national pride 102
 support for the EU 70–71, 232, 234, 236, 257
 'guardianship', notion of 9–10
- Habermas, Jürgen 18–19, 40, 48, 144–8, 252–3
- Herrmann, Richard 47
- Hix, Simon 8, 15–17, 62
- Hooghe, Liesbet 48, 61–2, 203–4, 220–221, 225–6
- Huntington 40
 identity demarcation 40–41
 immigrants and assimilation expectations 119
 and European identity 107–10
 and national identity 95–100
 national way of framing 'us-them' relations 91

- population's attitudes towards,
   country-wise 95, 99–103, 106, 108–9, 120, 122, 251
 input-oriented legitimization 30
 Italy
   attachment to Europe 75, 77
   citizens' acceptance of minorities and
   immigrants 99–100
   collective identity 80
   European identity 81, 100–101, 103, 231
   level of national pride 104–5
   mobilization of potential economic
   and cultural resistance to European integration 196–7
   multiple attachments to nation and Europe 106–8
   party electorates' views about
   European integration 187–9
   party-voter correspondence on preferred EU legislation 208 satisfaction with functioning of democracy in the EU 72–3
   support for the EU 70–71, 232, 234, 236
 Kaina, Viktoria 62
 Kersbergen, Kees van 221, 225, 237
 Kohli, Martin 37, 40
 Koopmans, Ruud 48, 50
 Kraus, Peter A. 19–20, 28
Kulturation 124
 Lacroix, Justine 42, 146
 liberal political community 92
   attitude towards immigrants and
   European identity 109, 120, 122, 250–251
   citizens' acceptance of minorities and
   immigrants 99
   on Eurocentrism 108
   mobilization of potential economic
   and cultural resistance to European integration 196
   multiple attachments to nation and Europe 106
   national pride 106, 122
   political power 147
 Lisbon Treaty 48, 143, 155
 Lord, Christopher 29
 Maastricht Treaty 5, 7, 27, 48, 62
 McLaren, Lauren M. 87, 124–5, 220–221, 225–7
 Magnette, Paul 5, 17
 Majone, Giandomenico 9, 12, 14–15, 28, 237
 Marks, Gary 47, 62, 177–9, 221, 225
 Marquand, David 6
 mass opinion towards EU identity, construction model of 42–50
   analytical differentiation frames
   for 46–7
   anti-European resentments 50
   collective memory 49–50
   differentiations and amendments 45–6
   discursive opinion-formation
   process 48
   Euro-sceptical claims vs Euro-critical claims 48
   method of measuring attitudes of individuals via surveys 45–6 relevance of everyday experiences 46–7
   status of the mass media 50
   systematic effect of institutional context factors 48–9
   two-dimensional conflict structure 47–8
 Maurras, Charles 129
 membership of home country, in the EU,
   responses 69
 Members of the European Parliament
   (MEPs) 9, 155, 202–204
 Mény, Yves 7
 Mill, John Stuart 15
 mission civilatrice 127
 Moravcsik, Andrew 7, 11–12
   on description of EU 12–14
   EU's reach 13
   legal scope of EU 13
 multi-culturalism and European
   identity 96, 100
 multi-cultural national community 92
 national community, with respect to cultural diversity 91–3
   classification of countries 95–100 dominant code for political community 91

- national community, with respect to cultural diversity (continued) hypothesized approaches 94–5 mother tongue and ancestry 125
- national identity vs European
identity 39, 41–2, 76–82
- nationalism 18, 111, 124, 126–9
- national pride, sense of, and EU 102–6, 109, 122, 126, 133
- the Netherlands 8, 11, 62, 171, 250, 252
- attachment to Europe 75, 77
citizens' acceptance of minorities and immigrants 99–100, 109, 120, 122
- collective identity 80, 231
- European identity 81, 109
- membership of their home country in the EU 69
- mobilization of potential economic
and cultural resistance to
European integration 195–7
- multiple attachments to nation and Europe 106–8
- party electorates' views about
European integration 187–8, 192
- party-voter correspondence on
preferred EU legislation 208
- satisfaction with the functioning of
democracy in the EU 72–3
- support for the EU 70–71, 232–6, 257
- 'no demos thesis', in EU 10
- non-majoritarian decision making 13
- normative legitimacy 29–31
- objective legitimacy 5, 31, 66, 249
- O'Flynn, Ian 146
- output-oriented legitimization 30
- Papadopoulos, Yannis 17
- Parliament for Europe* 6
- Parsons, Talcott 33
- persuasive messages 43–6
- political awareness 43–5, 47
- political predispositions 43–5, 47, 49, 258
- political representation, in EU 254–5
citizens' policy preferences and party positions related to EU 205–14
linkage between citizens and political parties 203–5, 219
- politicization, of decision making
process 15–17
- popular sovereignty 30
- post-Maastricht EU, support 65–6, 76
- prerogatives of European Parliament 9
- primordial identities 89, 91–2
- radical constitutional theory 148
- Rawls, John 175
- Reception Axiom 43–4
- re-composition of European diversity 20
- Regulating Europe* 12
- regulatory polity 4, 12, 248
- republican countries
attitude towards immigrants and
European identity 109, 120, 122, 250–251
citizens' acceptance of minorities and
immigrants 99
emotional aspects of national belonging 107
on Eurocentrism 108
mobilization of potential economic
and cultural resistance to European integration 196
multiple attachments to nation and Europe 105–6
national pride 106, 122
republican patriotism 40
- Resistance Axiom 45
- Response Axiom 45
- Robertson, David 4
- Russian Matryoshka doll 90
- Scharpf, Fritz 30–31, 36
- Schmitter, Philippe C. 3, 9–10
- Sieyès, Emmanuel 126–8
- social identity 36–7
in social psychological theory 38
Turner et al.'s theory of 124
- social legitimacy 4
- sovereignty, transfer of 27
- specific support 31
- Staatsnation* 124, 127–8
- Statham, Paul 48, 50
- Steenbergen, Marco R. 47–8, 50
- subjective legitimacy 5, 31, 225, 249
- support for EU 242, 247, 250, 257
citizens' satisfaction with democracy 65–6, 72–4

- conditional models of mass-elite linkages 48
- constructs and indicators of attitudes towards the EU 222–7
- decline in 62–5
- empirical findings for 257–60
- exploratory factor analysis of indicators 227–30, 234–5
- generalized 61–71
- see also* European integration
- systematic opinion formation 46
- Taylor, Charles 175
- technocratic Europe 6
- Tindemans, Leo 6–7, 248
  - report 3
- traditional identities 89–92
- trust, in EU institutions 32–4, 222–3, 242–3
- Tully, James 20
- Turner, John C. 36, 123–4
- universalistic codifications, of collective identity 91–2
- Walzer, Michael 175
- Weiler, Joseph 4
- Weltbürgertum und Nationalstaat* 126
- Western societies 30
- Zaller, John R. 42–3, 45–7, 224, 249–50

