The editors would like first of all to thank the authors and co-authors of the individual chapters; without their enthusiasm and contributions this book would not have been possible. Furthermore, we would like to thank all institutions and individuals who granted permission to publish figures, supplied data for this book or provided valuable feedback. We also thank Julie McMahon and Rob Bailis for proof-reading parts of this book.

This book is based on a report commissioned by the Netherlands Programme on Scientific Assessment and Policy Analysis for Climate Change (WAB). Furthermore, parts of research presented in this book were financed by the Dutch Ministry of Economic Affairs, the Netherlands Organisation for Scientific Research (NWO) and SenterNovem. These institutions also supported the publication of this book with some funding, which is gratefully acknowledged. A Dutch summary of this book is available on the website of the Department of Science, Technology and Society, Utrecht University (Junginger et al., 2010).

Statements of views, facts and opinions as described in this book are the responsibility of the author(s).
