Index

Allmendinger, P. 97
America see United States Appalachia 45, 226–7, 230, 234–5, 236, 237
Athens 24–7
Australia
   large cities, growth in 104
   Multifunction Polis in Adelaide 34 Austria
   cross-border metropolitan
governance 59–61, 64
cross-border regional cooperation 141–2
   EU, and 95

Baltic Sea Region
   Baltic Sea region cities 75
   EU, and 96
Bangladesh infrastructure investment 50 Barnier, Michael 94
Barroso Commission 94
Barroso, José Manuel 96
Baumol, W.J. 264
Beijing see under China Being Digital (Negroponte) 31
Belgium
   concentration of economic activity 43 spatial concentration 44
cross-border metropolitan governance 59–61, 65, 69
GDP 43
Regional Development Agency 340 Benthamite utilitarianism/Jeremy Bentham 230, 231, 236
Berlin see under Germany
Berners-Lee, Tim 31
Bialasiewicz, L. 97
biotech industry see constructing regional entrepreneurial advantage

Birmingham see under United Kingdom
Bondi, Sir Hermann 257
Boston see under United States
Botswana GDP 43
Boudeville, Jacques 264
Boyer, Herbert 201
Brazil distance and density as factors 52
   GDP 43
   incentives 51
   income distribution 241 promotion of spatial equity impairing income equity 252
   large cities, growth in 104
   regional development strategy 252
   regional inequalities 108, 252
territorial specific development 45 Cairncross, Frances 30, 37 Canada 267
   cross-border metropolitan
governance 59–61, 65, 66–7
Castells, Manuel 31, 32
Chatterton, P. 150
Chicago see under United States
Chile, incentives in 52
China
   Beijing 258, 321
   business regulation, costs of 268 cities, growth in 104 distance as a factor 52 growth 104, 258, 321
   Hong Kong 176, 240, 258
   incentives 51, 70
   PYSR, cross-border cooperation in 57, 70–76
   regional inequalities 108 Shanghai 240, 258, 321
   trade with Japan 176
cities and city regions
   border cities 75
coastal cities Baltic Sea region cities 75 climate change 75
PYSR and cooperation 10–12, 72–4 development clustering in 103 development of city-regions 312–15 EU and Europe combating concentration by polycentric systems of cities 93 performance of European cities and city regions 22–4, 107 exploiting regional complementarities 294–5 globalization
creating increased competition 74–5, 104, 179 global city regions and agglomerations 308–9 global competitiveness among cities 250–51, 271 implications for location of economic activity 37–9, 41, 283 importance of larger spatial units and mega-cities 5–6, 8, 16, 148, 179, 262, 321–8 cities as appropriate level of spatial intervention in the UK 149, 261–3 scheme for Economic regions in Korea see under Korea innovation
development of creative regions 312–13 generation of see under global view of regions and regional policy knowledge economy, and 37–9 large cities outperforming middle size cities and rural areas 104 metropolitan regions/economies 85, 133 EU 133, 137
France 322, 347, 349–50
Germany see under Germany
Japan 161–7, 178, 322, 347
Korea 321–8
positive spillovers to regions around metropolitan areas 109 power of 148–9
strengthening for growth and innovation see under Germany proactive regional policies, whether undermined by 258, 271 regional competition, and 321 science cities 33
sources of growth and tendency towards agglomeration 103–8 efficiency and convergence 108–10 sustainable urban areas in Japan 185, 186 see also environment urbanization leading to higher incomes 41 Cities in Civilization (Hall) 24 climate change and global warming 36, 177 PYSR, and 75–6
regional development policies, and 9, 190, 316–17 renewable energy sources, and 31
UK, and 149
Clinton, Bill 236 clusters and cluster policy 295–8 cluster approach of OECD 295 development clustering in cities and city regions 103 genesis of industrial clusters defined by social relationships 195 temporary clusters 310–11 universities, and 137, 150, 308, 311 virtual innovation clusters 308, 311
Cohen, Stanley 201 cohesion, coherence, cooperation and EU regional policy 83–101, 102–23 aim of regional policy to promote cohesion 83, 95, 112 associations of concept of cohesion 83–4 challenges faced by cohesion policy 111–12 coherence imperative of more coherence of EU policies 96 Index

meaning 84
through cooperation 84–5
EU, evolution of see under Europe and the European Union (EU) European institutions and cohesion 88–90, 97, 116, 120
institution-building 116, 120 governance and management of cohesion policy 120–21 increase in funds supporting cohesion objectives 102–3 interventions 111–18
addressing unevenness and underdevelopment 111–12 aims of intervention 114 appropriate intervention 113–17 defining types of interventions 120 monitoring and evaluation 120–21 risks of intervention 113 territorially nuanced cohesion policy 117–19, 120 key policy of cohesion to reduce disparities 102 leading and lagging regions 110–11
objectives of cohesion 112 rationales of balanced development and good territorial governance 86 review of cohesion 95–6 soft spaces 97–8
sources of growth and tendency towards agglomeration 103–8
factors driving trends 104–5 mechanisms of geographical processes 105–7 place positions relative to world technology frontier 106–7 sources of underdevelopment of capacities 111 sovereignty and cohesion 92, 96–7 spatial planning 85, 87–97 CEMAT 89–91
cohesion policy, and 90–101
Council of Europe and human rights 88–9, 90 ESDP 89, 91–4
European Commission, and 91–2
joint Member State responsibility 92 territorial cohesion coordinating all sector policies through 96 European Commission, and 94–6
as goal of the EU 95, 125
meaning 84
uncertainty concerning 95–6 territoriality aspirational territoriality 83, 85, 96 hard territoriality 85, 91–2, 96–7 whether conflict between efficiency and convergence 108–10
constructing regional entrepreneurial advantage 193–222 community involvement in emerging technology, advantages of 193–4 conversational coordination 211–14
reducing knowledge gap between scientist and citizen 212 role of biosafety officers 211–13, 217 debating genetic engineering 201–4, 217 approach of other areas near Cambridge 214–16 biotech industry and risk concerns 201–2 Cambridge and Berkeley’s BioSafety Ordinances 202–4, 217 regulation, local regulation and self-governance proposals 201–2 differences between Berkeley and Cambridge conversational coordination 211–14
timing and town-gown traditions 209–11 entrepreneurial responses 204–9 timing and town-gown traditions 209–11
local regulation of local industry, advantages of 193–4 participatory democracy, regulation and constructed advantage 195–200 achieving consensus through shared conversational space 196–7, 218–19 advantages of public discourse 195, 218 conversational approach to technology regulation 196–7, 199–200
genesis of industrial clusters defined by social relationships 195
interventionist regulation facilitating innovation 197–200, 204 regulation affecting entrepreneurship 199–200, 204–9 regulation and economic activity 197–200, 216 regulation benefits to local industry 217 construction of jurisdictional advantage, and 216–19
conversational approach to technology regulation 196–7, 199–200
economic activity, and 197–200, 216
entrepreneurship, affecting 199–200, 204–9
interventionist regulation facilitating innovation 197–200, 204
local regulation of local industry, advantages of 193–4
participatory democracy, regulation and constructed advantage 195–200
regulation, local regulation and self-governance proposals 201–2 research design 200 convergence artistic and technological creativity 30–31 club convergence 103, 107–8
economic concentration, and 44–6, 102–4
and convergence of living standards 43–6 integration promoting international convergence 104 regional convergence and spatially targeted incentives 45–6 whether conflict between efficiency and convergence 108–10 Council of Europe 88–9, 92 Council of Ministers 91 cross-border cooperation, barriers and breakthrough strategies for 57–78, benefits of cross-border cooperation and integration 57–8 difficulties 76–7 cross-border governance cross-border metropolitan governance 63–70 factors affecting 59–61 theories of cross-border integration 62–3
cross-border metropolitan governance 63–70 catch all institutions 64, 65, 67–70 joint implementation of single projects 64 mono-thematic commissions 64–5, 66, 67 multiple bodies (Babushka principle) 64, 65, 67, 68–9 factors affecting cross-border governance 58–61 culture of cooperation 58 distribution of competencies 59 financial aspects 58–9 legal aspects 58
objective of international cross-border governance 57 ocean areas, use and conservation of 190–91 overview of current practices 57–61 PYSR, cross-border cooperation in 57, 70–76
environmental issues 75–6
role of central government 74–5
role of cities 72–3
transborder governance 73–4
supraregional partnerships 130–32, 138–44
Czech Republic cross-border metropolitan governance 64
cross-border regional cooperation 141–2
Index

Dall’Erba, S. 48
Davoudi, S. 97
De Gaulle, Charles 86–8 De la Fuente, A. 47–8
decentralization
cross-border cooperation, and 57
in peripheral areas 41
increasing demand for regional governance 333 regional policy in Korea see under Korea Delors, Jacques 88–90
Denmark 313
cross-border metropolitan governance 59–61, 65, 68–70
cross-border regional cooperation 140
EU, and 88
denton, Nancy 233
Detroit see under United States
Didelon, C. 97
Drevet, J-F. 88
Dubai 280
Dublin see under Ireland

East Asia 176, 178
cultural exchanges and human resources 184 economic growth 281–2
global competitiveness 258 Japanese exchange and cooperation with 182–3 national land infrastructure for exchange and linkages 185 new national land vision in Japan, and 179, 182 economic concentration convergence, and 44–6, 102–4 infrastructure investment, and 50–55 living standards, converging with 43–6 converging with development 44
delinking geographies of production and basic living standards 46 as a problem 45–6
economic growth in East Asia, and 176, 178
Korea see under Korea

urbanization 37–9, 41
see also cities and city regions economic integration 103 effects of 104
PYSR, cross-border cooperation in 57, 70–76 policy priorities 42, 52–3 incentives see incentives and interventions infrastructure see infrastructure institutions see institutions reconciling unbalanced growth and inclusive development 41 Economic Regions see under Korea Egypt, territorial specific development in 45 End of the Nation State, The (Ohmae) 321 energy regulations, and 198 renewable 31
enterprise zones 235–6
environment
environmental concerns 177 genetic engineering 201–4, 217 new technologies, and 193–4, 196 regulations addressing 197–8, 201 Korea, and 350
PYSR, and 75
RDAs, and 150
recycling and pollution 190 sustainable development 5, 18, 146, 311–12, 316–17, 351 Japan see under Japan
see also climate change and global warming; energy equality see identity and equality in planning; inequity and regional development policies Europe and the European Union (EU) 21 agglomeration, importance of 109 cohesion policy see cohesion, coherence, cooperation and EU regional policy cooperation agreements 58
cross-border cooperation 5 catch all institutions, governance by 64, 65 ‘European model of society’ 83–4 Reshaping regional policy

evolution of the EU 86 boom era 90–94
crisis 94–5
doldrums era 87–90
launch era 86–7
GDP 48, 102
high-speed rail 39
human rights 88
industrialization policies 86
institutions
cohesion, and 88, 90, 97, 116, 120 institution-building 116, 120 INTERREG 59, 64, 68–9, 94
large cities, growth in 104
living standards 299
metropolitan regions 133, 137 ‘metropolitaness’ 133 nature of the EU 85 integration promoting international convergence 104 overconcentration 93
PHARE 64
place positions relative to technology–quality ladder hierarchy 107–8 regional convergence and spatially targeted incentives 45–6 regional economic performance 22–4 International Hubs 22–3 Regional Poles 23–4
Specialized Poles 23 regional inequalities and disparities 102–4, 108–9
leading and lagging regions 110–11
regional policy see cohesion, coherence, cooperation and EU
regional policy
social inclusion and Directives 263 soft area 97–8
Structural Funds 48
cohesion policy, and 83, 90–92, 102–3
European Regional Development Fund (ERDF) 47–8, 83, 351 reform 102
trade with Japan 176
Union of the Baltic Cities, EU and 75 European Coal and Steel Community (ECSC) 86
European Commission interventions, monitoring 120–21 launch of the EU 87
metropolitan regions 133
regional policy, cohesion and spatial planning 88, 89–96
report of performance of European cities and city regions 22–4 European Convention of Human Rights 88
European Council 5
European Economic Area 97
European Investment Bank 86 European Parliament 87, 89–90
European Regional Development Fund (ERDF) 47–8, 83, 351
European Spatial Development Perspective (ESPD) 89, 91–4, 139 European Spatial Planning Observation Network (ESPON) 94 financial crisis see global financial crisis
Finland 313
fiscal policy and regional development in Korea see under Korea Flemming, Sir Gilbert 258
Florence see under Italy Florida, Richard 30, 312
France 24, 313, 316
cross-border metropolitan
governance 59–61, 65, 68
DATAR and DIACT 349–51
EU, and 87–8, 95
GDP 44
history 124
decentralization movement 124–5
income distribution 241
infrastructure investment 51
living standards 44, 94
local government 151, 159 metropolitan economies 322, 347, 349–50
Paris 24–7, 34, 36, 91, 104, 195 planning and spatial planning 124–5 balanced development 91 competitiveness 125
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Concepts of spatial planning</th>
<th>GDP 44, 130</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>policy 125</td>
<td>income distribution 241</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>education 125–6</td>
<td>living standards 44</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>global financial crisis, and 126–8</td>
<td>metropolitan regions 130, 133–8, 322</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>innovation strategies 126</td>
<td>analytical results 135–6, 137</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>larger spatial units for regional planning and policy 5</td>
<td>focus on spatial planning 133</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>local government reform 126</td>
<td>metropolitan function index ‘metropolitaness’ 133, 135–6, 137, 139</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>overconcentration 87, 93</td>
<td>nature of metropolitan regions 133–4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>planification 87</td>
<td>policy issues 137–8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>public-private investment projects 126–7</td>
<td>primary centres for innovation and growth 133</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>reducing spatial disparities 49–50</td>
<td>Munich 34, 36</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>territorial cohesion 125</td>
<td>spatial planning 92</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>policies for regional competitiveness 124–8</td>
<td>constitution requiring spatial income equity 129–30</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>policy of the empty chair 87–8</td>
<td>federal level, and 138</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>regional development agency 349–51</td>
<td>guiding principles 130–32</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>technology park 33</td>
<td>informing the regions 138</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>telecommunications 38</td>
<td>metropolitan regions and metropolitan function index 130, 133–8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>universities 125–6</td>
<td>regional disparities still existing 129</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Galbraith, J.K. 248–9</td>
<td>supraregional partnerships 130–32, 138–42</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Gendebien, P.H. 89, 93</td>
<td>state-guided capitalism 27</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>genetic engineering see under constructing regional entrepreneurial advantage</td>
<td>strengthening metropolitan regions for growth and innovation 129–44</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Germany 313, 316</td>
<td>balancing policy 129–30</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Berlin 24–8, 34</td>
<td>concept of growth and innovation in Germany 129–32</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>cross-border metropolitan governance 59–61, 65, 68–9</td>
<td>metropolitan regions and metropolitan function index 130, 133–8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>cross-border regional cooperation 141–2</td>
<td>supraregional partnerships 130–32, 138–42</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>demonstration project of supraregional partnerships 130–32, 138–42</td>
<td>universities 36, 135, 137</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>experience from demonstration project 142–4</td>
<td>Gershon, Sir Peter 258</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>introducing new ideas to the regions 138</td>
<td>Gilbert, Walter 216</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>nature of initiatives 139–42</td>
<td>Glaser, Donald 206</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>objectives 139</td>
<td>Glasgow see under United Kingdom</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Eastern Germany</td>
<td>global financial crisis 4–5, 126, 317</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>investing in education and migration from East Germany 49, 55</td>
<td>effects 8, 280</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>spatial income equity 129, 254</td>
<td>global production networks 21–2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>environmental technologies and renewable energy 32</td>
<td>global industrialization 33</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>EU, and 92, 95</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
global view of regions and regional policy 21–40, 195 generation of innovation 24–32, 312–13 artistically creative city 24–7 convergence of artistic and technological creativity 30–31 creative-innovative city 28–30 environmental technologies 32 expansion of creative and cultural industries 30 explanations of ‘golden ages’ 24–6 next innovation wave and its geography 30–32 technologically innovative city 27–8, 280 global production networks 21–2 global industrialization 33 Korean debate 21–2 regional economic performance in Europe 22–4 implications for cities 37–9 promoting innovation: technopoles of the world 32–7 industrial complexes of high-technology firms 32–3 pointers to policy 34–7

science cities 33
technology parks 33
Technopolis programmes of regional development 33 global views see cross-border cooperation, barriers and breakthrough strategies for; global view of regions and regional policy; regional policy: what works/does not work global warming see climate change and global warming globalization
economic growth in East Asia, and 176, 178 effects 8, 104, 130 global commodity chains 310 global competitiveness in the regions 7, 317 global production networks 21–2
global industrialization 33
increasing demand for regional governance 333 megatrends of change 301
Goddard, J.B. 150
Gottman, Jean 85
governance
cross-border see under cross-border cooperation, barriers and breakthrough strategies for definition of governance 330
in Korea see regional governance system for mega-economic regions in Korea meaning of regional governance 332 nature of the regional governance system 330–33 rationale for regional governance 333–4
regional governance system 332–3 typology of governance 330–32 Graham, S. 97
greenbelt regulations 269–70
Hahn, Johannes 96
Hale, T. 248–9
Hall, Sir Peter 24, 32, 235–6 Hallstein, Walter 87
Hardman, Sir Henry 258
Harvey, David 226, 229, 232–3
Haughton, G. 97
Healey, P. 97
Heckscher-Olin models 103
Hong Kong see under China hooks, bell 234
Howe, Geoffrey 235
human capital cultural exchanges and human resources in East Asia 184 development 11–12, 341–2
by education 43, 46, 49, 72, 325 by healthcare investments 46, 49 drivers of competitiveness 24 human resource exchange 72 increasing human capital stock 47 in Japan 176
interregional human exchanges in Japan 187–9 investment in 48, 49
Index

labor mobility 46–7, 49, 111, 317 problem of low levels 111 transaction costs of transmitting knowledge 106 Hungary, cross-border metropolitan governance and 64
Husson, C. 87

identity and equality in planning 225–39 concern for spatial and racial inequality 226–9, 236–7 atomistic conception of human identity 229–31, 236
deconstructing prior conceptions of identity 229 misconceptions about underlying premises of identity construction 227–8 role of human identity 226 ghettoization 227, 230, 232 identity and equity in planning practice 229–38
Appalachia 226–7, 230, 234–5, 236, 237
individual identity and affirmative action 227, 228–31 postmodern identities and radical justice 227, 230, 233–4 spaces for enterprise 235–6 ‘the Other’: separate but equal philosophy 227, 230, 231–3, 237 inseparability of social justice and socially constructed identity 236–8
representing inequality 227–9 see also inequity and regional development policies incentives and interventions
cooporation, enhancing 58–9, 70 EU interventions see under cohesion, coherence, cooperation and EU
regional policy
Japan see under Japan
Korea see under Korea
nationwide interventions in the UK 149 policy solutions 42, 51–2, 55
RDAs, and 148
spatially targeted incentives 45–6

India distance, density and division as factors 52
incentives 52
large cities, growth in 104
regional inequalities 108
territorial specific development 45 inequity and regional development policies 225, 240–54 better approach to improving equity 252 distribution of income in Korea 240–41

Gini coefficients 246–50, 253 growth management systems 244 impact of regional development on Seoul 251–2
Korea and Washington State dissimilarities 242–4 similarities 241–2 livability/living standards 250–51 transportation infrastructure 251, 253 Washington State
income 241–2, 244–5, 246–7, 253
transportation infrastructure 251 see also identity and equality in planning
information and communication technology 176, 242, 248, 256 see also Internet infrastructure exchange and linkages in East Asia, developing 185
integration in cross-border cooporation 57–8
Germany, through supraregional partnerships 139–41
Korea see under Korea
as policy solution 42, 50–51, 52 soft infrastructure 72 transport 39, 50–51, 53, 54–5, 141, 177–8
integration 57–8, 66–7, 71–2
Korea see under Korea
Washington State, US 251
UK 262
United Kingdom 257, 262
by RDAs 147
innovation 126, 133
cities see under cities and city regions clusters and universities 137, 150
virtual innovation clusters 308, 311
generation of see under global view of regions and regional policy innovation economics/endogenous growth theory 105–6 institutions and systems of innovation 106
interventionist regulation facilitating innovation 197–200, 218
national systems 317 strengthening for growth and innovation see under Germany institutions 42, 49
EU see under Europe and the European Union (EU) institutional weaknesses, effects of 106, 111, 115–16
institution-building 116
integration in cross-border coopration 57, 63 governance by catch all institutions 64, 65, 67–70
shaping economy in using resources 106 spatially blind policy solutions 49, 52, 53, 54
systems of innovation, and 106
integration
economic see economic integration theories of cross-border integration 62–3 importance of institutions 63 International Monetary Fund 230, 233 Internet 31, 189
spatial division of labor, and 309 see also information and communication technology interventions see incentives and interventions
Ireland
Dublin 104
EU, and 88
institution-building 116
Israel, institution-building in 116
Italy
Florence 24–7, 195
infrastructure investment 45, 50–51
Rome 104
Japan balanced development policy proposals 163–9 external and internal market promotion strategy 166–9 impacts of factory location control policies 163, 165–6 national and regional development policies, and 163–5
business regulation, costs of 268
centration of economic activity 43, 161–2, 177
spatial concentration 45
emerging issues and national land policy 171–92
advances in information and communication technology 176 agriculture, forestry and fisheries, new prospects for 187 autonomous regional development 178
creation of autonomous regional blocks 179–82 cultural exchanges and human resources in East Asia 184 current national land policy 177–8 diversification of lifestyles 177, 185 exchange and cooperation with East Asia 182–3
globalization and economic growth in East Asia 176
incentives 163–4, 166–7
interregional exchanges and linkages: internal migration to rural areas 187–9 land management for future generations 189–90 national land infrastructure for exchange and linkages 185 national land use in river basins 190 national spatial reorganization in response to population decline 178–9
new national land vision 179, 182
ocean areas, use and conservation of 190–91 population decline and aging 171–6 protection of national land 191 regional development centred on the ‘new public’ 192 resilience to national disasters 189 safety and environmental concerns 177 self-remedial regional development 192 strengthening national industries 183–4 strengthening regional resource industries 187 sustainable local communities 185 sustainable urban areas 186 trends and challenges for national land policy 171 GDP 157
high-speed rail 39
large cities, growth in 104 larger spatial units for regional planning and policy 5
living standards
rural areas 162–3
metropolitan economies 161–7, 178, 322, 347
population 158–9
aging 171, 175, 178, 190, 192 declining 163, 166–9, 171, 174–6, 192 national spatial reorganization in response to population decline 178–9 PSYR, cross-border cooperation in 57, 70–76 regional government 157–63
Do-Shu system 157–9, 161 limitations of the top-down planning system 159–61 mono-polar concentration and the perspectives of regional plans 161–3 regionalization of national development policy 339 regional plans and economic strategies for sustainable development 155–70, 178 aim to narrow regional income disparities 161–2, 166 balanced development policy proposals 163–9 regional government 157–63
regional planning practice in Japan 155–7 rural areas 161–5
science cities 33
size 158–9
state-guided capitalism 27 Technopolis programmes of regional development 33
Tokyo 27–8, 34, 240, 321 trade 176
universities 163, 165–6, 169
Jargowsky, Paul 232
Jefferson, C. W. 258
Jessop, Bob 85
Jones, M. 149
Keeler, J. 86
Kerner Commission 232
Keynes, J.M. 30, 85
Kim Dae Jung, President 264 Kim Young Sam, President 264
Korea 3–18, 21–2, 35
balanced national development policy 7–8, 238, 264
business regulation, costs of 267–9 Capital Region/Seoul Metropolitan Area concentration of resources 6, 21, 54, 280, 291–4, 304 conflicts with other regions 8, 18, 303–8, 323–4 congestion 240, 256 decentralizing economic activity from 240, 243 deregulation 8, 10
foreign transnational companies, and 22
global competitiveness 7
impact of regional development 251–2 importance 257, 263
knowledge base 291–4
New Economic Geography, and 253 population 6, 21, 64, 242–3, 257, 304
prosperity 3 redistribution of economic expansion benefits 252 relocation of public institutes from 22, 253, 259 role of Seoul 257–8
transportation infrastructure 251
whether undermined by regional policies 258, 271 challenges ahead 18 concentration of economic activity resources 6, 21, 43–4, 54, 280, 291–4, 304 decentralization and localization 6, 7, 16, 264, 271, 349 enforcing decentralization 10 regional competitiveness, and 8, 238, 291–4 density, distance and division 54–5, 282, 303
economic growth
sources of 282–3
fiscal policy and regional development 277–80
administration’s approach to regional development 278 financing and institutional arrangements 16–17, 280 fiscal policies in support of regional development 279–80 GDP and GRDP 3, 6–7, 245–6, 266, 277, 291, 304–6
Gini coefficients 242, 245–50, 253, 265
global financial crisis, and 5, 277–8 greenbelt regulations 269–70
growth management system 244 importance of larger spatial units, mega-cities and regions 5–6, 8, 16 scheme for economic regions 10–12
incentives 55, 280
income distribution 240–42
inequity and regional policies see Index

Ministry of Strategy and Finance 4, 326, 348
New Economic Geography, and see under New Economic Geography and regional development policies PYSR, cross-border cooperation in 57, 70–76
balanced national development policy 7
financing and institutional arrangements 17, 348
key strategies 9–10
living standards 18
Local Area development 13 new innovative cities 22 new regional development policies 8–10, 326–7, 347–8 Presidential Committee on Balanced National Development 7, 21–2, 277 shifting regional policy 4–6 strategic regional industries 9–10, 11–12 Supra-economic Regions, designating 14 physical versus social development 266–7
population 6, 21, 64, 242–3, 257, 304, 308, 317–18
regional development policy and issues 6–8, 253–4, 263–4, 281–301 balanced national development policy 7–8, 253, 284–5, 324 disparities in innovation potential in the regions 291 fiscal policy and regional development 277–80, 334, 348 future plans 290–99, 302–20 goals of current policy 285 inequitable regional policies see inequity and regional development policies long-term strategies for regional development policies 290–99, 302–20 mega-economic regions and their limitations 334–6 nature of a region 4 past regional development policy 283–5 present regional development policy 285–90 regional disparities, need to address 3–4, 6, 225, 245–50, 253–4 specialization and competition policies 6, 9–12, 16, 238 summary of local policy 322–3 weak global competitiveness of Korean regions 6–8 regional governance for mega-economic regions see regional governance system for mega-economic regions in Korea reshaping regional policy after 2008 8–10, 281 compared to UK and France 148, 151 PCRD’s role in regional policy 4–6, 8–10 urbanization 3
reunification 254, 271
scheme for Economic Regions 10–12, 16–17, 278, 279, 285–90, 298–9, 323–4, 348 challenges 18
cluster policy 295–8
coordination 290–91, 326–7 Economic Region Development Committee 288, 326–7 exploiting regional complementarities 294–5
financing 16–17, 279–80, 325, 327–8 industrial development 11–12, 324–6 narrowing knowledge gap between Economic Regions 291–4 planning sectors 287–8, 290–91
population 147
Regional Innovation System

role of Economic Regions and metropolitan economies supporting the Economic Regions

Supra-economic Regions coordinating development scheme for Local Areas

financing

improving living standards scheme for Supra-economic Regions promotion strategies

science cities

Sejong

small geographical size

society

community participation physical versus social development

social policies

spatial equity

territorial development schemes

financing and institutional arrangements

top-down planning

universities

Krimsky, Sheldon

Krugman, P.

Larkin, Kieran

Larrain, Jorge

Le Gallo, J.

learning regions

Lee Myung-Bak, President

Lefebvre, Henri

Lester, R.

Liechtenstein, cross-border regional cooperation and lifestyles, diversification of

living standards

Belgium

economic concentration and convergence of living standards

converging with development

delinking geographies of production and basic living standards

EU see under Europe and the European Union (EU)

France see under France

Germany see under Germany

improving and reducing differences challenges in lagging regions

decomposing gaps in living standards inequity and regional development policies

spatial equity

spatially blind policies

Japan see under Japan

Korea see under Korea

spatial differences

US see under United States (US)

World Bank

London see under United Kingdom

Los Angeles see under United States

Lyons, Sir Michael

Madrid see under Spain

Major, John

Malaysia, non-monetary welfare measures converging in Manchester see under United Kingdom

Maniatis, Dr Thomas

Marjolin, Robert

Marshall, Alfred

Marshall, J.N.

Marvin, S.

Massey, Douglas

metropolitan regions see under cities and city regions

Mexico

cross-border metropolitan governance

incentives

income distribution

large cities, growth in

regional inequalities

Mill, John Stuart

Mitchell, William

literary and cultural heritage literacy

living standards

London see under United Kingdom

Los Angeles see under United States

Lyons, Sir Michael

Madrid see under Spain

Major, John

Malaysia, non-monetary welfare measures converging in Manchester see under United Kingdom

Maniatis, Dr Thomas

Marjolin, Robert

Marshall, Alfred

Marshall, J.N.

Marvin, S.

Massey, Douglas

metropolitan regions see under cities and city regions

Mexico

cross-border metropolitan governance

incentives

income distribution

large cities, growth in

regional inequalities

Mill, John Stuart

Mitchell, William

Harry W. Richardson, Chang-Hee Christine Bae and Sang-Chuel Choe - 9781849805780 Downloaded from Elgar Online at 02/28/2019 06:39:44AM via free access Monett, Jean 87
Munich see under Germany Myrdal, G. 105

Negroponte, Nicholas 31–2 Netherlands 313
cross-border metropolitan
governance 59–61, 65, 69
spatial planning 85
EU, and 95
regional development agency 349
Rotterdam 133
New Economic Geography and
regional development policies 105, 106, 111, 253, 255–73
business regulation, costs of 267–9 eliminating 270
concept of 255–7, 282 impact of deindustrialization and manufacturing 256 problems with 256–7
dispersal of central government offices in the UK and Korea 258–60
eliminating regulatory cost 270 explaining economic history of Korea 256
centrifugal forces, importance of 256 interregional/international trade 256 greenbelt regulations in the UK and Korea 269–70
physical versus social development 266–7
policy inconsistencies in the UK 260–61
regional development strategy 263–4 roles of London and Seoul 257–8 scarce resources versus spatial equity goals 265
sectoral strategies 265–6 small geographical size of the UK and Korea 267 spatial policies and politics in the UK 261
spatial scale in the UK 261–3 top-down planning in the UK and Korea 267, 349
New Economy 108

New York see under United States
Newcastle 259, 260, 262
North America Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA) 67
North Korea 55
reunification 254, 271
Northeast Asia 316
Norway GDP 43

ocean areas, use and conservation of 190–91
OECD 3, 6, 245, 277
cross-border cooperation, and 57
cluster approach 295 case studies of cross-border metropolitan governance 59–61
PYSR, and 75
Ohmae, Kenichi 148–9, 262, 263, 321 Organization for East Asian Economic Development (OEAED) 73, 74, 76
Orientalism (Said) 232
Oulton, N. 264
Owen-Smith, J. 208

Pan Yellow Sea Region (PYSR) cross-border cooperation in 57, 70–76
environmental issues 75–6
role of central government 74–5
role of cities 72–3
transborder governance 73–4
universities 72, 74
Paris see under France Park Chung-Hee, President 269, 281, 282 participatory democracy see under constructing regional entrepreneurial advantage Penhoet, Ed 206
Perroux, Francois 264
Peters, B. Guy 330–31
Peru, income distribution in 241
Pierre, J. 330–31
Pierret, Georges 87
Piore, M. 196
planning, identity and equality, and see identity and equality in planning policies for regional competitiveness see under France
Reshaping regional policy

Porter, Michael E. 284 Poverty and Place (Jargowsky) 232 Powell, W. 208
Pratt, Andy 30
Presidential Committee on Regional Development (PCRD) see under Korea Ptashne, Mark 202, 215

Rauch, J.E. 264
Reagan, Ronald 236 regional development agencies (RDAs) in England 146–52, 322, 340, 347, 349–51 abolition 146
coordination 149
establishment 146
evaluation of RDA operation 146–9, 151 evolution of regional policy 151 rationale of further layer of governance 148–9, 151 funding and expenditure 148 Regional Assemblies 146, 150–51 rural development 140
tasks and focus 149–50
regional governance system for mega-economic regions in Korea 329–44 how to build a mega-regional governance system 338–442 devolution within government offices 338–9 establishment of a principal regional development agency 339–41 re-engineering of central government and decentralization 338 regional institutional capacity building 341–2 regionalization of national development policy 339 policy directions for mega-economic regions and their limitations 334–6 rationale for regional governance 333–4 what is the regional governance system 330–33
definition of governance 330
meaning of regional governance 332
regional governance system 332–3
typology of governance 330–32
what to build for a mega-regional governance system 336–8 regional policy: what works/does not work 41–56 concentration and convergence 43–6 distance, density and division 41, 52–3 general implications 53–4 incentives and interventions 42, 51–2 inclusive development and economic integration 41–3 infrastructure investments 42, 50–51 institutions and spatially blind policies 42, 49, 52, 53 Korea 54–5
policy solutions 42, 49–54
regions and regional development policies EU, and see cohesion, coherence, cooperation and EU regional policy fiscal policy and regional development in Korea see under Korea global view see global view of regions and regional policy identity and equality in planning see identity and equality in planning inequity, and see inequity and regional development policies Korea see under Korea
New Economic Geography, and see New Economic Geography and regional development policies RDAs in England see regional development agencies (RDAs) in England regional competitiveness, policies for see under France regional entrepreneurial advantage see constructing regional entrepreneurial advantage regional governance system for mega-economic regions in Korea see regional governance system for mega-economic regions in Korea regional plans and economic base strategies in Japan see under Japan reshaping regional policy in Korea see under Korea strengthening metropolitan regions for growth and innovation see under Germany what works/does not work see regional policy: what works/does not work regulation
business regulation, costs of 267–9, 270 deregulation in Korea 8, 10 energy, and 198
environment regulations 197–8, 201 greenbelt regulations 269–70
and technology benefits to local industry 217
construction of jurisdictional advantage, and 216–19
conversational approach to technology regulation 196–7, 199–200
economic activity, and 197–200, 216
entrepreneurship, affecting 199–200, 204–9
interventionist regulation facilitating innovation 197–200, 204
local regulation of local industry, advantages of 193–4 participatory democracy, regulation and constructed advantage 195–200 regulation, local regulation and self-governance proposals 201–2 Rhodes, R.A.W 330
Rifkin, Jeremy 85
Rogers, Lord 149

Roh Mu-Hyun, President 7, 240, 246, 248, 252–3, 264, 343
Romer, P. 291
Rosenau, J. 331
Rosovsky, Henry 202
Rotterdam see under Netherlands Russia
business regulation, costs of 268 concentration of economic activity 43–4
GDP 43
regional inequalities 108
Sack, R.D. 83
Said, Edward 232
San Francisco Bay Area see under United States Sang-Chuel Choe, Professor 347 Sapir Report 94
Saudi Arabia GDP 43 Scandinavia capitals 104
cooperation agreements 58
cross-border metropolitan governance 59–61
Schumpeter, Joseph 27, 29, 30, 85, 105, 111, 264
Scott, A.J. 308
Scott, J.W. 70
Sejong 252, 259, 264
Seoul see Capital Region/Seoul Metropolitan Area under Korea Shanghai see under China Sharp, Philip 212–13
Siberia science city 33 Silicon Valley 33, 35, 36, 150, 195 Singapore 35
institution-building 116
technology development 117
Slovak Republic, cross-border metropolitan governance and 59–61, 64 Slovenia GDP 43
Smith Hughes, S. 201
Social Justice and the City (Harvey) 226
society
communities and technology see constructing regional entrepreneurial advantage Reshaping regional policy

in Korea see under Korea
lifestyles, diversification of 177, 185 living standards see living standards
social inclusion 263, 266 Soja, Edward 229, 232–3 sources of growth and tendency towards agglomeration 103–8 South Korea see Korea
SpaaK Report 86
Spain
EU funding and cohesion policy 90 investing in human capital 47 Madrid 104, 133
Seville’s Cartuja ’93 34
Spain, Daphne 238
spatial planning
cities and city regions see under cities city regions equality, and see identity and equality in planning EU, and see under cohesion, coherence, cooperation and EU
regional policy
France see under France
Germany, and see under Germany Netherlands see under Netherlands spatial division of labor 309 Sri Lanka, infrastructure investment in 50 State of the English Cities, The (Parkinson et al) 22 State of the European Cities (European Commission) 22
Strange, I. 97
Straussmann, W.P. 264 Supra-economic Regions see under Korea
supraregional partnerships 130–32, 138–44
sustainable development see under environment Sweden 24
cross-border metropolitan governance 59–61, 65, 68–70
EU, and 95
Switzerland
cross-border metropolitan
governance 59–61, 65, 68
EU, and 97
cross-border regional cooperation 141–2
Tae-Woo Rho, President 304
Taine, Hippolyte 24 Taiwan
business regulation, costs of 268
institution-building 116
technology parks 33, 117 Technopoles of the World (Castells and Hall) 32
Thailand
GDP 43
incentives 51
Thatcher, Margaret 235, 261
Toeffler, Alvin 280
Tokyo see under Japan
Törnqvist, Gunnar
trade barriers 57
see also cross-border cooperation, barriers and breakthrough strategies for Trainor, M. 258 transport see under infrastructure Union of the Baltic Cities 75
United Kingdom 313, 316
Birmingham 195
business regulation, costs of 267–9
Cambridge technology park 33
decentralization 258–60, 264 devolution 258
enterprise zones 235–6
EU, and 88, 95
greenbelt regulations 269–70
income distribution 241 Glasgow 27–8, 39, 260, 262 innovation clusters and universities 150 larger spatial units for regional planning and policy 5
London 24–7, 30, 34, 36, 37, 104, 133, 262–3, 265
dispersal of central government offices from 258–60
importance 257–8
revitalizing deprived locations 257 role 257–8
strategy to keep London strong 258 Thames Barrier 257
Manchester 27–8, 262
Newcastle 259, 260, 262
physical versus social development 266
policy inconsistencies in the UK 260–61
subsidy areas 260–61 regional development agencies see regional development agencies in England regional development strategy 263–4 scarce resources versus spatial equity goals 265
sectoral strategies 265
small geographical size 267
social inclusion 263, 266
spatial policy objective of reducing unemployment differentials 258, 263 policies and politics 261
scarce resources versus spatial equity goals 265 spatial scale 261–3 failures 262
movement downwards of spatial policies 262–3 neighbourhood renewals 263 successes 262, 263
top-down planning 267
transport infrastructure 262 urban regeneration 149, 261–3, 269
United States 21
Appalachia 45, 226–7, 230, 234–5, 236, 237
Boston 33
business regulation, costs of 268 capitalism model 27 Chicago 38
creative-innovative city 28–30
cross-border metropolitan governance 59–61, 65, 66–7
communities and technology see constructing regional entrepreneurial advantage decentralization 264
Detroit 27–8
enterprise zones 235–6
income distribution 241–2, 244–50, 253
infrastructure investment 51
innovation clusters and universities 150 investing in education and migration 49
living standards 299
Los Angeles 29–30, 34, 36, 37
New York 29–30, 34, 37–8, 257, 321 reducing income inequalities by spatially blind tax system 49
regional inequalities 108
San Francisco Bay Area 27–8, 30, 37, 194, 207–9 technological advances 30–31
trade with Japan 176
transport infrastructure 251
universities 150, 194–5, 200–219
Washington State
Gini coefficients 242, 246–50
growth management system 244
income 241–2, 244–5, 246–9, 253 Korea, compared with 241–4
living standards 250
population 242–3
transportation infrastructure 251 underdevelopment of capacities 111
universities 33, 35–6, 39
cross-border cooperation 69, 72, 74 entrepreneurial advantage, and see constructing regional entrepreneurial advantage exchanges between 74
France 125–6
Germany 36, 135, 137 innovation clusters, and 150
Japan 163, 165–6, 169
Korea 10–12, 279, 316, 317, 325
PYSR 72, 74
US 150, 194–5, 200–219 urbanization see cities and city regions Vienna 24–7
Vives, X. 47
Wilson, Governor Peter 228–9, 230, 235
Wilson, William Julius 232–3
Reshaping regional policy

Wofsy, Leon 207–8
World Bank 277

business regulation, costs of 268–9, 270
challenge to 230, 233
World Development Report 2009
(World Bank) 46, 281
delinking geographies of production and basic living standards 46
density distance and division 282, 303
disparities 298–9 efficiency across regions 47–8 efficiency across sectors 47 identifying sectoral and spatial priorities 47 implications 46–9

living standards 41, 298 regional economic growth in Korea 282–3, 287, 290, 293–4, 298–9, 339 spatially blind approach, advocating 298–9 World Trade Organization 227, 233

Zambia
GDP 43
Zimbabwe 225