
Contents

List of contributors	x
Preface	xii
PART I REFUGEES, DISPLACED PERSONS AND THE RISE OF TEMPORARY PROTECTION
1 At the crossroads: The 1951 Geneva Convention today Julian M. Lehmann	2
2 The 1969 OAU Convention Governing the Specific Aspects of Refugee Problems in Africa Tamara Wood	16
3 Internally displaced persons and international refugee law Brid Ní Ghráinne	31
4 In-country programs: the procedure and politics of an additional pathway to protection Claire Higgins	44
5 Temporary protection of forced migrants Meltem Ineli-Ciger	57
PART II BURDEN-SHARING, INTERNAL RELOCATION AND THE SHIFT TO COOPERATION AGREEMENTS
6 Burden sharing in refugee law Eddie Bruce-Jones	71
7 The rise of consensual containment: from ‘contactless control’ to ‘contactless responsibility’ for migratory flows Mariagiulia Giuffré and Violeta Moreno-Lax	82
8 Responsibility-sharing in Latin America Stefania Eugenia Barichello	109
9 The internal protection alternative and its relation to refugee status Jessica Schultz	126
10 Gatekeepers of asylum: UK country guidance, indiscriminate violence and internal relocation Satvinder S. Juss and Jeni Mitchell	139

11	International models of deterrence and the future of access to asylum Nikolas Feith Tan	170
PART III PRINCIPLE OF NON-REFOULEMENT OF REFUGEES AND THEIR NON-PENALISATION
12	What is the future of non-refoulement in international refugee law? James C. Simeon	183
13	Constructive refoulement Penelope Mathew	207
14	The prosecution of asylum seekers Yewa Holiday	224
15	Australia and the Refugee Convention Savitri Taylor	238
PART IV FAMILY RE-UNION, GENDER DISCRIMINATION, GAY RIGHTS, HUMAN TRAFFICKING AND CLIMATE REFUGEES
16	The rights to refugee family reunion Emily Darling	253
17	The art of drawing lines: future behaviour and refugee status Janna Wessels	268
18	Some other(ed) 'refugees'?: women seeking asylum under refugee and human rights law Catherine Briddick	281
19	The rights of women seeking asylum: procedural and evidential barriers to protection Nora Honkala	295
20	Sexual orientation and refugee law: how do legal sanctions criminalizing homosexuality engage the definition of persecution? Tawseef Khan	310
21	Human trafficking and refugee law Vladislava Stoyanova	324
22	Climate refugees and the 1951 Convention Matthew Scott	343
PART V THE EXCLUSION AND REJECTION OF REFUGEES
23	New directions in article 1D jurisprudence: greater barriers for Palestinian refugees seeking the benefits of the Refugee Convention Kate Ogg	358

24	The war on terror and refugee law Sarah Singer	374
25	The exclusion clauses in refugee law Joseph Rikhof	390
26	The removal of undesirable asylum seekers Joris van Wijk and Maarten Bolhuis	403
27	Reviewing review: the standard of review in asylum decision-making Rowena Moffatt	417
	Index	429