

Contents

List of contributors	vi
Acknowledgements	vii
1. Universalism and the challenge of diversity Anneli Anttonen, Liisa Häikiö, Kolbeinn Stefánsson and Jorma Sipilä	1
2. Universalism in the British and Scandinavian social policy debates Anneli Anttonen and Jorma Sipilä	16
3. What is in a word? Universalism, ideology and practice Kolbeinn Stefánsson	42
4. Finding the way between universalism and diversity: a challenge to the Nordic model Liisa Häikiö and Bjørn Hvinden	69
5. Brave new world? Anglo-American challenges to universalism John Clarke and Janet Newman	90
6. Reassessing woman-friendliness and the gender system: feminist theorizing about the Nordic welfare model Anette Borchorst	106
7. A caring state for all older people? Mia Vabø and Marta Szebehely	121
8. The pension puzzle: pension security for all without universal schemes? Mikko Kautto	144
9. Universalization and de-universalization of unemployment protection in Denmark and Sweden Jørgen Goul Andersen	162
10. The future of the welfare state: rethinking universalism Anneli Anttonen, Liisa Häikiö and Kolbeinn Stefánsson	187
Index	197