

Contents

---

List of contributors	vii
Foreword	xv
Acknowledgements	xvii
Introduction	xviii
1. Challenges of institutional governance for network infrastructures: Reinstitution and expansion of legal innovations Barbara A. Cherry	1
2. Beyond traditional regulatory models: Emerging governance for new networks Rob Albon	39
3. Government oversight of next generation wireless networks Rob Frieden	55
4. Incentive regulation, investments and technological change Ingo Vogelsang	85
5. Policy and regulation for next generation networks Martin Cave	115
6. Sector regulation and investment incentives: The European experience Harald Gruber	140
7. Pricing of complements and network effects Nicholas Economides and Brian Viard	157
8. Spillovers and network neutrality Christiaan Hogendorn	191

9. Network neutrality and sector performance: Exploring policy options with simulation methods Kurt DeMaagd and Johannes M. Bauer	209
10. Mobile communications: Economic and social impact Gerald R. Faulhaber	227
11. Regulator incentives and third generation national mobile telecommunications market entry Gary Madden, Aaron Morey and Erik Bohlin	247
12. Licensing options for digital dividend spectrum: An Australian perspective Benoît P. Freyens	268
13. Two-sided markets with substitution: Mobile termination revisited Jerry A. Hausman	284
14. Policy implications of asymmetric termination rate regulation in Europe Edmond Baranes and Cuong Huong Vuong	315
15. The absence of data for measuring the economic impact of IT in the US Shane Greenstein	328
Index	345