
Contents

List of contributors	viii
Introduction Misa Izuhara	1
PART I SHAPING WELFARE STATES IN EAST ASIA: ORIGIN AND DEVELOPMENT PATHS
1 Pathways of welfare state development in East Asia John Hudson and Gyu-Jin Hwang	15
2 Between Western Europe and East Asia: development of social policy in Japan Shogo Takegawa	41
3 Social policy and its implications to structural shifts: a comparison between Taiwan and Korea in the colonial era Yu-fang Chang and Yeun-wen Ku	65
4 Past policies, current arrangements: the enduring influence of British colonial social policy in Malaysia and Hong Kong Kevin Caraher	86
5 Shaping social policy in the reform era in China Kinglun Ngok	105
PART II DEMOGRAPHY, ECONOMY AND SOCIAL POLICY
6 After the regional and global financial crises: social development challenges and social policy responses in Hong Kong and Macau Ka Ho Mok	129
7 Exploring social and generational equity in the context of China's socio-economic and demographic transition Maggie Lau	150
8 Transitional generations? The contrasting experiences of the 30-somethings in China and Japan Ray Forrest and Misa Izuhara	170

vi	Handbook on East Asian social policy
9	The shaping of social policies in relation to demographic ageing in East Asia Kalyani K. Mehta	187
PART III EAST ASIA AND WELFARE REGIME DEBATES
10	Developmentalism and productivism in East Asian welfare regimes Young Jun Choi	207
11	Ethnocentrism, the developmental state and East Asian welfare Alan Walker and Chack-kie Wong	226
12	Social protection, governance and the dynamics of inclusion and exclusion in East Asia Patricia Kennett, Kam Wah Chan and Lucille Lok-Sun Ngan	245
13	Gender and welfare states in East Asia: women between tradition and equality Sirin Sung	266
PART IV RESEARCH AND SOCIETY
14	Presence of the state: probing the middle class and civic organizations in Chinese societies Tai-lok Lui and Shuo Liu	289
15	The role of philosophy and ethics in social policy and research: a case study of Hong Kong and other Chinese societies Ho Mun Chan	309
16	Challenges and directions: building a comparative quantitative dataset for East Asian social policies Chan-ung Park and Dongchul Jung	334
17	Qualitative research on family generations in changing East Asian societies Misa Izuhara and Ray Forrest	370
PART V CONTEMPORARY SOCIAL POLICY CHALLENGES IN EAST ASIA
18	Housing policy in East Asia Richard Ronald	391

19	From apartheid to semi-citizenship: Chinese migrant workers and their challenge to social policy	416
	Linda Wong
20	Poverty, the working poor and social policy in East Asia: exploring the second safety net proposal in Japan	434
	Masami Iwata
21	The political economy of cross-border higher education: the intra-national flow of students in Greater China	452
	William Yat Wai Lo
22	Re-examining family-centred care arrangements in East Asia	472
	Junko Yamashita, Naoko Soma and Raymond K.H. Chan
	Index	491