Acknowledgments

This volume would not have been possible without the extraordinary efforts of Professor Nicholas Robinson in conceptualizing the IUCN Academy of Environmental Law during his tenure as Chair of the IUCN Commission on Environmental Law. We also gratefully acknowledge the leadership of Professor Jamie Benidickson and Professor Ben Boer, University of Ottawa Faculty of Law, establishing it as a formal legal entity and in building it as an institution. We are grateful for the support that Sheila Abed, Chair of the IUCN Commission on Environmental Law and Alejandro Iza, Head of the IUCN Environmental Law Programme and Director of the IUCN Environmental Law Center have provided the Academy.

We thank those who helped plan the Colloquium including Andriy Andrusyevych (Ukraine), Antonio Benjamin (Brazil), Carl Bruch (Environmental Law Institute), Jorge Caillaux (Peru), Karl Coplan (Pace Law School), José Juan González (Mexico), Nguyen Hien (Viet Nam), Louis Kotzé (South Africa), Pio Manao (Fiji), Ken Markowitz (INECE), Jeffrey Miller (Pace Law School), Ann Powers (Pace Law School), Cao Mingde (China), Ramesh Mysore (India), Irma Russel (Visiting Professor, Pace Law School), Adel Omar Sherif (Egypt), Du Qun (China) and Tim Whitehouse (Commission for Environmental Cooperation). We also thank Pace University School of Law Dean (now Pace University President) Stephen Friedman and the Faculty and staff of the Law School for their support and encouragement.

We appreciate the support of the many sponsors of the Colloquium including the United Nations Environment Programme, Pace University, Pace University School of Law, the International Network for Environmental Compliance and Enforcement, the Commission for Environmental Cooperation, the United States Agency for International Development, the United States Environmental Protection Agency, the World Bank Institute, Barnes & Noble, Inc., Bristol-Meyers Squibb, Cambridge University Press, Chevron Corporation, General Motors Corporation, F. Hoffman-LaRoche Ltd., IBM, INCO Limited, Johnson & Johnson, Pernod Richard USA, Transnational Publishers, the IUCN CEL Specialist Group on Enforcement and Compliance, The Pace Academy for the Environment, the Pace University School of Law Environmental Law Society and the Pace Environmental Law Review.
We must also acknowledge those who helped organize the 4th IUCN Academy Colloquium including Leslie Crincoli, Jade Corsetti, Romulo Sampaio, Heather McLeod-Kilmurray, Marla Wieder, Megan Smith and the students and staff of Pace University School of Law. We appreciate the cooperation of Judge Robert G.M. Keating, Dean, and the staff of the New York State Judicial Institute who made their facility available for the Colloquium.

Finally we wish to thank the 100 plus presenters (more than 60 of whom prepared papers) who contributed to the success of the Colloquium. Special thanks go to David Wand and Jay Simpson, who edited the footnotes for the Proceedings, the Pace Law School Center for Environmental Legal Studies including Assistant Dean Alexandra Dunn, to Cynthia Pittson who helped format the document, and Gina Harris from The George Washington Law School who assisted with the final edits.
