Index

a priori theory 212 absolute income hypothesis (AIH) 347 abstraction xxii–xxiii, 164–7, 321 action, concept of 36
active mind 123
Adams, F.G. 411–12
adding-up (classical consumer theory) 297 affirming the consequent fallacy 30 aggregate markup equation 415–16 aggregate supply and demand laws 135, 418 aggregation problem 207–208
Akerlof, G.A. 246
alchemy 191, 251–3
Allais, M. 110, 118, 345, 400, 403, 468
T Theorem 342, 345, 468 X factor hypothesis 342 alternative, theorem of 402 analytic justifications 63–5 analytic–synthetic distinction 19, 23, 27 ‘animal spirits’ 195–6, 320, 421, 464 see also open models under uncertainty and ‘animal spirits’
anthropology 374–5
applicability–relevance (methodological triangle-circle (MTC) diagram) 335, 394–5, 487
foundations debate 227–8, 229–30, 232, 242
identification problem 263
lawlike relationships and uncertainty 401, 476 model concept and model building methodology 152–3, 167, 172, 174–5, 183
operationality of model 178, 179–80 variables, laws and induction 94–5 applied economics 356–7 applied realm models 162–3 Aristotelian logic, rules of 173
Aristotle's axioms 6
Aristotle's four causes 112 Armatte, M. 185
armchair empiricism 237
and conceptual truths 369–70 Arrow, K.: impossibility theorem 28, 173 Autoregressive-Integrated-Moving Average (ARIMA) model 211, 247 axiomatic approach to theorizing 6, 36–7 axiomatic hypothetico-deductive formulation of logical empiricism 4–5 background domains 50–52 Bacon, F. 354
bandpass filter 283
bank capital and lending 442 Baumol, W. 314
Bayesian approach 216–18
Bayesian inference 218, 330
Bayesian methodology 330–31, 333 bearers of variables 125, 131, 139 behavioural model 159 see also modelling behaviour and structure
behaviourally-based equations 38, 471 behaviourism 29
Bernoulli trials 332
Bewley, T. 390–91, 392
Blaug, M. 22, 33, 110, 354, 398
Blinder, A.S. 390, 398–9
Bodkin, R.G. 155
Boland, L.A.
DNA structure of neoclassical economics 26–7 individualism and psychologism 27–9
induction 20–23
induction and deduction problems 15–16 method and approach 9–12, 14
probability, uncertainty, specification and stochasticism 340, 349
scientific issues in structural econometrics 289 theory importance 262–3
variables, laws and induction 78
Boland, L.A. xviii–xix, xx, xxi, xxii, 6, 32, 33
Bonnafous, A. xxii–xxiii Bonnot de Condillac, É. 17
Boumans, M. 156, 185, 202
Bourdieu, P. 142, 398
Box–Jenkins techniques 37, 289 bridging assumptions (between theory and data) 308–309 business cycle theories 194, 196, 404–405 Caldwell, B.J. xvii, 4–5 Calot, G. 265, 345
capital 126, 424, 442
‘Capital Controversy’ 478 capitalist development 144 Carro, Y. 32
causal forecasts 275
causal laws 18, 24
causal relations, measurement of 176–7 causality 3, 163
central limit theorem (CLT) 265, 332
ceteris paribus clauses 140, 192–3, 359 Chamberlin, E. 22–3 characterizing terms 86–8, 90–91
choice set 385
circularity 102
Clark, G. 118–19
classical consumer theory 297 classical interpretation 333 classical–Marxian view 36–7 clear thinking 320
Coase, R. 352, 360
Cobb–Douglas function regression 411–13 Cohen, L.J. 67, 75–6
co-integration in time-series analysis 283 Commons, J.R. 183
comparative advantage 146 competition, perfect or imperfect 22–3, 55 conceptual analysis 31, 44, 401, 486
individualism 25
induction and empiricism 74
lawlike relationships and uncertainty 476
probability, uncertainty, specification and stochasticism 295
scientific variables 93
supply and demand and reproducing institutions 122
textbook econometric methodology 40 see also conceptual framework; unemployment and inflation under open models: lawlike relations and uncertainty cost analysis, fieldwork and model building methodology 353–400 applied economics 356–7
background 389–90
fieldwork see fieldwork methodological institutionalism 353
methodological triangle-circle (MTC) diagram 394–6 neoclassical economics 353, 356–7 parameters 355–6
pure economics 356–7
virtuous circle 356–7
see also conceptual truths and empirical observations cost analysis framework 164–78 causal relations, measurement of 176–7 equation parameters, measurement of 177–8 operationality: methodological examination 172–8 operationality conditions 168–72 operationality requirements 166–7 quantities concerned, measurement of 177
Index

Volmer triangle of ontology, epistemology and methodology 152–3, 170–71 see also methodological triangle-circle (MTC) diagram; Suppe, F.
conceptual truths 27, 37, 397 conceptual truths and empirical observations 358–73
armchair empiricism 369–70 conceptual analysis and method 360–61 in economics 365–7
empiricism 361, 367–8
interpretation on conceptual truth 367–8 method in economics 370–73 pragmatism 358–9, 361–5, 368, 370, 373
rationality 358–60, 363–4, 365–6, 368, 370–73 confidence 422–4, 429, 457–8, 479 intervals 198
confirmation (methodology) 3, 50 conflict, principal causes of 181 consistency condition 168 constant costs 480
constant returns to scale production function 413 consumer behaviour 9 laws 80–83
consumer preferences 81 consumption 119, 471–2
function 17, 453
as a function of wage and profit income 471 contemporary ethnography 374–5 contracts 136
conventional projections (CP) 425–8, 479 conventions and conventionalism 11, 20–23, 30, 116 Cooley, T.F. 212, 248 coordinates (scientific variables) 87 Cornford, F.M. 146–7 count-words 86
counterfactual conditional and identification problem 263
induction and empiricism 69–70, 72
Suppe’s conceptual framework 49–50 theory and phenomena relationship 53–4
Cowles approach 152, 484
Keynes–Tinbergen debate 192
Lucas, R.E. critique 202
probability, uncertainty, specification and stochasticism 345
Sims, C. critique of standard econometric practice 214
time-series analysis 281, 282, 284
Cowles Commission
Haavelmo, T., Hollis, M. and Nell, E.J. 44
induction and empiricism 61
Leamer, E.E. approach 218
Los, C.A. approach 310
Lucas, R.E. critique 206–207
Malinvaud, E. 222, 225, 227
Method 190–91
probability, uncertainty, specification and stochasticism 302
scientific issues in structural econometrics 251
Sims, C. critique of standard econometric practice 211–12
Cowles Commission xx, 58, 189–90, 199
Cowles econometricians 191, 200, 353
Cowles econometrics 238
Cowles group 192, 196–7, 198
Cowles methodological structuralism 224
Cowles model 189–91, 222, 237–8, 259
Cowles project xx, xxiii, 183, 223, 353
Cowles simultaneous equations 190
Cowles treatment of errors in variables 206 craft economy 137–8, 448, 450 demand fluctuations 434–7 economic growth and historical change 432–4, 437–8, 440–41
uncertainty and ‘animal spirits’ 422–3 credit, demand for 464–5 Crick, F. 32
critical realism (CR) 165 cross-sectional approach 9–11, 41, 204 cross-sectional generator 468 Dagum, C. 153, 158, 184–5, 204–205, 209, 346 data inconsistencies 310–11 data generating mechanism (DGM) 41–2, 151, 484, 486 ownership and value 133
probability, uncertainty, specification and stochasticism 340, 348–9 Suppe’s conceptual framework 46–7 transformational growth (TG) framework 122 data generating process (DGP) 58, 239, 332 see also data generating mechanism Davis, G.C. 5, 154, 162
on Haavelmo, Hollis and Nell in dialogue 46–55, 58–9 on Suppe’s conceptual framework 45–6 decision models see applied realm models deconstruction and conceptual analysis 40 deduction 26–7
problems 15–16, 19, 23–4, 36 deductive approach of logico-mathematical formalism 242 deductive power 30 deep structural parameters 207–209 demand aggregate 135, 418
curve 144
fluctuations, adjustment to 434–7, 445–9 generalized law 22
for labour curve 409 for labour as a function of wages 471
model 7
for money 415–17, 487 and supply 379
theory 21–2 Desai, M. 249, 255–9, 268 despondency (‘animal spirits’ state) 421 Desrosieres, A. 253–5, 392 determinate model 139–40 determinate/determinable relation 91 deterministic laws 268
deterministic models 269 detrending in time-series analysis 283 Diebold, F.X. 226
differencing in time-series analysis 283 diminishing marginal productivity law 82, 136 diminishing marginal rate of substitution law 82 diminishing marginal utility law 81–2, 83–4, 94, 136 diminishing returns to scale 411 disconfirmation 50 discursive model 173
disequilibrium 403
Malinvaud, E. 223–4, 225
model 201
distribution rule 53
disturbance term 300 division of labour 136, 146, 372
DMS model 224
DNA structure of neoclassical economics 12–14, 15–16, 22, 30 induction problem 16–19 methodological individualism 26–7 Dretske, F.I. 99–101, 133 econometricians (Cowles) 191, 200, 353 econometrics (Cowles) 238 economic agents 121–2, 125 economic categories, problem of definition of 257 economic growth and historical change see under open models: lawlike relations and uncertainty economic laws 134
economic theory 297–8, 300–301
empirical models 304, 308
empiricism 4, 17–19, 361, 367–8 armchair 237, 369–70
Hollis and Nell 36
and induction see induction and empiricist account of general laws logical 4–5
National Bureau 214
see also conceptual truths and empirical observations; empirical issues under open models employment 434–7, 447, 449 encompassing principle 220 epistemic uncertainty principle (Kalman) 313 epistemology see Volmer triangle of ontology, epistemology and methodology Epstein, J. 197–8
Epstein, R. 38–9
foundations debate 190–91, 196, 197–200, 211, 212, 214–15, 223, 246 equation parameters, measurement of 177–8 equilibrium 402–403, 471
model 201
self-confirming 483 theory, general 367 Victorian 137, 412, 441–2 ergodicity 282–3 error term 266–73, 301, 306, 341 errors of analysis 276 errors of measurement 255 errors of observation 342–3 essential characteristics 369 essentially generalized form 68 estimated parameters 202 Euler’s condition 413–14
Euler’s Theorem 414
Evans-Pritchard, E.E. 374 evidence 74
evolution 140–41
evolutionary drift 328
exact data/model 313, 314 exchange and Robinson Crusoe 133–4 exclusion or zero-one restrictions 261 expansion of a system 328 expectations 134, 204–206, 420, 422–4 floating 421, 424, 429
tethered 421
experimental methodology 48–50, 295 explanation, hypothetic-deductive model of 359 explanation and induction problem 18 exploratory realm models 162 extrapolation bounds analysis 217 extrapolation 313 extreme bounds of analysis (EBA) 216 exuberance (‘animal spirits’ state) 421 falling bodies theory (Galileo) 51, 53, 59, 68 falling rate of profit law (Marx) 137 falsification 76, 359 principle of (PF) 361, 397
Farjoun, E. 268
Feldstein, M. 274–5
Felipe, J. 411–12
Fernandez-Villaverde, J. 222, 245 fetishism in Marxian economics 238, 258 fieldwork 4, 31, 183, 373–89, 401, 486
anthropology 374–5
conceptual analysis 390–94
contemporary ethnography 374–5 definition 374–8
individualism 25
lawlike relationships and uncertainty 476
Lucas critique 203–204, 208
methodological triangle-circle (MTC) diagram 237, 244
probability, uncertainty, specification and stochasticism 293, 295, 320, 348
realism 377
specification and uncertainty 56
supply and demand and reproducing institutions 122
textbook econometric methodology 37, 38–40, 42–4
uncertainty and ‘animal spirits’ 420 unemployment and inflation see under open models: lawlike relations and uncertainty see also modelling behaviour and structure filters 283
FIML solution 198
financial quadrangle 460 financial and real interaction see under open models Fisher paradigm 485
Fisher, R.A. 321–2
Fisher–Neyman–Pearson (F–N–P) statistical framework 347 Fisherian model xx fixed points (scientific variables) 87 floating expectations 421, 424, 429
Foley, D.K. 13–14, 348
see also under Haavelmo: probability, uncertainty, specification and stochasticism forecasting 286
causal 275
short-term 256
formal cause 112
foundations of econometrics 189–250 assessment of critiques 237–9 ceteris paribus clauses 192–3
Cowles Commission 189–90, 199
Cowles Commission Method 190–91
Cowles econometricians 191, 200
Cowles econometrics 238
Cowles group 192, 196–7, 198
Cowles model 189–91, 237–8
Cowles simultaneous equations 190 debate 196–200
Hendry, D.F. methodology 218–20, 239
Keynes–Tinbergen debate 191–6
Keynesian theory 194–5
Leamer, E.E. approach 215–18
methodological foundations 194–5 multiple hypotheses (model selection) 198–9 Sims, C. methodology 238
simultaneous equations model 197, 199 theory and data, interaction between 239 see also Lucas critique; Malinvaud; methodological triangle-circle (MTC) diagram; Sims critique Freeman, R. 393
frequentist approach 324–5, 330–31, 333 frictionless motion 55
Friedman, M. 191, 198–9, 201, 247, 396, 463–6
Frisch, R., foundations debate 196–7, 214, 219 Frisch, R. xix, 44, 150, 158, 286, 395, 485 fuzzy econometric theory 6 Galileo’s falling bodies theory 51, 53, 59, 68
Gaussian analysis 332
Gaussian linear model 332, 348 general equilibrium theory 367 general-to-specific modelling see London School of Economics (LSE) approach geometric structure 311 Gherardi (quoted in Mouchot) 280
Gibson’s Paradox 138, 432
Giere, N.R. 157
Gilbert, Ch. 44
Gilbert, C.L. 17, 33, 58, 194–5, 210, 319
Godley, W. 36
Golden Rule 437–42
Goodhart’s law 281
Goodman, N. 69–70, 76
goods and services 115, 117, 120–21 Granger causality xxi Granger, C.W.J. 41, 287
foundations debate 188, 211, 239
probability, uncertainty, specification and stochasticism 339–40, 348–9 and Suppe’s conceptual framework 46, 48 gavity 55
‘great ratios’, constancy of 137, 430
Griliches, Z. 253
growth
cycle interactions 456
model 159, 452
and price mechanism 437–42 and prices 449–52
theory 8
see also transformational growth (TG) framework Guitton, H. 159–60
Haavelmo, T.: probability, uncertainty, specification and stochasticism 290, 291–352 adequate statistical model 304 bridging assumptions 308–309 Davis, G.C. approach 292, 293, 294–301, 308–309, 317 economic theory 297–8, 300–301
empirical model 304
Foley, D.K. approach 292, 321–35
Bayesian methodology 330–31, 333
Foley's unifying statistical framework (FUSF) 329–35 Laplacian approach 324–6, 329, 331–4 linear regression model 331–3 operational approach 326
parametric approach 326
probability theory 322–3, 324–8, 332–3 statistical inference 325–6
general statistical models 303, 304, 308
Haavelmo distribution 303, 304, 306–307, 308
Hollis, M. and Nell, E.J. approach 293–4, 317, 320, 340, 343
identification 307–308
Los, C.A. approach 292, 310–20
data inconsistencies 310–11 diagnosis 317–20
exact data/model 313, 314
identification 312–13, 315
inexact models/data 314, 316, 317, 319–20 Los critique 315–17
mis-specification 310–11, 317
model instability 310–11
phenomenal systems 312
probability law 310, 314–15, 316–17, 318 repressand and regressor data variables, a priori distinction between 315–16 simultaneous equations models (SEM) 310 top-down approach 310–11 uncertainty 313, 316, 317
unpredictability 317, 320
methodological triangle-circle (MTC) diagram 335–9
Davis, G.C. 335–6
Foley, D.K. 338–9
Los, C.A. 337–8
Spanos, A. 336–7
mis-specification 307
phenomenal systems 295
probability approach 293, 299–301, 303, 304, 341–3, 344–6 re-specification 307, 309
realism 300–301
reduced form 306–307
reliable relationships 344–6 reparameterization or restriction 308 scientific and background domains, distinction between 295–6, 298, 300–301 semantic approach 294
simultaneous equations model (SEM) approach 293, 304 socio-economic systems (physical systems) 294–5 Spanos, A. approach 291–2, 293, 301–10, 317 London School of Economics (LSE) vs the Textbook approach 308–10 re-reading Haavelmo’s methodology 302–303 reformulating Haavelmo 303–308 textbook methodology 301–302
specification 294, 296–301, 306–307 specifying statistical models in terms of random variables 303 statistical adequacy 302, 303, 308 statistical identification 307–308
statistical inference 303
statistical model 306–308 stochasticism 292–3, 339–41, 345 structural identification 307–308 Suppe, F. approach 293–4, 295–6
time-series analysis 341–3
unpredictability 344–6
volatility 345–6
Haavelmo, T.
conceptual analysis, fieldwork and model building methodology 353
foundations debate 191, 197, 198, 246
foundations of econometrics 32
individualism 25
induction and empiricism 60, 78
methodological triangle-circle (MTC) diagram 341
scientific issues in structural econometrics 250, 253 structural econometrics 156
variables, laws and induction 78, 79–80, 108
Haavelmo, T. and Hollis, M. and Nell, E.J. in dialogue: methodological foundations of Haavelmo’s conception of econometrics 35–60 Hollis and Nell’s alternative vision 35–7 specification and uncertainty 56–7 Suppe, F. conceptual framework 45–52
textbook econometric methodology 37–44 theory and phenomena, relationship between 52–6 Haavelmo, T. xix–xx, xxii, xxiii–xxiv, 3, 5, 7–8, 31, 34
Haavelmo–Klein–Nell unification vision 232 Hands, D.W. xviii, 12 hard data 49–50, 53–4, 328 Harrod and Domar models 449–51
Hegel, G.W.F. 325
Heilbroner, R.L. 11, 32, 144, 277–8
Helper, S. 392–3
Hempel, C.G. 67–8, 76
Hendry, D.F. 215, 218–20, 236, 239, 248 approach see London School of Economics (LSE) approach lawlike relations and uncertainty 400, 417, 478
probability, uncertainty, specification and stochasticism 309, 346
scientific issues in structural econometrics 251, 269, 271, 285, 287 Hicks, J. 445, 482
historical change see economic growth and historical change under open models Ho, K. 397–8
Hodrick–Prescott filter 283
Hollis, M. and Nell, E.J. conceptual analysis, fieldwork and model building methodology 353, 365, 386
DNA structure of neoclassical economics: induction problem 16–19 DNA structure of neoclassical economics: methodological individualism 26–7 econometrics 6–8
foundations debate 228
individualism, explanatory problem posed by 24–6 individualism and psychologism 27–30
induction and deduction problems 15–16
model concept and model building methodology 150 neoclassical economics, methodology of, as basis for neoclassical theory 8–9 neoclassicism: induction 19–24 neoclassicism foundations, problems in 14–15
probability, uncertainty, specification and stochasticism 293–4, 317, 320, 340, 343, 346 rational economic man: method and approach 9–14
scientific issues in structural econometrics 262–3, 286
textbook econometric methodology 38, 41, 43
see also Haavelmo and Hollis and Nell in dialogue Hollis, M. and Nell, E.J. xxi, xxiii–xxiv, 3–34 Holly, A. 221, 224, 330–31 homogeneity in classical consumer theory 297 of data set 319 household savings 447 household spending 464, 466 housing crash 479
Houssay, B. 352, 355–6, 396
Hume, D. 16–18, 71 hypotheses 25–6, 72–3 hypothetic–deductive model of explanation 359 Ichniowski, C. 393
idealization 164–5, 321
identification 143, 238, 307–308, 312–13, 315 economy and the market 125
Index

| Scientific Issues in Structural Econometrics | 289 |
| Scientific Laws | 115 |
| Statistical | 307–308 |
| Structural | 307–308 |
| Time-series Analysis | 281 |
| Variables, Laws and Induction | 97, 104, 107 |
| Identification Problems | 197, 259–64 |
| Normality Issues | 264–6 |
| Stochasticism, Error Terms and Random Draw | 266–73 |
| Theory, Importance of | 262–4 |
| Identities | 96 |
| IF (Investment Finance) Function | 454, 455–7, 458–60 |
| Impossibility Theorem (Arrow) | 28, 173 |
| Income | 36, 347, 471–2 |
| Incompatibility and Model Operationality | 180 |
| Increasing Returns to Scale | 411 |
| Individualism | 3, 11–13 |
| Explanatory Problem Posed by | 24–6 |
| Indoctrinism Dichotomy | 27 |
| Hollis, M. and Nell, E.J. | 27–30 |
| Psychologistic | 33 |
| See Also Methodological Individualism |
| Individualistic Methodology | xxi |
| Individuating Attributes | 99, 101–102 |
| Individuating Term | 90 |
| Induction | 3, 11–12, 31, 361, 484, 486 |
| By-Enumeration | 321–2 |
| Collecting and Analysing Data | 242 |
| And Conceptual Truth Interpretation | 368 |
| And Empiricist Account of General Laws | 61–78 |
| Analytic Justifications | 63–5 |
| Lawlikeness | 67–71 |
| Pragmatic Vindication | 65–6 |
| Severe Testing | 71–3 |
| Skeptical Consensus | 66–7 |
| Validation | 62–3 |
| Hollis, M. and Nell, E.J. | 19–24, 36 |
| Individualism and Psychologism | 28, 29 |
| Keynes–Tinbergen Debate | 193 |
| 'Neurotic' Problem | 96 |
| Problems | 13, 30 |
| DNA Structure of Neoclassical Economics | 16–19 |
| Hollis, M. and Nell, E.J. | 15–16 |
| Resolution | 134 |
| Statistical Functions | 3 |
| Versus Deduction Debate | 180 |
| See Also Variables, Laws and Induction Inductive Hypothesis |
| Inertia of Data Set | 319 |
| Inexact Laws or Generalizations | 382 |
| Inference | 18 |
| Bayesian | 218, 330 |
| Statistical | 303, 325–6 |
| Inferential Framework (Neyman–Pearson) | xx, 50 |
| Inflation | 403, 406–10 |
| Keynesian | 414 |
| See Also Unemployment and Inflation |
| Under Open Models: Lawlike Relations and Uncertainty Information Set | 306 |
| Input–Output Approach | 121, 288 |
| Measurement Problems | 258–9 |
| Models | 117, 159, 384–5 |
| Tables | 148 |
| INSEE | 222, 224, 249, 274, 276, 392 |
| Institutional Changes | 279 |
| Institutional Development and Transformational Growth | 122–3 |
| Institutional Realities | 38 |
| Institutional Structure | 38 |
| Institutionalism See Methodological Individualism |
| Institutionally-Based Equations | 38 |
| Institutions | 28, 143 |
| And What Exists | 119–21 |
| Instrumentalism | 5, 11 |
| Interest Rates | 448–9, 453, 472 |
| Internal/External Contradictions, Absence of | 166–7 |
| Investment | 434–7, 448 |
| Decisions and Investment Spending | 454–7 |
function 471
as a function of profits 471
IF (investment finance) function 454, 455–7, 458–60 neoclassical theory of 3 and profits 447
isolated systems see physical systems

Jarvie, I.C. 374
Jeffreys, H. 108
prior 331
Jevons, W.S. 252, 394, 395
Johnson, W.E. 91
Johnston, J. 38, 58, 301, 352 judgements and probability 116 justification 21
analytic 63–5
Keynes–Tinbergen debate 193
logical 19
methodological triangle-circle (MTC) diagram 244–5 k-uncertainty 475, 476

Kahn, R. 482
Kaldor, N. 439, 452
Kaldor’s Laws 137, 278
Kalman, R.E. 310, 313–14, 346
Katz, J.J. 66
Kennedy, P. 253, 259–61, 264–5, 275
Keuzenkamp, H.A. 191–4, 246
Keynes, J.M. 442–3, 445
conceptual analysis, fieldwork and model building methodology 356, 378 critique and alchemy 252
foundations debate 243, 246
lawlike relations and uncertainty 400, 442–3, 479 limited independent variety principle 63 liquidity preference conception 475 on the multiplier 463–6
probability, uncertainty, specification and stochasticism 347–8
scientific issues in structural econometrics 251–2, 284, 287–8
–Tinbergen, J. debate 191–6
Keynesian analysis and growth and prices in mass production 449 Keynesian inflation 414
Keynesian macroeconomics 405
Keynesian marginal efficiency of capital 424 Keynesian model and stochasticism, error terms and random draw 266 Keynesian policies 485
Keynesian precepts and real and financial interaction 460
Keynesian theory 194–5
Keynesian uncertainty 334, 484, 487
Keynesian uncertainty and ‘animal spirits’ 428–9 Keynesian unemployment and inflation 406 Keynesianism 200–201, 211
unemployment and inflation 404, 417 kitchen-sink econometrics 219–20 Klein, L.R. 31, 57–8, 203–207, 212–13, 429–31 critical analysis, fieldwork and model building methodology 352, 353–4
foundations debate 188, 189, 194, 196, 208, 214
Haavelmo, T. and rational econometric man 34 institutional realities of the situation 38
lawlike relations and uncertainty 400, 485–6, 487 methodological structuralism xxiii, 156, 479 models I–III 152, 184, 477, 479
–Nell, E.J. model of reliable/volatile distinction 470–74
scientific issues in structural econometrics 269, 275 uncertainty and ‘animal spirits’: rational choice theory 429–31
Kleiner, M. 393
KMV model (Moody) 462
Knight, F. 397
knowledge and induction 21 Kolmogorov probability 310
Index

Koopmans, T. 485
   –Vining, R. debate 347
Krugman, P. xxii–xxiii, 150 lag structure 284
Lakatos, I. 248
Laplace, P.S.: Laplacian approach/
   Laplacianism 292, 324–4, 329, 331–4, 348
Lautzenheimer, M. 478
lawlike relationships 151, 484
   identification problem 263
   induction and empiricism 67–71, 72 particulars, presuppositions and
   induction 99
   predicate calculus 84–5
   scientific variables 93–4, 136–8
   variables, laws and induction 111 see also open models: lawlike relations and uncertainty laws see variables, laws and induction Lawson, T. xxi
Lazear, E. 393
Leamer, E.E. 215–18, 234–5, 251
   Bayesianism approach 37, 330
Leontief, W., input–output model 156, 184
Leontief, W. xxiii, 250, 257, 274, 289, 396
LeRoy, S.F. 212, 248
Levi-Strauss, C. 179–80
Lewis, C.I. 71
linear cost function 411 linear models 312 linear programming models 36 linear regression models 331–3 linearity 178–9
Lipsey, R.G. 17, 33
Liu, T.-C. 211–12
logico-mathematical formalism:
   deductive approach 242
London School of Economics (LSE) approach 17, 218–19 vs the Textbook approach 308–10
Los, C.A. 346
see also under Haavelmo, T:
   probability, uncertainty, specification and stochasticism Lowe, A. 386
Lucas, R.E. 156, 230, 234, 378
Lucas, R.E. critique 200–10
   aggregation problem 207–208
   Cowles approach 202
   Cowles Commission 206–207 Cowles treatment of errors in variables 206
   cross-section surveys 204 deep structural parameters 207–209
   disequilibrium model 201 equilibrium model 201
   expectations 204–206
   fieldwork 203–204, 208
   Keynesianism 200–201
   macroeconometric models 202–203 and Malinvaud, E. 221–2, 223–4
   mis-specification 202–203
   Phillips curve 204–205, 208 rational expectations hypothesis (REH) 205, 208–10
   simultaneous equations 209 structural changes 280
   luxury 148–9
McCloskey, D. xviii, 76–7, 142, 195, 217, 248, 353–4, 396
Machover, M. 268
macro functions 466–9
macro theory 8
macroeconometrics 485
   Malinvaud, E. 222–4, 226
   models 202–203
macroeconomics 221–2, 485 atheoretical 212 consumption function 270 Keynesian 405
   models 212, 487
   theories 194, 200
Maddala, G.S. 256, 264
Mage, S. 258, 288
Malinowski, B. 374–5
Malinvaud, E.
   Bayesian methodology 330–31
   Cowles Commission 222, 225, 227 Cowles methodological structuralism
   224
   Cowles model 222
   Cowles project 223
disequilibria 223–4, 225
   foundations debate 188, 203, 248–9
Haavelmo, T. and rational econometric man 34
INSEE 222, 224
lawlike relations and uncertainty 485
and Leamer, E.E. approach 218 and Lucas, R.E. critique 202–203, 207–208, 221–2, 223–4 macroeconometrics 222–4, 226
methodology 231
probability, uncertainty, specification and stochasticism 348
reliable relationships identification 273
scientific issues in structural econometrics 257, 285 and Sims, C. critique 214, 238
statistical inference 330
stochasticism, error terms and random draw 266–72
structural changes 280
textbook econometric methodology 43
Malinvaud, E. xx, 189–90, 192, 221–7, 231, 252–3 Malthus, T. 118, 142
Malthusian trap 118–19
marginal efficiency calculation (MEC) 425–8, 479 marginal efficiency of capital, Keynesian 424 marginal product 436 marginal productivity, diminishing 82, 136 marginal productivity of labour (employment and wage rate relation) 137 marginal productivity theory 413 marginal rate of substitution, diminishing 82 marginal utility 82 marginalist revolution 7 market 113, 123 interdependence 35
markov processes 479
Marshall, A. 140, 263, 394, 432–3 martingales 479
Marx, K. 119, 142
Marxian categories 258–9 Marxian law of falling rate of profit 137 mass production 137, 423
see also under open models: lawlike relations and uncertainty mass terms 102
mass words 86 material activity 372
material bodies 97–9, 101–104, 107, 114–15, 125 material cause 112 mathematical theories of chance 342 maximizing models 388
maximizing theory 56
Mayer, T. 355, 377–8
Mayo, D. 60, 71–2, 75, 352 mean 332 measurement accuracy, problem of 257 –coherence 182
problems 253–9
–quantification see methodological triangle-circle (MTC) diagram –relevance 180–82
with theory 213 measurement–quantification (methodological triangle-circle (MTC) diagram) 335, 394–5, 487
Davis, G.C. 335–6
Foley, D.K. 338
foundations debate 227, 229–30, 232, 235, 243, 245
Hendry, D.F. 236
lawlike relationships and uncertainty 476
Los, C.A. 337–8
Lucas, R.E. 234
Malinvaud, E. 231
model concept and model building methodology 152–3, 167, 175–6, 183
operationality of model 179–80
Sims, C. 233
Spanos, A. 336–7
memory 71
metaphors 32, 287–8 methodological foundations 32, 194–5 see also Haavelmo, T. and Hollis, M. and Nell, E.J. in dialogue methodological holism 27 methodological individualism xxiii, 16, 26–7, 28, 30–31, 484 methodological institutionalism xxiii–xxiv, 38, 58, 122, 353, 429–30, 484 methodological problems 221 methodological structuralism xxiii, 38, 58, 430
methodological triangle-circle (MTC) diagram 151–4, 170, 171–2, 183, 185, 239–45, 357, 484
alchemy 252
conceptual analysis and fieldwork 394–6
Davis, G.C. 335–6
empiricism 471
Foley, D.K. 338–9
Haavelmo–Klein–Nell unification vision 232
Hendry, D.F. methodology 235–6
lawlike relationships and uncertainty 401
Leamer, E.E. methodology 234–5
Los, C.A. 337–8
Lucas, R.E. methodology 233–4
Malinvaud, E. methodology 231
O relations 241
probability, uncertainty, specification and stochasticism 293, 334 real and financial interaction 460
Sims, C. methodology 233
Spanos, A. 336–7
V relations 241
see also applicability–relevance;
measurement–quantification; theory–coherence
methodology
experimental 48–50, 295
see also model concept and model building methodology;
Volmer triangle of ontology, epistemology and methodology
METRIC model 224, 249
Milberg, W. 11, 32, 277–8, 396
Mill, J.S. 437 uniformity principle 63
Mini-DMS 274
Minsky, H. 400, 487
Mintzberg, H. 376, 398
Mirowski, P. 7
model concept and model building methodology 151–88 applied realm (decision models) 162–3 components 160–63
object 161–2, 166, 179, 183 objective of the model 162–3, 166, 174, 179, 183 subject or author 160–61 conflict, principal causes of 181 definition of model 157–60 exploratory realm 162–3 historical context, model in 154–7 methodological triangle-circle (MTC) diagram 151–4, 164, 183 model for a theory 155–6
model as a theory 155–6 operationality problems 178–82, 183 definition 178–80
measurement–coherence 182 measurement–relevance 180–82 relevance–coherence 182 see also conceptual analysis, fieldwork and model building methodology model instability 310–11
model related to theory 159 model selection and time-series analysis 283–4 model for a theory 155–6
model as a theory 155–6, 165
modelling behaviour and structure 241, 379–89 input–output models 384–5 maximizing models 388
motivations 381
neoclassical models 382, 387
predictive models 388
prescriptive models 388
programming models 386, 388 rational choice model 386–7 reproduction models 388 self-interest 385–6
modern critiques xxiii modernism 353
Modigliani, F. 246 modus ponens rule 64–5 monetary authority 471 money supply and demand 415–17, 487 Moody’s KMV model 462
Moore, H. 288
Morgan, M.S. xix, 32, 44, 61, 156–8, 190, 197, 246, 252 Morgenstern, O. 253–4, 257 Morrison, M. 156–8 motion and rest distinction 104–105 motivations of economy 381 Mouchot, C. 265, 268, 271–2, 274, 275–6, 278, 279, 289 multi-equation structural models 211 multiple hypotheses (model selection) 198–9 multiple regression methods 474 multiplier–accelerator 432, 452 multipliers 199, 417–19, 443–5, 447, 463–6 lawlike relationships and scientific variables 138
reliable relationships 273–4
Mundell effects 409

Nagel, E. 76
NAIRU (non-accelerating inflation rate of unemployment) 406–407, 409 National Bureau empiricism 214 natural necessity 67 natural science see variables, laws and induction NBER 199
Project on Industrial Technology and Productivity 398 negativity in classical consumer theory 297 Nell, E.J. conceptual analysis, fieldwork and model building methodology 352, 369 crisis in vision 277
foundations debate 208, 239
lawlike relations and uncertainty 485
methodological institutionalism 156, 479
model concept and model building methodology 158–9, 164 multiplier 465–6
scientific issues in structural econometrics 273, 279, 285, 289 on uncertainty and ‘animal spirits’: rational choice theory 429–31
variables, laws and induction 142
see also Hollis, M. and Nell, E.J.
Nell, E.J. xxii, 40, 58, 429–31 neo-Keynesian equations 278
neoclassical economics
conceptual analysis and fieldwork 353, 356–7 foundations, problems in 14–15 hidden agenda 11
Hollis, M. and Nell, E.J. 6, 7, 35, 36
identification problem 263
individualism and psychologism 29, 30
induction 19–24
mass production 452
method and approach 12–14
methodological triangle-circle (MTC) diagram 230–32, 234, 240–41, 242–3 methodology of, as basis for neoclassical theory 8–9 ownership and value 131
production functions 411
scientific issues in structural econometrics 286
structural changes 280
textbook econometric methodology 40
unemployment and inflation 407
neoclassical economics xxi, 3–4, 9–10, 11, 191, 398, 486 neoclassical inverse relation between capital intensity and rate of profit 137 neoclassical models 382, 387
neoclassical production functions 413, 482 neoclassical-based econometrics xxi–xxii neutrality (‘animal spirits’ state) 421 Newtonian analysis 55
Newton’s Laws (First, Second, Third) 105
Index

Neyman–Pearson inferential framework xx, 50 noise/signal ratio 313 normal working of the system 139–40 normality issues 264–6
norms 119–20, 123, 136, 466–7

O relations (ownership) 125, 176, 183, 240, 241
lawlike relationships and scientific variables 138, 423
methodological triangle-circle (MTC) diagram 394
ownership and value 132–3
object 166, 179, 183
objective 166, 173–4, 179, 183, 325, 328, 348 objective probability 254 objectivity 5 obligations 122–3, 136 observational or raw data 49–50, 53–5 Okun's Law 137, 278
‘one price law’ 136
ontology, see also Volmer triangle of ontology, epistemology and methodology ontology xxi
open models: lawlike relations and uncertainty 143, 401–83 economic growth and historical change 431–42 demand fluctuations in craft economy, adjustment to 434–7 growth and price mechanism: flexible prices and Golden Rule 437–42 price mechanism and Marshallian technology 432–3 empirical issues 463–75
evidence 474–5
Keynes, J.M. and Friedman, M. on the multiplier 463–6 macro functions 466–9
reliable/volatile distinction 469–70 reliable/volatile distinction in Klein–Nell model 470–74
mass production 442–53
demand fluctuations, adjustment to 445–9 growth and prices 449–52 production function changes: multiplier replaces price mechanism 443–5 real and financial interaction 453–63 default risk and market risk 461–3 investment decisions and investment spending 454–7 Minsky–Nell approach 453–4 risk, increasing 457–60 uncertainty and ‘animal spirits’: rational choice theory 419–31 expectations and confidence 422–4 Klein, L.R. and Nell, E.J. 429–31 missing present 419–22 positive and negative ‘animal spirits’ 421 present and future 424–9 unemployment and inflation 402–19
conceptual analysis 410–19
money supply 415–17
multipliers and the quantity equation 417–19 production functions 410–15
fieldwork 402–10
direct knowledge provision 404–405 inflation explanation 406–10 operational approach 257–8, 326
operationality 183
conditions 168–72 methodological examination 172–8 requirements 166–7 optimal decisions rules 201 optimism 422, 425, 428–9 optimizing 56
behaviour 7
models 20, 40
order condition 261 ordinary least squares (OLS) estimation 197, 198, 274, 475 output 434–7, 447 employment function 453
function 471
see also input–output over-identification 289 overlapping generations models 481 ownership and endowment 132–3 Rational econometric man

and value 128
see also O relations
Oxford Studies 411

Pagan, A.R. 37, 211–12, 216–17, 218, 220, 287 panel data 42
Pap, A. 63–5
parameters 355–6
estimated 202
structural 207–209, 260–61
parametric approach 326
Pareto, V. 27–8, 33
partial formulations 51 particulars basic 102, 107, 125
see also under variables, laws and induction Pasinetti, L. 195
passive observation/data 302
Patinkin, D. 198
Pearson, K. 321
penalized splining 283 perceiving agent 104 perception 71, 115
perfect foresight hypothesis 208 performance, conditions of: truth-telling 124 Pesaran, M.H. xix, 194, 209 pessimism 422, 425
Phelps, E.S. 247
phenomenal systems 202, 295, 312, 328
Suppe's conceptual framework 47, 48, 49–50
theory and phenomena relationship 52–4 see also data generating mechanism (DGM)

Phillips curve 17, 79, 195
Lucas critique 204–205, 208
unemployment and inflation 406, 409–10 Phillips, P.C.B. 221, 224, 226–7, 251, 330–31 physical systems 328
Suppe's conceptual framework 47–8, 50
theory and phenomena relationship 52–4 see also socio-economic systems

physiocrats 143
Plato on socio-economic system formation 141, 146–9 pointing: Cartesian move 123–4 Policy Rule 202
Popper, K. 21, 26
conceptual analysis, fieldwork and model building methodology 397
induction and empiricism 71–2
–Lakatos, I. approach 359
methodological individualism 33
probability, uncertainty, specification and stochasticism 291 population 118–19
growth 119
laws (Malthus) 18 means and variances 332–3 of a social system 117 positivism
Hollis, M. and Nell, E.J. 36 and individualism 24 and induction 23
and positivist economics 17
predicate calculus 85
scientific issues in structural econometrics 286 positivism xxiii, 3–5, 7, 9, 18–19, 30 pragmatism 4, 25, 30, 58, 358–9, 361–5, 368, 370, 373 pre-analytic vision 278 predicate
– calculus 83–5
– entrenched 69
– qualitative 68
prediction
– failure 274–7
and induction problem 18
predictive models 57, 388 preference set 131
prescriptive models 159, 388
present value 126
presuppositions see under variables, laws and induction price
– changes 464
– equation 409
– flexible 437–42
– mechanism 432–3, 437–42, 480 see also wage–price spiral Prigogine, I. 400, 477
primary properties 105–106
priors or prior information 36, 334 probabilistic methods 57, 268–9, 468 probabilistic model xx, 39 probabilistic revolution 45 probability approach 116–18, 347–8, 484
Haavelmo, T., Hollis, M. and Nell, E.J. 44
Leamer, E.E. approach 218
see also Haavelmo: probability, uncertainty, specification and stochasticism probability law 310, 314–15, 316–17, 318
probability theory 50, 322–3, 324–8, 332–3 producer behaviour, marginalist 9 production function 410–15, 433–5, 482 institutions 115
models 36–7, 57
and reproduction of a surplus 118–19 programming models 56–7, 159 projective process 3 promise 143–4 proximate cause 112
psychologism 27–30
psychologistic individualism 33
pure economics 356–7
pure numbers 115
Qin, D. 44, 246
qualitative predicates 68 quantitative models 165, 173 quantities, measurement of 177 quantity equation 415–16, 417–19 quantity variables 115
Quesnay, F. 143, 155, 185
Quine, W.V.O 67, 361
random draw 266–73
rational behaviour 9 rational choice 30
model 386–7
theory, see also uncertainty and ‘animal spirits’: rational choice ty theory under open models ty xx, 15 rational economic man: method and approach (Hollis, M. and Nell, E.J.) 3–6, 9–14 rational expectations 247, 485
Lucas, R.E. critique 205, 208–10
Malinvaud, E. 222, 226
textbook econometric methodology 37 rational individual 484 rational-actor theory 14 rationalism 4 rationalist theory of knowledge 8, 38
rationality
bounded xxi
conceptual truths 358–60, 363–4, 365–6, 368, 370–73
methodological individualism 27
modelling behaviour and structure 385 rationality xxiii, 13–14, 31, 397 raw data 49–50, 53–5
rE function 454, 455–7, 458, 460 real business cycle approach 404–405 real definition 52
real and financial interaction see under open models: lawlike relations and uncertainty real wages 434–7, 447
realism
critical 165
individualism 25
metrological 254
textbook econometric methodology 37 realism xxiii, 5, 31, 300–301, 377 realization of data 312–13 reason and experience 61–2 reduced form (observable) 238, 258, 260, 306–307 refutation 3
regrassand and regressor data variables, a priori distinction between 315–16 Reichenbach, H. 65
re-identification 97–8, 100–102, 104, 107, 111, 114–15, 125, 143
relational systems 53–4 relevance–coherence 182
reliable laws 134
reliable relationships 344–6, 486
empiricism 467–9
identification 273–4
lawlike relationships and uncertainty 401, 476–7
uncertainty and ‘animal spirits’ 421, 431
and volatile relationships distinction 469–74 Renee, L. 392
reparameterization or restriction 308 reproductive growth model 452 representative agent behaviour 133–4, 207, 278 reproduction 112–13, 121–2
economy and the market 125
evolution 141
and institutions: socio-economic system 115–16, 120
models 388
probability 117
system 328
see also under variables, laws and induction: scientific variables and laws in economics re-specification 307, 309, 347 revealed-preference theory 29, 36 revenue-flow model 473–4 reversion to the mean 425, 427, 429
Ricardo, D. 397
Rice, T. 374
risk borrower’s and lender’s 457 default and market 461–3 increasing 457–60
Robbins, L. 17
Robinson Crusoe (agent) 133–4, 144, 372 Robinson, J. 22–3, 482 role-based maximizing 385–6 roles 117–18, 125, 131
Rose effects 409 routines and regularities 116 Rozeboom, W.W. 88–90
rules and norms 119–20, 123, 466–7 ‘running the world’ 379–80
Russian School 332
Rymes, T.K. 481, 482
Samuelson, P. 353–4
Sandmo, A. 31 satisfaction 80, 125
satisficing approach 15 savings 448, 464, 481
Say’s law 144, 403–404 scientific discovery (Popper) 17 scientific domains 50–52 and background domains, distinction between 295–6, 298, 300–301 scientific issues see structural econometrics, scientific issues in scientific laws and variables see under variables, laws and induction scope (of model) 94 selection (evolution) 141
self-interest 385–6
semantic approach 5, 31–2, 45–6, 48, 294, 346 sensation 17
severe testing 71–3, 74
Shaikh, A. 36, 258–9, 288, 412
Shiller, R.J. 246
Simon, J.L. 275
simplification xxii
Sims, C. 217, 233
foundations debate 188, 190, 222, 246
methodology 238
model concept and model building methodology 150
scientific issues in structural econometrics 250
Sims, C. critique of standard econometric practice 210–15
Cowles approach 214
Cowles Commission 211–12
vector autoregression (VAR) 210–14 simulation 312
simultaneity bias 197
simultaneous equations empiricism 474
Haavelmo, T., Hollis, M. and Nell, E.J. 44
identification problems 260–61
Lucas, R.E. critique 209
Malinvaud, E. 226–7
simultaneous equations model (SEM) 197, 199, 293, 304, 310 simultaneous equations model (SEM) and normality issues 264 single equation linear difference model 220 single equation (theory-free) data-driven model (ARIMA) 211 singular statements 16–17, 19 sceptical consensus 66–7 Slutsky symmetry 297
Smith, A. 136, 380
Smith, R. xix, 209
Smith, V. 339
social order 111–14, 143, 430 socialization 379–80
institutions 115, 116–18
processes 131
socio-economic systems 115–16, 151, 179, 294–5, 484 aggregate supply and demand laws 135
Plato 141, 146–9
probability, uncertainty, specification and stochasticism 294, 301, 306–307 dynamic 37
Hollis, M. and Nell, E.J. 56–7 searching 218
stochasticism, error terms and random draw 267
time-series analysis 281
see also Haavelmo: probability, uncertainty, specification and stochasticism Spanos, A. xvii–xviii, 3–6, 58, 211 specialization 146 of function 372 specification 294, 296–301, 306–307
Hollis, M. and Nell, E.J. 56–7 problem 41
stochasticism, error terms and random draw 267
time-series analysis 281
see also Haavelmo: probability, uncertainty, specification and stochasticism speech-acts 143
Sraffa, P. model 159 stable social system or stable social order 119 statements of fact and language 19 general 72
universal 16–17, 64
stationary series (difference and trend) 283 statistical adequacy 72–3, 302, 303, 304, 308, 347 statistical framework 347 statistical identification 307–308
statistical inference 303, 325–6 statistical models 42–3, 301, 303, 306–308
general 303, 304, 308
statistical significance xviii statistical/mathematical/logical game plan of model 183 stimulus-response pattern 382, 387 stochastic modelling xxii, 191 stochasticism, see also Haavelmo: probability, uncertainty, specification and stochasticism stochasticism xxi–xxii, 266–73 stock-flow problem 256
Stone, R. 251, 394
Strawson, P. 63, 114, 123, 125
variables, laws and induction 97–104, 107, 109, 143 strong law of large numbers (SLLN) 322–3
structural analyses 388 structural changes, problems of 276–7 structural econometrics
alchemy 251–3
identification problems 259–64
measurement problems 253–9 prediction, failure of 274–7 reliable relationships identification 273–4
structural changes 279–81
time-series analysis 281–4 vision, absence of 277–9 volatility 284–6
structural econometrics xix, xxiv, 195, 196, 251–90 structural equations 197
identification problem 262
structural estimation 197 structural form (unobservable) 238, 258 structural identification 307–308 structural instability 202, 475 structural model 159
multi-equation 211
structural parameters 207–209, 260–61 structuralism 38, 122, 179 methodological xxiii, 38, 58, 430 structure 8, 44
geometric 311
of model 183
see also modelling behaviour and structure textbook econometric methodology 40
stuff universals (mass terms) 102–106, 127 subjective 254, 325, 328, 333, 348, 383 Summers, L. H. 355, 396
Suppe, F. 5, 156, 293–4, 295–6 conceptual framework 45–52, 56 experimental methodology and confirmation 48–50 scientific domains and background domains 50–52 theories and phenomena as relational systems 46–8
probability, uncertainty, specification and stochasticism 346
theory and phenomena relationship 53 supply aggregate 135, 418
curves 260
model 7
money 415–17, 487
Swamy, P.A.V.B. 6, 40
Swann, P.G.M. 354–5, 392, 395
scientific issues in structural econometrics 251–2, 253, 287–8 systematic errors 253 systems of equations 197
T Theorem (Allais) 342, 345, 468 Taylor, J. 226, 249 technical progress 439, 441 technological changes 279 temporal priority xxi terminating judgements 71 tethered expectations 421
textbook econometric methodology 37–44, 347 theoretical concepts 257–8 theoretical data 50, 55 theoretical empiricist approach to scientific model building 156 theory
choice 23
–coherence see theory–coherence (methodological triangle-circle (MTC) diagram) confirmation 74 and data interaction 220, 239 importance 262–4
–induced phenomenal systems 52–4 –induced physical system 47–51
–model–data relationships 156 and phenomena as relational systems 46–8 and phenomena, relationship between 52–6 specification and uncertainty 56 theory–coherence (methodological Index

triangle-circle (MTC) diagram) 335, 394–5, 487
foundations debate 227–8, 229–30, 232, 242–3
identification problem 263 internal/external coherence of objectives 172–4 lawlike relationships and uncertainty 401, 476
operationality of model 178–80
Thom, R. 8, 78
Thomas, A.B. 375
time inconsistency theory 377–8 time-series 41, 58
analysis 281–4, 289, 341–3 cycle 282–3 forecasts 275
generator 468
models 209
trend 282–3
work 217
Tinbergen, J. 347, 353–4
foundations debate 189, 196–7, 199–200, 219, 246–7 and Keynes, J.M. debate 191–6 Tonak, E.A. 258–9
Toulmin, S. 94
transactions 126–7, 141
transformation function 101 transformational growth (TG) framework 38, 40, 123, 165 economic growth and historical change 431 and institutional development 122–3 mass production 452–3
structural changes 279
uncertainty and ‘animal spirits’ 429–30
volatility 285
trend and cycle in time-series analysis 282–3 see also methodological triangle-circle (MTC) diagram true choices 29
true data see counterfactual true relationships 345–6 true values 55, 272, 469–70, 476 true variables 54–5, 56 truth of reason 360–61 truth-telling 124
Udry, Ch. 393–4
Ullmo, J. 154, 164, 169
uncertainty 344–6, 475
epistemic (Kalman) 313
Hollis, M. and Nell, E.J. 56–7
Keynes–Tinbergen debate 193
Keynesian 334, 484, 487
Los, C.A. approach 313, 316, 317
see also Haavelmo: probability, uncertainty, specification and stochasticism; open models: lawlike relations and uncertainty underdetermination 293
unemployment 447–8
NAIRU (non-accelerating inflation rate of unemployment) 406–407, 409
see also under open models: lawlike relations and uncertainty uniform rate of profits 136 uniform wage rates 136 uniformity principle (Mill) 63 universal statements 16–17, 64 universals 86, 106–107
sortal 102–103
stuff (mass terms) 102–106 unobservable parameters 327 unpredictability 293, 317, 320
unreliability of data 276 unreliable relationships 486 see also volatile relationships utility 24, 80–81, 125, 131 diminishing marginal 81–2, 83–4, 94, 136 V relations (value) 125, 175, 176, 183, 240, 241
empiricism 472
lawlike relationships and scientific variables 138, 423
methodological triangle-circle (MTC) diagram 394
ownership and value 132, 133
uncertainty and ‘animal spirits’ 423 validation (methodology) 3, 62–3 Rational econometric man

value 128–9
actual 55
basic or reproductive 128 non-basic 128–9
and ownership 128
Robinson Crusoe 133
and space 129–30
ture 55, 272, 469–70, 476
variables 115
see also V relations (value)
variables
true 54–5, 56
see also bearers of variables;
variables, laws and induction variables, laws and induction: laws of nature 79–110
particulars, presuppositions and induction in natural science 96–107, 109
identification 97, 104, 107
individuating attributes 99, 101–102
material bodies 97–9, 101–104, 107
primary properties 105–106
re-identification 97–8, 100–102, 104, 107
sortal universals 102–103 space–time framework (spatiotemporal relationships) 97–107
specific value 97
stuff universals (mass terms) 102–106
universals 106–107
scientific laws 80–85
consumer behaviour laws 80–83
predicate calculus 83–5
scientific variables 85–94 bearer of the variable 88–9 bearer–variable relation 88, 94–5 characterizing terms 86–8, 90–91
determinate/determinable relation 91 variable-value of variable relation 90–92
variables, laws and induction: scientific variables and laws in economics 111–50
active mind 123
adaptation of the argument 111–12

capital 126
claim that scientific laws must exist 114 economic explanation and normal working of the system 139–40
economy and the market 125
evolution 140–41
existence of scientific laws and resolution of reformulated problem of induction 135 induction problem resolution 134 institutions and what exists 119–21
lawlike relationships 136–8 performance, conditions of: truth-telling 124
Plato on socio-economic system formation 146–9
pointing: Cartesian move 123–4
probability 116–18
production and reproduction of a surplus 118–19
reproducing institutions and supply and demand 121–2 reproduction and institutions: socio-economic system 115–16 reproduction relations: ownership
and value 126–33
necessity, argument for 132–3 ownership and endowment 130–32
transactions 126–7
value 128–9
value and ownership 128 value and space 129–30
Robinson Crusoe 133–4
social order: implications 112–14 socio-economic system: aggregate supply and demand laws 135 transformational growth (TG) and institutional development 122–3 variance 298, 332
variations (mutations) 140–41
vector autoregression (VAR) 108, 485
empiricism 465
Malinvaud, E. 222
Sims, C. critique of standard econometric practice 210–14
textbook econometric methodology 37
time-series analysis 281
Index

velocity 416–17
  and acceleration 104
  of circulation 418
Vercelli, A. 200–202
Verdoorn–Kaldor relationship between productivity growth, output growth and real wage 452 Verdoorn’s Law 137
verification principle 5 vernacular knowledge 405, 420 Verstehen 25, 377
Verwoerd, H. 142
Victorian equilibrium 137, 412, 441–2 Villaverde, F. 189
vindication, pragmatic 65–6 virtuous circle 356–7
vision 11, 144–5
  absence of 277–9
Vives, J.L. 160 volatile relationships 273–4, 284–6, 345–6
  empiricism 467
  induction 134
  inherent 277
  lawlike relationships and uncertainty 401, 476–7 real/nominal distinction 474–5
  uncertainty and ‘animal spirits’ 421–2, 431
Volle (quoted in Mouchot) 279
Volmer, G. 150
Volmer triangle of ontology, epistemology and methodology 152–3, 170–71, 172
von Mises, R. 321
wage
  -accumulation curve 451 costs 464
  equation 409
  –labour relationship 126
  –price spiral 407–408, 409–10, 413–14, 439, 487
  -rate growth of demand relationship 451 rates 464
Wald, A. 246
Watson, J.D. 32
Wittgenstein, L. 107
Wold, H. 190
Wolff, E. 258–9, 288
Wulwick, N. 406
X Factor hypothesis (Allais) 342
Yasar, Y. 478
zero restrictions 261
Ziliak, S.T. 76–7
Zucker, L. 393