

Index

---

- Abeng, Roland 166–7
- Abu Garda, Bahr Idriss 43–4, 84–5
- Acholi tribe, atrocities against see under Uganda
- Adada, Rodolphe 60–61
- Afghanistan 120
- Africa see also individual countries by name voluntary referrals to ICC from 27
whether ICC biased against 27, 35–6, 43–4
- African Court of Human and People's Rights 168
- African Union
Commission, recommendations of 168–9, 176–8
opposition to ICC 60–61, 81, 172, 178, 200
African States Parties meeting 2009 167–8
and legal obligations 26, 92
shift away from 85–6
Peace and Security Council 51 support for ICC 169–70 whether any alternative to ICC in 166–7
- Agreement for the prosecution and punishment of major war criminals and the Charter of the International Military Tribunal
(London) 1945 5–6
- Akhavan, Payam 144
- Akram, Munir 51
- al-Bashir, Omar
arrest warrants against 43, 81–6, 89–90
delay petitions, implications of 81, 89
escaping charge of genocide 24–5, 81–3, 173
immunity from 173–8
retaliation for 83–5, 91
coup staged by 61–2
peace negotiations with 69, 75, 90–93
- al-Mahdi, Al-Sadiq 62
- al-Nimeri, Jafaar 62
- al-Rahman, Ali Abd 58
- al-Turabi, Hassan 61–2, 66, 69
- al-Wahab Abdalla, Abd 190–92
- alternative justice mechanisms extradition laws 135–6
framework for 132
Mato Oput method 104–6, 109–11, 121–2, 151–2
restorative justice 151–2 retribution and deterrence 143–50 and social contract theory 149–50
truth and reconciliation
commissions 110–11, 126–7, 134, 140, 146–8, 150
whether any alternatives to ICC 135–6, 140, 166–7
international financial institutions, role of 185–98
- Amnesty International
on failings of universal jurisdiction 155 on representation of victims 159–60 on Uganda's ability to comply with ICC 112
- Angola 120
- Annan, Kofi
apology for U.N. failure to act in Bosnia 9
on peace, justice and democracy 33 on peace progress in Africa 51
- Arab League
opposition to ICC 60–61, 81, 167, 172, 178, 200
and legal obligations 26, 92
shift away from 85–6

- Armenia, genocide in 4–6
- Assembly of State Parties, of ICC role 18–19
- Babikir Mahmud, Fatima 191
- Belgium, jurisdiction issues in 156–7
- Bemba, Jean-Pierre
ICC action against 40–41, 138–40, 169 national courts unable to prosecute 168–9
- Bin Laden, Osama 68, 191
- Blumenson, Eric 144, 146–9
- Bolton, John 57
- Bosnia see Yugoslavia, former states of
- Brody, Reed 153–4
- Buergenthal, Thomas 194
- Burke-White, William 140–41
- Bush, George W., administration
opposition to ICC 18–19, 42–3, 56–7
- Cambodia, war crimes trials 13–14
- Canada, universal jurisdiction in war crimes trials 157–9
- Central African Republic
ICC investigations in 136–7
voluntary referral to ICC 27, 39–41
- Cheney, Dick 156
- children, war crimes against 12, 137–42
ICC scope extended to cover 22, 24
in Uganda 36–40, 63–5, 97–9, 103–6, 109, 124–7
- Chile, Pinochet rulings 154–6
- China, involvement in Darfur 42, 52, 78, 84
- Chui, Mathieu Ngudjolo 39
- Coalition for the International Criminal Court (CICC) 16, 202
- Code of crimes against peace and security of mankind 1994 (ILC) 8
- Colombia
alternative justice mechanisms in 135–6
ICC investigation in 135
- complementarity principle
defining 20–21, 132
in ICC 132–61
basis for 15–17, 20–21
and ICC focus 139–44
and jurisdiction 58–9, 114–16
and national sovereignty 26–8
and U.S. opposition 183–5
- Congo, Democratic Republic of alternative justice mechanism, possibility of 140 atrocities committed in 37–8, 137–8
LRA attacks in, after Operation Lightning Thunder 124–5 voluntary referral of Lubanga to ICC 27, 36–9
Congo v Belgium [2002] ICJ Rep. 3 156–7, 174
- Côte d’Ivoire, ICC investigations in 133
- Danino, Roberto 195
- Darfur, atrocities in see under Sudan
- de Waal, Alex 192
criticism of ICC 86–90
deterrence, whether goal of international criminal justice 143–50
- Dinka tribe, atrocities against 63–4, 66–8
- Duch (Kaing Guek Eav) 13–14
- Dugard, John 122
- Dunant, Henri 2–3
- Dut Paguot, Joseph 76
- East African, The* 166–7
- East Timor, war crimes trials 7–8, 13–14
- Egland, Ian 50–51
- Eichmann, Adolf 6
- European Bank for Reconstruction and Development, role in international law 195
- European Court of Human Rights 196
- financial institutions, international and alternative justice mechanisms, role in 185–98 and human rights, role in promoting 194–6
- Flint, Juliet 60, 90
- Fur tribe, atrocities against see under Sudan

- Gallant, Kenneth S. 21
- Garang, John 62–3, 70
- Garzon, Baltasar 156
- Gaza, Israeli actions in 169 and international trials, prosecution difficulties with 179–80
- Gech Eav, Kaing (Duch) 13–14
- gender violence 22–3, 88, 139, 149, 200–201
- Geneva Convention on humanitarian treatment of victims of war 1964 3
- genocide
Alex de Waal on 86–90
Colin Powell on 53–5
defining 48–9, 54–5
burden of proof 83
criticism of ICC Darfur prosecutions 86–90 in Rome Statute of ICC 24 specific intent for 87–8 development of concept 5–7 escaping charges of 24–5, 81–3, 173 U.N. Convention 1948 on 7, 49–50, 53–5
- Georgia, ICC investigations in 133, 136
- Goldstone, Richard 108, 144, 178
- Grotius, Hugo 2
- Guantanamo, Cuba 183–4
- Habré, Hissène 152–4
- Hague Peace Conventions 1899/1907 3–4, 152–4
- Harun, Ahmad 58–9, 81, 83, 173
- heads of state, bringing war crimes charges against immunity from prosecution
ICC impact on moral standing 145–50
ICJ rulings on 152–3, 156–7, 174, 194 removal of 28–9
whether ICC Statute is contradictory 169–78
obligatio erga omnes 29 and peace negotiations, conflict between 31–2, 38–9, 90–93 and peace v. justice debate 25, 29–30, 48–9, 90–93 and universal jurisdiction 152–60
- Heavily Indebted Poor Countries Initiative (HIPC), eligibility of Sudan for 187
- Hegel, Georg Wilhelm Friedrich 4
- Holocaust, international law legacy of 6, 24, 50
- human rights, role of international financial institutions in promoting 194–6
- Human Rights Watch on conflicts between peace negotiations and ICC action 39, 90–93 on deterrence of international prosecutions 144–5 on role of oil discovery in Darfur atrocities 68 on truth and reconciliation commissions 148, 150 on whether immunity of leaders caused atrocities 120
- immunity from prosecution see under head of state
- Inter-Governmental Authority on Drought and Desertification (IGAD) 66
- International Center for Transitional Justice, Uganda survey 118–20
- International Court of Justice (ICJ) 17 on immunity of head of state from prosecution 152–3, 156–7, 169–78, 174, 194
- International Criminal Court (ICC), generally see also Pre-Trial Chamber; Prosecutor, Office of; Rome Statute and Africa, whether biased against 27, 35–6, 43–4, 85–6 aims of 2
as catalyst for global peace 161 deterrence, whether should be 142–50 focus on top leadership 24–5, 44, 140–42, 157
restorative justice 151–2
arrest warrants, importance for establishing credibility of 102–3 Assembly of State Parties 18–19 bias, claims of 178–9

- against African nations 27, 35–6, 43–4, 85–6
- Coalition for the International Criminal Court (CICC) 16, 202
- complementarity principle 132–61
  - basis for 15–17, 20–21
  - and ICC focus 139–44
  - and jurisdiction 58–9, 114–16
  - and national sovereignty 26–8
- constitutional view of 21–3
- as court of last resort 26–7, 39–40, 44, 57, 132, 166–7
- creation of 1, 199
- criticism of, as political leverage mechanism 89–90
- development of 14–20, 22, 24
  - abstentions 16–19
  - influence on ICTY/ITCR on 11–12, 14
  - ratification of 18
  - Rome Diplomatic Conference 1998 15–17
  - Statute of, adoption 16
  - U.N. ad hoc committee on 14–15
  - Zutphen draft 15
- enforcement mechanisms
  - financial penalties 185–98
- and international cooperation, importance of 199–202
- and international investigation organizations, cooperation between 155, 160, 200
- jurisdiction 20–35, 58–9
  - against head of state 152–3, 156–7, 169–78, 174, 194
  - limitations on 21, 172, 178, 180–81
    - proprio motu* powers 16–17, 25–6, 37–8, 114–17, 141–2, 169
- and national sovereignty 20–35
  - complementarity principle 26–8
  - and national inability/unwillingness to prosecute 21, 26–7
  - national referrals to 26–7, 140–41
- opposition to
  - by Arab League and African Union 26, 60–61, 81, 85–6, 92, 172, 178, 200
  - by U.S. 16–19, 21–3, 42–3, 56–7, 183–5, 200
- peace negotiations
  - and war crimes charges, conflict between 31–2, 38–9, 90–93, 102–3, 169–70
- proprio motu* jurisdiction 16–17, 25–6, 37–8, 114–17, 141–2, 169
- Review on Rome Statute 2010 202
- international law, general development of 2–7, 198–9
- International Law Commission (ILC) and ICC, role in establishing 7–8
- International Monetary Fund (IMF) international law enforcement role of 185–98
  - in Sudan 186–97
- International Tribunal for Rwanda (ICTR) 10–12, 14, 29
- International Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia (ICTY) 9–12
- Interpol, cooperation with ICC 155, 160, 200
- Israel, actions in Gaza
  - difficulties with ICC prosecutions 178–81
  - as not State Party to ICC, implications of 179
- 'ius in bello/isu ad bello'* 1–2, 23
- jurisdiction
  - of ICC, generally 20–35, 58–9
  - and complementarity principle 58–9, 114–16
  - against head of state 152–3, 156–7, 169–78, 174, 194
  - limitations on 21, 172, 178, 180–81
    - proprio motu* powers 16–17, 25–6, 37–8, 114–17, 141–2, 169
  - universal jurisdiction, concept of 152–61
- justice, concept of
  - historical development 1–7
  - and international morality 145–50
  - investigations, when to stop in interests of 177–8
  - and national sovereignty under ICC Statute 20–35

- and complementarity principle 26–8
  - limitations of 21, 26–7
  - and peace
  - and alternative justice
    - mechanisms, whether possible 120–23
  - balancing needs for 30–34, 90–93
  - and charges against heads of state 25, 29–30, 48–9, 90–93
  - conflicts between 31–2, 38–9, 90–93, 102–3, 169–70
  - global strategies for promoting 159–60
  - and interests of victims 32–3, 159–60
  - as objective of U.N. tribunals
    - in Rwanda and former Yugoslavia 10–11
  - positive international
    - complementarity, key features of 132
  - Rome Statute on ICC, influence of 20
  - survey of views on, in Uganda 117–20
  - restorative justice 151–2
  - retributive justice 145–50
  - and social contract theory 149–50
  - in war 1–2
    - Cold War influence on 7–14
- Kabila, Joseph 37–8
- Kambanda, Jean 29
- Kapila, Mukesh 50–51
- Karadžić, Radovan 8, 11
- Karzai, Harmid 120
- Katanga, Germain 38–9
- Keller, Linda 120–21, 142–4, 151
- Kellogg–Briand Pact, Paris 1928 5
- Kenya
  - ICC investigations in 133–4, 136
  - national tribunal, proposals for 133–4
  - voluntary referral to ICC by 35–6, 41
- Kerry, John 185
- Ki Moon, Ban 48, 71
- Kirsch, Phillipe 16
- Koh, Harold 184
- Kony, Joseph
  - accountability of, Ugandan survey on 118–20
  - ICC admissibility hearing on 114–17
  - ICC arrest warrants for 101
    - charge deferrals, implications of 116, 121–2
    - retaliation for 103–4
  - involvement in Darfur atrocities 65, 98
  - Operation Lightning Thunder against 123–5
  - peace negotiations with, as cover/delay tactic 102–3, 112–14
  - political and spiritual objectives of 97–8
  - referral to ICC of 36
- Koroma, Johnny Paul 13
- Kristof, Nicholas 84
- Kushayb, Ali 58–9, 81, 83, 173
- Lemkin, Rafael 6–7
- Lewis, Stephen 65
- Lieber Code on conduct during war 3
- Lincoln, Abraham 3
- London Conference of August 1945
  - establishing Nuremberg trials 5
- Lord's Resistance Army (LRA),
  - actions of see also under Congo; Kony, Joseph; Uganda
  - actions in Congo 124–6
  - children, war crimes against 36–40, 63–5, 97–9, 103–6, 109, 124–7
  - connection with al-Bashir, in Sudan 65, 98, 126
  - ICC arrest warrants against 101–2
    - calls for withdrawal/deferral of 107, 116, 121–3
    - influence on peace negotiations 102
    - retaliation for 103–4
  - Juba peace negotiations 106–14
  - Operation Lightning Thunder 123–5
  - retaliation for 124–5
- Lubanga Dyilo, Thomas 37–8, 137–8
- Lukwiya, Raksa 101
- Lusaka Peace Accords 1999 37
- Lusk, Gill 61

- Machar, Riek 107–8, 113
 Mandela, Nelson 148–50
 Martens Clause, in Hague Convention 3
 Masalit tribe, atrocities against see
     Darfur under Sudan
 Mato Oput method, of conflict resolution 104–6, 109–11, 121–2, 151–2
 Milošević, Slobodan 8, 25, 29
 Mladić, Ratko 8, 29
 Montevideo Convention on rights and duties of states 1933 180–81 morality, and international criminal justice 145–50
 Morgenthau, Henry 5
 Moscow Declaration 1943 on general security 5
 Moynier, Gustave 2–3
 Munyaneza, Désiré 157–9
 Museveni, Yoweri
     amnesty, implications of offering 108
     Juba talks with 107–8
     seeking assistance from ICC 36, 98–101

 national sovereignty under Rome Statute of ICC 20–35 and national inability/unwillingness to prosecute 21, 26–7
 Natsios, Andrew 90–93
Nicaragua v. United States [1984] ICJ
     Rep 392 17
 Ntaganda, Bosco 38
 Nuer tribe, atrocities against 63–4, 66–8
 Nuremberg trials 6–7
     Agreement and Charter for 5–6, 28–9, 174
     removal of immunity for heads of state 28–9

 Obama, Barack, and ICC policy whether likely to change 182–5
obligatio erga omnes 29
 Odhiambo, Okot 101, 103
 oil, role of in Darfur atrocities 67–8, 70, 75–8, 191–2
 Ongwen, Dominic 101, 103–4

 ‘Operation Lightning Thunder’ 123–5
 Orentlicher, Diane 122
 Otti, Vincent 101, 103, 109–10

 Palestine
     debate over official/legal status of 179–81
     ICC investigations in 133
 Patassé, Ange-Félix 39–41, 139
 peace negotiations
     and war crimes charges, conflict between 31–2, 38–9, 90–93, 102–3, 169–70
 Pinochet Ugarte, Augusto 154–6
 Powell, Colin 42, 53–5
 Pre-Trial Chamber, of ICC and genocidal intent, rulings on 83–7, 173
     proprio motu jurisdiction 16–17, 25–6, 141–2, 179
     Uganda, proceedings under 114–17
     rulings on crimes against children 138 supervisory role of 21, 26–8, 34–5, 40–43
         and decisions to stop proceedings 34–5, 177–8
         overruling 83–4
     proprio motu jurisdiction 16–17, 25–6, 141–2, 179
     Uganda, proceedings under 114–17
 Prosecutor, Office of (ICC) arrest warrants by, establishing credibility of ICC 102
     balancing justice and peace 30–33 factors taken into account 32–3 focus of investigations 141–2 complementarity, shift in emphasis of 141–2
     investigative role, impact of 133–42 open investigations 133, 201–2
     proprio motu jurisdiction/powers 16–17, 25–6, 141–2, 179 criticism of 169
         use in Congo warrants 37–8
         use in Uganda warrants 114–17
     voluntary referrals to, encouraging 44, 140–41
 Prosper, Pierre-Richard 53, 57

- Red Cross 2–3
- reparation programs 33
- Rice, Condoleezza 57, 156
- Rice, Susan 61, 184
- Rome Diplomatic Conference 1998
  - 15–17
- Rome Statute establishing ICC 1998
  - Article 5, crimes covered 21, 172
  - Article 6, genocide 24
  - Article 7, crimes covered 23
  - Article 10, development provisions 23
  - Article 12, jurisdiction limitations 172, 178, 180–81
  - Article 13, jurisdiction limitations 25, 172, 178
  - Article 15, Prosecutor's role 133
  - Article 16, deferral procedures 34–5, 81, 89, 121–3, 178
  - Article 17, jurisdiction 21, 26–7, 58–9
  - Article 27, official capacity of head of state, irrelevance of 169–78
  - Article 53, interests of victims 32, 172
  - Article 98(1), head of state immunities 169–78
- as challenge to 'Westphalian model' of international law 21
- circumstances of accused, taken into account 33
- constitutional view of 21–3
- definition, of crimes under 21, 23–4, 31
  - genocide 24
- immunity of head of state, whether provisions are contradictory 169–78
- intentions of parties to 31
- and national sovereignty 21, 26–7
- Preamble 31
- and relations with U.N. Security Council 34–5, 175
- Review on 2010 202
- states not party to 102, 170–78
  - actions against 41–2
  - compliance of 41–2
  - victims, provisions regarding protection of 32
- Rousseau, Jean Jacques 149
- Rwanda, war crimes trials 8
  - in Canada 157–9
  - U.N. International Tribunal (ICTR) 10–12, 14, 29
- Sadat, Leila Nadia 22
- Schabas, William 20
- Senegal 152–4
- Sierra Leone 11–13, 120
- South Africa Truth and Reconciliation Commission (SATC) 146–8, 150
- Spain, universal jurisdiction issues in 156–7
- Stimson, Henry 5
- Sudan see also al-Bashir, Omar
  - Darfur region, atrocities in 48–51, 60–61
  - arms sales to, from Russia and China 73
  - arrest warrants 58, 173
  - calls for international involvement in 49–52
  - China's involvement in 42, 52, 73, 84
  - as climate change war 71–2
  - Comprehensive Peace Agreement 2005 69–71, 75, 77–9
  - criticism of ICC prosecutions 86–93
  - ethnic cleansing strategies, by Khartoum government 63–5, 72–4
  - humanitarian aid and peacekeeping, obstruction of 66, 71, 78
  - International Commission of Inquiry (ICI) into 52–8, 82–3
  - Janjaweed, role and intent of 55–6, 73–4
  - LRA involvement of 65, 98, 126
  - oil discovery, role of 67–8, 70, 75–8, 191–2
  - peace negotiations, as delay/cover tactics 58–60, 66, 69–70, 74–5, 77–80, 90–93
  - U.N. referral to ICC 27, 58–9
  - U.N. Security Council Resolutions concerning 51–5, 84, 160–61, 172, 193

- U.N. Security Council vetos against 42
- U.N. Special Rapporteur reports on 64–5
- U.S. policy development against 68–9, 74–5
- voluntary appearance of rebels for war crime charges 84–5
- whether genocide 53–7, 60–61, 81–3
- economic influences on 190–92
- and ICC Statute, whether bound by 41–2, 102, 170–78
- Inter-Governmental Authority on Drought and Desertification (IGAD), role of 66
- Juba peace negotiations in, with LRA 106–14
- military coups in, history of 61–2
- national debts of 186–7
- and IMF, possible leverage by 186–97
- referendum 2011, implications of postponement 71, 78
- Sharia law in 62–3
- Sudan People's Liberation Movement (SPLM) 62–3
- international support for, methods of 79–80
- Muslim opponents to 62–3
- peace negotiations with 69–71
- Taylor, Charles 11–13
- Tokyo Tribunal on war crimes in the Far East 1946 5, 174
- Treaty of Lausanne 1923 4
- Treaty of Sèvres 1920 4
- Treaty of Versailles 1919 4–5
- Uganda, Northern
  - Acholi tribe, atrocities against 101
  - actions by Museveni against 98–101
  - Agreement on Accountability and Reconciliation 2007 109–11, 115
  - amnesty laws 99–100
  - Annexure Agreement 100–111, 115
  - ceasefire periods 107–13
  - children, war crimes against 36–40, 63–5, 97–9, 103–6, 109, 124–7
  - demobilization requirements 112
  - investigations into 32–3
  - Juba peace negotiations 106–14
    - as delay/cover tactics 112–14
    - demobilization requirements 112
  - Operation Lightning Thunder 123–5
  - penalties, restrictions on 111
  - special Court, proposal for 110, 112–16, 126–7
  - Truth and Reconciliation Commission, possible role of 126–7
  - voluntary referral to ICC 27, 36, 100–101
- ICC arrest warrants against LRA in 101–3
- calls for withdrawal of 107, 112
- influence on peace negotiations 102
- retaliation for 103–4
- traditional alternatives, proposal of 104–6
- ICC membership
  - implementing legislation, progress with 100–101
  - implications of 100–101, 122
- ICC proprio motu admissibility proceedings 114–17
- independence of 98
- international law
  - implementation of 100–101
  - implications of ratification of 122
- Mato Oput* method, of conflict resolution 104–6, 109–11, 121–2
- peace and justice debate, views on 118–23
- survey of exposure to violence in 117–20
- United Nations
  - ad hoc committee on ICC development 14–15
  - Cold War, failure to act on war crimes during 7–9
  - Commission of Experts report on war crimes in Bosnia 9

- Genocide Convention 1948 7, 49–50, 53–5
- Security Council
  - relations with ICC 34–5, 175
  - Resolutions on Darfur 51–5, 84, 160–61
  - use of veto 16, 19, 42, 56–7, 160–61
- tribunal into war crimes in former Yugoslavia (ICTY) 11–12, 14, 29
- tribunal into war crimes in Rwanda (ICTR) 10–12, 14, 29
- United States
  - American Service Members' Protection Act 2002 19
  - Darfur atrocities, role in dealings with 68–9, 74–5
    - Senate Foreign Relations Committee on 53–5
  - Guantanamo, Cuba 183–4
  - ICC, opposition to 16–19, 21–3, 200
    - under Bush administration 18–19, 42–3, 56–7
    - under Clinton administration 183
    - and complementarity principle 183–5
    - under Obama administration, and likelihood of change 182–5
  - and international financial institutions' powers to grant loans to human rights abusers 196–8
  - Lieber Code on conduct during war 3
  - Operating Lightning Thunder, role in 123–4
- universal jurisdiction, concept of 152–61
- victims
  - balancing justice and peace for 32
  - children, war crimes against 12, 137–42
    - ICC scope extended to cover 22, 24
    - in Uganda 36–40, 63–5, 97–9, 103–6, 109, 124–7
  - of gender violence 22–3, 88, 139, 149, 200–201
  - victim/refugee claimants, issues affecting 159–60
  - Victims and Witnesses Unit, of ICC 32
- von Hagenbach, Peter 1–2
- war crimes, generally
  - law on, development of 2–7
  - national inability/unwillingness to prosecute 21, 26–7
  - Washington Post* 71, 79
  - WHO/Egypt case [1980] ICJ Rep* 73 194
- Wilhelm II, Kaiser 4–5
- World Bank, role in international law 194–5, 197–8
- World War I, war crimes charges after 4–5
- World War II, Nuremberg trials after 6–7
- Yugoslavia, former states of
  - atrocities committed in 8–9, 17
  - U.N. apology over failure to act 9
  - U.N. International Tribunal for war crimes in (ICTY) 9–12, 14, 29
- Zaghawa tribe, atrocities against see Darfur under Sudan
- Zutphen draft to Rome Diplomatic Conference 15

