Index

accounting controls 98–112 creating boundaries 106–10 actor networks and 108–10 ‘entrepreneurial gap’ and 106–8 enabling conversations (multi-directional) 104–6 enabling conversations (top-down) 102–4 ‘diagnostic’ use 102–3
  ‘interactive’ use 103–4 enabling innovation 102, 109 conformity and innovation outcomes 98 ostensive (stable) approach 100, 102–4, 106–8, 110–11 performative (variable) approach 100, 104–6, 108–10, 111 profit planning control system 104 study focus and sources 98–9 worldview assumptions of 99–100 adoption, see initiation and implementation of innovation in US public services Advanced Institute of Management Research (UK) 203 aerospace industry 45
  Amabile, T.M. 170
  architects 225–7, 229
  Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB) 203–6 Australia, management education 190, 195–9 authenticity 70–71, 75, 369 automotive industry 17–18, 46–7

Babbage, Charles 117–18
Bayer Group, see practice transformation through storytelling Barkinshaw, J. 3, 192–3 bureaucracy as technical-rational system 247 business schools, see management education car industry 17–18, 46–7 clustering 42, 45–6

codes of conduct, see innovating professionalism in a services firm CommCorp, see innovating professionalism in a services firm communications technology 37, 40, 49, 54, 103, 122, 134 communities of practice 256–72 consulting firms, commodification and 266–7 control and openness 256–7 commodification and voluntary participation 269 organizational and managerial controls 268–9 definition/conceptualization 256 as an organizational innovation 257–8 as species of innovation 271–2 genealogy of 259

semantic slide 270–71
organizational/management studies and 258 commodification (economic value) 264–6 commodification (membership) 266 institutionalization 263–4, 265 perspectives adapting concept 261–3, 270–72 situated innovation (repairers) 261 situated learning (apprentices) 259–61 organizational knowledge sharing and creation 258 see also knowledge exchange/flow Community Innovation Survey measurements 19–33 competitive advantage, see employee participation; management innovation and product/process
innovation
computer companies 103
construction sector 45
creative thinking 132–3, 165
divergent thinking 166
Five Factor Model of Personality
171–4
integrative and design thinking 204, 207–10
psychoticism and schizotypy 175–6 see also idea processes; personality crisis management, see surprise (surprising organization) crowdsourcing 40
Cutler Review (Australia) 195–6
design activity 43
design thinking 208–10
‘disruptive’ innovation 36 division of labour and innovation 115–35
directional relationship combinatorial activity 133–4 economic thought on 116–19 inverted ‘U’ shape 115
division of labour as antecedent 116–17, 131–4
incremental innovation 120–21, 131–2
radical innovation 120–21, 132–4 division of labour classification economic perspective 122 employee perspective 121
the organization perspective 121–2 dysfunctional effects 118–19 innovation as antecedent 117, 122–8 incidental objectives 129–31 intended organizational objectives 123–8
innovation classification 119–21 challenges to the organization 120–21
location in the organization 120
overview 134–5
see also management innovation;
self-management teams
divergent thinking 166
domain-specific knowledge 169 economic growth, see management innovation and product/process
innovation
economics, see division of labour and
innovation
education, see management education electronics industry 133–4 emotion 178–9, 222, 228–30 emotional intelligence (EI) 179–80 employee innovation 163–82 behaviors 163–5
personal initiative 176–7
self-efficacy 177–8
voice behavior 178
divergent thinking 166
emotions and 178–9
external factors 164
intelligence and 165–9
cognitive abilities and 167–8
emotional intelligence 179–80
innovation and genius 167
innovation as a subset 166
observer judgments and 168 research developments 168–9 knowledge/expertise 169 levels of analysis classifications 163 employee-level resources 164 future research considerations 180–82
motivation, intrinsic and extrinsic 169–71
organizational management of 180–82
personality 171–6
assertiveness and sociability 172, 173–4, 181
conscientiousness 173
conservatism 177
dependability and achievement striving 173
extraversion 172–3, 175
Five Factor Model of Personality
171–4
genetic traits 175
introversion 173
neuroticism 174, 175, 176, 179
proactivity 177, 178
psychoticism 174–5
schizotypy 176
sel-f efficacy 177–8
Index 379

Three Factor Model (Eysenck) 175–6 work environment 173, 177 see also management innovation, self-managing teams; employee participation employee participation 54–91 accounting controls and, see accounting controls actor-based overview 88–9
authenticity 70–71, 75
‘constructing mystery’ methodology 64 ‘edging’ and ‘retreating’ dynamic 67, 72–9 edging: meaning, survival and insights 72–5 retreating 75–7
engagement, definitions/approaches 58–61 burnout and ‘job resources–job demands’ model 60–61 deconstruction of 61
dynamic view 59–60
engagement, performance effects 61–2 engagement audit 63 ‘high engagement’, research into 64–7 experience characteristics 69–71 grounded model of 67 outcomes (engagement/innovativeness) 67–9 positive interactions 69 ‘high involvement innovation’ 41–2 as organizational capability 84–8 dynamic perspective to routines 90–91 engagement scenarios 85–7
revolution through ‘orchestrated action’ 87 physical, social and personal spaces 77–84 important individuals 81 meaning/sense of purpose 83 personal space/autonomy 81–3 physical/work environment 78–9 serendipitous element 81 socio-emotional space 79–80 supportive interactions 80–81 robotic corporations and aspirational individual 56–7 studies on, and insights into current state of 55–6, 62–4 empowerment literature 82 see also employee innovation engineering sector, Sweden 65 entrepreneurial gap 107–8 entrepreneurship 36, 41–2, 204 ethics/ethical behaviour 202–3, 209, 330–33, 340–43 experience-based design (EBD) 47 expertise 169
extrinsic motivators 170
Eysenck, H.J. 175–6

Five Factor Model of Personality (FFM) 171–4 food industries 45
‘geneplore model’ 167–8 generative thinking 167–8 Glaser, B.J. 64
globalization 373
Goldcorp 40
Google and Microsoft 134

Hay Group report on employee participation 56 health care services 43, 47–8, 305 hierarchy 325
human capital, see employee innovation; employee participation hydrocarbon exploration 224, 225, 226 idea (entrepreneurs) companies 107 idea processes 219–32
drawing/imaging 227–8
‘idea’ as noun versus form of being 220–21 evolutionary concepts example 233 memories 227
nebulous nature of 219–20 notions of 231
participating in the idea of the Other 231–2 participation and connection 225–30 examples of 225–6
Index

metaphysical terms 229–30 output continuum 226–7
sense of wonder 228–30
practical bearings 224
reification, isolation, dogma (distancing) 221–5
imagination parallel 223–4 philosophy and 233
see also creative thinking; knowledge work
illustrative messaging 367–74 imagination 223–4, 307 implementation 38, 177, 204; see also initiation and implementation of innovation in US public services
improvisation 240–48, 309
abduction processes 251–2
action and innovation 243
consciousness and 242
‘good improvisation’ 250–51
positive and negative 250–52 practice (tools) 244–5
technical rationality alignment 246–7
technical rationality as restrictive intention 245
workability (perception and flexibility) 247–8
spontaneity 241–4
understandings of 240–41
incremental innovation 120–21, 131–2 industry forum (IF) 46
information and communication technology (ICT) 37, 40, 49, 54, 103, 122, 134
initiation and implementation of
innovation in US public services 275–92
attributes 278–9, 282–3, 288–9 conformity and compliance 288 external conditions (fiscal) 278 business organization adoption 288 implementation, effect of its extent 278–9, 289
initiation, its effect on adoption 278
innovation complexity 283 indicators from data 279–81 its effect on adoption 279–81 management innovation 290–91
adoption of 276–8
definition used 275
outsourcing and transaction costs 277, 280, 282
asset specificity and service measurability 280, 287, 289–90 study implications for outsourcing 287–91
attributes of initiation and implementation 288–9
innovation complexity 289–90
types of managerial innovation 290–91
study limitations and contributions 291–2
study measures on outsourcing 282–5
analysis 285
attributes of initiation and
implementation 282–3
control variables 283–4
innovation complexity 283
outsourcing 282
study model 276
data sources 281–2
study results on outsourcing 285–7 see also implementation innovating professionalism in a services firm 338–60
codes of conduct 340, 341–2 altruistic service 341
autonomy and 341, 342, 352 distancing from norms 344–5 website statements 344
Gesticulate intranet narratives 345
Busy-busy-busy 347–8, 353, 354
‘No More Heroes’ 349–50
‘Sleep Deprivation and Monster Communication’ 345–7, 354 as narrative (sense-making through story-telling) 339, 342–3, 350–56
entangling of contexts 351–3 negotiation of norms 351, 353–5 reclaiming power 351, 355–6
overview 358–60
PFSs, definitions 340
practice 343–50
ambiguity 343, 353, 356–7
constant change 344, 357 ‘rightness’ 355–6
rules as infinite 357
as real-time process 338–9 study data 342–3
summary of empirical categories 351 study positioning 341
innovation, definitions and models 1–2 individual level 55, 165, 170 organizational and managerial 2–3, 13, 16, 38–9, 192–3 innovation adoption, see initiation and implementation of innovation in US public services innovation and intelligence 165–9 innovation and psychopathology 174–5 innovation capability, see network
innovation
innovation complexity 279–81
innovation in a culture of persecution 319–36 the case of Łódź ghetto (historical outline) 323–30 Hannah Arendt’s analysis 331–2 Primo Levi’s analysis 330–31 moral ambiguity 330–31, 333 responsibility 322–3, 331–2
Rumkowski, Haim
as manager example 333–6
‘Give me your children’ speech 327–9, 335
narrative representation 319–21
subjective view 322
memesis 334–6
integrative thinking 204, 207–8, 209 intelligence 165–9
cognitive abilities and 167–8
emotional intelligence 179–80
innovation and genius 167
innovation as a subset 166
observer judgments and 168 research developments on 168–9 intrinsic motivation 170
Johnson, Mark 221–2, 226, 230
Jorgensen, B. 104–6, 108–10
Jump Associates 207
Khan, W.A. 59–60, 62, 70, 75 knowledge exchange/flow 40–41, 142, 152–4, 158; see also communities of practice knowledge work 236–53
as improvisation 240–44
abduction processes 251–2
action and innovation 243
consciousness and 242
‘good improvisation’ 250–51
positive and negative 250–52
spontaneity 241–4
understandings of improvisation 240–41 improvisatory practice (tools) 244–8 technical rationality alignment 246–7 technical rationality as restrictive intention 245 workability (perception and flexibility) 247–8 model-following behaviour 245–6 technical rational dominance and non-workability 248–9 technical rationality as paradigmatic 237–9 process thinking and innovation 239–40
understandings of 237
as emergent phenomenon 239–40 improspection, prospection, retrospection and abstraspection 241 see also idea processes; management innovation and process/product innovation knowledge-based organizations, see innovating professionalism in a services firm; knowledge work Koestler, A. 132–3
language 224, 245, 303, 357 Lave, J. 259–60
learning from surprises 306–11
Łódź ghetto, see innovation in a culture of persecution management innovation, self-managing teams 138–60 case study methodology and data collection 143, 145–6
findings 148–52
overview 156–60
case study setting
company background 143–4 dynamics of product market 147–8 influences, external/internal 149 maintenance team 145, 153–4 operation expert 145
self-managing process operators 144–5 technologists 154
internal change agents 138 case study findings 156–60 leadership, coexisting and complementary 141–2, 151–2 transactional leadership 141, 148–50, 158
transformational leadership 141–2, 150–51, 157–8 practices, processes and structures 139–40 self-managing teams 139–41 creativity and accuracy 158 knowledge exchange 142, 152–4, 158 trust 142–3, 154–6, 157, 159 see also division of labour and innovation; employee innovation; practice
transformation through storytelling management innovation and product/process innovation 13–34 academic research, implications of, to 30–31 Community Innovation Survey measurements 19–23
implications of 30–33
‘innovation inhibitors’ variable 22 ‘internal R&D’ variable 22–3
management innovation 21
‘market scope’ variable 21–2 post hoc analysis 28–30
process innovation 20, 28
product innovation 19–20, 26–7 results 23–8
definition and studies on 13–14 implementation of 38
link between the two innovation processes 16–17
management innovation as antecedent 29–30
new and adopted innovation 16–20, 26–8
significance of distinction 14–15
new to the world innovations 17–18 private rents and public gains 17–18 technological innovation (research questions) 15–16
’synchronous innovation’ 16
see also knowledge work; knowledge/exchange flow
management education 189–213
Bradley Review (Australia) 198 business school agenda 194–5 competencies for business
innovation 196, 197
experiential methods 210–11
integrative and design thinking 204, 207–10
needs to be met (MBA programmes) 201
policy direction 198–9
skill development 199–201 business school role 195 business school study models 201–6 critiques of 201–2
financial versus moral/ethical focus 202–3
innovation and intellectual capital (AACSB) 204–5
innovation and learning (AACSB) 203–4
innovation and outreach (AACSB) 205–6
potential forms 203
core innovation skills 194 external organizations and 205–6 facilitator/enabler role 195
overview 212–13
practice-based learning 210–11 relative to management and organizational innovation 192–5
social capital 193–4
Index 383

relative to other research 189–90, 212 role of, in promoting innovation 191 Transforming Australia’s Higher Education System 198 management in extremis, see innovation in a culture of persecution management innovation process 193 ‘Management Innovation’ (Birkinshaw et al) 3, 192–3
Management Matters report 199–200 management practices 139–40 management processes 139–40 management structure 139–40 managerial innovation, see initiation and implementation of innovation in US public services Marx, Karl 118
Masters and MBA programmes 210–11 meaning and understanding 221–2, 242
Messner, M. 104–6, 108–10
Microsoft and Google 134 narrative modes, see innovating professionalism in a services firm; innovation in a culture of persecution; practice transformation through storytelling; surprise (surprising organizations) network innovation 36–52, 192 innovation in changing context 36–7 mental models 38–9
learning networks 44–8
neuroscience and 49–50
open effective innovation, effects 39–43 ‘collective efficiency’ (clustering) 42
engagement (internal entrepreneurship) 41–2 search (knowledge flow) 40–41
stakeholder participation 42–3
management of 48–50
model in practice 43–4
health care example 47–8 social capital innovation and 193–4 new product development (NPD) 101, 104–5, 109
new to the world innovations 17–18
open effective innovation (OEI) 39–50 effects 39–43
‘collective efficiency’ (clustering) 42
engagement (internal entrepreneurship) 41–2
search (knowledge flow) 40–41
stakeholder participation 42–3
management of 48–50
model in practice 43–4
health care example 47–8
Open Forum for the Society of Knowledge Economics 200 openness 172, 256
The Opposable Mind (Martin) 209 organization complexity 363 organization integration 366 organizational and management innovation, definitions 2–3, 13, 16, 192–3 organizational engagement capability 84–8 dynamic perspective to routines 90–91
engagement scenarios 85–7
multi-level analysis considered 180–82 ‘revolution’ through ‘orchestrated action’ 87 training for, see management education organizational form, see communities of practice; division of labour and innovation organizational innovation, see innovating professionalism in a services firm; organizational engagement capability; surprise (surprising organization) ‘Organizational learning and communities-of-practice’ (Brown and Duguid)
Index

orientation 38
Orr, Julian 261
outsourcing, see initiation and implementation of innovation in US public services perception 321

peripheral vision approach 308–9
personal initiative 176–8
personality 171–6
  assertiveness and sociability 172, 173–4, 181
  conscientiousness 173
  conservatism 177
  dependability and achievement striving 173
  extraversion 172–3, 175
Five Factor Model of Personality 171–4
  genetic traits 175
  introversion 173
  neuroticism 174, 175, 176, 179
  proactivity 177, 178
  psychoticism 174–5
  schizotypy 176
  self-efficacy 177–8
Three Factor Model (Eysenck’s) 175–6 see also creative thinking pharmaceuticals sector 138, 143–60 philosophy 229–30, 233

‘phronesis’ and ‘sophia’, see knowledge work

Powering Ideas (Australian Government White Paper) 196
practice-based learning 117, 131, 210–11
practices, processes and structures 139–40 practice transformation through storytelling 363–75 Bayer Group 364–5
  economic crisis (2009) and 370–71, 373 business strategy 368–9 communication method (storytelling) 366–7 change and 369–70
importance of, for the future 375

‘Crisis – Risk and Challenge’ 372
‘Growing Together’ 373–4
‘One Business – One Team’ 367–8, 369
‘Wind of Change’ 371
organization integration 366 recognition of history 365–6 private rents 17–18
process thinking 239–40 product and process innovation, see management innovation and product/process innovation professionalism, see innovating professionalism in a services firm Project SAPPFO 38
psychological perspectives, see employee innovation; surprise (surprising organization) public gains 17–18
public services 43, 47–8, 305
radical innovation 120–21, 132–4
Rae, John 117
recombinant innovation 40 research and development (R&D) 119 risk, see surprise (surprising organization) routines 90–91
Royal DSM study 138, 143–60
Rumkowski, Haim 319–31
  ‘Give me your children’ speech 327–9
  Abraham and Isaac parallel 335
  as manager example 333–6
  narrative representation 319–21
  running of the Łódź ghetto 323–30
Ruskin, John 118

Schön, Donald 238–9, 245
Schumpeter, Joseph 119
self-managing teams, see management innovation, self-managing teams Simons, R. 99, 101–4, 106–8
Situated Learning: Legitimate Peripheral Participation (Lave and Wenger) 259–60
Smith, Adam 116–17, 118, 131, 133
Snyder, W.M. 256–7
social capital 193–4
Society of Knowledge Economics 200

Tyrone S. Pitsis, Ace Simpson and Erlend Dehlin - 9781781005873
Downloaded from Elgar Online at 02/18/2019 03:11:20AM via free access Index 385

spontaneity 241
story-telling, see practice transformation through story-telling stress and retreat 75–7 students and graduates 66 supply chains 41–2, 45
surprise (surprising organization) 295–312 as discursive (sensemaking) 303–6 affecting response to 305–6 flight mode 304–5
  flight mode 304, 305
  investigation mode 303–4
  language/articulation 303 normalization mode 304, 305 characteristics and effects 299–302 planned and emergent 231 quality 230–31
  sensebreaking forces 299–30, 301–2 discovery 297, 310
learning from fighting 306–7 learning from playing with 307–10 and benefits from 310–11
  improvisation 309
  peripheral vision (focus) 308–9 serendipity (discovery) 310 wild card approach 307–8 origins and effects 296–9 control/predictive response 298 discoveries 297
  precipitation 298
  response to deviations 298 risk and contingency 296–7, 297 preparedness for 310–12
‘synchronous innovation’ 16

Talking about Machines: An Ethnography of a Modern Job (Orr) 261
technical rationality and improvisation, see knowledge work technological innovation, see management innovation and product/process innovation theology 229–30
training, see management education transactional leadership 141, 148–50, 158 transformation of practices, see practices, transformation through story-telling transformational leadership 141–2, 150–51, 157–8, 170
trust 142–3, 154–6, 157, 159
UKIS 19–23, 29
uncertainty, see surprise (surprising organization)
United States of America management schools 210–11 public services, see initiation and implementation of innovation in US public services University of Central England 210
University of Michigan 210
Wenger, E. 256–7, 259–60
  wild card approach 307–8 wonder, sense of 228–30 world class manufacturing (WCM) 46–7