access 39
   directive 69
effect 425-6, 271
   holidays 51, 59
   loops 32
   price 50
   seeker 144–5, 148–56
   shared 34, 40
adoption 216–34
   mobile services 248
   rate 256
all-IP network
   and call conveyance charging 121–39 interconnection, pricing of 121–39
   in PSTN Emulator 121, 125–6 bandwidth 36
better alternative devices 251 bitstream access/wholesale access 32–47 bottleneck 32
bottlenecks of adoption 249 broadband Canada 77–84, 90–92
   penetration 77–83, 85, 90–91, 94
   United States 77–83, 90–92
BT (British Telecom) 67–76, 212
bundle 37, 39
business-class broadband 82, 90, 93
C&W Comms 70, 76
cable modem 52
call conveyance
   and all-IP networks 121–39
   pricing 121–39
call externalities 265–6, 268–72, 277 estimating the size of 270–71 and mobile termination rates 266, 277 non-internalised see residual call externality capacity-based charging and cost causation 121–3 and risks 123
structures 123–5, 128–32
transition to 132
vs. bill and keep 131–9
vs. port-based charging (PT) 131–9
vs. time- or usage-based charging (UC) 131–9
capacity charging (CC) see capacity-based charging carrier pre-selection (CPS) 67, 69, 71–2, 75 CATV 39–40
closed-user groups (CUGs) 269 and calls made outside of 269 with single bill payer 268 cost–benefit analysis (CBA) 103–5 crowding-out 165, 168, 171–3 demand aggregation 78, 84, 87, 89–90, 92–3 difficult configuration 250–52
   installation 250–52
diffusion of innovation 216–34 digital subscriber line (DSL) 52, 58 DSLAM 37
duct sharing 42–3
ease of use 216–34
economies of scale 89
efficient pricing in two-sided markets see two-sided markets
e-health 99, 109–10
Eindhoven 101–2, 104, 106, 109, 111, 113
elasticity 286–9, 292
ex ante 32, 39, 41
Facebook 206–8
facility-based competition 54
Index

failure 41, 44
market 39
regulatory 39
firm-regulator model 19
France 35–6, 41
Fiber to the Building (FttB) 37, 42–3
Fiber to the Cabinet (FttCabinet) 37, 41, 43 Fiber to the Home (FttH) 37, 41–3, 97–8 full competition directive 68 gatekeeper 199–202, 209–13 roles 199–202, 209–13
geographic differentiation 152
Germany 33, 35, 37, 41
Google 208–9
handset-based research method 247 high prices 251
human and organizational capacity 78, 87–8, 91 Hungarian Communications Authority 190 incumbent operators 176–7 interconnection
and all-IP networks 121–39
directive 69
pricing of 121–39
internet capacity 161, 163–4, 167, 172 inter-platform competition 58–9, 61, 63 Ionica 70, 74
iPhone 205–8
Kenniswijk 97
KPN 37
ladder of investment 50, 54, 59, 64
liberalization 48–9
LLU see local loop unbundling local loop unbundling (LLU) 23, 32–47, 49, 53, 58, 67, 69, 71–2 long-term intention to use 245–6 loyalty commitment/contract 175, 180–84, 186, 188, 191 main distribution frames (MDF) 33, 37, 41 margin squeeze 146–9, 155
market 39
economy investor principle (MEIP) 97
entry 176
failure 39
liberalization 176–7
power 288, 295
media influence 216–34
mercury 68–70, 74
metrics of mobile service adoption 248 mobile internet 216–34
operators 284, 292–3, 298 fixed network operators 284 fixed-to-mobile termination rates 284, 290 service(s) 216–34
adoption framework 244
bundles 216–34
communication 216–34
entertainment 216–34
platforms 198, 20
usage 247
telecommunications 61–3 termination rates 286, 290–93 modularity 196
multi-play 189, 191
net present value (NPV) 105–6, 108–10, 112–13
Netherlands 35, 37, 41, 97, 101–2, 104, 107–8, 110, 113 network externality surcharge 270–71 neutrality 160–61, 169–70, 172 network-based competition 67–8, 70–72, 74–5 network externalities
access externality see access externalities call externality see call externalities impact of transaction costs 268–9 internalisation of 266–70 sub-optimal network usage 266 within CUGs 268–9
new entrants 176
next generation access (NGA) 32–47
next generation access networks (NGANs) 16 no need 250
number portability 177, 189–90
Index

penetration pricing 143, 146–8, 155 Penhoet 212
platform ambiguity 198
platformisation 198, 202 poor performance 250, 252 poor usability 250, 252 population density 77–8, 80–82 price–margin squeeze, price–cost squeeze 39, 41
pricing
conveyance pricing and efficiency 121, 129 conveyance pricing and regulatory objectives 129–31 conveyance pricing and risks 123, 129 priority pricing 161, 163, 169, 170–72 quality of service 168–72 quality-sensitivity 161, 165–6, 168, 170, 172 Ramsey pricing 149–50
real options 144–6
regulated termination rate 292 regulation 15
access 39
international roaming charges 296 and investments 19
price 33, 36–7, 39, 41, 43–4
regulatory failure 39 framework for electronic communications 285, 291
holidays 39, 41, 44

opportunism 20
residual call externality necessary conditions for 267–8 regulators’ view of see network externality surcharge risk premum 147–9, 156–8
sharing 23, 25, 28, 141–2, 150–58 rural 77–80, 82–7, 89–93 service-based competition 54 bitstream access 53
resale 53
Service of General Economic Interest (SGEI) 98 shared access 34, 40
short-term intention to use 245–6 significant market power (SMP) 32–47 social influence 216–34 state aid 97–8
stated preferences 179–80 stickiness factor 256 street cabinet 37, 41–3 structural/functional separation 23–5 sub-loop unbundling 41–2 sunk costs 150, 155
sunset clauses 23–4, 51, 59 technology acceptance model 216–34 Telemedicine 98, 109–10, 114 transaction costs 175, 177–8, 191 21st Century Network see all-IP network two-sided markets 265–6, 295–6 and call externality see call externalities United Kingdom (UK) 33, 35, 41, 67–73, 75–6, 183, 185 universal broadband access 17 usefulness 216–34
value-based pricing 156 Vodafone 203–4
waterbed effect 284–9, 291–9 full waterbed 287
welfare analysis of regulation 295 wholesale line rental (WLR) 72
WiMAX 97–101, 103–9, 111, 113–14