Index

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Term</th>
<th>Page Numbers</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Aarhus Convention</td>
<td>10, 144–6, 152, 153–8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>access to information</td>
<td>153</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>access to justice</td>
<td>153–4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>extent legal process in England/Wales</td>
<td>154–8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>accords with Aarhus principles</td>
<td>153–4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>private nuisance actions</td>
<td>159–60</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>public participation</td>
<td>153, 156</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>remedies</td>
<td>155–6, 159</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>standing</td>
<td>153–4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>three pillars</td>
<td>153–4, 161</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>access to environmental justice in England and Wales</td>
<td>9–10, 138–68</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Aarhus Convention</td>
<td>see Aarhus Convention</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>access to environmental justice:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>prospects for reform</td>
<td>158–61</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>conclusion</td>
<td>161–2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>death (or death) of environmental group litigation</td>
<td>140–42</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>toxic torts</td>
<td>9, 140, 162</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>empirical study of environmental judicial review</td>
<td>146–52</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>findings</td>
<td>149–52</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>impact of pollution</td>
<td>138</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>increasing reliance on public law remedies</td>
<td>138–9</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>infraction proceedings</td>
<td>158, 161</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>prospects for litigation narrowing</td>
<td>138–9</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>protective costs orders</td>
<td>142–6, 156–7, 162</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>forms of</td>
<td>144</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>pro bono representation</td>
<td>143–4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>public and private interests</td>
<td>143–6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>standing</td>
<td>145</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>access to justice</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Aarhus Convention</td>
<td>153–4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>economics of access to justice</td>
<td>22–3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>environmental justice see access to environmental justice in England and Wales</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>mass civil justice</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>administrative compensation regimes</td>
<td>33–4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ADR</td>
<td>8, 66, 109</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>financial services disputes in UK</td>
<td>111–12</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>agents see distributors; legal advisers; representation</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>aggregate settlements and aggregation aggregation procedures in Europe limited to consumer organizations</td>
<td>51</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>asbestos claims</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>aggregate settlement inducing</td>
<td>35</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>future client recruitment</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>issues of aggregation and reinsurance</td>
<td>217–20</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>and cy-pres</td>
<td>60</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>globalization</td>
<td>47–9</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>inducing future client recruitment</td>
<td>35</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>limited capacity to achieve closure</td>
<td>35</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>mass resolution of mass torts</td>
<td>4, 28–9, 34–5</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>misallocation of settlement resources</td>
<td>35</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>new civil aggregate procedures in Europe</td>
<td>47–8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>securities fraud litigation see</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>securities fraud litigation</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>unanimous consent requirement</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>leading to strategic behaviour</td>
<td>46</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>contracting in advance to waive</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>requirement</td>
<td>47</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>see also mass resolution of mass torts</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Jenny Steele and Willem H. van Boom - 9781849805070
Downloaded from Elgar Online at 03/21/2019 10:24:00PM via free access Mass justice

American Bar Association 34
American Law Institute 47, 88 Arrow’s Impossibility Theorem 121 asbestos-related claims see historic asbestos exposure and liability insurance Australia
class actions and cy-près 62–3 distributional rules 180 investors ranking as unsecured creditors 182 Australian Law Reform Commission 62–3 Austria
access to environmental justice 142 consumer organizations 68 lawyers’ remuneration 68 bankruptcy see insolvency and bankruptcy bellwether trials to inform settlement design 42–3, 48 Better Deal for Consumers, A (UK Government White Paper) 66 Boom, W. van 65
Brazil
class actions 48
Brussels I Regulation 7, 78–9, 80–82, 84–7
Bruun, N. 273
Bureckhardt, M. 127–8, 129
Canada
contributing to the IOPC Funds 231
organizational cy-près 61–2, 63 carve outs 12, 169–70
China
class actions 48
choice-of-law
Europe 6–7
choice-of-law agreements 6–7, 91
choice-of-law rules for European Group actions 88–90 consumer and competition law 88–90, 91–3
new choice-of-law rules for group actions? 92–3 US 89–90, 93
Civil Justice Council 64
class actions
Australia 62–3
Brazil 48
China 48
class action settlements 35–8 attraction of 36
back-end opt-out rights 37–8 bankruptcy of defendants 35, 38 difficulties of 36–7, 45–6 judicial review/approval 35–7 collective legal action and class actions 118–22 the function: regulation through litigation 119–21 the mechanism: enabling of actors via incentives for enforcement 121–2 cross-border see cross-border mass litigation: a particular challenge for European law cy-près in class action context 60–62 opt-out class actions and cy-près damages 58–60, 62–6, 69 Europe 118–19, 121–2, 131
avoiding “litigation culture” 29, 48, 67–8, 131
France
organizational filter model 67
reluctance of consumers to litigate for small sums 58–9 Germany 73, 118–19
opt-in 74
recognition of foreign judgments 84 implications for the plaintiffs’ bar 51–2
Israel 48
Italy 48
Netherlands 48, 49–51, 52, 81, 112, 121 reforms see cy-près for consumers: ensuring class action reforms deal with “scattered damages” securities fraud litigation see securities fraud litigation Sweden 121–2
UK
group litigation orders 48
opt-out group actions 74
US see under United States (US)
Index

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Page</th>
<th>Entry</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>23, 33</td>
<td>closure</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>35</td>
<td>aggregate settlements having limited capacity to achieve</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>45–6</td>
<td>class settlements having difficulties in achieving</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>see also goals of mass justice</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>collective bargaining see representation in collective bargaining on employment conditions in the Netherlands</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>65, 66, 73, 120, 122, 129–30</td>
<td>Collective Consumer Redress (EU Green Paper)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>127–30</td>
<td>collective enforcement and redress</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>130–32</td>
<td>collective damages claims see objectives, mechanisms and policy choices in collective enforcement and redress</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>130</td>
<td>insolvency administrator's collective claim for damages see damages in insolvency</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1</td>
<td>collective representation bargaining see representation in collective bargaining on employment conditions in the Netherlands</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>33-4</td>
<td>collective rights and collective goods: enforcement as collective interest</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>8–9, 118–37</td>
<td>approximating the collective interest</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>124–32</td>
<td>collective interests and collective rights</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>122–3</td>
<td>collective interests</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>122–3</td>
<td>collective rights in injunctive action</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>118–22</td>
<td>collective legal action and class action</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>119–21</td>
<td>the function: regulation through litigation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>121–2</td>
<td>the mechanism: enabling of actors via incentives for enforcement</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>132</td>
<td>conclusion</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>127–30</td>
<td>demarcation of individual and collective compensation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>124</td>
<td>disgregation of profits</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>125</td>
<td>the legal character</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>126–7</td>
<td>restitution, deterrence and the enforcement interest</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>127–8</td>
<td>demarcation of individual and collective compensation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>130</td>
<td>allocating the collective interest: the question of adequate actors</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>128–30</td>
<td>relationship to individual rights to compensation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>90–91</td>
<td>commonality</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>141–2, 160–61</td>
<td>conditional fee structures</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>195</td>
<td>Condorelli, L.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>59, 67, 112</td>
<td>consumer Advocate</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>20–21</td>
<td>consumer organizations actions on behalf of consumers</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>see also cy-près for consumers: ensuring class action reforms deal with “scattered damages” aggregation procedures in Europe limited to consumer organizations</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>see also cy-près for consumers: ensuring class action reforms</td>
<td>class actions reforms see cy-près for consumers: ensuring class action reforms deal with “scattered damages” consumer associations</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Europe and European Union</td>
<td>consumer law in Europe see under</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>33–4</td>
<td>contract and public law</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>175, 178, 180–81</td>
<td>Cork Committee</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>promoting distributional justice on corporate insolvency</td>
<td>corporate insolvency see promoting distributional justice on corporate insolvency in the 21st century</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Mass justice

costs and Aarhus Convention 154–9, 161–2 assessment 157, 159
conditional fee structures 141–2, 160–61 Jackson Report 141–2, 158–61
level of general damages 160 qualified one way costs shifting 158–9 legal aid 142, 154, 158–9 protective costs orders 142–6, 156–7, 162
forms of 144
pro bono representation 143–4 public and private interests 143–6 standing 145
security for costs 156
coupon settlements 61
courts’ role in mass justice 18–19 “public” nature of applicable issues 22 creditors’ claims see damages in insolvency cross-border mass litigation: a particular challenge for European law 6–7, 73–100 conflict-of-laws in cross-border group litigation 87–93 applicable law in cross-border group actions 87
choice-of-law agreements 91
choice-of-law rules for European Group actions 88–90 formation of sub-classes 91 harmonisation of tort law and consumer law 90–91 multi-jurisdiction and international class actions in the US 87–8 new choice-of-law rules for group actions? 92–3 international jurisdiction 78–82 cross-border group actions under Brussels I Regulation 78–9 European Action Reform Group 79–81 opt-in v. opt-out: a basic decision in terms of representation 74–7 adequate representation of group members 76–7 European scepticism regarding the opt-out system 74–5 importance of a solid basis for representation 75–7 insolvency proceedings and mass litigation 75–6 recognition and enforcement of group action judgments and settlements 82–6 group action judgments 82–4 group action settlements 84–6 present system 82–8 prospective reform 86 situation of mass litigation in Europe 73–4 cy-près for consumers: ensuring class action reforms deal with “scattered damages” 5–6, 8, 58–72 consumer organizations encouraged by organizational cy-près trust fund 58–9 justifying litigating mass small claims – case for an opt-out class action and cy-près arguments against 62–3 distribution 58–60, 62–6 North American, UK and European approach 63–5 mapping a clear way forward 69–70 meaning of scattered damages claims 58 reluctance of consumers to litigate for small sums 58–9 what is cy-près in class action context 60–62 what should the remedy be? 69 who should bring actions? 67–8 why is regulation not an alternative? 66–7 damages and compensation administrative compensation regimes 33–4 asbestos-related claims see historic asbestos exposure and liability insurance

Jenny Steele and Willem H. van Boom - 9781849805070
Downloaded from Elgar Online at 03/21/2019 10:24:00PM via free access
Index

compensation and cy-près 58–60, 62–6, 69 compensation grid 27 in class action settlements of future claims 36–7 cramdown power 33
mass resolution via contracts with plaintiffs’ lawyers firms 44–5 competition for limited resources 1, 2, 5 demarcation of individual and collective compensation see under collective rights and collective goods: enforcement as collective interest as goal of mass justice see under goals of mass justice in insolvency see damages in insolvency maximising sources of compensation 1 nature and role of damages 22 for oil pollution see International Oil Pollution Compensation (IOPC) funds punitive damages 9, 118, 125 purpose of compensation 1, 6, 8 damages in insolvency 12–13, 21, 191–207
conclusion 203
dividing line between collective claim of the insolvency administrator and claims of individual creditors 196–7 evaluation of the different systems 200–203
France 12–13, 192–3, 196–7, 199–201, 203
Germany 12–13, 195–200, 202–3
Netherlands 12, 193–5, 197, 199–200, 202–3 pari passu rule 2, 20, 75, 171–3, 180, 194–5, 202–3 whether should be amended 185 position of the insolvency administrator 192 power of insolvency administrator to claim on basis of wrongful act 193–6 wrongful continuation of an insolvent business 198–200 see also promoting distributional justice on corporate insolvency in the 21st century Denmark collective redress 73
opt-out group actions 74
Derrida, F. 194
deterrence and enforcement 22–3, 77, 93, 101–2, 104, 120, 126–7, 209 see also goals of mass justice Dimde, M. 129
directors 184–5
disposition maxim 74 distributional justice see promoting distributional justice on corporate insolvency in the 21st century distributors and mass justice 17–18
control of 21
performance of public functions 21 liquidators and other insolvency practitioners see under promoting distributional justice on corporate insolvency in the 21st century employment agreements see under representation in collective bargaining on employment conditions in the Netherlands enforcement collective enforcement and redress see objectives, mechanisms and policy choices in collective enforcement and redress as collective interest see collective rights and collective goods: enforcement as collective interest and deterrence 22–3, 77, 93, 101–2, 104, 120, 126–7, 209
see also goals of mass justice
European Union see under Europe and European Union Enforcement Order, European 6–7, 85
Mass justice

England and Wales see United Kingdom (UK) enterprise liability 22 environmental justice see access to environmental justice in England and Wales environmental law, European see under Europe and the European Union Environmental Law Foundation 146–52 Europe and the European Union aggregation procedures limited to consumer organizations 51 choice-of-law rule 6–7
and class actions, 118–19, 121–2, 131
avoiding “litigation culture” 29, 48, 67–8, 131 collective damages claims see objectives, mechanisms and policy choices in collective enforcement and redress collective procedures 65–6, 67, 69, 73 need for filters 68 collective rights and goods see collective rights and collective goods: enforcement as collective interest competence rules 6–7 consumer and competition law 90–91
choice-of-law 88–90, 91–3
enforcement 5, 104–5, 107–8, 127 cross border litigation see cross-border mass litigation: a particular challenge for European law document service 83
enforcement 119
collective see collective rights and collective goods: enforcement as collective interest of competition law through private enforcement 104–5, 127 Enforcement Order 6–7, 85 framework in relation to private enforcement mechanisms 110–13 models 107–8
not primarily based on deterrence 104 separation between private and public enforcement 104, 108 environmental law and liability 138–9, 144, 153, 156–7 access to environmental justice 142, 153, 158 environmental impact assessments 156–7 infraction proceedings against the UK 158, 161 pollution control 156–7
standing 153–4
European legal systems and mass justice 19 harmonisation 6–7 standing in environmental matters 153–4 tort law and consumer law 90–91 injunctions 123
insolvency 170, 175–7, 180–81 new civil aggregate procedures 47–8 principle of favour 277–8 product safety 48
small claims 129–30
European Action Reform Group 79–81
European Convention on Human Rights 7, 74, 145, 177, 194 European Court of Human Rights 177 European Court of Justice consumer contracts 80
Enforcement Order 85
public policy standards 83
Even, Zef 16–17, 20

Fair Deal for All, A (Department for Trade and Industry) 64 fen-phen class settlement 37, 45–6
Financial Ombudsman Service 66, 111–12
Financial Services Authority 66, 111–12
Finland 73
France
class actions
organizational filter model 67
reluctance of consumers to litigate for small sums 58–9 collective interests 123

contributing to the IOPC Funds 231

damage to the collective interest 60

damages in insolvency 12–13, 192–3, 196–7, 199–201, 203

disgorgement of profits 124

insolvency 192

funding court representation see access to environmental justice in England and Wales

“futures problem” 31

Germany

access to environmental justice 142

class actions 73, 118–19

opt-in 74

recognition of foreign judgments 84 collective interests/rights 123

legal character 125

consumer organizations 68

damages and compensation 129–30

capping 128

deterrence and enforcement 126

disgorgement of profits 124–5, 127, 130

in insolvency 12–13, 195–200, 202–3 trade union sector expertise 268 foreign judgments 82

injunctive action 122–3

settlement 85

test cases for securities litigation 48

globalization 47–9

aggregate settlements and aggregation 47–9

cross-border see cross-border mass litigation: a particular challenge for European law global peace as goal see under goals of mass justice global resolution of mass torts 47–9 global future for mass resolution 28–9

implications for the plaintiffs’ bar 51–2

securities fraud litigation 49–51, 52

goals of mass justice 21–4 compensation for victims of mass events/mass harm 22, 93, 102, 209 enforcement or deterrence 22–3, 77, 93, 101–2, 104, 120, 126–7, 209

peace and global peace 5, 23 back-end opt-out rights not achieving 37–8

definition 23

mass resolution creating new wealth 30–31

offer of broad peace unlocking joint gains 46

see also objectives, mechanisms and policy choices in collective enforcement and redress

Greece

punitive damages 125

harmonisation see under Europe and European Union historic asbestos exposure and liability insurance 13–14, 17, 22, 208–25 aggregate settlement inducing future client recruitment 35 asbestos exposures: the insurance issues 211–14 challenges posed by mesothelioma 211, 213–14 interplay between liability principles and insurance 212–13

trigger litigation and whether liabilities covered by insurance 212–13 bankruptcy/insolvency of the defendants 35, 38, 39–40, 209, 211

addressing 217–18

bellwether trials 42–3

class action settlements of future claims 36–7, 38 conclusions 220–22

insurance policies and joint and several liability 214–15

insurers’ responsibilities 16
issues of aggregation and reinsurance 217–20 legislative consideration of compensation scheme 46 problem for claimants posed by the approach of Court of Appeal 216–17 creating compensatory black holes 216 role of insurance as loss distribution mechanism 209–11 dominant theme of full and rapid compensation 209, 210, 221 scale/sort of liabilities not envisaged 210–11 Hodges, Christopher 7–8, 9, 22, 66, 140 Howells, Geraint 5, 8, 22 human rights abuses 23 environmental claims 145, 153 nuisance claims 160 see also European Convention on Human Rights Hungary
access to environmental justice 142
hybridization 10, 41–53 group interests and individual interests 1, 6 and legitimacy 5
new face of hybridization 49–51 pressures leading to 23 promise and perils of institutional hybrids 45–7 resistance to ideas of hybridization 22–3 Vioxx litigation see under mass resolution of mass torts India
contributing to the IOPC Funds 231 information, access to see Aarhus Convention injunctive action 122–3
insolvency and bankruptcy “bankruptcy tourism” 176–7
class action settlements 35, 38 corporate insolvency see promoting distributional justice on

Mass justice

corporate insolvency in the 21st century damages in see damages in insolvency of defendants in asbestos litigation 35, 38, 39–40, 209, 211

addressing 217–18
European Union 170, 175–7, 180–81 insolvency administrators see damages in insolvency; promoting distributional justice on corporate insolvency in the 21st century insolvency proceedings and mass litigation 75

reorganizations in bankruptcy 38–41
corporate reorganizations under Bankruptcy Code 38–9 difficulties of 40
risk of bankruptcy encouraging class settlements 38

insurance

after the event insurance 141–2 asbestos litigation challenges posed by mesothelioma 211, 213–14 dominant theme of full and rapid compensation 209, 210, 221 insurance issues 211–14 insurance policies and joint and several liability 214–15
insurers’ responsibilities 16
interplay between liability principles and insurance 212–13 role of insurance as loss distribution mechanism 209–11
scale/sort of liabilities not envisaged 210–11
trigger litigation and whether liabilities covered by insurance 212–13

P and I clubs 228, 232
reinsurance
issues of aggregation and reinsurance 217–20 maximising sources of compensation 1
Index

International Maritime Organization 226, 227 International Oil Pollution Compensation (IOPC) funds 14–16, 22, 226–45 compensation actual loss compensation 234–5, 237–8 amount of compensation available 229 damage covered by the Conventions 229–30 equal treatment of claimants 237–8 expert assessment 236–7, 241 fair hearing of claims 237–8 inadequate information to prove losses 232–3, 234–6 increasing costs to assess claims 237–8 insufficient compensation available for all claims 232 large numbers of individual claims 232–3, 234, 242 members states paying compensation having subrogated rights 234, 240–41 possible ways to pay compensation more quickly 240–41
solutions tried in previous incidents 238–9
time it takes to assess and pay claims 236–7 vulnerable claimants 232–3, 235–6, 240
conclusion 242–3
international convention regime regarding liability and compensation for oil pollution damage and the IOPC Funds 227–8 great majority of maritime states are members of the IOPC Funds 228 relevant conventions and intergovernmental organizations 14, 226, 227–8 IOPC Funds 15 dealing with the masses 232–3, 242 financing 231–2 human resources 236–7
membership 228
purpose and structure 226–8, 230–31 recent developments within the IOPC Funds 242 rights of subrogation 234, 240–41 three separate and independent intergovernmental organizations 227–8 IOPC Funds and dealing with the masses 232–3, 242 legal framework in a nutshell 14, 228–30 amount of compensation available 229
damage covered by the Conventions 229–30 definition of pollution damage 229 role of the IOPC Funds 228 shipowner has strict liability 228 types of pollution damage 230 main issues 233–8
increasing costs to assess claims 237–8
large numbers of individual claims 232–3, 234, 242 many small claimants cannot prove their losses 232–3, 234–6 time it takes to assess and pay claims 236–7 possible ways to pay compensation more quickly 240–41 fund pays compensation as determined by the fund following advice of its experts 241 government of affected states takes over the compensation to victims 240–41 solutions tried in previous incidents 238–9
Mass justice

Nissos Amorgos, Aegean Sea, Sea Prince and others 232, 238–9 Prestige 239, 240
Solar I 232, 239
recent developments within the IOPC Funds 242 structure and financing of the IOPC Funds 230–32 financing of the IOPC Funds 231–2 structure of the IOPC Funds 230–31 Israel
class actions 48
Italy
class action statute 48
contributing to the IOPC Funds 231
Jackson Report 141–2, 158–61
level of general damages 160 qualified one way costs shifting 158–9
Japan
contributing to the IOPC Funds 231 judicial review bankruptcy and resolution of claims 39–40 class action settlements 35–7 difficulty of assessing settlements 76 and funding see access to environmental justice in England and Wales Kalven, Jr, Professor H. 105
Koch, H. 121, 127–8
Kocher, Eva 8–9, 22
Korea, Republic of 233
contributing to the IOPC Funds 231 labour representation see trade unions Lee, Robert 9–10, 22
legal aid 142, 154, 158–9
see also costs
legal advisers 17
consent requirement and class actions 47 and consumer organizations bringing claims for organizational cy-prés 68 constraining self-dealing 31 class action settlements in asbestos cases 37 coupon settlements 61
implications for the plaintiffs’ bar of class action developments 51–2 lawyers’ role 4
mass resolution via contracts with plaintiffs’ lawyers firms 44–5 spreading fixed costs through inventory of clients 30 US class actions see under United States (US) US lawyers’ image 67
legislature’s role in mass justice 18–19 Liberty Report 142 limited liability 11–12, 169–70
shareholders 182
liquidators and other insolvency practitioners see under promoting distributional justice on corporate insolvency in the 21st century Logic of Collective Action, The (Olson) 58 Malta
access to environmental justice 142 mass justice and its challenges 1–26 collective bargaining and issues of representation 16–17 enforcement and access to court 7–10 insolvency and distribution 11–13 insurance, funds and the challenge of mass claims 13–16 mass justice covering wide range of topics 3 mass resolution of mass torts 3–7 see also mass resolution of mass torts ‘massification’ in contracts and torts 1 reflections following contributions 17–24 goals of mass justice 21–4 key players in mass justice 17–19 representative as the servant of the mass 19–21
search for mass civil justice throwing up problems for legal systems 1–2
mass resolution of mass torts 3–7, 27–57
conclusion 52–3
continuum of institutional arrangements for mass resolution 29–38
aggregate settlements see aggregate settlements and aggregation challenges for institutional design 29–31
charting the continuum 31–3 class action settlements see under
class actions
contested middle and the ripples within 34–6
poles of contract and public law 33–4
future of the continuum 41–52 bellwether trials to inform settlement design 42–3, 48
globalization 47–9
hybridization 41–2, 52–3
implications for the plaintiffs’ bar 51–2
mass resolution via contracts with plaintiffs’ lawyers firms 44–5
new face of hybridization 49–51 promise and perils of institutional hybrids 45–7
mass torts as a problem of institutional choice 27–9 aggregate settlements 4, 28–9 global future for mass resolution 28–9
meaning of “mass torts” 271 reorganizations in bankruptcy see reorganizations in bankruptcy US class action see under United States (US)
Vioxx prescription drug litigation 4, 28, 41–7
bellwether trials 42–3
deal as institutional hybrid 45–7 mass resolution via contracts with plaintiffs’ lawyers firms 44–5

Mass Torts in a World Settlement (Nagareda) 4 medical and medicinal products 109, 140
see also product safety and liability Merkin, Rob 13–14, 21
Mertens, Hans-Joachim 132
Micklitz, Hans-W. 124–5, 129
Milman, David 11–12, 21, 172 Modern Cy-près Doctrine, The (Mulheron) 59
Mokal, R. J. 172
Mulheron, Rachel 59, 61, 62 Nagareda, Richard A. 4–5, 6, 17 closure 23
representation 19–21
Netherlands
collective bargaining see representation in collective bargaining on employment conditions in the Netherlands class actions 48, 49–51, 52, 81, 112, 121 contributing to the IOPC Funds 231
damages in insolvency 12, 193–5, 197, 199–200, 202–3 securities fraud litigation and Royal Dutch Shell 49–51, 52, 81, 82
Nordic Consumer Ombudsman 67, 112
Norway
opt-out group actions 74
nuisance human rights 160
private nuisance actions 159–60 objectives, mechanisms and policy choices in collective enforcement and redress 7–8, 101–17 ADR arrangements see ADR conclusion: frameworks 110–13 need for cooperation 11–12 enforcement: public and private 102–6
aims of public and private enforcement 103–4
debate on balance between public and private enforcement 104–5 public and private enforcement involving ex ante and ex post controls 105 models of collective redress 106–8 moving forward: empirical research 113–14 objectives: behaviour and compensation 103 policy choices 108–10 public authority assistance 8
see also goals of mass justice
Office of Fair Trading 111, 176, 185 oil pollution see international oil pollution compensation funds Olson, Mancur 58
“Olson’s law” 121
Ontario Law Reform Commission 63 Oosterveen, Willem 14–16, 21 opt-in v. opt-out and representation see under cross-border mass litigation: a particular challenge for European law

pari passu rule 2, 20, 75, 171–3, 180, 194–5, 202–3
whether should be amended 185
peace and global peace 5, 23
back-end opt-out rights not achieving 37–8
definition 23
mass resolution creating new wealth 30–31
offer of broad peace unlocking joint gains 46
see also goals of mass justice Philippines 232
Pinna, A. 119, 128 pollution control in Europe 156–7 environmental law, European see under Europe and the European Union oil see international oil pollution compensation funds see also access to justice environmental justice in England and Wales

price roll-backs 60–61, 63
principle of favour 277–8, 281
private nuisance actions 159–60
pro bono representation 143–4 see also representation product safety and liability 29 commonality 90–91
concerns ranging 30 enforcement/deterrence as goal of mass justice 22–3 medical/medicinal product injuries 109, 140 tort litigation as ex post regulation for product safety 48 undifferentiated character of product design and warnings 30 promoting distributional justice on corporate insolvency in the 21st century 11–12, 21, 169–90 allocating losses between competing groups 169 basic rules to promote distributional justice in English law 171–3 pari passu rule see pari passu rule carve outs 12, 169–70
conclusion 184–5
directors 184–5
distributional justice across national barriers 179–81 limited liability 11–12, 169–70
shareholders 182
reforms to system 170–71 abolition of Crown preferential debt 171, 184 reserved fund for unsecured creditors: new distributional complication? 178–9, 184 role of liquidators and other insolvency practitioners as distributors 173–8, 192 “bankruptcy tourism” 176–7 collectivism on corporate insolvency 170, 173 distribution process 177–8 fees 175–6, 177, 185 professional regulation 175–6 special cases posing challenges for distributional process on corporate Index

insolvency 181–4
“insider” creditors 182–3, 185 tort claimants and future tort claimants 181–2 use of third-party funds to aid distributional outcomes 183–4 see also damages in insolvency protective costs orders 142–6, 156–7, 162
forms of 144
pro bono representation 143–4 public and private interests 143–6
standing 145
see also costs
public interest cases 142–6 public legislation and Bankruptcy Code 39
and class actions 46
for mass tort resolution 33–4 public participation see Aarhus Convention punitive damages 9, 118, 125 see also damages and compensation regulation through litigation 119–21
reinsurance
asbestos claims see historic asbestos exposure and liability insurance maximising sources of compensation 1
see also insurance
reorganizations in bankruptcy 38–41
corporate reorganizations under Bankruptcy Code 38–9 difficulties of 40
risk of bankruptcy encouraging class settlements 38
see also insolvency and bankruptcy representation in collective bargaining see representation in collective bargaining on employment conditions in the Netherlands fair representation in mass civil justice 1 importance of a solid basis for representation 75–7
adequate representation of group members 76–7
insolvency proceedings and mass litigation 75 legal advisers see legal advisers litigating on behalf of individuals 2 opt-in v. opt-out see under cross-border mass litigation: a particular challenge for European law pro bono representation 143–4 representative as the servant of the mass 19–21 compulsory arrangements where opting out not allowed 20–21 controls on agent’s behaviour 20–21 institutional arrangements binding individuals by default to outcome 20 voluntary individual authorisation to represent 19–20 representation in collective bargaining on employment conditions in the Netherlands 16–17, 20, 246–86 (absent) role of representativity demands in the collective bargaining process 257–65
conclusion 264–5
representativity demands with regard to binding collective bargaining agreements 262–4 representativity and establishing the consequences of a collective bargaining agreement (applicable due to an incorporation clause) 260–62 representativity and the incorporation clause 260–62 representativity and the right to conclude a collective bargaining agreement 262 representativity and the right to participate in negotiations 258–60 Article 14 Wcao 252–3, 254, 280 reviewing 276, 281 assessment of the Dutch system on collective bargaining in view of representativity 272–5 employees’ representativity concerning normal collective bargaining agreements 274–5 general remark 273
management’s representativity concerning normal collective bargaining agreements 274
representativity concerning extended collective bargaining agreements 275 collective bargaining agreements 248–50 definition of collective bargaining agreement 246, 248 extent 246, 247
negotiation process/conclusion of a collective bargaining agreement 249–50 types of collective bargaining agreements 249 what constitutes a collective bargaining agreement? 248 which parties may enter into a collective bargaining agreement? 248–9 effects of the collective bargaining agreement on employment agreements 250–54 acceptance of collective bargaining agreement/ incorporation clause 253–4 Article 14 Wcao 252–3, 254
both the employer and employee are bound by the collective bargaining agreement 250–51 development from the collective bargaining agreement in the individual employment contract 251 either the employer, or the employee or both parties is/ are not bound by the collective bargaining agreement 252–4 special legal consequences of a collective bargaining agreement: ¾ mandatory law 254, 280 what are the legal consequences? 251 which employers and employees are bound by the collective bargaining agreement? 250 which employers and employees fall within the scope of application of the collective bargaining agreement? 250–51 extending the applicability of collective bargaining agreements 254–7 consequences of a binding collective bargaining agreement 257 exemptions granted to individual employers 257 extending a collective bargaining agreement 255–7 important majority 255–6 incorporation clauses 253–4, 258, 264, 270–71, 273–81 and representativity 260–62 key figures of collective bargaining in Netherlands 247–8 social partners’ representativity 257–8, 268–9, 272–3 summary and final remarks 280–82 trade unions agreements with non-representative trade unions 263–4 development of sector expertise 268, 281 efficient organization 268, 281
empathy with employees 268 excluding from negotiations 259–60 importance of representativity of trade unions 267
independence 263, 268, 281 introducing general demands trade unions should meet 277
Index

joining other negotiations 258–9
legal representativity requirements 272
members approving negotiations 249–50
membership 267–8, 274, 275–6, 280–81
mismatch between union density and coverage 273, 275–6
no representativity requirements 269
non-representative trade unions 269–70, 274–5, 277–8, 281
powers 268, 281
pressure on employers through collective action 249 willingness to engage in industrial action 268 yellow trade unions, agreements with 263–4 what can be done to remedy the flaws of the Dutch collective bargaining system in relation to representativity? 275–80 introducing general demands trade unions should meet 277 legitimising factors for the applicability of burdensome collective bargaining agreements to employees who are not members of the contracting trade union 278–80 other suggestions to improve the collective bargaining system (with a view to representativity) 276–7 reviewing Article 14 Wcao 276 supplementing the contractual system with the principle of favour 277–8, 281 what exactly is representativity and when is it important (in the Dutch collective bargaining system)? 265–72 employees’ representativity concerning normal collective bargaining agreements 269–72 importance of representativity of trade unions 267 just factual representativity? 267–8 management’s representativity concerning normal collective bargaining agreements 269
representativity concerning extended collective bargaining agreements 272 two forms of representativity 265 when is representativity of collective bargaining important in the Dutch collective bargaining system? 268–72 when is representativity important? 266 why is representativity of trade unions relevant 266–8 Representative Actions in Consumer Protection Legislation (Department for Trade and Industry) 63–4 Representative Claims: Proposed New Procedures (Lord Chancellor’s Department) 63–4 Rio Declaration 153
Rome I and II Regulations 6, 87, 88–91
Rosenfield, M. Professor 105
Säcker, F.J. 119
“scattered damages” cases consumers see cy-près for consumers: ensuring class action reforms deal with “scattered damages” enforcement or deterrence as goal of mass justice 2 meaning 58 Scandinavian Consumer Ombudsman 67 securities fraud litigation 49–51
commonality 90–91
Germany 48
representation 52
shipowners and oil pollution see International Oil Pollution Compensation (IOPC) funds Singapore contributing to the IOPC Funds 231
small claims 129–30
mass small claims see cy-près for consumers: ensuring class action reforms deal with “scattered damages” small claims for oil pollution 232–3, 234–6 Sortais, J-P. 194
Spain contributing to the IOPC Funds 231
disgorgement of profits 124
Stadler, Astrid 6, 21, 124–5, 129
standing 10, 19, 122, 131, 145, 153–4
Stech, Robert 9–10, 22
Steele, Jenny 13–14, 21 strict liability 14, 22, 139, 228 sub-classes, formation of 91 Sullivan Report 146, 157
Sweden 73
disgorgement of profits 124
group actions 121–2
opt-in 122
sub-classes 91
tort claimants on insolvency 181–2 torts, mass see mass resolution of mass torts trade unions agreements with non-representative trade unions 263–4 collective bargaining see representation in collective bargaining on employment conditions in the Netherlands development of sector expertise 268, 281 efficient organization 268, 281
empathy with employees 268
excluding from negotiations 259–60
importance of representativity of trade unions 267
independence 263, 268, 281
introducing general demands trade unions should meet 277
joining other negotiations 258–9
legal representativity requirements 272
members approving negotiations 249–50
membership 267–8, 274, 275–6, 280–81 minority of employees union members 2, 246, 247–8 mismatch between union density and coverage 273, 275–6 monitoring 21
no representativity requirements 269
non-representative trade unions 269–70, 274–5, 277–8, 281
powers 268, 281
pressure on employers through collective action 249 willingness to engage in industrial action 268
yellow trade unions, agreements with 263–4

United Kingdom (UK)
asbestos-related claims see historic asbestos exposure and liability insurance
class actions
group litigation orders 48
opt-out group actions 74
Consumer Advocate 59, 67, 112
environmental justice see access to environmental justice in England and Wales Financial Ombudsman Service 66, 111–12
Financial Services Authority 66, 111–12
financial services disputes 111–12 funding representation for court reviews of administrative action see access to environmental justice in England and Wales insolvency see promoting distributional justice on corporate insolvency in the 21st century Office of Fair Trading 111, 176, 185
organizational cy-près 62, 77
Index

ADR 66
collective redress procedure for consumers in competition law 63–4 and consumer organizations 67–9 reluctance of consumers to litigate for small sums 58–9
United Nations 29
International Maritime Organization see International Maritime Organization United States (US) asbestos litigation 210, 218–19 post-loss allocation at reinsurance level 219–20 Bankruptcy Code see under reorganizations in bankruptcy
choice-of-law 89–90, 93
class actions 3–4, 14, 28, 48, 84, 101, 118–19, 131 consumer redress and disgorgement 77 controls on agent’s behaviour 20 multi-jurisdiction and international class actions 87–8 new entrepreneurial opportunities for plaintiffs’ lawyers 29 opt-outs 76 purpose 8
securities fraud litigation 50, 52 settlements and Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 4, 35–7, 45–6, 75–6 unclaimed funds, use of contributing to the IOPC Funds 231 enforcement based on theory of deterrence 104 as behaviour control 106–7 private enforcement as primary mechanism 103, 105, 110, 118–19 functional approach 90 “litigation culture” 29, 48, 68
US lawyers’ image 67
mass torts see mass resolution of mass torts Model Rules of Professional Conduct 4 aggregate settlement rules 34 organizational cy-près 61–2, 63, 77
price roll-backs 60–61
private law and regulation through litigation 9 unsecured creditors 3, 11–12, 75, 170–74, 176, 180, 182–5 reserved fund 178–9, 184 Venezuela 232
Verstijlen, Frank 12–13, 21
Vioxx prescription drug litigation see under mass resolution of mass torts Zekoll, J. 127–8