Index

absolute uncertainty 40 adversary argument by counsel 209–31
American appellate courts 210
as ninth steadying factor 209–11 preliminary reference procedure 211–29
dialogue of judges 217
judicially-minded helpful consultant 223
mutatis mutandis 227
oral argument 227–9
practice and procedure 212–17
prima facie difficulties 217–25
Registrar of the Court 213–14
Rules of Procedure 213
ultra petita concept 218
written observations 226–7
procedural extra-legal steadying factor 27
American appellate court judges 24, 55–6, 62
American legal realism 48–9 argument 38–49
legal scholarship 44–9
American legal realism 48–9
The Common Law Tradition 48–9
Court of Justice 44–8
preliminary reference procedure 44–8
theories of Karl Llewellyn 48–9 statement of 38–9
structural overview 41–4
see also adversary argument by counsel Article 267 TFEU preliminary reference procedure 12–37
adversary argument by counsel 211–29
dialogue of judges 217
judicially-minded helpful consultant 223
mutatis mutandis 227
oral argument 227–9
practice and procedure 212–17
prima facie difficulties 217–25
Registrar of the Court 213–14
Rules of Procedure 213
ultra petita concept 218
written observations 226–7
appropriateness of 30–32
in The Common Law Tradition see descriptive thesis descriptive thesis see descriptive thesis isolating for study 27–9 “issues limited, sharpened, phrased” 174–93
act of an institution 187
admissibility requirements 181–2
Court of Justice as receptor, not initiator 175–6 de jure position 180, 182, 186, 191
docket control method 182–4
judicial fact-finding 185
jurisdictional limitations and division of competences 175–6, 185–7
legal doctrine 185–7
limitations and procedural rules 179–82
limited adjudicative role 185–7
national judicial control over decision 176–9
Order for Reference as steadying factor 187–93
prima facie constraints 176
validly referred questions 182–4 judicial appointments 123, 136–9
legal-cultural relativity 32–6
known doctrinal techniques 35–6
legal doctrine 34–5
reckonability 33
legal scholarship 44–8
national courts/tribunals 123, 139–43
prima facie problems 32–7 see also steadying factors

baseline of reckoning 201
Beck’s rationalisation 22–3

Charter of Fundamental Rights of the EU (CFREU) 9
The Common Law Tradition: Deciding Appeals (Llewellyn) 12–29 consistency of principle 34 Constitution of Massachusetts (1780) 52
countervailing powers
abstract definition of 95
accountability 88–90
Court’s identification 95–6
de facto relationship 98
judicial independence 88–90
lack of adherence 165–7
scenarios 97
susceptibility to countermeasures 99–100, 110–14 susceptibility to lawful countermeasures 123 Court of Justice of the EU (CJEU) 2, 176–7, 218, 234, 237 institutional independence 90–91
judicial independence 147
“a known bench” 233–40
common law judicial opinion 234 division into chambers 237–8
individual and dissenting opinions 234–5 per contra arguments 235
procedure of decision preparation 235

scope for Court’s case-law and practice 237–40
signpost 234, 237, 241, 242
Statute and Rules of Procedure 237
law conditioning 287–90
legalism 100
legal scholarship 44–8
legal steadying factors 22–3, 30
non-compliance 154
preliminary reference procedure 44–8, 105

Crisis in confidence 12, 15–16, 54
descriptive thesis 12–29
in The Common Law Tradition 12–29
crisis in confidence 12, 15–16
criticisms 15–18
external extra-legal steadying factors 19, 25–6 judicial security and honesty 25
professional judicial office 26 extra-legal steadying factors 19–20, 23–7, 36
internal extra-legal steadying factors 19, 24–5
general Period-Style 25
law-conditioned officials 24
responsibility for justice 24 tradition of one single right answer 24–5
isolating “steadying factors” for study 27–9
legal-cultural relativity 32–6
known doctrinal techniques 35–6
legal doctrine 34–5
reckonability 33
legal steadying factors 19–23
Beck’s rationalisation 22–3
in CJEU context 22–3
judicially arguable 23
known doctrinal techniques 20, 21
legal doctrine 20–23
moderately consonant 21
value pluralism 23
methodological problems 16
novel corrosiveness 12

John Cotter - 9781788979559
Downloaded from PubFactory at 09/15/2023 03:17:58PM via free access obstacles to legal certainty 18–19 for preliminary reference procedure 18–29 procedural extra-legal steadying factors 20, 26–7 adversary argument by counsel 27 frozen record from below 26
group decision 27
issues limited, sharpened, phrased 26
known bench 27
opinion of the court 26 radical indeterminacy 16
reconnaissance 13–14, 17–18

European Coal and Steel Community (ECSC) 64
European Convention on Human Rights (ECHR)
Article 6(1) of 161
European Court of Human Rights (ECtHR) 139, 161
Europeanisation 79
European legal-cultural diversity 77–8 external extra-legal obstacles 7, 9–10
external extra-legal steadying factors 2, 19, 25–6 judicial security and honesty 25
professional judicial office 26
extra-legal obstacles 9, 11
external 7, 9–10
internal 7
extra-legal steadying factors 2, 19–20, 23–7
external 2, 19, 25–6
internal 19, 24–5
narrowing conceivable outcomes 263–4 need for refinement and/or adjustment 36 procedural 2, 20, 26–7
reinforcing legal steadying factors 262–3
signposts 264–5

“first principles” 38–49
catalogued 40–41
legal scholarship 44–9

American legal realism 48–9
The Common Law Tradition 48–9
Court of Justice 44–8
preliminary reference procedure 44–8
theories of Karl Llewellyn 48–9 preliminary observations 39–40
structural overview 41–4
Frank, Jerome 198
“a frozen record from below” 197–208
Order for Reference 200–206
baseline of reckoning 201
case-by-case basis 202
fact-finding/fact-assessing competence 201 fact-finding jurisdiction 201
stricto sensu fact 204
overview of 197
procedural extra-legal steadying factor 26
as seventh steadying factor 198–200
fact sceptics 198
factual indeterminacy 200
reconnaissance 199–200
rule sceptics 198–9

general Period-Style and its promise 25, 29
group decision
application of steadying factor 253–6 general observations 256
procedural extra-legal steadying factor 27
as tenth steadying factor 252–3 independence–accountability balance 84–98

countervailing powers
abstract definition of 95
accountability 88–90
Court’s identification 95–6
de facto relationship 98
judicial independence 88–90
scenarios 97
formalist analysis 90–95
judicial security and honesty 85–8 normative balance 90–95
overview of 84–6
intergovernmentalism 106–9 intergovernmentalist 109–10, 126, 128, 130 internal extra-legal obstacles 7
internal extra-legal steadying factors 19, 24–5
general Period-Style 25
law-conditioned officials 24
responsibility for justice 24
tradition of one single right answer 24–5 internationalisation 79 intra-court accountability mechanism 251–2 “issues limited, sharpened, phrased” 171–96
Article 267 TFEU preliminary reference procedure 174–93
act of an institution 187
admissibility requirements 181–2
Court of Justice as receptor, not initiator 175–6
de jure position 180, 182, 186, 191
docket control method 182–4
judicial fact-finding 185
jurisdictional limitations and division of competences 175–6, 185–7
legal doctrine 185–7
limitations and procedural rules 179–82
limited adjudicative role 185–7
national judicial control over decision 176–9
Order for Reference as steadying factor 187–93
prima facie constraints 176
validly referred questions 182–4
as eighth steadying factor 173–4
overview of 171–3
per contra argument 173–4
in procedural extra-legal steadying factors 26
reckonability 173
joint decision trap 124, 128, 131, 133
judicial independence
countervailing powers 88–90
susceptibility to lawful countermeasures 126–7, 131, 140 judicial myth 105
judicial security and honesty 25, 85–8
“a known bench” 232–42
American appellate courts 232, 241
characteristics 173
Court of Justice 233–40
common law judicial opinion 234
division into chambers 237–8
individual and dissenting opinions 234–5
per contra arguments 235
procedure of decision preparation 235
scope for Court’s case-law and practice 237–40
signpost 234, 237, 241, 242
Statute and Rules of Procedure 237
overview of 232
in procedural extra-legal steadying factors 27
as twelfth extra-legal steadying factor 232–3
known doctrinal techniques
law-conditioned officials 60
legal-cultural relativity 35–6
legal steadying factors 20, 21
Law and the Modern Mind (Frank) 198
law-conditioned officials 2, 41, 51–63
American appellate judges as 55–6 examination of 36
internal extra-legal steadying factors 24 interpretative problems 59–60
known doctrinal techniques 60
legal court-destroying/harming/curbing and accountability measures 142 legal-cultural unity 60–61
legal steadying factors 52–5, 59–60
Llewellyn’s thoughts of 55–7 meaning of 55–6, 64
Member States 75–6
overview of 51–2
reckonability and 58
subjective in adjudication 52–5 susceptibility to unlawful countermeasures 157
synthesis of Llewellyn’s theories 61–3 three levels of 57–8
law conditioning 2, 36, 41, 64–82, 287–90 active work in some aspect of law (level 2) 69–72 current judges appointed pursuant to now Article 253 TFEU 72, 279–80 former judges appointed pursuant to now Article 253 TFEU 71–2, 275–8 judges appointed pursuant to Article 32 ECSC 71, 274 de facto level 64
interim conclusion 74–5 Llewellyn’s per contra arguments 76–81 commonalities 78–80
diversity of educational and professional background 76–7
EU lawyers 80–81
European legal-cultural diversity 77–8 internationalisation/Europeanisation 79 schooling and training for law (level 1) 66–9 current judges appointed pursuant to now Article 253 TFEU 69, 272–3 former judges appointed pursuant now to Article 253 TFEU 68–9, 268–71 judges appointed pursuant to Article 32 ECSC 67–8, 266–7 twenty years/more of active work in some aspect of law (level 3) 72–4 current judges appointed pursuant to now Article 253 TFEU 74, 285–6 former judges appointed pursuant to now Article 253 TFEU 73–4, 282–4 judges appointed pursuant to Article 32 ECSC 73, 281 legal certainty 2–3 economic benefits 3

in EU legal system 3–6
extra-legal obstacles 7
general obstacles 6–8
external extra-legal obstacles 7 factual situations 8
internal extra-legal obstacles 7
procedural extra-legal obstacles 8 obstacles in EU legal system 8–10 external extra-legal obstacles 9–10
extra-legal obstacles 9
procedural extra-legal obstacles 10 principle of 3–4 unattainability of 6
legal court-destroying/harming/curbing and accountability measures Article 253 TFEU judicial appointments 123, 136–9
countervailing powers 123
credibility 131
European Court of Human Rights 139
intergovernmentalist 126, 128, 130
joint decision trap 124, 128, 131, 133
judicial independence 126–7, 131, 140
law-conditioned officials 142
majoritarian activism 136, 146
neofunctionalist political scientists 130
Protocol to the Treaty of Maastricht 132
re-appointments procedures 123, 136–9
Regulation No 31/62/EEC 127
Treaty/legislative change to destroy the Court, curb its jurisdiction/harm its effectiveness 123–8
to override the Court’s rulings 123, 128–36
Treaty of Lisbon 128, 130, 132
Treaty of Nice 130, 132
voluntary non-utilisation of EU law, litigants before
national courts/tribunals 123, 143–5
of preliminary reference procedure, national courts/tribunals 123, 139–43
legal-cultural relativity 32–6
known doctrinal techniques 35–6
legal doctrine 34–5
rekonability 33
legal-cultural unity 60–61
legal doctrine 20–23
legal-cultural relativity 34–5
legal steadying factors 20–23
normative character of 21, 23, 27, 40, 42, 47, 59, 62, 82, 101, 109, 257, 263
legal indeterminacy 11
legalism 100–101
legal scholarship 44–9
American legal realism 48–9
The Common Law Tradition 48–9
Court of Justice 44–8
preliminary reference procedure 44–8
theories of Karl Llewellyn 48–9
legal steadying factors 2, 19–23
Beck’s rationalisation 22–3
in CJEU context 22–3
judicially arguable 23
known doctrinal techniques 20, 21
lack of adherence
scenario 3 rulings 165–6
scenario 4 rulings 167
law-conditioned officials 52–5, 59–60
legal doctrine 20–23
moderately consonant 21
normative character of 58, 61, 63, 74, 81, 89, 169, 171, 262–3 pragmatic preference, scenario 1 rulings
adjudicative outcomes 110–14
characteristics 101
countervailing powers 110–14
intergovernmentalism 106–9
intergovernmentalist views 109–10
legal steadying factors 101–10
neofunctionalism 102–6
neofunctionalist views 109–10
value pluralism 23
see also steady factors legal uncertainty 11, 13
Llewellyn, Karl 2, 11, 12, 37, 38, 44, 48, 64, 232
majoritarian activism 136, 146, 158
mere rationalization 246, 251
neofunctionalism 102–6
neofunctionalist 109–10, 130
non-compliance
Court of Justice rulings 150–51
litigants and lawyers 159–60
Member State governments 151–4
national courts 156–9
subnational actors 156–60
supranational actors 155
threat of hypotheses 151–2
novel corrosiveness 12
“an opinion of the court” 243–52 procedural extra-legal steadying factor 26
as sixth steadying factor 243–52
application of 247–50
de facto precedential value 248, 251
intra-court accountability mechanism 251–2
memoranda/mere announcements of result 246
mere rationalization 246, 251
old-style full opinion 246 stare decisis concept 246–7, 251
sui generis nature 246
written justification of rulings requirements 246–50
Order for Reference
“a frozen record from below”
200–206
baseline of reckoning 201
case-by-case basis 202
fact-finding/fact-assessing competence 201
fact-finding jurisdiction 201
fact sceptics 198
factual indeterminacy 200
overview of 197
procedural extra-legal steadying
factor 26
reckonability 199–200
rule sceptics 198–9
as seventh steadying factor 198–200
stricto sensu fact 204
“issues limited, sharpened, phrased”
171–96
act of an institution 187
admissibility requirements 181–2
Article 267 TFEU preliminary reference procedure
174–93
Court of Justice as receptor, not initiator 175–6
de jure position 180, 182, 186, 191
docket control method 182–4
as eighth steadying factor 173–4
judicial fact-finding 185 jurisdictional limitations and division of competences 175–6, 185–7
legal doctrine 185–7
limitations and procedural rules 179–82
limited adjudicative role 185–7 national judicial control over decision 176–9
overview of 171–3
per contra argument 173–4
prima facie constraints 176
in procedural extra-legal steadying factors 26
reckonability 173
as steadying factor 187–93
validly referred questions 182–4
Order for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) 3 pervading principles 34, 61
political scientists 44, 101, 106, 126, 149, 150, 165, 182
procedural extra-legal obstacles 8, 10
procedural extra-legal steadying factors 2, 20, 26–7, 256–60
adversary argument by counsel 27
Court’s decisional competence 256–8
a frozen record from below 26
group decision 27
issues limited, sharpened, phrased 26
a known bench 27
an opinion of the court 26
reinforcement of legal steadying factors 258–9
signposts to ruling 259–60
professional judicial office 26
Protocol to the Treaty of Maastricht 132
radical indeterminacy 11, 16, 39, 40
reckonability
American appellate courts 14
descriptive thesis 13–14, 17–18
“a frozen record from below”
199–200
“issues limited, sharpened, phrased”
173
law-conditioned officials and 58
legal-cultural relativity 33
synthesis of Llewellyn’s theories 61–3
Regulation No 31/62/EEC 127
res judicata, principle of 158
responsibility for justice 24
scholarship see legal scholarship
signposts
extra-legal steadying factors 264–5 “a known bench” 234, 237, 241, 242
procedural extra-legal steadying factors 259–60
stare decisis concept 246–7, 251
steadying factors 2, 3, 12–37
appropriateness of 30–32
in The Common Law Tradition see descriptive thesis
descriptive thesis see descriptive thesis eighth see “issues limited, sharpened, phrased” eleventh see judicial security and honesty fifth see tradition of one single right answer first see law-conditioned officials fourteenth see professional judicial office fourth see responsibility for justice isolating for study 27–9 legal see legal steadying factors
legal-cultural relativity 32–6
known doctrinal techniques 35–6
legal doctrine 34–5
reckonability 33
ninth see adversary argument by counsel prima facie problems 32–7
second see legal doctrine seventh see “a frozen record from below” sixth see “an opinion of the court” tenth see group decision third see known doctrinal techniques thirteenth see general Period-Style and its promise twelfth see “a known bench” see also specific steadying factors sui generis techniques 35, 246 susceptibility to countermeasures (scenario 1 rulings) 99–120 acceptability 118–19
achievability 114–17
adjudicative outcome 117–19
countervailing powers 99–100
legalism 100–101
normative preference for 100–101
overview of 99–100
political scientists 101
pragmatic preference
adjudicative outcomes 110–14
characteristics 101
countervailing powers 110–14
intergovernmentalism 106–9
intergovernmentalist views 109–10
legal steadying factors 101–10
neofunctionalism 102–6
neofunctionalist views 109–10
susceptibility to countermeasures (scenario 3 rulings) 164–9 susceptibility to countermeasures (scenario 4 rulings) 167–9 susceptibility to lawful countermeasures (scenario 2 rulings) 121–47
legal court-destroying/harming/curbing and accountability measures Article 253 TFEU judicial appointments 123, 136–9
countervailing powers 123
credibility 131
European Court of Human Rights 139
intergovernmentalist 126, 128, 130
judicial independence 126–7, 131, 140
law-conditioned officials 142
majoritarian activism 136, 146
neofunctionalist political scientists 130
Protocol to the Treaty of Maastricht 132
re-appointments procedures 123, 136–9
Regulation No 31/62/EEC 127
Treaty/legislative change to destroy the Court, curb its jurisdiction/harm its effectiveness 123–8 Treaty/legislative change to override the Court’s rulings 123, 128–36
Treaty of Lisbon 128, 130, 132
Treaty of Nice 130, 132
Index

voluntary non-utilisation of EU law, litigants before national courts/tribunals 123, 143–5 voluntary non-utilisation of preliminary reference procedure, national courts/tribunals 123, 139–43
overview of 121–2
susceptibility to unlawful countermeasures (scenario 2 rulings) 148–63
overview of 148
unlawful court-destroying/harming/curbing and accountability measures
adjudicative outcomes 149–50
European Convention on Human Rights 161
European Court of Human Rights 161
law-conditioned officials 157
majoritarian activism 158
non-compliance
Court of Justice rulings 150–51
litigants and lawyers 159–60
Member State governments 151–4
national courts 156–9
subnational actors 156–60
supranational actors 155
non-utilisation of preliminary reference procedure, national courts/tribunals 160–61
political constraints 151
principle of res judicata 158
value pluralism 9, 23, 40
voluntary non-utilisation of preliminary reference procedure, national courts/tribunals 123, 143–5 of preliminary reference procedure, national courts/tribunals 123, 139–43

Treaty on the Functioning of the EU (TFEU)
Article 253 of 64–6
Article 267 of 5, 12–37, 93

ultra petita concept 218
unlawful court-destroying/harming/curbing and accountability measures adjudicative outcomes 149–50
European Convention on Human Rights 161
European Court of Human Rights 161
law-conditioned officials 157
majoritarian activism 158
non-compliance
Court of Justice rulings 150–51
litigants and lawyers 159–60
Member State governments 151–4
national courts 156–9
subnational actors 156–60
supranational actors 155
non-utilisation of preliminary reference procedure, national courts/tribunals 160–61
political constraints 151
principle of res judicata 158

tradition of one single right answer 24
Treaty of Lisbon 128
Treaty of Nice 130, 132
Treaty of Rome 65–6

Treaty of Rome 65–6

Treaty of Nice 130, 132

Treaty of Lisbon 128

ultra petita concept 218
unlawful court-destroying/harming/curbing and accountability measures adjudicative outcomes 149–50
European Convention on Human Rights 161
European Court of Human Rights 161
law-conditioned officials 157
majoritarian activism 158
non-compliance
Court of Justice rulings 150–51
litigants and lawyers 159–60
Member State governments 151–4
national courts 156–9
subnational actors 156–60
supranational actors 155
non-utilisation of preliminary reference procedure, national courts/tribunals 160–61
political constraints 151
principle of res judicata 158

tradition of one single right answer 24
Treaty of Lisbon 128
Treaty of Nice 130, 132
Treaty of Rome 65–6