

Index

- abatement costs 184
- accumulation of damage 159–60
- acid rain, killing of forests 122
- agricultural crops, high-yield 111
- agriculture and forestry
 - moved soil 176
- agriculture share in economy, loss of environmental degradation 82
- air
 - MF reduction 176
 - pollution damage costs (EAW) 152
 - quality reduction 85, 87
- altruism, private 12–13
- atmosphere, biogeochemical cycle of 99
- attribution of resource depletion 142
- Australia, biological diversity 120

- backstop technologies 62
 - optimism and pessimism about 52
 - solar energy 50
- bauxite and aluminium 50
- beetle species 120
- benefits, depreciation 38
- biodiversity 4, 98, 110–13
 - and bio-industry
 - illness, cure finding 111
 - conservation 171
 - drastic loss 29, 48, 110–11
 - disappearance of forestry types 39
 - global public good 119
 - loss prevention 122
 - loss of conscious beings 121
- biodiversity protection 75–6, 97, 105, 151, 190
 - value to human welfare 111
- biological diversity in few nation states poorest of world 120
- bioproductive land area 174
- biotic raw materials
 - MF reduction 176
- bird death from exposure to DDT 48

- boundedly rational individual 12
- Brundtland Report
 - debate on sustainability 43

- cadmium
 - pollution levels 88
- calculation of sustainable national income (SNI)
 - assumptions 183–4
- capacity maintenance 19
- capital 7
 - man-made 8
- capital gains 136
- capital of traditional growth models 127
- capital, utility-relevant 126
- carbon dioxide
 - emissions 6, 76, 151, 161
 - sequestration possibilities 173
- carbon monoxide 86
- Carson, Rachel, The Silent Spring 48
- categorical imperative 15–16
- CFCs, detrimental effect 102
- civil liberties
 - in lower air and water pollution countries 87
- civil society, role of 87
- climate change 2, 13, 48
 - case example 28–42
 - costs of 159–61
 - damage for future 41
 - ignorance of 102
 - long-term future consequences 28
 - need for aggressive policies against 39
- climate change limitation
 - explicit policy objective 40
- climate change, loss of natural capital
 - beach erosion 39
 - carbon storage 39
 - coastal flooding and damage 39
 - damage for future generations 40
 - desertification increase 39

- flood control 39
- food provision 39
- heat waves, increase and damage by 39
- increase in transmission of malaria, yellow fever 39
- loss of biodiversity 39
- loss of food resources for indigenous people 39
- need for ethical choices 41
- recreation and tourism, loss of opportunities 39
- salinity increase in freshwater 39
- soil degradation 39
- water purification 39
- climate change policy, investments 32
- climate change threat to sustainable development 113
- closed economy 135
- Club of Rome, 'Limits to Growth' report
 - Beckerman comment 49
 - concern on resource availability 47
- Club of Rome reports
 - environmental degradation 48
- CO² emissions 142
 - damage to emitting country 142
- coal, loss of, as energy source, Jevons on 46
- coal mining 24
- coastal flooding and damage 39
- compensation
 - for deviancy of past 19
 - for lasting pollution for future generations 26
 - for long-term environmental degradation 74–7
 - no licence to pollute 26
- complementarity 67
- conservation of species
 - as common property 81
- constant elasticity of Substitution (CES) 63–5
- constant returns to scale 127
- consumer sovereignty 12–13
- consumption goods
 - from natural capital 22
- consumption growth 40, 77
 - and environmental degradation 28
 - and future generations 75
- consumption level 34–5
 - and consumer 169, 170
 - expenditures 152
 - rising 25
- consumption rate, global estimate of 31
- contingent valuation (CV) 75, 103–4
- Costanza, Robert 23
- cost-benefit analysis of climate change 29, 32–3, 36
- cost of preservation 76
- costs of sustainability 100
- crime against fellow sentient beings 111
- cross-section analyses
 - substitutability 67
- crude oil prices 60
- current value Hamiltonian 130

- Daly, Herman
 - Steady-state economics* 23
- dam construction
 - developmental benefits 38
- danger for future generations 113
- DDT
 - bird killer 48
 - detrimental effect 102
- 'defensive expenditures' 152, 157–8, 184
- in hybrid approaches 186
- deforestation
 - for agriculture or grazing land
 - cause of species extinction 112
 - for industrialization
 - cause of species extinction 112
 - loss of topsoil 122
 - to collect fuelwood 80
- democratic regimes
 - lower pollution countries 87
- deontological moral philosophy
 - Immanuel Kant 16
- depletion of natural capital
 - ignorance about 25
- desertification increase 39
- destruction irreversibility 97
 - natural capital 98
- developed and developing countries,
 - large disparity between
 - in fossil fuel burning 171
- developing countries
 - disasters to 40
 - export to developed country 170
 - future 37
 - pollution level estimates 88
 - poverty of 18

- discount rate 30–35, 150
 ethical grounds 32
 low 36
- diseases
 disutility to humans 8
- distributional issues 11
- Domestic Material Consumption (DMC)
 177
- domestic process output 176
- dominance of present generation 14
- drinking water reservoirs 118
- Dynamic Integrated Model of Climate and the Economy 29
- dynamic optimisation model 126
- ecological deficit 170
 of some countries 172
- 'ecological economics' 26
- ecological footprint (EF) and deficit of developed country 170 physical indicators of SS 6
 selected countries and world 172 sustainability measurement by land area 169–74
- 'ecological rucksack' of consumer goods
 175
- ecological threshold safeguarding flexible sustainable management 106
- econometric models, reduced-form in EKC literature 86
- economic activity preference over environmental preservation 105
- economic approach, traditional insufficiency of, in ignorance 103
- Economic Aspects of Welfare* (EAW)
 Zolotas 152
- economic growth 45–96
 benefit for environment 78 effect on environment 77–8, 84
 environmental degradation 3
 and resource constraints 46
- economic paradigm 12
 of SD weak and strong sustainability 7 of sustainability 12
- economics 9
- economic self-sufficiency 51
- economic valuation techniques doubt as reliable estimates 104
- economists, mainstream lack of belief in limits to growth 48
 on resource availability 47
- economy
 net rates of return 112
 productive 20
- economy growth periods 47
- ecosystem protection 122
- ecosystems 98
 complexity of 111
 finite 26
 uncertainty and ignorance about 112
- educational expenditures 135, 157
- education, better, from rising incomes awareness of environment 78
- elasticities of substitution, high and low 66, 68
- electricity generation from nuclear power plants 171
- El Serafy method 5, 147–9, 161
 comparison with World Bank method 148 computation of natural capital
 depreciation 126, 141, 146
- emission abatement 32
 future beneficiaries 36
 higher 38
- emission intensity 88
- emission reductions, optimal 32
- emissions and waste 175
- emissions of suspended matter 84
- emissions per capita 88
- Endangered Species Act, US 105
- energy consumption primary 72
- energy flows, accounting 170
- energy, increased demand 73
- energy intensity 71–2
- energy resources 52
- energy supply predictions 51
- entropic process 78
- environmental amenities 30
- environmental assets, non-reproducible
 38
- environmental benefits, values of 38
- environmental consequences of economic growth 26, 45
- environmental costs and benefits 38

- environmental damage 13, 79
 - and future generations 75
 - long-term 159–61
- environmental degradation 25, 45, 74–89, 157
 - compensation for future generations 3
 - effects on welfare and sustainability 152
 - human activity 104
 - and per capita income 85
- environmental destruction, irreversible
 - delaying of 103
- environmental deterioration, irreversible 89
- 'Environmental Kuznets Curve' (EKC) 84, 88
- environmental movement 48
- environmental non-governmental organisations (ENGO)
 - lobbying 87
- environmental optimism 77–81
- environmental pessimism, case for 81–9
- environmental pollution 26
 - rights of future generations to freedom from damage 119
- environmental preservation preference 104
- environmental problems of production processes 178–9
- Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) US 87
- environmental protection and rich countries 79
- environmental standards, pre-specified 182
- environmental sustainability 169
 - biodiversity at current levels 180
 - countryside, unspoilt 181
 - emissions limitation 181
 - environmental security maintenance 181
 - non-renewable resource, no loss of function 180
 - ozone layer intact 180
 - stable climate 180
 - sustainable harvest 181
- environment exploitation in poor countries 80
- equations 131–2
- equilibrium 17
 - equivalence factors, on land use 171
 - ethical conflicts 120
 - European Community research project GREENSTAMP 182
 - European Union countries, material flows (MF) 177
 - expenditure on sustainability 181
 - exportation of high-polluting industries to lower-income countries 83
 - fecal coliforms, pollutants 151
 - female education, investing in 83
 - fires, increase, causes of climate change 39
 - Fisher, Irving
 - on resource availability 46
 - flows 10
 - food production 116–18
 - decline in Africa 117
 - food production and nature 118
 - forest land area required for sequestering carbon 171
 - forest resources, disappearance in 19th century 60
 - forestry types, disappearance of 39
 - forests, as renewable resource 151
 - fossil energy resources 51
 - fossil fuel burning 170–71, 173
 - human impact greatest 171
 - free ride on others' efforts 119
 - fuel switches
 - oil to nuclear power and natural gas 86
 - 'fullworld' economy 27
 - future, concern for 14–15
 - future generations 75
 - dependence on present 14
 - vulnerability of 14
 - gains and losses
 - expected utility, negative or positive 100
 - game-theoretic decision model 106
 - general equilibrium
 - effects 139
 - modelling approach 183
 - generations
 - present and future 11
 - Genuine Progress Indicator (GPI) 5, 152–63

- genuine savings (GS) 126–51, 164 actual valuations 139
 in a closed economy
 dynamic optimisation model 127–35
 development of GS 143
 indicator of weak sustainability (WS)
 5, 127
 in open economy 135–7
 problems with measuring, in practice 137–41
 rates for regions 144 rates of Saudi Arabia, sensitive analysis 149
 rule complexity, constant population 141
- geothermal technologies 51
- Gini coefficient 158–9
- global biocapacity, using up increase, since 1980s 171
- Global Biodiversity Programme (UNEP)
 105
- global biodiversity protection costs 119
- global climate 4
 protection 97
 fundamental life support resource 113
- global environmental resources 113
- global pollution 136–7
- governance, environmental, on air
 pollution levels 87
- governance, role of 86–8
- 'green awareness' in rich countries 79
- Greened National Statistical and Modelling Procedures
 (GREENSTAMP) 6, 179, 182–3
 modelling approach 186
- greened Net National Product (gNNP) comprehensive consumption minus
 GS 153
- greenhouse gas abatement 28–9, 105
- greenhouse gas concentrations in atmosphere stabilization 41
- greenhouse gas emissions 137
 excessive 113
 marginal social costs 160
 Nordhaus policy recommendations 29 reduction cost 185
- green parties, influence of
 in countries with lower pollution levels 88
- Green Revolution in India cereal production increase 117
- GREENSTAMP see Greened National Statistics and Modelling Procedures
- gross domestic product (GDP) 152
- gross national income (GNI)
 GS see Genuine Savings (GS)
- habitat areas, sustainable management
 106
- habitat destruction 106
- harm doing, good doing 26
- Hartwick, John, Nobel Prize winner 21
- Hartwick rule 21
- harvesting
 'ecological rucksack' of consumer goods 175
 harvesting at maximum yield 25
- health expenditures, defensive 157
- heat waves, increase and damage by 39
- Hicks-Kaldor test
 welfare economics 23
- Hicks-neutral technical progress 140
- Hotelling rule 56, 136
 more complex model 202–5
 resource rent 57
 on resource rents, value of 53–5 simple general equilibrium model
 198–201
 summary 57–8
- household labour, value of 152
- hydrogen use for energy 51
- Hueting, Roefie, Netherlands 179–80 sustainable national income (SNI)
 183–5
- human capital 8, 127, 128
 depreciation 142
- human economic activity 169
- human hubris 111
- human impact on ecosystems
 animal grazing for meat, hides, wool, milk 170
 crop growing for food, animal feed,
 etc. 170
 fishing in oceans and freshwater 170
 harvesting of timber 170 infrastructure for housing, industrial production 170–71
- human impact on environment
 'new scarcity' 179

- human life and existence enabled by nature 99
- human life at risk 111
- human population rise 13
- human protection of species and natural forces 106
- human resource appropriation 13
- human valuation of nature 8
- hunting of whales
 - reduction of extraction costs 60
- hybrid indicators 6, 179–87
- hydro-electric power 170
- hyperbolic discounting 33

- ignorance
 - about biodiversity destruction 101–2
 - about climate change 102
 - of value of undiscovered species made extinct 101–2
- income and price elasticities 184
- income growth
 - environmental protection in high-income countries 78
- income inequality 153
 - Gini coefficient 158–9
- incomes, rise of
 - 'rich consumers' demands 81
- incomes, unequal distribution 157
- index of GDP, GPI for the United States 163
- Index of Sustainable Economic Welfare (ISEW) 5, 152–63, 165–6
- industrialisation, detrimental side-effects
 - realisation about 48
- inequality and civil society 86–8
- inequality, impact of
 - on environmental outcomes 86
- infectious diseases, increase in
 - transmission 39
- insurance game
 - payoff matrix 107
 - species protection 106–7
- insurance value of biodiversity 111
- inter-generational distribution 27
- inter-generational equity
 - and intra-generational equity 11
- inter-generational fairness questions 11
- International Energy Agency (IEA) 86
- International Society for Ecological Economics (ISEE) 23

- inter-temporal context 137
- intra-generational conflicts 11
- investment in human capital 142
- investment options
 - in emissions abatement 37
- investments
 - higher, for future benefit 32
 - inefficient 37
- ISEW and GPI studies
 - undertaken for list of countries 154

- Japanese manufacturing sector, increase 83

- Kant, Immanuel 16
 - deontological moral theory 15
- Krutilla-Fisher approach 38
 - climate change 38

- labour input 69
- labour supply 184
- land area
 - bioproductive 170
 - carrying capacity 170
- land availability, scarcity 46
- land degradation
 - unsustainable agriculture 118
- land, intensive use of 117
- land protection 87
- landscape protection 76
- lead 86
 - pollution levels 88
- League of Conservation Voters, US 87
- less developed countries (LDCs)
 - rising emissions 88
- lexicographic preference 75–6
- life-support functions 97
 - natural capital 98
- life-support resources
 - climate and ozone layer 122
 - global protection 4
 - non-substitutable 99
- life-support systems for human beings
 - global climate 190
- literacy rates, increased, lower pollution levels 87
- losses, wetlands, glaciers, coral reefs, forests 40
- lottery game
 - cure or no cure 108

- disease cure 108
- payoff matrix 108–9
- regret matrix 109
- low-probability extreme-impact outcomes 32
- macroeconomy as subsystem of ecosystem 26
- macroeconomy scale 27
- Malthus, on land scarcity and food consumption 46
- man-made capital 62, 69, 128
 - declining resource stock 63, 69
 - and natural capital 27
- man-made capital, share of ratio, to resources 68
- manufacturing share in economy, increase
 - heavy polluting manufacturing 82
- marginal abatement costs 134
- marginal and average cost 148
- marginal revolution 46
- marginal social costs 134, 161
 - value of tonne of emissions 160
- market failures 137
- market rates of return
 - climate change 32
- Marshall, Albert
 - on resource availability 46
- material flows (MF) 6, 174–9
 - intensity, 1975–1996 177
 - physical indicators of SS 6
 - reductions
 - critique 178
 - size of 175
- material goods, people's preferences for 82
- Materials Policy Commission, US
 - President's 47
 - on solar energy 52
- material welfare, increased
 - as compensation to future generations 26
- maximin criterion 109
- maximin rule 18
 - utility of worst-off generation, maximisation 17
- maximisation, present-value
 - leading to extinction 196–7
- measurement of weak sustainability 164
- Measure of Economic Welfare* (MEW)
 - Nordhaus and Tobin 152
- metals in earth's crust 74
- Middle East
 - greatest negative GS rates 141, 143
 - weak sustainability (WS) 164
- mineral and energy resources
 - abiotic raw materials 176
- monetary analysis 170
- monetary valuation 6
 - of environmental degradation 175, 179
- moral philosophy 16
- moral principles
 - John Rawls on 15
- multilateral agreements 87
- national accounting system, greening 138
- National Council for Sustainable Development 87
- natural capital 3–8, 127
 - allowing no further decline 120
 - into consumption goods 22
 - distinctive features 98–9
 - individual aversion to degradation of 25
 - life-support functions 25
 - loss, irreversible 25
 - and man-made capital 63
 - preservation of which forms 6, 25, 97–125
 - substitutability of 21, 45–96
- natural gas 144
- natural gas reserves in world 114
- natural-resource commodities, non-renewable
 - scarcity 59
- natural resources
 - depreciation 5
 - extraction, regions with greatest negative GS rates 143
 - for production 114–16
 - substitution with man-made capital 45
- nature, preservation of 24
- nature, value of 8
- negative ecological deficit
 - ecological surplus 172
- negative (GS) rates 127
- neoclassical economics, rise of 46–7
 - coping with risk, uncertainty and ignorance 102

- neoclassical welfare economics 22, 23, 27
- net adjusted savings
 - World Bank term 21
- Netherlands SNI
 - zero dehydration, zero soil contamination 184
- net investment, total 21
- Net Primary Productivity (NPP) 170
 - destruction by human activity 116
 - of earth 117
- net savings rates 143
- nitrogen oxides, pollutants 151
- non-declining utility 18
- non-declining versus constant utility 19
- non-energy efficiency techniques 86
- non-methane volatile organic compounds 86
- non-renewable resources 24, 129
- non-substitutability assumption 2, 41
- Nordhaus, William, approach
 - climate change 28–9
 - critique 32–7, 37–40
 - discount rate 32
 - explicit policy objective 40
- North African region
 - greatest negative GS rates 141, 143
 - weak sustainability (WS) 164
- nuclear fusion 50
- nuclear power
 - highly damaging by-products 114
- nuclear waste
 - storage for future generations 114
 - toxic radiation
 - for tens of thousands of years 114
- ocean of world, absorption of carbon 171
- offspring concern 14
- oil and carbon 144
- oil and gas reserves
 - over-reporting of 116
- oil drilling costs 162
- oil price rise, 1970s
 - scarcity 59
- oil prices in world 47
- oil reserves in world 113
- oil wells, over-exploitation 116
- open economy and GS 135–7
- opportunity costs 98, 118–21, 123
- optimal growth model 126
- optimal path 137–9
- optimal Pigouvian tax 134, 137
- optimism or pessimism, environmental 92–3
- option values 97
 - risk premium 102–3
- Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries (OPEC)
 - over-reporting of 116
- over-fishing
 - unsustainable agriculture 118
- over-harvesting, restriction of 122
- over-mining
 - unsustainable agriculture 118
- over-population 170
- ozone layer 4
 - depletion 48, 99
 - intact 190
 - protection 97
 - fundamental life support resource 113
- partial equilibrium approach 185
- passenger pigeons, hunting 61
- pathogens, increase, causes of climate change 39
- per capita* utility
 - for infinity 11
 - non-declining 11
- perfect competition 127
- pests, increase, causes of climate change 39
- photovoltaic generators 173
- physical indicators 6
 - and monetary valuation 179
- physical indicators of SS 169–79
- political freedom, impact of
 - on environmental outcomes 86
- political rights, high
 - in lower air and water pollution countries 87
- pollutants, restriction of 4
- pollution
 - ever-rising 75
 - higher in poor countries 79
 - intensity 81
 - and modern capital 79
 - utility reducer 10
- pollution-causing 132
- pollution effect 139

- pollution levels rising
 - predictions for developing countries 88
- pollution restriction 97
- pollution sink 25
- pollution stock 22
- population
 - expansion 119
 - growth 11
 - in 19th century 46
 - growth limits 117
 - rates and per capita income 80–81, 141
 - reduction of 83
- population size, sustainable 170
- positive GS rates 127
 - environmental degradation 139
 - unsustainable resource exploitation 139
- poverty
 - environmental consequences 80
 - eternal, by sticking to sustainable development (SD) 17
 - for humankind through time 17, 18
 - precautionary measures, need for 113
 - precautionary principle 4, 97, 104–5, 175
 - present-value maximisation
 - zero utility 23
 - preservation costs 121
 - preventive measures 104
 - price path
 - with continuous unexpected resource diversity 56
- prices, role of 45
 - overcoming resource constraints 53–62
- private savings 21
- production function 67
- property rights and open access 112–13
- property rights over energy and mineral resources 115
- protection costs 118–19
- protection of biodiversity 112
- quasi-option value
 - in environmental valuation 103
- R&D efforts of private sector
 - conventional or environmental saving techniques 82
- radioactivity from nuclear waste 29
- Ramsey rule 30–31, 33, 36
 - applied to future generations 32
 - more complex model 202–5
 - simple general equilibrium model 198–201
- rate of return on capital 31
- rationality 12
- Rawls, John
 - maximin rule 17
 - 'original position' point of view 16
 - A Theory of Justice* 15
- real-world computations of natural capital depreciation 148
- recycling 62
- reforestation 174
- renewable and non-renewable energy
 - costs 162
- renewable energy resources 22, 24, 75, 127–9, 173
- Repetto method 147
 - and World Bank method
 - volatility 148
- replacement cost method 161, 162
- resource allocation 27
- resource-augmenting technical progress 70–72
- resource-extraction technology 73
- resource importer and resource exporter 136
- resource optimism and speculation 49, 74, 89
- resource pessimists 53, 89
- resource price indicator 58–9
 - mineral and energy 59
- resource scarcity 61
- resource rent 58, 161
 - and interest rate 55–6
- resource rents, rising and falling 57
- resources
 - availability 48–74
 - depletion 25, 79, 139, 157, 161–3
 - costs (EAW) 152
 - limits 99
 - deposits, heterogeneous 133
 - discoveries 145
 - and the environment 45–96
 - exponential reserve index
 - for major resources 115–16
 - extraction
 - 'ecological rucksack' of consumer goods 175

- harvesting 139
- non-renewable and renewable 10
- Ricardian process 60
 - value of discoveries 134
- resource scarcity 57–9
 - and halt to economic growth 47
- resource stocks, existing, depletion of 133
- resource trading countries 140
- resource use and resource intensity 79, 80
- retirement pension schemes 83
- Ricardian process 58
- RICE-model 29
- rights-based theory 98
- Rio de Janeiro, Summit 1992
 - Agenda 21 1
- risk 99–101
 - aversion 100
 - natural capital preservation 97–125
 - preference 100
 - uncertainty and ignorance 99–110
- rock displacement, in resource extraction 175
- sacrifice of earlier generations 18
- safe minimum standards (SMS) 4, 97, 105–10, 120
- salinisation of irrigated fields
 - unsustainable agriculture 118
- salinity increase in freshwater 39
- sanitation, adequate
 - improvement as incomes rise 84
- Saudi Arabia
 - El Sarafy and World Bank methods 150
 - natural capital depreciation in US dollars 150
 - natural capital wealth in US dollars 150
 - oil and natural gas reserves 150
- schooling, defensiveness of 157
- scientific evidence, definite 104
- self-interest of individual 15
- services, pollution intensity of
 - versus industrial manufacturing 79
- shocks, unanticipated future 140
- Sierra Club, US 87
- single species protection 106
- social damage, marginal 161
- soil erosion 4, 98, 122
 - unsustainable agriculture 118
- soil erosion in agriculture 175
- soil fertility 190
- solar energy 50–51, 173
- solar influx, renewable energy 50
- Solow-Hartwick sustainability 21
- Solow, Robert 17, 18
 - Nobel Prize winner 21
- species extinction 40
 - human-induced, moral wrong 111
- species preservation 105
- steady-state economy 51
 - as ultimate goal 26
- Stern Review 31–5, 41
 - cost-benefit analysis of climate change 28
- stock of natural capacity 10
- strong sustainability (SS) 1, 2, 6
 - measurement of 169–87
- Sub-Saharan African region
 - greatest negative GS rates 143
 - negative GS 141
 - weak sustainability (WS) 164
- substitutability 24, 67
- substitutability assumption 2, 28–40
- substitutability hypothesis 91, 93
- substitutability of natural capital 37–40, 127
- substitution of resources 49, 70, 115
- sulphur oxides, pollutants 151
- suspended particulate matter
 - damage 142
- sustainability gaps 179
- sustainability measurement by weight 174–9
- sustainability prices 139
- sustainability gaps
 - UK and Netherlands 181
- sustainable development (SD) 1, 7, 23
 - ethics of 13–20
 - reasons for committing to 14
- sustainable management of ecosystems
 - possibility of 106
- sustainable national income (SNI) 179–80
 - according to Huetting, for Netherlands 183
 - modelling approach 186

- technical change
 - efficiency increase in production 81
 - environment saving 81
- technical progress 71, 74, 89, 115
 - reduction of CO² emissions 79
 - resource-augmenting 70–74
 - resource constraint 22
- technical progress, role in overcoming
 - resource constraints 45
- thermodynamics, first law of
 - conservation of mass 69, 71, 78
- thermodynamics, laws of 50
- Third World poverty 120
- 'threshold effect' 162
- timber harvesting 170
- time inconsistency problem of SD 16, 19
- time preference for climate change, zero
 - 33–4
- time-series econometrical studies
 - complementarity 67
- Total Incomes System of Accounts* (TISA)
 - Eisner 152
- toxic pollutants 115, 122
 - accumulation in environment 114
- trade balance 184
- trade-offs 75
- trading partners
 - ecological deficits, danger of 173
- transboundary pollution 136–7
- tropical deforestation rate 85
- tropical forest management in Thailand
 - 103
- tropical rainforest preservation 120
- uncertainty
 - climate change 101
 - objective and subjective beliefs 101
- United Nations Environment Programme
 - 105
- United States
 - emissions of particulate matter 86
 - GDP versus GPI per capita 155–6
- unit extraction costs 58–60
- urban life, disamenities (MEW)
 - pollution, litter, noise, congestion 152
- US Fish and Wildlife Service
 - property rights and imposed
 - conservation 105
- utilitarian framework of Nordhaus 32
- utilitarianism 8, 9
 - and tractability 9
- utility 17
- utility loss
 - damage to coastal and other
 - ecosystems 40
 - loss of coral reefs 40
 - loss of forests 40
 - loss of glaciers 40
 - loss of wetlands 40
 - massive species extinction 40
- utility, non-declining 9–10, 35
- utility paths
 - constant utility 20
 - higher utility 20
- valuation of a specific good 104
- value damage of tonne of carbon 160
- viruses
 - disutility to humans 8
- voluntary sacrifices
 - earlier generations 18
- Walras, Léon
 - on resource availability 46
- waste-absorbing function of environment
 - greatest threat to 115
- wastes, environment as assimilator of 48
- water, clean
 - improvement as incomes rise 84
- water flows 176
- water reservoirs 190
- weak sustainability (WS) 1
 - measurement of 126–68
 - proponents of economic growth 77
- weak versus strong sustainability 20–27
- weighted personal consumption
 - expenditures
 - adjustments, US GPI of 2006 153
- welfare costs 33
- welfare economics 9
- welfare effects of income inequality 152
- welfare from household work 153
- whale species, dwindling of 60
- wildlife and biodiversity protection 75–6
- wind energy 51, 173
- wind turbines 173
- World Bank
 - computations 141–3

- estimates of GS 5
- genuine savings accounting 202–5
- GS figures of computations of 141–51
- regional grouping of countries 207–9
- World Bank method 149
- World Bank versus El Serafy method 151
- World Development Indicators*
 - World Bank 21
 - world ecosystem
 - contains economy 98
 - world market price changes 184
 - World Summit on Sustainable Development
 - Johannesburg 1
 - zero-growth economy 51