<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Index</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>abstraction of knowledge 106–7</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>achievement orientation, American companies 68</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>actors’ perspectives</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Franco–Vietnamese cooperation 43–4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>understanding 4–5</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>adjustment see cross-cultural adjustments</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>affective factors, Finnish–Polish collaboration 37</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Africa 22, 65, 66, 129, 130, 131, 134, 136</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>aid programs, Eastern Europe 101–2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>alienation, of foreign cultures 92</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>alternate collective identities 89</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>American companies, working relations 67–8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>American culture 25, 57, 68</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>American management system, implementation 11–12, 64–75</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>case analysis 67–72</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>case presentation 65–7</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>implications for cross-cultural management 72–3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>recommendations for practitioners 74–5</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>American origin, codes of conduct 54–5</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>AMIE subsidiaries see French subsidiary; German subsidiary ancestry, myth of origins 133</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Anglo-Saxon perception of rules 55</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Anna Karenina 114</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>anonymity 19, 24</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>appeasement, discourse of 95–8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Asia 20, 22, 116, 129, 131, 134</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Augé, M. 23</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>authorities, dealing with 49</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>authority, validation of myths 133</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>autonomy</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>American management system 67</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>craftsman metaphor 71</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>individual versus social networks 44–5, 46–7</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>AV Company 80</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>cultural influences, on communication</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>global level 80–82</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>individual level 85–6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>national level 82</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>organizational level 83–4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>professional level 84–5</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>global vision 82–3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>respect for others and reservation of judgement 150</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Azevedo, G. 7, 143, 148, 149, 150, 151</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>backstage interaction 94–5</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Barmeyer, C. 142, 152</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>behaviour, interpretation of 142</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>behaviour regulation, codes of conduct 54</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>‘being global’, condition of 128, 130, 133</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>belonging, non-places and 19, 24</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ben Ayed, A 71</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bennett, M. 93</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Berger and Luckman 11</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>best management practices 64, 68</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Betriebsrat (German work council) 58, 152</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>bi-polar dimensions 140</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>boundary conditions, emic discourses 91, 95, 96, 98, 99</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>brand identity 83</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>branding, cultural challenges of standardizing 80–81</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Brannen and Salk 9, 10, 29, 30, 38, 41, 78, 79, 87</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Brannen, M.Y. 9, 38</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Brazil see Sino–Brazilian intercultural integration</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bulgaria 6, 14, 101, 103–6, 108</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bulgaria aid projects 6, 103–6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>BT1 104–5, 108</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>BT2 105–6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Byun, H. 12</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
capitalism, universalized 129

catechism, US code of conduct perceived as 57 charismatic leadership 65–6 Chevrier, S. 10, 142, 147

China
as the exotic 131
reasons for going to 123
see also Sino–Brazilian intercultural integration

ChipTech Corporation 90 collective identities contextual discourses of defence and appeasement 95–8 emic discourse, professional identity 93–4 etic discourse, national cultural identity 92–3 frontstage versus backstage interaction 94–5 implications for cross-cultural management 98

recommendations to practitioners 98–9 internationalization 90 organizational and cultural challenge 91 technical workforce 91
Clausen, L. 9, 142, 146, 148, 150 co-creation of knowledge 103, 108
of meaning 77
code of honour, Tunisian management 65, 72 codes of conduct
adjustment to local contexts 152 cultural differences 141–2, 143 defined 53 implementation study 53–62
case analysis 56–60
case presentation 53–6
differentiated local resistances 59–60 implications for cross-cultural management 60–61
recommendations to practitioners 61–2 standardized 78
as value-infused 55
co-determination 60
cross-cultural dimension frameworks 1–2
limitations of 140–41
for pointing out similarities 10 cross-cultural learning 48–9, 51 cross-cultural management research American management implementation 64–75 code of conduct implementation 53–62 corporate communication 77–88 cultural dimension frameworks, inadequacy of 1–2 culturally generic spaces as coping strategies 18–27 culture and negotiated meanings 8–10 development projects cooperation 41–52 emic meanings 89–99
ethnocentrism and ethnorelativism in collaboration 29–39 focus on interaction rather than comparison 2–3 globalization in corporate language use 125–37 intercultural interactions and power issues 12–14 meaning systems 10–12
Sino–Brazilian intercultural integration 112–23
Western management training 101–10
see also interpretive cross-cultural management research cross-cultural sensitivity 30, 38, 85 cross-cultural work coping study 18–27
conclusions and implications for practitioners 26–7 consultant’s experiences 20–22
foreignness 22–3
methodology 19
spaces of generic culture 23–6, 27, 153 effectiveness in 139 cultural analysis, tools for 136 cultural boundaries, crossing 153
cultural difference(s)
de-emphasis 13–14
dealing effectively with 144–52 developing common practices 51
emic discourses 99
expectation of 145–6
Franco–Vietnamese cooperation 44–8 knowledge about 2, 139
meaning systems 2–3
misunderstandings 41, 141–4 narrative construction 12–13 organizational 89
cultural encounters
corporate communication see corporate communication narration and identity construction 6 cultural expectations 1
cultural factors
adaptation of practices and strategies 78, 86 Finnish–Polish collaboration 36–7 cultural frames, identifying relevant 146–7 cultural identity, knowledge of ones’ own 153 cultural metaphors, making sense of new management, Poulina 69–72 cultural perspectives 147–8, 150 cultural proximity 116 cultural relativism 122 cultural resistance 57 cultural sensibility 119, 122 cultural similarity 14 cultural superiority 26, 34, 37, 122 cultural traditions 120–21, 122 cultural transformation 81, 148 cultural translators 62 culturalists 64
culturally generic spaces (non-places) 6, 19, 23–6, 27, 153 culture(s) alienation of foreign 92 American 25, 57, 68
anthropological conceptualization 89, 93 porate language use 126 meaning systems and role of 11–12 and negotiated meanings 8–10 implications for practitioners 139–53 non-places as pre-negotiated bland 25 provision of frames of meaning 66–7 sense-making 42, 44–5, 46, 51 showing respect for others 118 social constructivist view 78
Tunisian 65, 72
see also organizational cultures culture-free spaces 25 cultured perceptions 136

Dahlén, T. 92
Danish–Japanese corporate communication study 78–87 case example 80–86
methodology 79
multi-level model 78–9, 80
recommendations to practitioners
86–7
Davoine, E. 142, 152 defence, discourse of 95–8 demand-driven knowledge flows 106, 108 democratization 102
dependency, myth of 133 developing countries, modernizing management in 64, 74–5 development projects, Franco– Vietnamese cooperation 41–52 dialogue
in contractual view of organizations 68 understanding meaning through 6–8 directness, of US code of conduct 58 d’Iribarne, P. 4, 10, 42, 55, 57, 60, 68 discourse, complementarity of practice and 122 discourse of proximity 118, 122 DiStefano, J.J. 41
double-loop learning 108 dysfunctions, Tunisian family-based management 11–12, 69

East, visualized as the ‘other’ 128
Eastern Europe 6, 101–3, 107, 109 aid programs 101–2
financial aid, and re-engineering of economies 102, 108
knowledge aid 101
Western management training abstraction of knowledge model 106–7
acceptance of local specifics 151 change in knowledge flows as transition progressed 6, 107–9 imlications for practice 109–10 knowledge transfer projects, Bulgaria 103–6 political, social and economic background 102

Eastern inferiority 128, 131
embedded learning 110
emerging culture 79
emic discourse, professional identity 93–4
emic meanings, management of (study) 89–99
case analysis 92–8
case presentation 90–91
implications for cross-cultural
management 98
recommendations to practitioners 98–9
theoretical background and method 89–90
emic views 4, 90
encompassing context, awareness of 151–2
endangerment, construction of the ‘other’ 97
engineering–management conflict 94 frontstage versus backstage interaction 94–5
entrepreneurial management, Tunisia 65, 71 entrepreneurial spirit, AV Company 81 entrepreneurship, negotiated meaning 6 equality, Tunisian management 65 ethical codes see codes of conduct ethnographically formalized instruments 55 ethnocentrism of AMIE (US) code of conduct 56–7
cross-cultural collaboration 29
Finnish–Polish case study 36
cultural factors 38
signs 33
sources of reappearing 34–6, 37 vested interests 37, 38–9 minimalization of intercultural learning 93
ethnography 114
ethnorelativism, cross-cultural collaboration 29–30
Finnish–Polish case study 36
Index

factors affecting potential 38
etic discourse, national cultural identity 92–3 etic views 90
EU Restructuring, Privatization and Development Program 104 Euro-centredness 128
Europe 11, 20, 53–6, 61, 62, 65, 84, 86, 90, 102, 112, 115, 116, 119, 126, 127, 128
Europe, as driver of globalization 130, 134 European superiority 131 expectation of differences 145–6 see also cultural expectations; local expectations experiential learning 108, 109, 110 failed mergers and acquisitions, narrative construction 12 failed negotiation, socially constructed meaning 5–6 family metaphor, Poulina study 11–12, 70 family-based management, Tunisia 65, 69 fieldwork 90
‘figures of imagination’ 126
Finnish interlocutors, social context of meaning and failed negotiation 5
Finnish–Polish collaboration study dynamics of ethnocentrism and ethnorelativism 29–39 case description 32–6 discussion and conclusion 36–9 research setting and methodology 30–31 ‘first in Europe’ structure 130 food, intercultural integration 119 Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (1977) 54 foreign cultures, alienation of 92 foreign management practices, successful implementation 5 foreign markets 125, 126, 129, 130, 135
foreignness 22–3, 130
frames of meaning culture and provision of 66–7, 74 development of common practices 51 reinterpretation of new management techniques 67, 70 see also meaning systems; sense-making France aid workers, interrelated meanings of competence 10 meaning systems and competence 10–11 social construction of meaning and failed negotiation 5 Franco–Vietnamese cooperation, in development projects 41–52 actors’ perspectives of difficulties 43–4
case presentation 42
cross-cultural adjustments
cross-cultural learning 48–9 drawing upon partners’ complementarities 49–50
cultural differences 44–8
developing common practices 51 improving, defusing negative perceptions 50–51 power imbalance 14
free space 21, 25
French subsidiary (AMIE)
US codes of conduct implementation analysing reception of 55–6 conflict with legal frame 58–9 criticism of content and formulation 57 reaction of personnel representatives 59, 146 frontstage interaction 94, 95
GATT 126
Geertz, C. 89
gender exclusion, national cultural identity 13 generic culture, spaces of see non-places geographical distance, global-ness 130
German subsidiary (AMIE)
US codes of conduct implementation analysing reception of 55–6 conflict with legal frame 58
criticisms of content and formulation 57–8 reaction of personnel representatives 59–60, 146
German work council 58, 152
German–Japanese joint venture, negotiated culture perspective 9
Gertsen Cardel, M. 6
Global Leadership and Organizational Behaviour Effectiveness (GLOBE) Project 140 global level, corporate communication 79, 80–82 global-ness 130
global organizational culture 53 global standardization 78 globality 128, 129, 130, 133, 134, 135
globalization in corporate language use 125–37
case analysis
condition of ‘being global’ 128, 130, 133 ‘East’ and ‘West’ 128 emergent dynamic approach 125–6 liberalization and internationalization 126–7 nation-ness 132–3
Orientalism 130–31
Orientalism and nationalism entwined 133–4 territorialism and linear time 129–30
The West first 131
Westernization 127–8
world system 129
corporate perceptions versus globalizing processes 134–5 learning points 135
recommendations for future research 136–7 recommendations for practitioners 136 pre-negotiated bland culture 25 redundant concepts in 126–35 globalized corporation 126, 127, 128 Goffman, E. 94
gradualist approach, to assistance 108 greatness, myth of 133
GRE 42, 51
guide, Vietnamese image of 51 head office (Poulina), use of family metaphor 70 hierarchy (Chinese) 120
Hinds, P.J. 38
Hofstede, G. 140
Holden, N.J. 109, 125
Hollinshead, G. 6
homogenization 86
honour, Tunisia 65, 72
hosts/guides, intercultural integration 117 Hungary, aid programs see PHARE identity and company resistance to codes of conduct 61 global corporate culture and company 53, 54 knowledge of one’s own cultural 153 non-places and preservation of 6, 19, 23, 26 see also brand identity; collective identities; common identity; national cultural identity identity construction 6, 26, 121 image creation, cultural challenges of standardizing 80–81 imagined communities 126, 133 imperial gaze 131
implications for practitioners 26, 65, 77, 86–7, 139
India 1, 2, 13, 14, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 95, 97, 127, 131, 146, 147, 152
as the exotic 131
see also ChipTech Corporation indigenous knowledge 108 individual autonomy, versus social networks 44–5, 46–7 individual level corporate communication 79, 85–6 Sino–Brazilian sense of proximity 116 inequality, and cultural difference 13 insiders’ perspectives 113 see also emic views institutional influences 152 integration dinner, Sweden 112–13 see also intercultural integration interaction(s) conservative mode, Japan 86 dynamic nature of 6 focus on, in research 2–3 investigation of meaning in study of 3–4 social construction of meaning 5–6 see also intercultural interactions interconnected meaning 11 Interconsult see cross-cultural work, coping study intercultural integration 114–15 multicultural organizations 113 Sino–Brazilian 2, 114, 150, 151 construction of a common identity/spirit 121, 150, 151 construction of sense of proximity 115–16
interpretive analysis 7 micro-dynamics of 117–21
recommendations to practitioners 121–2 time and opportunities for 148 intercultural interactions institutional influence 152 openness to unfolding dynamics in 152–3
and power issues 12–14
intercultural learning 93, 150–51 intercultural slack 118, 119, 122 intercultural training 92–3 see also Western management training interculturalists 92 internal regulation, AMIE (US) code of conduct, problems for European subsidiaries 54, 58–9
international business, Uppsala model 130 international consultancy see cross-cultural work, coping study international joint ventures 113, 116 International Monetary Fund (IMF) 102, 109 international project 20, 23 international relations, globalized corporation 127
international spaces 25
internationalization and liberalization 53, 85, 90, 126–8, 130
interpreter of meanings, acting as 148–9 interpretive cross-cultural management research advantages 3–4 characteristics meanings, dynamic nature of 5–6 reflexivity 8
  transferability of outcomes 5
understanding meaning through
  dialogue 6–8
unravelling and understanding actors’ perspectives 4–5 interviews 3, 7
Irmmann, O. 5
Japanese see Danish–Japanese corporate
  communication study;
  German–Japanese joint venture jinmyaky 81
judgement, reserving 118, 150
Kaptein, M. 54
Kluckhohn, F.R. 140 knowledge, co-creation of 103, 108 knowledge aid, Eastern Europe 101 knowledge flows
  Western-EE management training change as transition progressed 107–9 implications for practice 109–10 model 106–7
knowledge transfer fear of losing employment 95–6, 152
  West-East European 103–6
Kolb, D.A. 109
Kunda, G. 94
Langlois, C.C. 54
learning
  cross-cultural 48–9, 51 intercultural 93, 150–51
see also double-loop learning;
  embedded learning;
  experiential learning
legal frame, AMIE (US) code of conduct 56, 58, 59, 61
conflict between European legal frames and 58–9
Lemmergaard, J. 6, 150, 153
Lessard, D. 30
liberalization 126, 127, 128 liberation, myth of 133 Lillrank, P. 106, 107, 108, 109 limitations of dimensional frameworks 140–41 linear time 129–30
local contexts
adaption of managerial instruments 152 of learning 49
local expectations, implementation of American techniques, Tunisia 69 local interpretations
American management 74
codes of conduct 57, 61–2, 142
London Club of creditor nations 102
Mahadevan, J. 146, 147, 152
management
in developing countries 64, 74–5 devolution of responsibility 109
Tunisian 65–6
see also American management system managerial factors, Finnish–Polish collaboration 37 market homogenization 131 market liberalism 102, 109 master, French image of 48, 51 Maznevski, M.L. 41
meaning(s)
co-creation of 77
investigation of, in human interaction 3 mediators of 148–9
as socially constructed 5–6 understanding through dialogue 6–8 meaning systems 10–12
cultural differences and construction of 2–3 see also frames of meaning; sense-making mediators of meaning 148–9 Mediterranean code of honour 65 Michailova, S. 6
micro-dynamics of integration 7, 115, 143
Sino–Brazilian joint ventures 117–21
Miller, R. 30
minimalization, intercultural learning 93 misunderstandings, cultural differences 41, 141–4 moralistic dimension, AMIE (US) code of conduct 57 Muhr, S.L. 6, 150, 153
multicultural contexts, working in 152–3 multicultural corporations, collaborative research 136 multicultural organizations, intercultural integration 113 multicultural teams 41
multinational companies (MNCs) 53, 54 codes of conduct see codes of conduct, implementation study working and managing in 143–4 multiple contexts, of meaning 6 myth of origins 132–3 narration, identity construction 6 narrative construction, cultural differences 12 nation-ness 132–3, 135
national cultural identity ethnocentricity 35
etic discourse 92–3
gender exclusion 13
national decline, threat of 133 national level
corporate communication 79, 82
Sino–Brazilian sense of proximity 115
nationalism
cross-cultural collaboration 29 and Orientalism intertwined 133–4 negative perceptions, defusing 50–51 negative stereotypes/stereotyping 113, 116, 118, 148 negotiated culture 8–9
corporate communication 77, 79, 81, 87 ‘negotiated and emergent culture’ 79 negotiated meaning(s) 2 co-creation of knowledge 103 continuous 109
culture and 8–10
implications for practitioners 139–53
in practice 141–4 negotiated practices 84 negotiated work cultures 38 negotiation

different forms of 9–10

studies

advantage of an interpretive approach 3 socially constructed meaning and failure of 5–6 new work place realities 139 non-places 6, 19, 23–6, 27, 153

North America 1, 11, 53–8, 116, 142

North European xvi

Novartis jurisprudence 58

objective reality 93
‘one foot in, one foot out’ strategy 50 organizational cultures 9, 35, 53, 89,

113

organizational factors, Finnish-Polish collaboration study 37 organizational level, corporate communication 79, 83–4 organizational model, American 68 organizational power 95, 96, 97 organizational theorists 64

Orientalism 130–31, 135

and nationalism intertwined 133–4 originality 131, 132, 134

other/otherness 95, 99

appreciating 150–51
discourses, and interpretive study of 98

the East visualized as 128 endangerment and construction of 97 perception of collective self and 89–90 respect for 118, 122, 150 talking about cultural differences and 12–13

see also us-versus-them out-grouping 116

outsider’s views see etic views

‘packaging of knowledge’ 92

Palazzo, B. 55, 60

participant observation 3, 7 participation, in adaptation/interpretation of codes of conduct 57, 61–2 partner complementarities, drawing upon 49–50 paternalism 65, 70

patterns, searching for in interpretive research 7–8 perceptions of collective self and the ‘other’ 89–90 cultured 136

personal networks/relations 65, 69

PHARE 101–2

management knowledge transfer 103–6

Phillips, M.E. 148

Poland

aid programs see PHARE

see also Finnish–Polish collaboration study ‘policy of zero-concession’ 119 political culture 50–51 political interests 152

politics, cross-cultural cooperation 144

Pologne-Hongrie pour la Reconversion Economique see PHARE polyphonic interpretations/meaning

79

Pouliana 66

American management

implementation study

case analysis 67–72

data collection 66–7

implications for cross-cultural management 72–4

recommendations for practitioners 74–5

power

issues, intercultural interactions and 2, 12–14 mistrust of arbitrariness of 68 practical contribution 38 practice, complementarity of discourse and 122 pre-negotiated generic spaces 25–6 prescriptiveness, Western management training 105, 107–8

Primecz, H. xx

processes, in interpretive studies 6 product standardization 131

professional cultures 89 professional identity, emic discourse 93–4 professional level, corporate communication 79, 84–5 progressive integration 119–20 protection, in non-places 25 qualitative research methods 7 questionnaires 3

rebirth, myth of 133
recommendation 42, 50, 61, 64, 74, 86, 98, 109, 121, 136, 141, 144
reflexivity 8
refuges, non-places as 24 regulation, codes of conduct as an instrument of 54 reinterpretation 9
of American tools, Tunisia 67, 69–72, 74 reliability 8
resilence 153
resistances 56, 59
respect, for otherness 118, 122, 150 responsibility for management, devolution of 109 Riad, S. 12
Romani, L. 7
Sackmann, S. 146, 148, 149 safety, in non-places 25
Said, E.W. 131
Salk, J. 9, 38
Sarbanes-Oxly Act (2002) 55
Schein, E.H. 113
Schlegelmilch, B.B. 54
Scholte, J. 134
Schwartz, S.H. 140
self-determination, American management system 67 sense of proximity 7, 114–15 Sino–Brazilian construction of 115–16, 118
sense-making anthropological theory 89–90, 93 organizational dynamics 98 systems, culture and 42, 44–5, 46, 51 see also frames of meaning; meaning systems sensitivity 30, 38, 85
shared meanings 7, 11 ‘shock therapy’ knowledge aid 101, 107, 108 similarities 10
Sino–Brazilian intercultural integration study 2, 114
construction of a common identity/spirit 121, 151
construction of sense of proximity 115–16
interpretive analysis 7
micro-dynamics of 117–21
recommendations to practitioners 121–2 site cultures 89
soccer, intercultural integration 117–18 social competence, perception of technical employers lack of 92 social inclusion, Vietnam 45 social networks
drawing upon 49
individual autonomy versus 44–5, 46–7 social positioning
Tunisian management 65
Vietnamese 44–5
social reality 143
social rules, Vietnam 44 social ties, and American management, Poulina 74 socially constructed culture 78 socially constructed meaning 5–6 socio-cultural meaning system 4, 41, 143 socio-cultural reality 4 Söderberg, A.-M. 6, 125 solitary contractuality 19
South America 20, 22
SOX 55
space, myth of origins 132–3 spatiality, corporate relations 129 sport, intercultural integration 117–18 stakeholder relations, globalized corporation 127, 128, 129 standardization codes of conduct and cultural 60 communication of corporate values 78 cultural challenges 80–81 globalization as 131, 133 influence of culture in spite of 86 stereotypes 113, 116, 118, 140, 141, 146, 148, 152 story-telling see narration
Index

strategic interests, in collaboration 30, 37, 38–9 Strodbeck, F.L. 140
Sturdy, A. 18
subcultures 89, 92
supply-driven knowledge flows 106, 107–8 supremacy 133
Sweden, integration dinner 112–13 tacit knowledge 108 technical assistance, Eastern Europe 101 technical companies, engineering-management conflict 94 technical employees, perceived as less socially competent 92 territorialism 129–30, 135 text analysis 7 threat of national decline 133 Tienari, J. 13
time, myth of origins 132
Tomlinson, J. 135
Topçu, K. xx
Total Quality Management, interpretive research of successful implementation 4–5 transfer processes 55
transword space 130, 136 traveling elite 26–7
Trompenaars, F. 140
Tukiainen, S. 13, 147, 148, 151, 152
Tunisia culture and management in 65–6, 72 see also Poulina
Tunisian management 73, 142
‘universal’ management methods 64 universal spaces 24
universalized capitalism 129 Uppsala model 130
us-versus-them 29, 133
see also other/otherness Vaara, E. 12
validity 8
‘value infused’, codes of conduct as 55 value surveys 3
Verstehen 4
Vietnam see Franco-Vietnamese cooperation wastefulness, management knowledge assistance 109
‘We’ 89, 98
West, as sole drive of globalization 126, 129
‘West first’ structure 131–2
Western culture 25
Western European 14, 104, 146
Western management trainers 103
Western management training (EE) abstraction of knowledge model 106–7 change in knowledge flow as transition progressed 6, 107–9 growing acceptance of local specifics 151 implications for practice 109–10 knowledge transfer projects, Bulgaria 103–6 political, social and economic background 102 wastefulness 109
Western meanings, about the ‘non-Western’ 9–10 Westernization 127–8
women managers Japanese 85–6 see also gender exclusion work ethics, cultural differences 45–8 working relations, American Companies 67–8 World Bank 102
world system 129
World Trade Organization (WTO) 126
Ybema, S.B. 12
Yousfi, H. 5, 11, 142, 150
Zaouia 4, 5
Zghal, R. 65

Henriett Primecz, Laurence Romani and Sonja Sackmann - 9780857938725 Downloaded from Elgar Online at 02/16/2019 03:09:43AM via free access