Index

abstract labour
sehen labour
AIG bail-out 141
assets sales 41
sehen also prices
balance of payment imbalances, global 118–26, 130, 152
bancor plan, Keynes 147, 149–52
and surplus countries 150–51 Banking school 38, 49
banking system bail-out, US 141 banking system, regulated 117 banking system, shadow sehen ‘shadow banking system’ banknotes, commercial 58, 71 banknotes, private 38, 49, 56–7, 70
banks
role of deposits 76
banks, central 58, 70–71, 73–4, 76–7, 124
creation of money 37–8
and liquidity preferences 75
reserves 70–71, 119
role according to Horizontalists and Structuralists 75
role in IMCU 153
role in mitigating effects of depression 102, 105
and supply of legal tender 72 banks, commercial 7, 116–17, 139 evaluation of risk of borrowers 136
‘originate and distribute’ model 134–5
role in liquidity 74–5
banks, investment 116–17 barter economy 9, 32, 54 vs monetary economy 54
‘beggar-thy-neighbour’ policies 147–9
boom era, post-war, 1950–75 114 boom, ‘new economy’ 115 booms 86–7, 96–9
asset price 135
effect on financial fragility 97 real estate 133, 137–8 speculative 4, 132, 134–5 booms and busts 99, 112, 130, 132 sehen also booms and depressions booms and depressions 54
Bretton Woods Agreements 147, 149, 151
demise of 119, 130, 151
and dollar/gold convertibility regime 151
‘Bretton Woods Mark II’ 120
BSE
sehen buffer stock employment budget deficits 58
effect on profits 104
buffer stock employment 147 business cycle 40, 42
Cambridge equation 65–6 capital asset prices
sehen prices
capital flights 120
capitalists, competition between 46 capitalists’ consumption 103 cash flows 98
CDOs
sehen collateralized debt obligations CDSs
sehen credit default swaps central banks
see banks, central chartalist conception 57
China 131
central bank 122, 125, 131, 140
current account surpluses 122
trade with USA 123
value of yuan 122–3, 131 Circuitist approach 76–82 and Horizontalist view 76 and Keynes 76
vs Structuralist view 80
see also dynamic circuit approach Circuitist theories of credit-creation 49
circuit M-C-M’ 9, 23, 25–6, 54, 77
circuit M-M’ 33–4, 36
circuit of capital 15
circulation
see monetary circuit classical economists 24
surplus approach 29
closed economy 102–3 collateralized debt obligations 134–6 termination of funding for 137 value of 136
commercial banks
see banks, commercial commodity-form 24
commodity money
see money
competition, ‘cut-throat’ 101 concrete labour
see labour consumers’ purchasing power 2 consumption goods 47 contracts 56, 59, 62
corporate bonds, short- and long-term yield 74
credit
creation 49, 81
distribution and allocation 89 supply and demand 39, 71–4, 76, 81–3 credit crunch 69, 74, 96, 100, 132, 135, 140, 142 credit cycle 49
credit default swaps 135 credit money
see money
credit rationing 69
credit recycling 125–6, 130, 132–3, 143 credit risk
see risk, financial credit system 35–6, 38, 40–41, 46 currency, national 38
currency recycling 125
Currency theorists 49
current account balances, global 121 current account deficits, US see USA
current account surpluses, East Asia
see East Asia
current output prices
see prices
Davidson 57
Davidson plan for international financial reform 152–3 basic features 153
comparison with Keynesian ideas 153 dealing with deficits 153 dealing with excessive credits 153 and IMCU 152–3
debt 79–80, 92, 101
accumulation of 101–2
circuits 79–80
liquidation of 101
debt-deflation theory of depression 99–105 debt, private 56–7, 69, 111, 130 deflation 99, 101
degree of monopoly
see monopoly, degree of deposits see banks deflation, debt-deflation theory see debt-deflation theory of depression Depression, Great, 1930s 8, 11, 101, 117, 139, 144, 146–8 deflations 99–105
function of 105
government intervention in 102, 105–6 see also government intervention in crises derivatives market, USA 7 developing countries, reserve accumulation 119 dollar/gold convertibility regime see Bretton Woods Agreements dollar, US see US dollar dot.com bubble 7, 133, 137–8 dynamic circuit approach 78–9

East Asia
balance of payments surpluses 119, 123
current account surpluses 118, 133
export-led growth 129 financial crisis, 1997–98 120–22
reserves 120–21
US dollar reserves 133, 154
‘Employer of Last Resort’ 146–7 employment, full 12, 147, 150, 153 ideological objections to 145 through peaceful means 146 equalization of profit 22 European Monetary System, implosion 120 exchange 15
exchange economy 55
see also barter economy
exchange rates
fixed 122, 149
flexible 120–21
exchange-value 16–30

Fannie May and Freddie Mac 133
US Treasury bail-out 140
fiat money 34, 55–8, 70, 152 finance capital, theory of see Marx financial assets, long-term 74 financial crises, endogenous 8–9 financial deregulation 1, 3, 5, 7, 136 financial fragility 97 according to Minsky 97, 129 in surplus countries 124

financialization 1, 6–7, 11, 111–32, 142–4 financial structure stability and cash flow type 98 Fisher, Irving 101
on causes of economic depressions 101 Fordist model 112, 115–16 formula for falling rate of profit see profit rate

Glasnost act 8, 117
Glass-Steagall act, repeal of 117, 134 global current account balances see current account balances, global global financial crisis, 2007–08 111, 118, 125, 130, 133, 139, 142 global imbalances
see balance of payment imbalances, global gold
reserves 149
value 33, 151
and value of bancor 149 gold standard regime 148–9 collapse of 148–9
government intervention in crises 145–6 Great Depression see Depression, Great, 1930s hedge financing units 97–8 shift to speculative structure 98 history of crises 144

Horizontalist theory 71–4 and central bank role in money supply 73 and monetary circuits 73 see also Structuralist theory households 2, 74–5
and investment decisions 81–2 and savings 77, 81

ICU
see International Clearing Union IMCU
see International Money Clearing Union
IMF 120, 122
inflation 99–100
inter-bank lending 141
interest-bearing capital 35–7 see also Marx
interest rates 38–40, 46, 61, 64, 69, 72–4, 88, 125 effect on price of investment 96 and investment by firms 78 relationship to profit rates 39–40 short-term vs long-term 39, 77, 88
US mortgages 138
International Clearing Union 149–50 international monetary system, collapse of 148 International Money Clearing Union 152–3
basic features 153
as unit of currency 153 investment by firms 86
investment, paradox of 86
Japan, 1990s 129, 131
Kalecki 4–5, 103, 106–07
divergence from classical Marx 93 formula for degree of monopoly 89–90 and interest rates 88
model of government role in aggregate profit 102–03 principle of increasing risk 106
profit-investment relation 85, 94 re flux theory of profits 93–4 on ‘sound finance’ 146 theory of investment 85–93 theory of political business cycle 145 Keynes 105–06
analysis of effective demand 43 comparison with Davidson’s plan 153 critique of classic economists 65 finance motive 63, 67–8, 76
General Theory 54, 59, 62–4, 68, 94
International Clearing Union 149–50 plan for bancor regime 147, 149–52 policies of deficit spending 146 post war 145
re volving fund theory of investment finance 63 t heory of a monetary economy 53 t heory of liquidity preferences 58–65, 68, 72–4, 84
t ransaction motive 62
Treatise on Money 57, 64, 77
and uncertainty 98
Keynesian era 6
labour 44
abstract 15–17, 19, 23–8 concrete 15–16, 23–4 concrete vs abstract 16, 23 cost 44
vs labour-power 18
labour-power 18–19, 27
labour-time 16, 18
legal tender 72
Lehman Brothers collapse 141 leveraging ratios, US SEC involvement in 134 liquidity 86–7, 114–15, 134 liquidity preferences 58–65, 68–9, 75, 79–80, 83–4, 99 of banks 69
of firms 74
of households 74
see also Keynes
liquidity premium 69
managerial class 6 margins of safety, credit 96–7
Ponzi financial units 98 ‘market-maker’ 134
market prices
see prices
Marx
Capital 18–21, 28, 30, 42, 45, 76
circuit M-C-M’ 9, 23, 25–6, 54, 77
circuit M-M’ 33–4, 36
departure from classical theory 24 formula for capital 43–4 formula for interest-bearing capital 37 formula for quantity of money 30 formula for rate of profit 43–4 realization of surplus-value 87 on ruling ideology 145 theory of commodity money 41 theory of financial crises 40–48, 131 theory of interest-bearing capital 36–40 theory of money 31–49 theory of under-consumption 46–7 theory of value 15–30
on wages and employment 93
MBSs see mortgage backed securitizations
MELT see monetary expression of labour-time Mexico, Tequila crisis 120
Minsky 7–8, 102, 114, 119, 134 financial instability hypothesis 11, 93–9, 125 fragility of banking system 117 on Keynes 84
on types of cash flows 98
Minskyan paradox 105
Monetarism 145
monetary circuit 9–10, 24–9, 48, 57, 73, 81, 89 breakdown 82
see also circuit M-C-M' monetary economy 55
monetary expression of labour-time 29 money
basic functions 33–4, 49
chartalist forms 57
in circulation 26
commodity 25–6, 28, 31, 41, 48 creation of 38, 80
credit 32–3, 40, 56–8, 70–74, 76–7
derivation of 24
fiat 34, 55–8, 70, 152
forms 31–2, 34
hoarding of 35
link with abstract labour 24–5, 28 Marx’s theory 31–49
as money see circuit M-M' role of 8–9, 19, 24, 32–4, 39–41 standard value 152
supply 67–75
see also Horizontalist theory
and uncertainty 58–61, 65, 68, 76, 79–82, 98–9
see also liquidity preferences
wages 26–28, 78
money, endogenous 8–11
money-form 19, 24, 32, 55 monopoly, degree of 89–91 mortgage backed securitizations 135–6 mortgage liabilities, home 2 mortgage liabilities, US 138–9 foreclosure and default 139, 142 national income defined 102–3 neoliberal ideology 1–6, 8, 11, 111–13, 115, 117, 130 view of financial deregulation 120 net international investment position 126 NIIP see net international investment position non-accelerating inflation rate of unemployment 147 oil exporters, surpluses 123 oligopolistic competition 91 oligopolistic firms 88–91
‘originate and distribute’ model 134–5 over-production see under-consumption paradox of thrift 56, 62, 64
Ponzi financial units 42, 97–8, 117, 134, 136–8 post-Keynesian theories 67–75, 77, 84–5 cost to Circuitist approach 80–82 debt deflation 100
debt–deflation 100
pre-Keynesian doctrine 116
prices 94
assets sales 98, 100, 102, 114–15, 134
capital assets 93–6
current output 93–6
inflation 100
market 21
production 21–2
principle of increasing risk
see risk, principle of increasing production prices
see prices
profit 85–7
equalization of 22
financial profit as share of total 118 increase in 92
profitability crisis, 1970s 113 profit–investment 85–93 profit rate 41–4, 47, 85–6, 88, 106 fall in 45, 93
formula for falling 45
Marx’s formula 43
relationship to interest rates 39–40 profit rate vs interest rate 39–40 profits, aggregate 103–4, 114 equations for 103–4 purchasing power 55
real estate boom, US 133, 137 real estate values 2
rentier interests 4 reserves, developing countries 119
Ricardian labour theory of value 29–30
Ricardo 29–30
risk, financial 86–7, 96–7 risk, principle of increasing 87, 106
Rubin
on value 19
Rubin school 15
saving and investment, equality between 103 Say’s law 9–10, 32, 48, 54–5, 59 reverse 72
SEC
see US Securities and Exchange Commission securitization 8, 136
September 11, events of 133, 137
’shadow banking system’ 117
origins of 134
shareholder gains, short-term 6 shareholder value 112–13 shares
see stock market
SIVs
see special investment vehicles Smith, Adam 29
special investment vehicles 135
speculative boom
see booms
speculative financial units 97, 117, 134 speculative trading 42, 46 stagflation 4, 145
Steindl 106
stock market 42, 113
crash, 1929 148
crashes 96
stock market boom, 1990s 6, 114, 116 Structuralist theory 73–5, 80 contrast to Circuitist approach 80 contrast to Horizontalists 75
see also liquidity preferences
Federal Reserve response 140 initial effects 140
origins of 139
subprime mortgages, US 137–9 subsumption of wages 117–18 surplus–value 20–21, 26–7, 37, 45 absolute vs relative rates 44
’tariff mania’ 148
taxes 57
technological innovation 100

trade cycle 10
‘Triffin dilemma’ 151
Triffin, Robert 151

uncertainty 58–61, 65, 68, 76, 79–82, 98–9
see also liquidity preferences
under-consumption 46–8
USA
asset prices 134–5
balance of payment deficits 133, 154 banking system instability 8 credit market 7
current account deficits 118–19, 121–4, 128–30, 151 depression, 1930s 8, 11, 101, 117, 146–8 see also Depression, Great, 1930s derivatives market 7
domestic economy 132
exchange rate adjustment 124 exchange rate, fall in 128 Federal Reserve 115, 117, 132, 141 foreign debt 123–4, 126–30, 138 foreign debt compared with GDP 126 home mortgage liabilities 138–9 household debt 138
household income 113
housing prices 133, 138–9 interest rates in credit crunch 142 interest rates, lowering of 133 interest rates, rise in 139 NIIP 126–7
real estate boom 133, 137–8 speculative booms 4, 132, 134 stock market gain as percentage of GDP 6–7 trade deficit 122
US assets, foreign owned 126–7, 129
equities 127–8
US bonds 122, 128, 133
devaluations 123–4, 128–9, 152 exhaustion of 130
recycling 126
reserves in East Asia 133
use-value 23
US Securities and Exchange Commission 134
US securities buildup 121
US Treasury
bail-out of AIG 141
bail-out of banking system 141 valorization 19–20
value 16–30
Veblen
and ‘cut-throat’ competition 101 on role performed by credit 100 theory of chronic depression 99–101 wage earners 102
wage, minimum 146
wages 18, 26, 28, 48
according to Kalecki 103
according to Marx 93
according to Smith 29
price spiral 147
real 92, 112
real vs money 26–7
reduction in 91–2
response to BSE 147
stagnation 112–14
subsumption 117–18
USA households 113
Wall Street 135–6
hedge funds 137
wealth effect 112, 114–15 workers 117–18
working class, role in crises 43 yield curve, corporate bonds 74 yuan, China 122–3, 131