

Contents

List of contributors	vii
Preface	ix
The academic view up front: towards a new macroeconomics Paul De Grauwe	xiii
PART I THE STABILITY MERITS OF THE EURO
1 The euro's role on the world stage Joaquín Almunia	3
2 The euro's contribution to economic stability in CESEE Ewald Nowotny	13
PART II A CASE FOR RAPID EURO ADOPTION?
3 Serbia: on the de-euroization road to the euro Radovan Jelašić	23
4 A case for rapid euro adoption? Ślawomir S. Skrzypek	34
5 The Czech Republic on its way to the euro: a stabilization role of monetary policy revisited Jaromír Hurník, Zdeněk Tůma and David Vávra	48
6 Preparing for euro adoption Gertrude Tumpel-Gugerell	70
PART III THE EURO AREA – A SHELTER? EURO ASSETS – A SAFE HAVEN?
7 The euro area: a shelter? Estonia's perspective Märten Ross	77
8 Slovakia's experience with the euro Ivan Šramko	84
9 Currency substitution in the economies of Central Asia: how much does it cost? Asel Isakova	89

10	The euro as a safe haven asset in Central, Eastern and South-Eastern Europe Helmut Stix	109
PART IV LESSONS – FROM EURO AREA DIVERGENCES, AND FROM THE CRISIS
11	Economic divergence within the euro area: lessons for EMU enlargement Agnès Bénassy-Quéré, Antoine Berthou and Lionel Fontagné	131
12	Facts and lessons from euro area divergences for enlargement Zsolt Darvas	145
13	Revisiting the European financial supervisory architecture – lessons from the crisis in emerging Europe Erik Berglof and Franziska Ohnsorge	172
14	Overconfidence as a cause of crisis: the case of Ukraine Vladimir Dubrovskiy	184
PART V POST-CRISIS BUSINESS MODELS OF BANKS IN CEE
15	The Russian banking sector one year after the crisis began Nataliya Orlova	201
16	Post-crisis business models of banks in CEE – the case of Raiffeisen Herbert Stepic	211
17	Post-crisis business models of banks in CEE – the case of Intesa Sanpaolo György Surányi	215
	Index	227