

Contents

List of contributors	vi
1 Poor leadership and bad governance: conceptual perspectives and questions for comparative inquiry Ludger Helms	1
2 In the grip of context: American presidents and their choices Bert A. Rockman	16
3 Not necessarily leadership but leadership if necessary: Canadian prime ministers and the management of expectations Jonathan Malloy	43
4 The United Kingdom: prime ministerial leadership and the challenge of governance Gillian Peele	64
5 Presidents behaving badly: poor leadership and bad governance in France John Gaffney	87
6 Revisiting the German chancellorship: leadership weakness and democratic autocracy in the Federal Republic Ludger Helms	110
7 Italy: goodness, badness, and the trajectories of mediocrity Gianfranco Pasquino	130
8 Leadership, governance and statecraft in Russia Richard Sakwa	149
9 Profiles in discouragement: prime ministerial leadership in post-war Japan Ellis S. Krauss and Robert Pekkanen	173
10 Conclusion Ludger Helms	195
Index	205