

Contents

Preface	xii
Acknowledgments	xv
PART I INTRODUCTION	1
Defining ‘social trade regulations’	1
Categorizing social trade regulations: law-disabling, law-supporting, and law-creating	2
1. ‘Law-disabling’ trade regulations	3
2. ‘Law-supporting’ trade regulations	3
3. ‘Law-creating’ trade regulations	3
4. Examples	4
1. The social impacts of trade	7
1. Impacts of trade as a social and economic phenomenon	7
2. Impacts of trade as a legal system	9
2. The evolving character of the international legal system	12
1. Bilateralism	12
2. Multilateralism	14
3. Unilateralism	17
4. International community	19
PART II TRADE REGULATION IN INTERNATIONAL LAW	23
3. Unilateral trade regulation and the United Nations Charter principles	27
1. Changing perceptions of the legality of trade regulations	28
2. Prohibition on the use of force	36
(a) Trade regulations as economic coercion?	38
(b) Economic coercion as use of force?	39
i. Economic coercion as ‘aggression’?	41
3. Prohibition on intervention	42
(a) Legal status of non-intervention	44
(b) Critics of non-intervention as a legal norm	45

4.	Protection of humans: the law of international human rights and international humanitarian law	54
(a)	Short overview of international human rights law	54
i.	The UN Declaration on Human Rights	56
ii.	The International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights	56
iii.	The International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights	56
(b)	Legitimacy of social trade regulations and human rights law	57
i.	Human rights as a goal of social trade regulation	57
ii.	Human rights as a limit on social trade regulation	58
(c)	Short overview of international humanitarian law	58
(d)	Legitimacy of social trade regulations and humanitarian law	60
(e)	Humanitarian law v. human rights law limits to social trade regulation	63
4.	Unilateral trade regulation, the law of state responsibility and the law of treaties	68
1.	Developing the law of remedies in international law: the international law on state responsibility	69
(a)	Codification of the law of state responsibility	70
i.	History of codification	70
ii.	The 2001 Articles on responsibility of states for internationally wrongful acts	71
(1)	Each state is responsible for its violations of international law	72
(2)	Responsibility does not depend on the source of the violated obligation	72
(3)	State responsibility arises only from wrongful violations	73
(b)	Remedies for violations of obligations	73
i.	The approach	74
ii.	Consequences of a wrongful act	75
(1)	Rights of the injured state	75
(2)	Rights of states other than the injured state	76
(3)	Violator's duties	77
iii.	Countermeasures	79
(1)	The approach	80
(2)	When is an action a countermeasure?	81

iv. What is the legal consequence of an action's characterization as a countermeasure?	82
v. Limits on the use of countermeasures	83
(1) Substantive limits	83
(2) Procedural limits	84
vi. Countermeasures as instruments of progressive development of law?	85
(c) Unanswered questions on state responsibility	86
i. 'Solidarity' countermeasures	87
ii. The legality of retorsion	89
iii. Procedural norms for dispute settlement	91
iv. Responsibility for actions of individuals	93
2. The Vienna Convention on the Law of Treaties	95
PART III SOCIAL TRADE REGULATIONS IN WTO LAW	99
1. WTO Law in the international legal system	100
5. WTO obligations affected by Members' use of social trade regulations	101
1. Overview of the WTO Social Trade Regulation problematic	102
(a) Import controls	103
i. For market access	103
(1) GATT Article XI	103
(2) GATT Article II and Article XXVIII	103
(3) Agreement on Technical Barriers to Trade (TBT), Articles 2.2 and 2.4	103
(4) Agreement on the Application of Sanitary and Phytosanitary Measures (SPS), Articles 2, 3, and 5	104
(5) The Agreement on Agriculture	105
(6) General Agreement on Trade in Services (GATS), Article XVI	106
ii. For non-discrimination	106
(1) GATT Article I	106
(2) GATT Article XIII	107
(3) GATT Article III	107
(4) Agreement on Import Licensing Procedures (ILP)	108
(5) The SPS Agreement's Article 2.3	108
(6) The TBT Agreement's Article 2	108
(7) GATS Article II	110

(8) GATS Article XVII	110
(b) Export controls	111
(c) Financial asset restrictions	112
(d) Denial of development assistance	113
2. Exceptions to WTO obligations: how much spielraum for social trade regulations?	115
(a) Policy exceptions	115
(b) Security exceptions	123
6. Legal remedies for violations of WTO law	129
1. The understanding on the rules and procedures governing the settlement of disputes (DSU)	131
(a) Who may use the WTO's dispute settlement mechanism?	133
(b) Procedural rules	133
i. Mutually satisfactory agreements: consultation requirement	133
ii. The panel process	134
iii. The appellate process	136
2. The cause of action in WTO law: nullification and impairment of expected benefits	137
(a) Trade system damage	137
(b) Types of nullification or impairment	140
i. Violation	140
ii. Non-violation	142
iii. Situation complaint	145
3. Remedies	146
(a) Violation claim	146
(b) Remedies as countermeasures	149
i. Compensation or restitution in kind?	150
ii. Remedies for a finding of non-violation nullification and impairment	153
iii. Remedies for a finding of the existence of a nullifying or impairing 'situation'	154
7. Social trade regulations in the WTO dispute settlement system: looking at the evidence	157
1. Past experiences	157
(a) Protection of the environment	158
i. United States – Superfund	159
ii. United States – Auto Taxes	162
iii. United States – Reformulated Gasoline	166

iv. Brazil – Tyres	170
(b) Protection of human, animal or plant life or health	172
i. Human health	172
(1) Thailand – Cigarettes	172
(2) EC – Hormones	176
(3) EC – Asbestos	180
(4) Brazil – Tyres	181
ii. Animal life or health	183
(1) US – Tuna (Tuna – Dolphin)	183
(2) US – Shrimp (Shrimp – Turtles)	187
(3) Australia – Salmon	191
iii. Plant health	199
(1) Japan – Agricultural Products	199
(2) Japan – Apples	202
(c) Cultural protection	213
i. Media and entertainment as culture: cinematographic films and periodicals	214
ii. Canada – Periodicals	216
iii. Social norms and tradition as culture: alcohol cases and leather	220
(1) Japan – Alcohol	221
(2) Korea – Alcoholic Beverages	224
(3) Chile – Alcoholic Beverages	225
(4) Certain products from Hong Kong	225
(5) Japan – Leather	226
iv. Discussion	228
(1) What is culture?	231
(2) Culture as a process of community dialogue	235
v. Protection of public morals	237
(1) US – Gambling: the case	237
(2) The report’s interpretation of ‘necessary to protect public morals’	238
(d) Development	240
i. Development as more than economics	241
ii. EC – Generalized System of Preferences	246
(1) Enabling clause as exception to or exclusion from MFN?	251
(2) Enabling clause’s non-discrimination requirement	255
2. Assessment	259
(a) Protectionism	260

(b)	The chilling effect of protectionism as a primary goal	262
PART IV ANALYSIS		267
8.	How can a WTO Member pursue a social goal with trade regulations?	269
1.	Legal approaches	269
(a)	Intra-WTO solutions	269
i.	Judicial action	269
(1)	Conformity to WTO legal standards	270
	Follow the rules	270
	Shrinking the 'likeness' definition	270
	PPMs	270
	Further distinguishing criteria	272
	Re-assessing non-discrimination	273
(2)	Interpretation of WTO texts on exceptions to WTO obligations	275
(3)	Treating social trade regulations as 'special cases'	277
(b)	Legislative Action	283
i.	Ministerial declaration	284
ii.	Conclusion of an Understanding	284
iii.	Decision	285
iv.	Legislative interpretation	286
v.	Waiver	287
vi.	Amendment	288
(c)	Non-legislative actions by members	289
i.	Mainstreaming	289
ii.	Withdrawal from membership	291
2.	Extra-WTO solutions	292
(a)	Granting jurisdiction over dispute settlement to a 'secular' international court	292
(b)	Establishing a hierarchy of international law norms	294
3.	Non-legal solutions	300
(a)	Revolution	300
(b)	Civil disobedience	302
9.	Is there a modality to decide when trade measures can be used to pursue social goals?	307
1.	Case-specific analysis	307

	Contents	xi
2.	Equitable solutions	308
	(a) Ways of using equity	308
	(b) Use of equity contra legem	309
3.	Concluding comments	314
	Index	317