
Contents

Contributors	vii
Acknowledgements	xv
Introduction	xvi

PART 1 CONCEPTUALIZING INTUITION

1 An integrated framework of intuition Marta Sinclair	3
2 Types of intuition: inferential and holistic Jean E. Pretz	17
3 Intuition and unconscious thought Madelijn Strick and Ap Dijksterhuis	28
4 The influence of valence and intensity of affect on intuitive processing Seymour Epstein	37
5 Investigating intuition: beyond self-report Gerard P. Hodgkinson and Eugene Sadler-Smith	52

PART 2 FUNCTIONS OF INTUITION

6 Expert intuition and naturalistic decision making Gary Klein	69
7 Strategic intuition William Duggan and Malia Mason	79
8 Entrepreneurial intuition Jill R. Kickul and Lisa K. Gundry	88
9 The role of intuition in ethical decision making James Richard Guzak and M. Blake Hargrove	97

PART 3 INTUITION IN PROFESSIONAL/ OCCUPATIONAL DOMAINS

10 Life, death, and intuition in critical occupations Janice Langan-Fox and Vedran Vranic	111
11 Intuition in crisis management: the secret weapon of successful decision makers? Bjørn T. Bakken and Thorvald Haerem	122

12	The critical decisions vortex – interplay of intuition, reason, and emotion: comparison of three dynamic industries Jean-Francois Coget	133
13	Intuitive decision making in emergency medicine: an explorative study Christian Harteis, Barbara Morgenthaler, Christine Kugler, Karl-Peter Ittner, Gabriel Roth and Bernhard Graf	145
14	Legal intuition and expertise Andreas Glöckner and Irena D. Ebert	157
15	Intuition in teaching Paola Iannello, Alessandro Antonietti and Cornelia Betsch	168

PART 4 NONLOCAL PERSPECTIVE

16	Intuition and the noetic Dean Radin	183
17	Resolving the enigma of nonlocal intuition: a quantum-holographic approach Raymond Trevor Bradley	197

PART 5 CULTIVATING INTUITION

18	Capturing intuitions ‘in flight’: observations from research on attention and mindfulness Erik Dane	217
19	The benefit of intuition in learning situations Claudia Kuhle	227
20	Integrating intuition into higher education: a perspective from business management Lisa A. Burke and Eugene Sadler-Smith	237
21	The heart in intuition: tools for cultivating intuitive intelligence Dana Elisa Tomasino	247

Index		261
--------------	--	-----