

Index

- access to social benefits 4–7, 11–12, 21–3, 25, 32, 35, 71, 75–6, 91, 103, 132–3, 137–8, 146, 149, 155, 164–5, 170–71, 176–8
- accommodation to diversity, concept of 71–3
- disability, case of 79–80
 - ethnicity, case of 80–82
 - gender differences, case of 82–3
- Act on Free Choice Systems 129
- Agrarian League 32
- Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC) 92
- Alesina, A. 70, 93–5, 97
- American philosophical liberalism 50
- Anglo-Saxon
- residualism 28
 - welfare states 60
- Anttonen, A. 1–13, 16–38, 42, 164–65, 187–95
- Arbeiterfrage* 18
- Article 5 of the Council Directive (EC, 2000/78) 79
- assemblages of welfare 91, 103
- Atlantic New Right 96
- authoritarian/paternalist universalism 21
- Beveridge Report (1942) 3–4, 20, 22–3
- Beveridge-type flat-rate benefits 57
- Borchorst, A. 6, 106–17
- British National Health Service 26, 31
- British universalism 2
- criticism of 25–6
 - feminist criticism 26
 - flat-rate benefits 24–6
 - impetus for social welfare thinking 24
 - national insurance system 25
 - rules to men and women 25
- British welfare state 22–3
- post-war 23–7
- child allowances 7, 28, 30, 32
- home care 10
- Christian democracy 53
- citizenship theory 61–2
- ‘equal’ status 62
 - issue of rights 62
 - Nordic 63–5
 - Scandinavian 63–4
 - women’s 64
- civic republican citizenship 61
- civic republicanism 60–61, 63–5
- Clarke, J. 11, 90–103, 130, 190
- communitarianism 58, 63
- conservatism 1, 11, 45, 49, 52–5, 60, 66, 190
- democratic socialism 54
- Denmark, universalism in 30
- depoliticization, in context of public services 102
- disability, universalist perspective on 78–80
- distributive principle, in universalism 46
- diversity
- challenges in relation to universalism 190–92
 - distributional issues and 71–3
 - equality conceived as sameness 73–6
 - gender equality and 114–17
 - governmentalization of 100–102
 - ‘person-centred’ view 101–2
 - in public services 101–2
 - social policy systems and 10, 70
 - social solidarities and 97–100
 - universal inclusion and 8–10
 - in welfare politics 93–7, 103
 - see also* accommodation to diversity, concept of
- earnings-related benefits 35
- cash benefits 8

- earnings-related benefits (continued)
 - daily allowances 33
 - pension schemes 152–4, 156
 - unemployment 156
 - unemployment insurance (UI) 177
- earnings-related pension 30, 152–7
- egalitarianism 7, 28–9, 36, 52–8, 63, 144, 149
- elder care services 10
 - future of 137–8
 - public home care services, in Norway and Sweden 133–7
- employment pension system 156, 158
- English New Liberals 20, 50, 54
- equality contract 109
- equal status contract 109
- Esping-Andersen, G. 27
 - concept of universalism 58
 - distinction between universalism and solidarity 57
 - on earnings-related cash benefits 8, 35
 - on flat-rate benefits 57
 - liberal welfare regime 91
 - notion of decommodification 163, 166
 - pension universalism 147–8
 - Scandinavian Model of universalism 56–8
 - social citizenship in the Nordic context 4, 27–8
 - social democracy 32, 54, 59
 - supplementary benefits 31
 - universal benefits in the Nordic context 36
- ethnicity, universalist perspective on 80–82
 - ethnic differentiation 95
 - Putnam's view of 95
 - in USA 96–7
 - whiteness 95
- Euro-Atlantic universalism 92
- European Union (EU) Lisbon strategy 112
- European welfare states 94–5, 97
- fairness 7, 128
- faith groups 103
- false universalism 9, 26, 64
- Finland, universalism in 30, 32
- Finnish national pension scheme (1938) 30
- first-line benefits 6
- fiscal welfare 22, 146
- flat-rate
 - allocation 8
 - benefits 6–7, 9, 23–4, 26, 29–32, 35–7, 57, 146, 148–9, 166, 169
 - universalism 7–8, 148–9
- flexibilization 96
- Folkhemmet* (people's home) ideology 30, 110
- French liberalism 50
- French pension policy 154
- gender differences, universalist
 - perspective on 82–3
 - comparison of Hernes and Hirdman 110–12
 - in ethnically diverse societies 114–17
 - at the European Union (EU) level 112–13
 - gender contracts, forms of 109
 - Hernes' conceptualizations 106–9
 - Hirdman's analysis 106
 - in Nordic welfare states 114–17
 - in Scandinavian welfare states 108
 - scholarly and political debates about Nordic gender equality 112–14
 - Yvonne Hirdman's theory 109–10
- German education system 19
- 'Ghent system' of unemployment insurance 162, 168–9, 171–2
- Glaeser, E. 70, 93–5, 97
- Goul Andersen, J. 162–80
 - welfare state change 130
- Guarantee Pension (GP) scheme 156–8
- Häikiö, L. 1–13, 69–83, 187–95
- health care, equal distribution of 7
 - in Britain 31–2
 - in Finland 31
- heterogeneity 9, 93–4
- home care
 - in 1980s 125–6
 - in 1990s 127–9
 - changes in public 130–31
 - child allowances for 10
 - decentralized group structure of helpers 126

- future of eldercare 137–8
 ‘help-to-self-help’ principle 126
 New Public Management (NPM) reforms 127, 130–31
 non-profit organizations, role of 129
 in Nordic countries 124–9
 in Norway 128–9, 132–8
 personalized (1950s–1960s) 124–5
 public home care services, availability of 133–4
 purchaser–provider model 127–8 rationalization strategies 125–6 responsiveness of care staff 126
 in Sweden 129, 132–8
 housewife contract 109
 human beings, universal model of 51 human reproduction for the state 19
 Hvinden, B. 11, 69–83, 191
- ideologies
 morphology of 43–5
 universalism and 49–55
 immigrant-based heterogeneity 94
 income-tested national pension 30, 155
 income universalism vs group universalism 47
 unemployment benefits 48 industrial welfare programs 8
 Inter-Departmental Committee on Social Insurance and Allied Services
 20
- Kangas, O. 150, 154–5, 163–5
 Kautto, M. 7, 12, 66, 144–57, 188–9
 KELA (Social Insurance Institution of Finland) 151–2, 157
 KEVA (Local Government Pensions
 Institution) 152
- Korpi, W.
 earnings-related benefits 35, 165–6 marginal and the institutional models of universalism 27
 pension universalism 147–8
 Scandinavian Model of universalism
 56–8
 social democracy in context of Nordic countries 27–8
 supplementary benefits 31
 voluntary state-subsidized welfare
 162
- KVTEL (Local Government Employees’ Pension Act 202/1964) 152
- LEL (Temporary Employees’ Pension Act 134/1962) 152
- liberal citizenship 60–63
 liberalism 49–52
 liberal neutrality, idea of 51
 liberal welfare regime 90–93, 103
 libertarian conservatism 53
- market conservatism 53
 Marshall’s theory 4
 citizenship 61
 social rights 57 merit-based selectivism 17
 modern industrial society 5, 22
 multiculturalism 2, 9, 80, 93–4, 98, 107
 MYEL (Farmers’ Pension Act 467/1969)
 152
- national health insurance (1963) 33
 National Health Service 19, 26, 31, 91
 National Pension (NP) Act 150–53
 national welfare programme (folketrygd) 30 neoliberalism 1, 53, 60, 90, 92, 97
 neoliberal welfare regime 92, 103
 Newman, J. 11, 90–103, 130, 190
 New Public Management (NPM) reforms, in home care 127, 130–31 allocation procedures 132–3 availability of services for older people 133–4
 responsiveness of service providers
 136–7
 user fees and economic disincentives
 134–5
 Nordic universalism 2, 55–8
 1930s and 1940s 20
 compulsory unemployment insurance
 31 day care for children 33
 definition 27–9
 in Denmark 30
 in Finland 30, 32
 flat-rate benefits 32
 health insurance 33
 ideological philosophy of 59–60 importance for women 33–4

- Nordic universalism (continued)
- Nordic citizenship 63–5
 - protective and redistributive system 71–3
 - public health care service 31
 - social care policy 33
 - social democracy, role of 27–8
 - standard of living of the working class 32
 - in Sweden 29–30
 - welfare services and benefits 29–34
- Nordic welfare model 1–2, 11, 28, 76, 106, 131, 162, 187–8
- universalism and 55–8
- Nordic welfare states 9, 114–17
- as caring states 121
 - Hernes' conceptualizations 106–9
 - political representation in the Norwegian parliament 108
 - woman-friendliness 115
 - 'normal' institutions of supply 5
- occupational welfare 22, 146
- oil crisis (1973) 26
- Palme, J.
- dimensions of coverage and generosity 164–5
 - earnings-related benefits 165–6
 - Nordic model of universalism 36
 - pension systems 149, 153, 158
 - social insurance system 148
 - voluntary state-subsidized welfare 162
- particularism 3, 21, 81, 123
- pension systems 6–7, 30, 188–9
- in 1990s 154–5
 - in 2000s 156–7
 - earnings-related 152–4, 156
 - employee's contribution 154
 - evolution of 153–7
 - in Finland 150–53, 156
 - in France 154
 - Guarantee Pension (GP) scheme 156–7
 - income-tested national pension 155
 - life-expectancy and 156
 - in Nordic countries 147–50
 - Nordic strategy of redistribution 153
 - pay-as-you-go 153–4
 - reform of the state employees' pensions scheme 152
 - universalism in 145–7
- philosophical liberalism 50–51
- polysemic nature, of universalism 45–8, 195
- Poor Law legacy 91–2
- positive discrimination 7, 32
- vs flat-rate universalism 8
- poverty 3, 7, 20, 25–6, 30, 37, 50, 71, 76, 91, 147, 156, 166
- power resource theory 21
- Primary Health Care Act (1972) 31, 33
- proto-universalism 18
- public home care services, in Norway and Sweden
- availability 133–4
 - responsiveness of service providers 136–7
 - user fees and economic disincentives 134–5
- public welfare services 5, 12
- Putnam, R. 93, 95, 97
- residual benefits 5, 193
- residualism 21
- desire to weaken the role of 5
 - vs selectivism 5–6
- Rothstein, B. 42, 46, 59, 63, 189, 194
- Scandinavian citizenship 63–4
- Scandinavian Model. Welfare States and Welfare Research, The* 55
- Scandinavian Model of universalism 29, 56, 58, 112
- Scandinavian welfare states 59, 66, 108, 163
- selectivism 1, 3, 5–6, 17–18, 21, 25, 152, 158, 166
- service universalism 12, 121–4, 139, 191
- sickness funds 31
- single parenthood 9
- Sipilä, J. 1–13, 42, 16–38, 188
- social assistance benefits 169
- social citizenship 6, 9–10, 33, 48, 61–2, 76, 107, 148–9, 163, 166
- in Nordic context 4
- social cohesion 3, 19, 21, 103, 187
- social democracy 1, 7, 27, 32, 54, 59, 107

- social democratic regime 32
- social heterogeneity 9, 93
- social insurance system 4
- socialism 11, 20, 32, 45, 49, 54–6, 58, 60, 64, 66, 190
- social liberalism 1, 49–50, 54–5, 58
- social order 19, 23, 52–3, 96
- social policy systems and universalism 1, 3
- diversity 10
 - feminist perspective 9
- social welfare service 22
- sociology, universalism in 46
- solidarity 2–3, 5–6, 8, 11, 17, 33, 36, 48, 54, 56–8, 70, 90, 93–5, 100, 103, 112, 148, 175, 192
- South African war 19
- Stefánsson, K. 1–13, 42–65, 187–95
- subsidiarity, principle of 5
- privileges 5
- Sweden, universalism in 29–30
- Swedish National Pension Reform (1913) 18
- Swedish national pension scheme (1914) 30
- Swedish welfare state 28, 111
- Szebehely, M. 7, 12, 121–38, 188–9, 194
- TaEL (The Pensions Act for Performing Artists and Certain Groups of Employees 1985/662) 152
- TEL (Employees' Pension Act 1961/395) 152
- Temporary Aid to Needy Families (TANF) 92
- Three Worlds of Welfare Capitalism, The* 57, 148
- Titmuss, R.M. 8, 22, 24–5, 27, 42, 56, 122, 126, 128, 146–7, 165
- totalitarian governments 3, 20
- truism 16
- TyEL (Employees' Pensions Act 395/2006) 152
- unemployment assistance scheme (UA) 177
- unemployment protection systems, in Denmark and Sweden 1993/94 tax reform, impact of 176
- access to 176–7
 - compensation levels and generosity 178–9
 - compensation of young people 178
 - Danish 'flexicurity' system 177
 - de-universalization of 173–80
 - differentiation of contributions, idea of 176
 - duration of 177–8
 - fixed subsidy per member scheme 175
 - Ghent system approaches 171–2
 - labour market contribution 176
 - maximum unemployment benefits 178
 - politicization of 179–80
 - unemployment assistance scheme (UA) 177
 - unemployment-dependent contributions 175–6
 - unemployment insurance (UI) 177
 - union control 179–80
- unemployment protection systems, universalism in
- benefits 170
 - eligibility and entitlements 167–8
 - inclusiveness 170–71
 - means-tested supplements 169
 - rules 168
 - state subsidy 168–9
- United Nations (UN) Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities 80
- universal breadwinner model 112
- universal caregiver model 112
- universal education 19
- universal human nature 51–2, 62
- universal inclusion 5–6, 79
- diversity and 8–10
- universalism
- in 1930s and 1940s 20
 - basic argument for 19
 - compulsory education 18
 - connotation of 42–3
 - definitions 164–6
 - in different policy areas 188–90
 - flexible attitude to development 34–6
 - history of 17–18
 - as a means for nation building 20–21

- universalism (continued)
 - as a polysemic concept 45–8
 - varieties of 2, 43, 187–8, 195
- universal social citizenship 3–6, 9–10, 33
- USA, racial formation in 96–7
- Vabø, M. 7, 12, 121–38, 188–9, 194
- VEL (State Employees' Pensions Act 280/1966) 152
- weak universalism 10
- welfare citizenship 96
- welfare states
 - Anglo-Saxon 60
 - British 22–3
 - contemporary drives of change 192–5
 - European 94
 - Nordic see Nordic welfare states
 - Scandinavian 108
 - Swedish 111
 - woman-friendly 108, 111
- woman-friendliness, Hernes' notion of 106, 109, 115
- woman-friendly social policy 34
- woman-friendly welfare states 108, 111
- YEL (Self-Employed Persons' Pensions Act 468/1969) 152