

Contents

List of contributors	viii
Preface	xiv
Introduction Abel M. Mateus	1
PART I OPENING SPEECHES
1. Speech by the President of the Republic at the opening session of the Second Lisbon Conference on Competition Law and Economics Anibal Cavaco Silva	17
2. Helping Europeans get the best deal: a sound competition policy for well-functioning markets Neelie Kroes	20
3. Competition policy and consumer protection in the EU Meglana Kuneva	25
4. Competition policy enforcement in the European Union: state of art and major challenges Abel M. Mateus	28
PART II JUDICIAL CONTROL OF ADMINISTRATIVE DECISIONS AND PRIVATE ENFORCEMENT
5. Costs and benefits of private and public antitrust enforcement: an American perspective Douglas H. Ginsburg	39
6. Administrative regulation versus private enforcement – the EU perspective John D. Cooke	59
7. Improving judicial control of administrative decisions in competition enforcement Frédéric Jenny	71

8.	The effectiveness and limitations of the Portuguese system of competition law enforcement by administrative and civil procedural means José Manuel Sérvulo Correia	85
PART III MERGER CONTROL IN REGULATED MARKETS AND DYNAMIC ANALYSIS OF NETWORK MARKETS
9.	Mergers in regulated industries: electricity Dennis W. Carlton	125
10.	Modelling competition and regulation in wireless telecommunications: a progress report Luís Cabral	138
PART IV MODERNIZATION OF ANTI-TRUST RULES AND INSTITUTIONS
11.	Competition law and policy modernization: lessons from the U.S. common-law experience Thomas O. Barnett	147
PART V ABUSES OF DOMINANT POSITION AND MONOPOLIZATION: CONCLUSIONS OF THE DEBATES IN THE EU AND USA
12.	Abuses of dominant position and monopolization: conclusions of the major debates in the EU and USA Emil Paulis	161
13.	Abuses of dominant position, intellectual property rights and monopolization in EU competition law: some thoughts on a possible course of action Inge Govaere	169
14.	Abuses of dominant position and monopolization: an economic perspective Patrick Rey	189
15.	The current debate about section 2 of the Sherman Act: judicial certainty versus rule of reason Barry E. Hawk	199
16.	The legal periphery of dominant firm conduct Herbert Hovenkamp	238

17. Monopolization and the fading dominant firm 264
Timothy F. Bresnahan

PART VI COMPETITION AND INDUSTRIAL POLICIES IN A GLOBALIZED WORLD

18. Do national champions have anything to do with economics? 293
Anne Perrot
19. Competition policy and competitiveness in Europe 300
John Fingleton
20. Ownership, performance and national champions 308
Damien Neven
21. Antitrust policy and industrial policy: a view from the U.S. 320
Lawrence J. White
22. Recent Canadian policy towards industry: competition policy, industrial policy and national champions 332
Thomas W. Ross

PART VII TOWARDS A MORE EFFICIENT APPROACH TO STATE AID

23. Economics in state aid: soon as routine as dentistry? 363
Lowri Evans and Harold Nyssens
24. The new approach to state aid: contributions and limits from case law of the European Courts 382
Massimo Merola and Marie Debieuvre
- Index* 421