Index

Abbott-Chapman, J. 145
accountability 100, 103–4, 162, 164, 165 additionality 136–7
Age Concern/Age NI 96, 98, 99
Alcock, C. 9, 10, 11
Allan, S. 52
Allen, B. 50
Allison, M. M. 57
Alter, K. 115
ambulance service call-outs, measuring impact on 148 Ardersier
  measurement of individual-level outcomes 142–3
  social enterprise development 84, 85, 86, 88
  sustainability of projects 123–6
Arts and Humanities Research Council 137 Assynt
  measurement of individual-level outcomes 143
  social enterprise development 82–3, 85, 86, 88, 90
  sustainability of projects 123–6
Assynt Community Transport project 82, 86, 123, 143
Asthana, S. 5
Atkins, J. 11, 12, 13

Bagott, R. 10
Baines, D. 117
Banister, D. 112, 120
Barnir, A. 57
Barron, C. 51
Bartlett, W. 10
Bennett, R. 113, 114
Berglund, K. 51
Berlin, I. 126
Beveridge Report (1942), UK 8

Big Society 14–15, 16–17, 47, 57–8, 89–90, 107, 111, 133, 137, 152–3, 159–61
Big Society Bank (BSB) 16 biography, effect on institutional environment 102–4
Blackburn, R. 95
Blair, T. 13
bottom-up approaches 48, 84, 135–6 feasibility of 88–9 boundary spanning 62, 76–7, 87
Boyle, D. 89
Bridge, S. 95, 111
Bruntland Commission 112
Buchanan, I. 110, 111, 114, 118, 119, 120, 121
Building Health Communities (BHC) programme 12–13 Burchell, J. 51
business life cycle, impact on sustainability 118 business support 30–31, 42, 64, 72, 77, 113, 120, 122, 125–6 capabilities, social entrepreneurship 52–71, 86–7 capacity-building 35, 103, 118, 121, 125, 128, 162 care landscape 36–8
care system
demographic challenges 3–6
economic challenges 6–8
Carter, S. 116, 117, 118
Casson, M. 50–51
Catford, J. 111, 115
'Celtic' social enterprise model 28–9
Chalkley, D. 114
Chamberlayne, P. 102, 104 chargeable services 34–6, 122, 125 charisma 55, 63–4, 69
Chen, H.-T. 137
Community Co-Production

Cherrett, T. 112, 120
Cho, H. 51, 53
Cleaver, F. 24
co-operatives 50, 78, 88, 111 cooproduction coalsitions 65–7
Coburn, J. 112, 113, 116, 117, 118, 120
Cohen, A.P. 29
collaboration skills 56, 53, 57, 58, 65–7, 70 collectivism 8, 9, 10
Collins, C. 154
commercial business model 30, 31, 41, 38, 39, 164 Commission for Rural Communities, UK 116 communities
relevance of evaluation 137 selection of 77, 81
community company model 82, 87–8 community engagement 85–6 importance of context 166–7 community social enterprise defining xvi fragility of 97–8, 100–102 for older people’s services xvi–xviii community-level outcomes, measurement of 143–6 competitiveness 113, 114, 119
Comprehensive Spending Review (CSR), UK 7 Conservative Party ideology 9–11, 14–15 context
awareness of 166–7
effects of 88
findings 27–34
importance of 24–6
O4O projects xix–xxxv role of 38–43
context mapping methodology 25–6 reflections on 43–4 contracting process 119–20
Cook, J. 51
Cookstown, service innovation 97–9, 100–102
Cools, E. 52
Coote, A. 160
cost reduction motivation 146–7 Cox, E. 116–17, 119, 120, 122 creativity 51, 54, 59–62, 68, 127
Crosland, A. 8–9
Cuan FM project 124
cultural norms 16, 25, 28–9, 43, 44, 87, 89, 162
Curran, J. 95
Davies, A. 51
Dees, J.G. 52, 53, 57
Defourney, J. 50
dementia 5
demographic impetus 3–6, 161 Department of Trade and Industry, UK 28, 50 dependency ratio 4–5, 6 difficult-to-employ people 27, 29, 38, 39, 163, 166 disadvantaged communities 81, 84, 85, 96, 143, 160, 163, 168 discursive legitimacy 56, 65–7, 70, 71, 165 displacement 136–7
Doh, J.P. 53, 57
dominant personalities 100–104
Draper, A.K. 135
drive 55, 58, 63–4, 69
drop-in services 99–100, 102–4 Dudman, J. 115
economic goals
combining with social goals 55, 63–4, 69 tensions with social goals 106–7 economic impetus 6–8, 89–90, 146–7, 163 economic sustainability 114, 115–16, 121–2, 124–5, 128, 129
Edwards, M. 25
Elkington, J. 115–16
Ellis, C. 13, 15
Emanuel, E.J. 154
emergent organisational models 87–8 employees 27, 29, 38, 39 mobilisation of 55, 56, 63, 69 employment subsidies 29–30 empowerment 3, 9, 12–13, 47, 51, 90, 121, 135–6 environmental sustainability 112, 115–16 ethics 153–4
European Social Fund (ESF) 29
European Union (EU), demographic trends 4–5 evaluation and ethics 153–4
O4O project 137–49
other approaches to 149–51
problems with 151–3
relevance of 135–7
theory-based 137–8
experimentation 54, 59–62, 68, 153, 161 facilitated entrepreneurship 49, 58–9, 60, 62, 63–4 Farmer, J. 57, 90, 137, 161
Faucher-King, F. 111 fertility rates 3–4 Figge, F. 112, 115
financial value, converting social value into 150–51 Finland
context and overview of O4O projects xxxiv–xxxv enterprise support 29, 30, 31
future expectations 43
O4O project outputs 41
role of context 39, 42, 166–7
service providers 36–8
service provision and charges 34–6
social enterprise types xxvi
sustainability of projects 123–6
voluntary sector 32, 33
Flora, C.B. 24
Flynn, R. 129
free personal and nursing care (FPNC), Scotland 7 free services 34–6
Friedman, M. 9–10
Froggett, L. 102, 104
funding access to 120, 121–2, 124–5, 126, 129 facilitation of 64, 65, 82, 165 over dependence on 114
problems with 107
Scottish Highlands 82
sources of 16, 29–30, 39, 40, 42 Fyfe, N. 114
gendered roles 105–6
Gewirth, A. 160
Gibson, A. 5
Giddens, A. 11
governance structures 102, 103–4, 164, 165 Gramsci, A. 160–61
grant-aid 16, 29–30, 40, 64, 65, 82, 99, 115, 122
Green, A. 154
Greenhalgh, T. 135
Greenland
c context and overview of O4O projects xxx–xxxii terprise support 29–30, 31
future expectations 43
O4O project outputs 41–2
political environment 106
role of context 39, 42, 167
service providers 36–8
service provision and charges 34–6
social enterprise types xxv
voluntary sector 32–4
Griffiths, R. 12
Hälsogallerian (Health Gallery) project 40
Harding, R. 121, 122
Harris, J. 127
Harris, M. 89
health
community-level impacts 143–6
individual-level impacts 140–43
Health Action Zones (HAZ) 12, 13
Healthy Living Centre (HLC) initiative 13
Henderson, P. 25
‘heroic individuals’ 99, 100–102, 103, 107, 124
Hickson, K. 12
‘high entrepreneurship’ 50–51
Highland Home Carers 37
Hill, C. 13
home care recipients, measuring impact on 148–9 hospital emergency admissions, measuring impact on 148 Howorth, C. 100, 104, 107
Huckle, J. 115
Humphries, R. 5
Hunter, J. 90
Huotari, T. 27
hybrid social enterprise models 38–43 ideological impetus 8–15
implementation research, ethics of 153–4 individual-level outcomes, measurement of 140–43 individualism 8, 9–10, 162 informal help-giving solutions 59, 61, 62, 84, 88 information and communication technologies (ICTs) 113 innovative capacity 54, 59–62, 68, 124 institutional care 5, 10, 35, 36, 38 institutional environment, role of biography 102–4

Jeffery, C. 2, 7
Johansson, A.W. 51
Johnson, S. 52
Jones, D. 115
Jump, P. 137

Keating, M. 2
Keogh, W. 115
Keynesian economics 9, 11
Kilpatrick, S. 57, 87, 145
King, A. 58
knowledge arbitration 56, 62–3, 65–7, 70 knowledge, additions from evaluation 137 Koli Village enterprise 123–4
Kvist, J. 8

Labour Party ideology 8–9, 11–13
Le Gales, P. 111
Le Grand, J. 10
leadership skills 52–3, 55, 57, 63–4, 69, 71, 118, 124
Lee, A. 3
Leighton, D. 135, 150
Lerner, M. 118

Lewis, G. 111
Lewis, R. 117, 121
Lieksa Vuonislahti Village project 124 life expectancy 3–4
Lister, R. 13, 14
loans 29–30
local knowledge 54, 60–61, 62, 68, 80–81, 89 ‘low entrepreneurship’ 51
Low, C. 117, 121
lunch clubs 98–9, 100–104
Lupien, S. 95
Lyon, F. 112, 117, 119, 121–2, 136
McCormack, B. 80
McLean, M. 52, 115
Magnussen, J. 2
Markethill, service innovation 97–8, 99–100, 102–4
Marshall, T.H. 8, 11
Mason, C. 114, 117, 122 means-tested services 34–6 Mendes, P. 51
mentoring 75, 76–7, 79–84 Midttun, A. 6, 7–8
military culture 103
Millar, R. 117, 127
Miller, R. 117, 127
Milligan, C. 114
Minkler, M. 134
mixed-economy model 9, 10, 14, 15, 111, 153, 166 mixed-methods evaluation 140, 146–9
Morley, A. 94
Morrow-Howell, N. 137
multi-level activity 5, 25, 26, 113
Mungall, I.J. 5
Muñoz, S.-A. 107, 113, 118, 124 mutualism 3, 5, 13, 15, 17–18, 41–2, 103, 111, 159 Mycock, A. 164

National Health Service and Care in the Community Act (1990), UK 10 National Standards for Community Engagement, Scotland 80 ‘needs-led’ approach 124, 168 neo-liberalism 9–11, 38, 114 networking skills 52–3, 56, 57, 65–7, 70
New Economics Foundation 146, 159
Nicholls, A. 51, 53, 65, 67
Nicholls, J. 134
Nimegeer, A. 134
Nordic countries
economic challenges 5, 7–8
welfare system 1–3
‘Nordic’ social enterprise model 27–9
Northern Ireland
context and overview of O4O projects xxix–xxx enterprise support 29–30
enterprising communities 97–104
future expectations 43
political environment 104–6
O4O project outputs 40
role of context 39, 42
service providers 36–8
service provision and charges 34–6
social enterprise types xxiv
sustainability of projects 123–6
voluntary sector 31–2
not-for-profit business model 31, 39, 50, 94, 111, 167
Nyssens, M. 50
O’Brien, D.J. 24
Older People for Older People (O4O) project case study 24–44
communities and enterprise development 81–4 concept of 76–9
evaluation of 138–54
overview xix–xxxv project outputs 40–43
social enterprise process 79–81
sustainability of projects 123–6 summary of experience xxxv see also Project Managers older populations 3–6 community social enterprise services xvi–xviii economy of service provision 34–8 interest in 161
role within entrepreneurialism 48–9 social enterprise factors 38–43 opportunism 52–3, 54, 59–62, 68 oral history projects 84, 142–3 organisation characteristics and sustainability 117–18 organisational models 87–8 organisational nepotism 87–8 organisational processes dissection of enterprise development process 85–90 O4O concept and role of Project Managers 76–9 O4O Project Manager’s perspective 79–81
reflections on O4O communities and enterprise development 81–4 Osborne, S. 114
output evaluation 135, 151, 152 Parkinson, C. 100, 104, 107 paternalism 32–3, 41, 66, 77, 167
Patton, M.Q. 26
Pawson, R. 137
Pearce, J. 53, 57
Peattie, K. 94
Peredo, A. 52, 115
Perez, D. 135–6, 153–4
personal care recipients, measuring impact on 148–9 Phillips, M. 115, 120, 122
Poland, B.D. 3 policy–practice gap 89–90 policymakers conditions for evaluations 134 key questions for 168 responses to evaluations 151
political environment 104–6, 152–3, 159–61 impact on sustainability 118
Pollock, A. 148
Pomerantz, M. 52
Pommier, J. 135, 138, 140, 146 population ageing 3–4 preventative health and social care 36–7, 39, 167 primary care out-of-hours services, measuring impacts on 147–8 private sector service providers 36–8 Project Managers recruitment of 77
reflections on O4O communities and enterprise development 81–4 reflections on social enterprise process 79–81 role and remit 76–9 skills and abilities 58–67 public funding 7, 12, 29–30, 39, 40, 114, 122 public service providers/commissioners engagement with 66–7 relevance of evaluation 136–7 measuring outcomes for 146–9 receptiveness to service innovation 152–3 public service provision 36–8 public spending cuts 6–7, 47–8, 119–20 public, relevance of evaluation 137 Putnam, R. 95–6, 166 qualitative evaluation 140–43, 149, 151, 154 quantitative evaluation 140, 143–6, 149, 154–5 questionnaires, Context Mapping 26, 43
Radford, K. 105
Ramsden, M. 112, 117, 119, 121–2 randomised controlled trials 151
Rawlins, E. 12
‘realistic evaluation approach’ 137 regional development agencies 30, 38, 40, 41, 77, 84, 121 residential care services 82–3, 86, 143 resource mobilisation 55, 56, 63, 65, 69, 70, 77, 82 Rifkin, S.B. 135–6
Rijsdijk, R. 112, 113, 116, 117, 118, 120 risk-taking 52, 54, 59–62, 68
Roginsky, S. 96
Rothstein, B. 95–6, 106
Royce, M. 114, 117, 122 rural areas
elderly populations 3–6 facilitated community entrepreneurship 58–9 interest in 161
propensity to engage in social entrepreneurship 48 service provision xviii–xix social enterprise and entrepreneurship 57–8 socially entrepreneurial skills and capabilities 67–71 and sustainable communities 112–13, 116
Sarason, Y. 51, 53
St Leger, L. 115
Schmuecker, K. 13, 117, 119, 120, 122
Scotland context and overview of O4O projects xxviii–xxix economic challenges 7–8
enterprise support 29–30, 31
future expectations 43
O4O project outputs 40
role of context 39, 42
service providers 36–8
service provision and charges 34–6
social enterprise types xxiii
voluntary sector 31
Scotland Act (1998) 7
Scott, M. 113, 160–61
Scottish Highlands project evaluation 140–49
social enterprise development 70–90
sustainability of projects 123–6 sectarianism, Northern Ireland 99, 104–6 service co-production, legitimising idea of 65–7, 71 service charges 34–6 service innovation readiness for 100–104 receptiveness to 152–3 service provision 34–6 identification of gaps 54, 59–62, 86, 89 rural areas xviii–xix safety net for 164, 165 service sustainability 112–14 service users, individual-level impacts 140–43 services, equitable access to 5–6 Shane, S. 51, 53
Index

Sharir, M. 117–18
Shaw, E. 116, 117, 118
Shortall, S. 96, 105
Silver Economy Network 48
Skerratt, S. 25, 124, 129 skills, social entrepreneurship 52–71, 86–7
Smith, K.A. 57
Smith, M. 116
social capital 56, 63, 65–7, 70, 87, 95–6, 119, 126, 143–6 social enterprise
cost of 27–9
criteria to achieving sustainability 119–20
context for significance and sustainability of 111–14 critical overview of literature 94–6 defining xiv–xv, 50–51 emergent themes and ideas 163–7 future prospects for 167–8 and ‘heroic’ individual 100–102 human resources 31–4
in rural areas 57–8
and older people 34–8
political environment 104–6
prospects for 15–17
role of context and implications for future 38–43
as service provider xiv–xix services and payments 34–6 support for 29–31
Social Enterprise – A strategy for success (DTI) 112, 121, 127 social enterprise types Finland xxvi
Greenland xxv
Northern Ireland xxiv
Scotland xxiii
Sweden xxvii
social entrepreneurs, as ‘heroic’ individuals 100–102
social entrepreneurship defining xv-xvi, 51–2
research methodology 49
skills and capabilities 52–7, 59–71, 86–7 use for community service co-production in rural areas 57–9 social goals
combining with economic goals 55, 63–4, 69 tensions with economic goals 106–7 social inclusion 1, 2, 3, 62, 71, 95–6, 97–8, 123 social need, identification of 54, 59–62, 80, 86, 117 social participation
community-level impacts 143–6
individual-level impacts 140–4 social return on investment (SROI) 134, 137–8, 150–51, 154 social sustainability 113–14, 115–16 social welfarism 8–9 socially enterprising communities elements from Northern Ireland 97–106 literature review 94–6
research methodology 96–7
South West Ross
social enterprise development 83–4, 85, 90
sustainability of projects 123–6 Spear, R. 100, 101
start-up businesses, instability of 97–8, 102–4, 118 state, relevance of evaluation 135–7
Stern, N. 116
Sullivan Mort, G. 117, 118, 121
Sundom IT enterprise 124
Sure Start programme 11–12
sustainability
core nature of 115–16
O4O projects 123–6
sustainable social organisations constraints 119–20
context for 111–14
features of 116–18
normative pointers for 120–23 Sweden
current context and overview of O4O projects xxxii–xxiii
enterprise support 29, 30
future expectations 43
O4O project outputs 40–41
political environment 106
role of context 39, 42
service providers 36–8
service provision and charges 34–6
social enterprise types xxvii
sustainability of projects 123–6
voluntary sector 32, 33

Taylor, B.J. 51
Taylor, G. 9
technical sickness-oriented services 34–6, 37, 39, 167
telephone interviews, Context Mapping 26, 43–4
‘theory of change’ evaluation approach 137 theory of processes and outcomes production 138–40
theory-based evaluation 137–8 ‘third age’ entrepreneurship 95–6
Third Way 11–13
Tilley, N. 137
timebanks 36, 37, 88
Titmuss, R.M. 8
Todres, M. 112, 119
Tonge, J. 14, 164
Tongue
measurement of individual-level outcomes 143
social enterprise development 82, 86
sustainability of projects 123–6
top-down approaches 135–6 Townsend, P. 10 training 31, 40, 64, 66, 72, 77, 83, 84, 97, 98, 113, 122, 125 Transport for Tongue project 124, 125–6
Trygga Jämtön (Safe Jämtön) project
123, 125

Ugalde, A. 154
UK
demographic challenges 4–5
economic challenges 6–8
ideological impetus 8–15
volunteering rates 16–17
welfare system 2–3
umbrella organisations 165–6, 168 unmet need 60, 61, 62, 111, 124

Venkataraman, S. 51, 53
Vercseg, I. 25
Vermeulen, S. 52
victim–survivor groups, Northern Ireland 99, 103, 105, 124 vision 52, 54, 55, 63–4, 68, 69, 100 voluntary sector 88, 94–5, 105, 114
Volunteer Development Agency, Northern Ireland 32 volunteer engagement, emotional readiness for 100–104
Volunteer Services Bureau 32 volunteering capacity for 137, 153, 164 rates of 16–17
volunteers 31–4 individual-level impacts on 140–43
mobilisation of 55, 56, 63, 69
Scottish Highlands 82, 83–4, 85–6
von Hayek, Friedrich 9–10

Wallerstein, M. 134
Wan, N. 95
Ware, J.E. 144
Weiss, C. 137
welfare state, retrenchment of 47–8, 61, 83, 89–90, 135–6 Welfare to Work programme 11–12
Westall, A. 114
Wickham, P. 111, 114, 117, 120, 126, 127
Williams, C.C. 48
Williams, G. 129
Wilson, F. 136
Witoszek, N. 6, 7–8
Wolff, K. 87
Wood, C. 135, 150
work integration enterprises 32–3, 50 workshops, Context Mapping 44

Ystävänpysäkki (Place of Friendship) project 123, 124

Zahra, S.A. 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 61, 62, 63, 64, 68, 69