

---

Index

---

- Abbondanza, M. 178, 179, 182
- academic STEM fields
- lack of women in 326–7
  - motherhood
    - effect on career 328–34
    - pay and promotion 334
    - vs tenure 327–8
  - women's attrition from professional positions 334–6
  - potential solutions 336–7
- academic work experience as definition of career stage 304–24
- accent as barrier 429
- Accomplished Top Leaders
- Advancement Strategy (ATLAS) 397
- accounting firms
- specialization 298
  - underrepresentation of women 54, 110, 291
- accumulated advantage 224
- achieving 415
- Acker, J. 65, 67, 68, 79, 80, 200, 203, 272, 295, 454
- Adler, N.J. 5, 23, 369, 370, 372, 374, 376, 377
- advancement see career advancement
- advantaged men 13–14
- affiliative style of communication 248–52
- affirmative action 146, 215, 220, 223, 230, 231
- African-American women 68–9, 73–7
- see also* Black and White women; women of color
- African feminism 70
- age
- as definition of career stage 304–24
  - effect on hormone levels 247
  - and female CEOs 435
  - motherhood and career 328
  - and perception of SH 132
  - as sampling criterion 91, 423
  - as statistically insignificant 444, 450
- agentic behavior 10, 75, 143, 153–4, 170, 206, 333
- see also* communal behavior
- aggression 244–8, 253
- align and sustain phases of
- repositioning gender 112, 115–16
- all-male boards 1, 343
- Allen, T.D. 152, 259, 393
- alternative dispute resolution (ADR) 135
- alternative work arrangements 20
- Altman, Y. 23, 369, 372, 373–4
- altruistic citizenship behaviors 152
- ambiguity in gender stereotypes 34, 145
- about source of performance 148–9
  - in available information 147
  - in evaluative criteria 147–8
  - in evaluative structure 148
- ambition 54, 164–5, 170
- amygdala 244, 246, 249
- anger 151–2, 253–4, 276
- Annis, B. 237, 239, 240, 252, 253, 255, 257, 260
- anticategorical approach to
- intersectionality 67–8, 77–8, 80
- approach motivation (SH) 126
- Argentina, women in management 8, 9, 55–6
- Arkin, R.M. 293, 297, 299
- armed forces study 162, 167–8
- Arroba, T. 199, 201, 204
- Asian-American women 74–7
- aspiration 163, 172, 360–361
- aspirational approaches to supporting women's advancement 26
- assertive style of communication 151, 252–5
- assortativity 223
- attention, brain organization for 242–3
- attributional rationalization 149

- audit phase of repositioning gender 111, 114
- auditory triggers 274–5, 276
- Augusta National Golf Club 11
- Austin, A.E. 304, 305–6, 307
- Australia immigrant status and race study 421–31 reaction to quota threat 341, 342 social hierarchies 420
women in management 9, 56, 230
- authority 256–7, 316, 320
- awareness phase of repositioning
gender 111–12, 115
- Ayers, M.M. 247, 248, 249, 253, 254
- backlash responses to women who seek power 185–6
- BAE Systems 467–8
- balance in life, striving for 97–8
- balanced group (gender distribution)
52–3
- Baldwin, R.G. 305, 306, 308–9, 310, 312, 322
- Barabási, A.-L. 213, 218, 219, 223, 224
- Baron-Cohen, S. 237, 242, 243, 244, 252, 257
- barriers to career advancement 7–9, 180–181, 271–2, 391–2, 425 see also obstacles to career advancement
- Baruch, Y. 369, 372, 379, 421
- Battiston, S. 212, 213, 223
- Baxter 400
- Behaviors from Intergroup Affect and Stereotypes (BIAS) framework
133
- Belkin, L. 8, 162, 163, 173
- Bell, E.L. 67, 73, 74
- benchmarking 59
- Berdahl, J.L. 53, 55, 123, 124, 126, 128
- Berry, S.A. 124, 125
- best practice case studies career development support 460–462 conditions for success 452–3 hard wiring the system 464–9 quantitative and qualitative analysis 458–60 reciprocal mentoring 453–8 resources 462–4
- Bhattacharya, G. 121
- Bilimoria, D. 87–91, 98, 102, 191, 353, 409
- biological model (SH) 125
- Black and White women manager studies 74–6
sexual harassment 128
see also African-American women;
women of color
- Black feminism 66–7, 70
- Black, J.S. 369, 372, 374, 375
- Blair, Cherie 1
- Blake-Beard, S. 73, 76, 363
- blood flow patterns 238–9
- boards see corporate boards
- body capital 281
- ‘bookish’ behavior 297, 299
- Borker, R. 236, 254, 269
- boundary-free networks see scale-free networks
- brain 236–7 architecture and structure 238 biological approach to 237–8, 259–60 bridge 257–8, 261 chemistry 245–7
corpus callosum sizes 239 evidence for female strength in empathy 243–4
extent of defined areas 239–40 function 241 hemisphere asymmetries 238–9 implications of differences in 258–61 organization for attention 242–3 for emotion 244–5 for language and information processing 241–2
- ‘Brand India’ 354
- Branson, D. 214, 224, 341, 435
- breadwinners 24–5
- Breakthrough Leadership 401
- Brescoll, V.L. 152, 154, 179, 182, 185
- bridge brains 257–8, 261
- British Telecom (BT) 410–411
- Brown, Bobbie 251–2
- Buchanan, D.A. 197, 199, 201, 202
- bullies 16
- Burke, R.J. 5, 6, 18, 19, 26, 28, 30, 87, 181, 182, 215, 370, 380, 437

- Burlington Industries v. Ellerth* 134
 Burt, R.S. 200, 381, 436, 445 business issue, gender as 5–7, 111–13 business process outsourcing (BPO) 354
- Calás, M. 65, 66, 68, 72, 78–9, 80
 Caleo, S. 149, 153
 Caligiuri, P.M. 369–71, 375–9
 Campbell, Kim 272, 273
 Camussi, E. 178, 182, 184, 185, 186, 190
- Canada artistic positions 16
 women in management 9, 56
 women with children 15
- career advancement barriers facing women 7–9, 180–181, 271–2, 391–2, 425 business case for 5–7 effect of facilitators on 426–7 over time, study career factors 88–9 composite profiles 92–3, 95–7, 99–101 methodology 90–91
 organizational actions for support 103–4 phases and patterns 87–8, 104 running the career race 89–90 pipeline approach 181 positive factors 18–23
 as slow and uneven 2, 5, 21, 54, 215, 340 strategic actions and initiatives for 94–5, 97–9, 102–3, 391–403 structural explanations of 446–7 tangible signs of progress 10–11
 ‘true to self’ vs ‘chameleon-like’ strategies 206 for women in the pipeline 181, 460–462 worrisome signs 15–16
- career aspiration 163, 172, 360–361 career circumstances, temporal nature of 88–9 career commitment 163, 165, 170, 172 career motivation see occupational motivation
- career satisfaction factors affecting 18–23 in faculty 316, 320
- career stages see faculty career stages
- careers in management barriers to progress 180–181 female misogyny 179, 184–7, 189–90
 future research 179, 190–191
 homosociality 179–80, 187–9 queen bees and solidarity behaviour 178, 181–4
- Caribbean feminism 70
- Carli, L.L. 12, 151, 200, 259, 260, 270, 272, 273, 289, 341, 379, 409, 417, 459
- Carter, N.M. 87, 363, 393, 394, 395
- Case, S.S. 235, 247, 249, 252, 253, 255–6, 259, 260, 269, 270, 275, 277, 279–80
- caste, role of 365–6
- Catalyst 4, 5, 7, 17, 22, 26, 143, 162, 173, 198, 214, 270, 271, 291, 340, 359, 391, 392–3, 395–401, 433, 439
- Catanzaro, M. 212, 213, 223
- catch-22 of directing 214
- Ceci, S.J. 5, 146, 235–6, 242, 245, 327, 329, 335, 336
- CEOs in the United States 433–4, 447–8 differences between men and women 434–7 female CEOs and human capital theory 443–5 in list of companies 440–441 and social capital theory 445–6 and structural factors 446–7
 future research implications for 443 limitations and 447 organizational differences 437–9 research design and results 439–43
- cerebral cortex 240, 245, 246
- CH2M HILL 396
- change agents 59–60, 416, 463
- Chen, J.J. 150, 152, 259
- ‘cherry picking’ 223, 230
- Chicana feminism 70–71
- chief financial officers (CFOs) 11–12
- childcare 54, 297–8, 359, 362–3, 391, 475

- children see family; motherhood
- China, women in management 8, 9, 56
- cingulate gyrus 238, 245
- cities 216, 356
- Civil Rights Act, 1964, Title VII 121
- Clinton, Hillary 15, 30, 270, 274
- coaching
  - benefits and outcomes 483
  - definition used 472, 479
  - delivery of 474–6
  - importance of 471–3
  - and learning 473–4
  - nature of 471
  - program 399–400
  - prominent role in leadership programme 412
  - for women small business owners 476–7, 478–9
  - see also* e-coaching
- coalition government 342
- cognitive abilities 246
- Colarelli, S.M. 237, 245, 246, 248, 252, 254, 261
- collaborative interactions 148–9, 250, 256, 259
- Collinson, D.L. 27, 179, 184, 187–8, 190
- communal behavior 10, 54, 76, 143, 149–50, 156–7, 274, 277
  - see also* agentic behavior
- communication differences 235–7
  - affiliative style 248–52
  - assertive style 151, 252–5
  - human brain 237–47, 257–8
  - implications of differences in 258–61
  - link with biology 247–8
  - talk characterizations 248
  - wide-verbal-repertoire speech 257–8
  - wide-verbal-repertoire style 255–7
- communication effectiveness 261
- communication style 74, 151
- commuting time 356
- compensation 23, 309, 313, 315, 316, 319–22, 396
- competitive advantage 4, 31, 359
- competitiveness 151, 184, 243, 246, 248, 254, 255
- complexity
  - of intersectionality 67–9, 78, 80
  - tolerance 374
- computer assisted telephone interview (CATI) 310
- Confederation of British Industry (CBI) 342
- Conley, V.M. 306, 307–8
- connectedness 90, 206, 251
- connector directors 213–24
- Connell, R.W. 65, 71, 179, 184
- considerate leadership style 55–6
- consultants 291–7, 299, 301
- consumers, women as 3, 12, 25
- corporate boards
  - boardroom glass ceilings 214–16
  - number of women on 1, 212, 214–15, 339–40, 343–5
  - quotas 26–7, 107, 212, 214, 225, 228
  - women on UK
    - background 339–40
    - catalyst for change 340–341
    - conduit for 348–9
    - context for change 346–7
    - demand for 347–8
    - progression 343–5
    - questions for the future 349–50
    - reasons for change 345–6
    - responding to quota threat 341–3, 349–50
    - supply pipeline 347
- Corporate Governance Code
  - amendment 341–2, 348
- corpus callosum 239
- Cortina, L.M. 120, 122, 123, 124, 130, 184–5
- Cosgrove, K.P. 236, 237, 238, 239–40, 246
- costs of communal behavior 10
- costs of sexual harassment 131
- Cotton, J.L. 181, 198, 393, 394
- Cranfield School of Management
  - Ernst & Young programme 411–13
  - Female FTSE census 214–15, 339–40, 345
  - focus on participants' experience 412–13
  - International Centre for Women Leaders (CICWL) 339–40, 408

- Rank Group Talent Management Programme 458–60
- Women Business Leaders elective 407–8
- women's management development programme 410–411
- 'critical friends' 94
- cross-cultural adjustment on international assignments 373, 377–8
- cross-cultural differences and gender ratios in management 53–7
- and women leaders 29
- cross-cultural studies of managerial experience 78
- crude behavior (SH) 127
- Cuban, Mark 254–5
- Cuddy, A.J. 133, 136, 333
- culturally endorsed implicit leadership theories (CLTs) 29
- culture
- gender bilingual 21–3
  - Indian 360–361, 364
  - and leadership 29
  - masculine 202–3
  - organizational definition 10
  - fitting in 8
  - workplace 14
- D&I (diversity and inclusion)
- integration into business 468–9
  - resources case study 462–4
- Danish corporation study 256–7
- Davidson, M.J. 5, 26, 73, 78, 409
- Davies, Lord E.M. 1, 342–4, 347, 348, 349, 467
- Davies Report 1, 342–4, 348–9
- Davis, G.F. 217, 220, 223, 225
- degrees of separation 225
- Deloitte 291, 416
- descriptive stereotypes 143–6, 149, 150, 157
- Deutsche Bank 397
- developmental job experiences 19
- developmental relationships 20, 207
- The Devil wears Prada* 16
- Diekmann, A.B. 143, 269, 273
- Dinolfo, S. 393, 394
- directives 256
- director networks see glass networks
- disadvantaged women 13–14
- discrimination
- and gender bias 143–4
  - in India 358, 365
  - and manager-client relationships 292
  - against mothers of children 17
  - from overt to subtle 272, 273, 414
  - in pay, promotion and assignments 3
  - positive 465
- diversity 108–9, 215–16, 348–9, 359, 379–80, 411–12
- see also* D&I (diversity and inclusion)
- Doherty, N. 20–21, 350
- Doldor, E. 201, 204–8, 349
- dominance 244, 254
- double jeopardy 73, 74
- double voiced discourse 244
- dual-career couples 375–6
- duality management 374
- e-coaching
- advantages and disadvantages 474–6, 479, 483
  - practice application 482–4
  - TEC programme 477, 479–84
  - see also* coaching
- Eagly, A.H. 12, 55, 56, 143, 145, 150, 190, 205–6, 249, 253, 258, 259, 260, 269–73, 275, 277, 278, 280, 281, 289, 331, 341, 379, 409, 417, 455, 459
- early career phase 87–90
- career development actions 94–5
  - career profile 92–3
  - faculty 305–7, 321–3
  - organizational support 103
- economic crisis 11–12, 346–7, 470
- edges 217, 219, 223
- education
- in India 354, 358, 360, 365
  - level of 15, 24–5, 107, 340, 435–6, 444
- EEOC 119, 120, 121, 131, 134, 135
- EEOC v. Dial Corporation* 123
- Ellemers, N. 163, 182, 186

- Ely, R.J. 25, 65–6, 170, 188, 207, 270, 271–2, 274, 294, 300, 392, 409–10, 417
- email use 251–2, 254–5
- emotion brain organization for 244–5 emotional intelligence 249 engaging in organizational politics 204–5 male-typed 151–2
- empathy 235, 242–4
- employee resource groups (ERGs) 399
- employee value proposition (EVP) 460
- enablers 224
- engineering, women in 5, 146, 326–37
- English language, communication skills in 422, 425, 429
- entrepreneurial learning 473–4
- Equal Employment Opportunities (EEO)-driven training 413–14
- Equality and Human Rights Commission 349, 420, 430
- equity see gender equity
- Ernst & Young 291, 411–13
- estrogen 246–7
- ethicality of organizational politics 9, 203–4
- ethnography 32, 68, 80, 251
- EU Commissioner 349
- evaluation of women 144–5, 147–8, 156
- executive development study 199–200
- executive education programmes 413–17
- expatriation see international career development
- Expert Theory 228
- ‘extreme jobs’ 13–14
- facilitators 426–7
- faculty career stages 304 activities and perceptions of 305–7 and gender 307–8
     study contributions and limitations 323–4 study discussion 321–3 study introduction 308–9 study methods analytical methods and statistical tests 311 career stage definitions and categories 312 data collection methods 309–10 measures of academic work experiences 312–13 sample and sample sizes 310–311 study results careers of women over time 317–21
         compensation 316, 320–321
         gender differences 313–16
         productivity 316, 317, 320 satisfaction and equity perceptions 316, 320 work hours 313, 317
- Fair Employment Practices Agency (FEPA) 135
- fairness 26, 152–3, 243
- family familial influence and support 360–361, 375, 377 impact of international assignments on 369–71, 375 work-family balance 28, 92, 94, 290, 297–8 work-family conflict 17–18, 30–32, 54, 307, 326–37, 434, 475
     see also motherhood
- Faragher v. City of Boca Raton* 134
- female misogyny 178–80 contribution of 189–90 possible future research 191 underexplored in research 190 and women's negative intrarelations 184–7
- feminine speech characteristics 248–52, 255–7, 260–261
- femininity 259, 260, 276, 296, 414
- feminism
     Black, and intersectionality 66–7, 77 and the brain 236–7 negative perceptions towards 133 theoretical perspectives 65–6 transnational 70–72, 79
- Fielden, S.L. 477, 483
- film directors 16
- financial payoffs 17
- Financial Reporting Council 341, 343, 348

- first-generation
  - migrants 423–9
  - working women 360–361, 366
- Fischer, A.H. 163, 164, 170
- fitting in 8, 165–9, 417
- Fitzgerald, L.F. 122–3, 128–9, 130, 131
- Fletcher, J.K. 65, 249, 261, 296, 300, 414, 415
- flexibility 297–8, 358
- ‘foreign’ women 376–7
- formal networks 370, 378–80
- Forsyth, D. 270, 271, 275
- Fortune Global 200 219–22, 223
- Fortune US 1000 network 219–22, 223
- Foust-Cummings, H. 393, 395, 402
- France
  - PSF study 294–301
  - quota system 107, 212
  - women in director/CEO positions 391
  - women in management 9, 56
- Fraser, Helen 1
- FTSE 100 companies 1, 340, 342–6, 350–351, 467
- future research opportunities
  - analysis of class 76
  - CEOs in the United States 445, 446, 447
  - faculty career stages 323–4
  - gender stereotypes 154, 155–6
  - migrant status and race 429
  - negative relations 179, 180, 191
  - prejudice against women leaders 273, 281–2
  - sexual harassment 128
  - software services sector in India 364–6
  - women and organizational politics 198, 200, 208–9
  - women’s managerial careers 80, 181
- ‘gender asbestos’ 110
- gender balance as a business issue 5–7, 111–16
- gender bilingual cultures 21–3, 109
- gender differences
  - in approach to politics 200, 201
  - in brain structure and function 236–48
  - CEOs in the United States 434–7
  - in communication 248–61
  - in expatriate readiness 377–8
  - in faculty careers 313–16, 321–3
  - intra- 186–7, 317–23
  - in leadership 408–9
  - in occupational motivation 163–5, 170–173
  - in perceptions of SH 132
- gender equity 28, 229, 316, 320, 416–17
- gender fatigue 107
- gender gap in pay and promotions 334
- gender imperative 110–111
- Gender QuickScan survey 114
- gender ratios
  - changing by preferential treatment 59
  - computing 58
  - gender distributions 51–3
  - in management
    - and cross-cultural differences 53–7, 61–2
    - policy instruments to increase number of women 57–60
  - monitoring 51
- gender stereotypes 7, 143–4
  - activation trigger 274–5
  - ambiguity, role of 147–9
  - degree to which target is seen as stereotypical 146
  - description-based bias 143–6, 149, 157
  - future research 155–6
  - implications 156–7
  - and organizational politics 205–6
  - prescription-based bias 143–4, 149–50, 154, 157
  - and sex of voice 274, 276–7
  - sex-type of the field 145–6
  - ‘should not’s’ 150–152, 154
  - ‘shoulds’ 152–3, 154
  - success as a violation 153–4
- Giscombe, K. 394–5
- Gladwell, M. 225–6
- glass ceiling
  - and glass networks 214–16
  - myth 110
  - in professional services firms 289–91, 294, 298
  - shattering by incremental changes 300–301

- spanning cultures 391–2 usefulness of metaphor 12–13, 74, 215, 223, 289
- glass cliff 31, 222, 229
- Glass Network Theory (GNT) 213, 215–16, 222–4, 227, 229, 230, 231
- glass networks 212–14, 228–31 boardroom glass ceilings and 214–16 origin and growth of director networks 222–4 ‘outliers’ and governance experience 224–9 terminology and methodology 216–22
- Glenn, E.N. 66, 67, 69, 77
- Glick, P. 126, 153, 281
- global economic crisis 11–12, 346–7, 470
- globalization impact 71–2, 79, 370–371
- GLOBE project 29–30
- Glomb, T.M. 122, 124, 128, 129, 130
- ‘golden skirt’ phenomena 220, 222, 231
- golf 11, 202–3
- ‘good soldiers’ 10
- Goodman, J.S. 437–8, 439, 446
- Goulden, M. 329, 330, 331, 336
- governance experience 224–9
- governance networks 216–17
- government policy 26–7, 107, 342, 348
- government sector 8–9
- gray matter 239–40
- Grosvenor Casinos 459
- group association 165–6
- Gruber, J.E. 122, 126, 128, 135
- Gruenfeld, D. 179, 187, 191
- Gur, R. 238, 239, 240, 241, 245, 258
- Gur, R.E. 239, 240, 241
- Gurian, M. 237, 239, 240, 252, 253, 255, 257, 260
- Guterk, B.A. 123, 125–6, 128, 132, 135, 147, 183
- Gutierrez v. California Acrylic Industries, Inc.* 123
- Haier, R.J. 236, 238, 240, 241
- Hales, D. 238, 240, 241, 254, 258
- Hall, J. 162, 163, 172, 245, 249, 251
- Halpern, D.F. 235, 236, 239, 246
- hard wiring the system case study 464–9
- Harrington, B. 290, 293, 299
- Harris, H. 369–70, 371, 373, 375–6
- Härtel, C.E.J. 429, 430
- Härtel, G.F. 429, 430
- Hartley, J. 197, 200, 201, 202
- Harvey, M. 380, 381, 420, 454
- Haslam, S.A. 148, 164, 166, 167, 168, 171, 222, 438
- Hawarden, R. 212–16, 218–24, 226–7, 230–231
- health, impact of SH on 129–30
- Hearn, J. 27, 179, 184, 187–8, 190
- Heilman, M.E. 143–50, 152–5, 204, 206, 258, 259, 271, 277, 332–3, 455
- Helfat, C.E. 5, 54, 59
- Hewlett, S.A. 13–14, 31, 88–9, 94, 98, 163, 164, 359, 395, 454, 459
- hierarchies 420, 437–9, 446
- Hillman, A.J. 216, 435, 445
- hippocampus 240, 246
- Hispanic women 70–71, 73, 75
- Holmes, J. 247–51, 253, 254, 257–61
- home responsibilities 6, 7, 14, 356, 408
- homophily 191, 223, 437
- homosociality 179–80, 187–9, 191
- Hopkins, M.M. 89, 408
- hormonal influences 245–7
- hostile work environment sexual harassment 120, 121–2, 123, 132
- human capital theory 434–5, 443–5
- human resource (HR) issue 109–10
- human resource management (HRM) audit 58–9
- Humana, Inc. 399–400
- Hunt, C.M. 475
- Huse, M. 212, 228, 231
- Ibarra, H. 20, 66, 188, 200, 206, 223, 290, 293, 299, 300, 370, 379, 381, 394, 395, 437, 454
- IBM 11, 359, 463–4
- ICT-based sectors see software services sector in India
- ‘ideal consultant’ 295–8
- idealistic achievement phase see early career phase
- identity-fit 165–72
- image 293, 297, 299

- inclusion 359, 392, 403, 467–8
see also D&I (diversity and inclusion)
- India see software services sector in India
- influence behavior 252
- influential mentors 394
- informal networks, exclusion from 73, 74, 198, 199, 273, 426
- information
 ambiguity in 147 distortion 148 gathering 245
 processing 241–2
- institutional investors 348
- intercategorical approach to intersectionality 69, 76–7, 80
- interest, renewed 30–31
- interlocks see edges
- international assignments 23–4, 372–4, 382
- international career development 369–70 adjustment issues 374–6, 382–3 attaining assignments 372–4, 382 gendered challenges 372 international experience 23, 372, 436, 442, 444
 nature of 370–372
 organizational initiatives 378–82 perceptions of success 376–8 women ideally suited to 373–4
- interpersonal facilitators 426
- interrupters 253
- intersectionality 79–80
 anticategorical approach to 67–8, 77–8, 80
 and Black feminism 66–7
 intercategorical approach to 69, 76–7, 80
 intracategorical approach to 68–9, 73–6, 80
 methodology of 67–70 transnational approach to 78–9, 80
- intra-relations, women's negative 178–80, 184–7, 190–191
- intracategorical approach to intersectionality 68–9, 73–6, 80
- Iran's exclusion of female students 8–9
- Israel, women in management 9, 56
- Jacklin, C.N. 235, 236, 244, 253
- Jacobs, J.A. 13, 66, 328, 331
- James, K. 199, 201, 204
- Jatis 365
- job experiences, developmental 19
- job queues 356–7, 362
- job satisfaction, impact of SH 129–30
- Johannesen-Schmidt, M.C. 269, 271, 273
- joking 250
- Kaiser, A. 236, 237, 238, 241–2
- kaleidoscope career 88
- Kanter, R.M. 51–3, 57, 59, 61, 62, 146, 181, 186, 207, 273, 373, 374, 380, 438, 446
- Karau, S.J. 143, 150, 269, 270, 271, 273, 275, 277, 278, 280, 281, 455
- Kimura, D. 236, 241, 246
- King, E.B. 249, 252, 332, 436
- Ko, S.J. 269–70, 274–5, 276, 279–80
- Koenig, A.M. 150, 258, 259, 273
- Korabik, K. 18, 129, 178, 179, 182
- KPMG 291, 396
- Kram, K.E. 20, 380, 395
- Kray, L.J. 9, 16, 151, 157
- Kullman, Ellen 3
- Kumra, S. 181, 290, 293–4, 379
- labour queues 356
- labyrinth metaphor 12, 273, 289, 341
- 'lack of fit' 143, 155–6
- Lack of Fit model 144–7, 155
- Ladegaard, H.J. 247, 248, 255, 256–7, 258, 260
- Lagarde, Christine 3
- language processing 241–2
- late career phase 87–90
 career development actions 102–3 career profile 99–101
 faculty 305–7, 321–3
 organizational support for 104
- law firms 189, 291
- Lazarova, M. 369, 371, 377
- leadership
 androgynous view of 259 barriers to advancement in 271–2 behaviors 54–5, 57 case studies 453–8, 463–4, 465–8 cross-cultural issues 29

- development 398–9
- gender balance initiatives 113
- language of 24
- perceived role incongruity 170, 172–3, 272, 277–82
- style 55–7, 150–151, 168–9, 222, 249, 253, 255, 408–9
- women and 24, 73–4, 270–271, 274, 277, 409–10
- leadership programmes
  - case for women-only 406–10
  - case studies 399–401
  - Cranfield School of Management 410–411
  - design and delivery principles 25, 417–18
  - Ernst & Young programme 411–13
  - leadership acceleration program (LEAP) 400
  - principles for design and delivery 25–6
  - provoking controversy 406
  - Simmons School of Management programmes 413–17
  - underrepresentation of women 15
- Leaper, C. 247, 248, 249, 253, 254
- learning
  - entrepreneurial 473–4
  - relationship with coaching 471–3
- Leccardi, C. 178, 182, 184, 185, 186, 190
- likeability 151, 185, 259, 299
- Likelihood to Sexually Harass (LSH) questionnaire 126
- limbic system 238, 244–5
- line experience 436, 442, 444
- Linehan, M. 23, 370, 374, 379, 381, 382, 391
- links see edges
- listening 251
- Lord, R.G. 270, 274, 275
- Luce, C.B. 13–14, 31, 89, 163, 164, 459
- Lyness, K.S. 145, 146, 153, 438, 439

- Maccoby, E.E. 235, 236, 244, 253
- Mackenzie Davey, K. 199, 200, 203, 204
- macro-level efforts 29–30
- Mainiero, L.A. 87, 88, 98, 199, 200, 201, 307, 353

- male-type occupations
  - gender and identity-fit in 169–72
  - and gender stereotypes 144, 145–6, 148–50, 153, 157
- Maltz, D. 236, 254, 269
- management positions
  - networking strategy 60–61
  - policies to increase women in 57–60
  - underrepresentation of women in 54
  - women in, globally 5, 8–9, 55–7, 391
  - women leaving 163–5
  - see also* careers in management
- managerial behaviours vs
  - organizational policies 362–4
- mandatory approaches to supporting women's advancement 26
- marathoners see mid-career phase
- markets, adapting to contemporary 116
- Marra, M. 251, 255, 257
- Marsland, S. 212, 214, 220, 226, 227
- Martin, P.Y. 66, 187, 434, 437, 438, 446
- masculine occupations see male-type occupations
- masculine speech characteristics 252–9, 261
- Mason, M.A. 328, 330, 331, 334
- mathematics, women in 5, 146, 326–37
- Mattis, M.C. 5, 8, 215
- Mavin, S. 178–9, 181–7, 189–90, 222
- Mayer, M. 30, 31
- McCall, L. 67–9, 76, 77, 80
- McKeen, C.A. 19, 182, 370, 380
- Mecca 459–60
- media representation 5, 12, 16, 30, 182, 339
- men
  - as agentic 10, 75, 143, 170
  - engaging, as champions of change 416–17
  - harassment of 120, 123–4, 133
  - 'having it all?' 31–2
  - important role of 27–8
  - overt competitiveness 184, 191
  - socialization 188
- mentors and mentoring
  - as developmental relationship 20
  - employee resource groups (ERGs) 399
  - identification with 300

- impact on career advancement 363, 370
- influential 394
- international career development 380–382
- online 475–6
- in political arena 206–7, 208
- reciprocal, case study 453–8
- for relay runners 100, 101, 102
- as strategic initiative for advancement 393–6, 402, 426
- and women of color 394–5, 403
- Merck's Women's Leadership Development programme 416
- meritocratic workplace 23
- Mexico, women in management 9, 56
- Meyerson, D.E. 66, 155, 207–8, 272, 300, 414
- micro-level efforts 29–30
- mid-career phase 87–90
  - career development actions 97–9
  - career profile 95–7
  - faculty 305–7, 321–3
  - organizational support for 104
- migration see race and migration
- Miner-Rubino, K. 130, 184–5
- misogyny, female see female misogyny
- Mohanty, C.T. 66, 71–2, 80
- momentum for women's career advancement 30–31
- 'mommy tracks' 298
- morality 16
- Morrison, A.M. 8, 17, 162, 381, 435, 437, 444, 445
- motherhood
  - in academic STEM fields 327–34
  - Asian-American women 75
  - as basis for social organization 70
  - gender gap in pay and promotions 334
  - implications of 15, 146, 334
  - perceptions of organizational responses to 363
  - and women non-partners 298
  - see also* family
- motivation behind text 2–3
- motivation, occupational see occupational motivation
- Mukhopadhyay, C.C. 357, 360–361, 365
- multigroups 69
- mutual empowering 414–15
- myths
  - glass ceiling 110
  - refuting 340–341
  - in respect of international working 372, 376
- Nadler, J.T. 127–8, 136
- Nakra, M. 361, 362, 363
- narrative study of lives 230
- Nasscom 354, 359
- Nasscom-Mercer 356, 364
- National Center for Education Statistics (NCES) Data Analysis System (DAS) 310–311, 324
- National Study of Postsecondary Faculty (NSOPF-04) survey 304, 308, 309–11, 324
- negotiated tensions 359–62, 366
- negotiations 151
- networks and networking
  - change agents 463
  - differences 299, 437
  - exclusion from informal 73, 74, 198, 199, 273, 426
  - formal 370, 378–80
  - glass 212–31
    - and homosociality 188–9
    - 'old boy' 11, 19, 61, 96, 202–3, 223, 226, 353
  - outliers 214, 224–8
  - scale-free 213–14, 218, 222–4
  - as strategy of choice 60–61
  - on TEC programme 480, 481–2
- neuroanatomy 236–7
- neurointelligence 260
- neurons 238, 239, 240
- New York Times* 2, 163, 270
- New Zealand
  - situated talk at work study 257
  - women in management 8, 9
- New Zealand Institute of Directors 226–8
- New Zealand Stock Exchange (NZX) network 219–22, 223, 231
- Nkomo, S.M. 67, 73
- nodes 213–14, 217, 223, 224
- non-executive directors (NEDs) 340–341, 350

- non-linear career paths 92–3, 99–101, 307
- non-verbal communication 238, 241–2, 244, 245, 249, 251
- non-verbal displays (sexual harassment) 122
- 'norm violators' 150–154, 155–6, 185
- Norway
 as an outlier EU country 225
 quotas 26, 107, 173, 212, 231
 women in management 9, 230
- Nugent, J.S. 393, 394
- observers of sexual harassment, impact on 130–131
- obstacles to career advancement 8–9, 12, 149, 205, 208
see also barriers to career advancement
- occupational motivation 162–3 gender and identity-fit in masculine occupations 169–72 identity-fit model of 165–9 implications 172–3
 opting out and gender differences 163–5, 172
- OECD 270–271
- oestrogen 246–7
- offshore projects 355
- Ohlott, P.J. 19, 435, 436, 438
- Ohse, D.M. 132
- Okimoto, T.G. 146, 154, 179, 182, 185, 259, 332, 333
- 'old boy' network 8, 11, 19, 29, 61, 202–3, 223, 226, 353
- O'Neil, D.A. 8, 87–91, 98, 102, 353, 409
- online coaching see e-coaching
- opt-out revolution 163–5, 172
- organizational change efforts 22–3, 28
- organizational citizenship behaviors (OCBs) 10, 129, 152
- organizational culture 8, 10
- organizational initiatives
 international career development 378–82, 383
 for maximizing talent development 401–3 recommendations 4, 13, 336–7
- organizational model (SH) 125
- organizational policies vs managerial behaviours 362–4
- organizational politics 196, 207–9 development obstacles and opportunities 205 emotional experience of engaging in 204–5 ethicality of 203–4 functional outcomes of 202–3 importance in managerial roles 197–8 mentors and role models 206–7 navigating gender stereotypes 205–6
 women and 198–200
 women's willingness to engage in 200–205, 208
- organizational support facilitators 426
- organizations actions for support 103–4 adapting to contemporary talents and markets 116
 'pomegranate-like' forms 108 responsibility to provide harassment-free environment 134 women reaching top of 3
- outliers (networks) 214, 224–8
- oxytocin 245, 246, 252
- Palin, Sarah 15
- Parks-Stamm, E. 144, 146, 185
- part-time work 14, 20, 30–31, 89, 330, 332
- participatory modes of interaction 250
- partner, transformation to 294–8
- pay gap 5, 15, 143, 334
- pay negotiations 151
- Pearson Product Moment correlation coefficient 223
- 'people-things' dimension of brain 242–3
- performance evaluation 147–9, 251, 378, 466–8
- person-occupation fit 166–7
- person-organization fit 166
- personal characteristics 444–5, 447
- personnel audits 58–9
- Peters, K. 167, 168, 171
- Pfeffer, J. 51, 66, 197
- Phelan, J.E. 182, 185, 186
- physical attractiveness 146, 281

- pipeline approach for career advancement 181
- pipeline, women in 340–341, 347, 460–462
- plasticity of brain 236–7
- playwrights 16
- Plus One strategy 466–7
- policewomen study 168, 170, 172
- policy
  - government 26–7, 107, 342, 348
  - instruments to increase women in management 57–60
  - organizational vs managerial behaviours 362–4
  - zero tolerance 134
- political will 200–205, 208
- politics see organizational politics
- Polly v. Houston Lighting & Power Company* 123
- positive assortativity 223
- positive discrimination 465
- post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD) 130
- Powell, G.N. 8, 66, 88, 144, 353, 436, 444
- power laws 213, 216, 218–19, 221–2, 224
- pragmatic endurance phase see mid-career phase
- preferential attachment 223, 229, 231
- preferential treatment 59
- prejudice against women leaders 269–70
  - background 270–271
  - barriers to advancement 271–2
  - exploratory research model 277–80
  - need for further research 272–3
  - recommendations and future research 281–2
  - role congruity theory 273–4, 275–6
  - sex of voice 270, 274–7
- prescriptive stereotypes 143–4, 149–50, 152, 154, 157
- preserving 414
- primal triggers 274, 281–2
- productivity
  - children as influence on 330
  - losses resulting from SH 131
  - research 131, 305, 316, 317, 320, 321–2
- professional identity construction 74, 293, 294, 295–6, 299–301
- professional services firms (PSFs)
  - professional identity construction in 293, 294, 295–6, 299–301
  - reasons for studying women's careers in 289–91
  - studies of women in 291–4
  - transformation to partner study 293, 294–8
- promotion
  - and gender gap 334
  - opportunities for 438, 448
  - to partner 293, 294–8
  - self 151, 200
  - suggestions for increasing 22
- protective behaviors 293, 297, 299
- prototype similarity 165–73
- psychology student study 168–9, 172
- push and pull factors 89, 98, 358
- qualitative analysis, importance of 458
- quantitative targets 464–5
- queen bee syndrome 178, 181–4, 186, 191, 222, 230
- Quental, C. 298
- questions, use in communication 250, 251
- quid pro quo sexual harassment 120, 121–2
- quotas
  - boardroom 26–7, 107, 212, 214, 225, 228
  - responses to threat of 341–3, 349–50
  - terminology 465
- race and ethnicity
  - feminist theoretical perspectives 65–6
  - and gender 66–7
  - intersectionality 65–70, 80
  - literature search on influence of 64–5
  - research 72–9
  - transnational feminism 70–72
- race and migration 79, 420–421, 430–431
  - barriers to career advancement 425
  - demographic comparisons 424
  - facilitator effect 426–7

- limitations of research 429
- modelling relationships 424–5
- practical contributions 430
- role of tenure 427
- sample demographics 423–4
- study 421–3
- study discussion 428–9
- tests of other relationships 427–8
- racioethnicity 72–3, 81
- Raghunath, N. 353, 356, 357–8
- Ragins, B.R. 11, 20, 151–2, 181, 198, 200, 207, 273, 380, 381, 393, 394, 433, 434, 436, 437
- Rank Group Plc 458–60
- rapport talk 248
- rational bias theory 292
- readying process 417–18
- recognition 102, 104, 358, 379, 443, 448
- Reding, Viviane I, 342, 344–5
- reduced workload (RWL) 20
- Reinhold, B. 433, 437, 446
- reinventive contribution phase see late career phase
- rejection motivation (SH) 126–7
- relational practice 249–50, 251, 255, 414–15
- relationships, developmental 20, 207
- relay runners see late career phase
- renewed interest and momentum 30–31
- report talk 248
- research productivity 131, 305, 316, 317, 320, 321–2
- resources case study 462–4
- responsibility overload 98
- retention of women 22, 413
- Rhode, D.L. 270, 271–2, 274, 281
- role congruity theory 269–70, 273–81
- role incongruity 205–6, 277–82
- role models
  - identification with 300
  - importance of 20–21
  - men as 448
  - in the political arena 206–7, 208
  - solidarity behaviour 181–2
- Rousseff, Dilma 3
- Royal Bank of Scotland (RBS) 462
- Rudman, L.A. 126, 150, 151, 153, 154, 182, 185–6
- Ryan, M.K. 164, 168, 171, 222, 438
- Sachs, J. 269, 270, 275–6, 279
- Sagrestano, L.M. 125, 134, 135
- same-sex SH 123–4, 133
- 'savoir-faire' and 'savoir-être' 296–7
- scale-free networks 213–14, 218, 222–4
- Scandura, T.A. 61, 209, 381, 394
- Schein, V.E. 27, 52–6, 66, 143, 170, 273, 409, 434
- Schneider, K.T. 119, 122, 129
- schools of business 25–6
  - see also* Cranfield School of Management; Simmons School of Management
- science, women in 5, 146, 326–37
- Scullion, H. 370, 374, 379–80, 381, 382
- Sealy, R. 20–21, 180–181, 191, 207, 214–15, 339–40, 344, 347, 350, 464–5, 467
- seat spreads 216, 219–22, 224, 226–8
- second-generation bias 294, 300, 409–10, 414
- second-generation migrants 423–9
- 'second shift' 14
- selection processes 373, 383
- self-categorization theory 165
- self-efficacy 417–18
- self-presentation 293, 299
- self-promotion 151, 200
- self-similarity 218
- serotonin 246
- sex of voice
  - as gender-related cue 274–5
  - research model 277–80
  - and role congruity theory 275–6, 282
  - and stereotyping 276–7
  - use of terms 270
- Sex Role Spillover Model 125–6
- sex-type of the field 145–6
- sexist behavior 127
- sexual assault revictimization 127–8, 136
- sexual coercion 123, 127
- sexual dimorphism 243
- Sexual Experiences Questionnaire (SEQ) 122–4, 127
- sexual harassment (SH) 15
  - characteristics and perceptions of harassers and targets 120, 131–3
  - current research on measurement of 119, 124–5

- forms of 120, 121–5
- impacts 119, 128–31
- interventions and remedies 120, 134–5, 136
- legal definitions 121–2
- theories of 120, 125–8, 135–6
- Sexually Harassing Actions
  - Questionnaire (SHAQ) 124–5
- SH see sexual harassment
- ‘shadow side’ 184, 190
- sharing 243
- Sheridan, F. 272
- Shortland, S. 23, 369, 370, 373–4, 378–80
- ‘shoulder tapping’ 223, 230
- Silva, C. 87, 363, 393, 394, 395
- Simmons School of Management
  - Center for Gender and Organizations (CGO) 414, 415
  - first women-only MBA programme 406–7
  - leadership programmes 413–17
- Singh, V. 61, 75, 173, 180, 181, 182, 191, 198, 200, 269, 271, 272, 273, 281–2, 408, 435, 439
- single voiced discourse 244
- Slaughter, A.-M. 1, 30–31
- small business owners, female
  - coaching for 476–7
  - needs of 478–9
  - TEC programme for 477, 479–84
- small talk 251
- Smircich, L. 65, 66, 68, 80
- Smith, P.M. 269, 270, 275, 279
- social capital theory 435–6, 445–6
- social identification theory 53
- social identity theory 438
- social relations 299
- social similarity 299
- socialization 184, 243, 255, 275–6, 361
- sociocultural dynamics 235, 357–8
- sociocultural factors 359, 364–5
- sociocultural model (SH) 125
- Sodexo 455–7
- software services sector in India
  - future research 364–6
  - nature of 354–6
  - negotiated tensions cycle 359–62
  - number of women in 353–4
  - organizational policies vs managerial behaviours 362–4
  - perception as ‘gender friendly’ 357
  - symbolic capital cycle 357–9
  - women in the workplace 356–7
- solidarity behaviour 178, 179, 181–4, 187, 190–191
- solos 52, 59–60, 373
- Spain
  - quotas 26, 107, 341
  - women in management 9, 56, 271
- Spark software 479, 482
- sponsorship 300, 393–5, 396, 397, 399, 402, 464
- sports 11, 15, 203
- sprinters see early career phase
- Srinivasan, V. 360, 361, 362, 363
- starting smart phase of repositioning
  - gender 113–14
- STEM (science, technology, engineering and mathematics) see academic STEM fields
- Stereotype Content Model 132–3, 136
- stereotypes see gender stereotypes
- Stockdale, M.S. 119, 120, 123–8, 130, 132, 134–6
- stories, use of 69, 91, 230
- strategic actions and initiatives for
  - advancement 94–5, 97–9, 102–3, 391–403
- stress in the workplace 14, 128, 129, 359–60, 376
- stretch assignments 436
- Stroh, L.K. 150, 163, 164, 172, 369, 372, 374
- success
  - conditions for 452–3
  - factors critical for 113, 198–9, 372
  - in international assignments 376–8, 383
  - perspectives on 94, 97, 98, 102–3, 230
  - price of 334
  - ten thousand hours rule 226
  - as a violation 153–4
  - women’s definitions of 89
- Sullivan, S.E. 87, 88, 98, 307, 421
- Sumner, M. 353
- Sundstrom, E. 200, 207, 273, 434, 437

- support and encouragement 19
  - approaches to 26
  - coaching as method of 477
  - family 360–361, 375, 377
  - lack of/ limitations of 103, 478
  - multiple strategies for 398–9
  - organizational 22–3, 103–4, 426
  - for women in the pipeline 460–462
- surgeons study 171–2
- sustaining phase of repositioning
  - gender 112, 115–16
- swearing 254
- symbolic capital cycle 357–9, 366
- systemizing 242–3

- t-tests 311, 324, 439, 442–3
- taboo trade-off 9
- talent
  - adapting to contemporary 116
  - ‘war for’ 2, 3
  - women as 109–10
- talent management 4, 398, 400, 402, 458–60
- talent processes 464–5
- talk characterizations 151, 248, 251
- Tannen, D. 24, 235, 247, 248, 252, 259, 269, 273, 277
- teaching, time spent see faculty career stages
- teams
  - ambiguity about source performance 148–9
  - impact of sexual harassment on 131
- TEC (tailored e-coaching) programme 477, 479
  - application to practice 482
  - factors for success 482
  - networking on 481–2
  - practical elements of 479–80
  - recruitment to 480–81
- technology, women in 5, 146, 326–37
- Telstra Corporation Limited 396–7
- tempered radicalism 416–17
- temporal lobe 240, 243, 251
- ten thousand hours rule 214, 226, 227, 228
- tensions, negotiated 359–62, 366
- tentative speech 151, 250

- tenure
  - in academic STEM fields 327–8, 330, 332, 334, 336–7
  - as barrier 421–2, 425, 429, 430
  - and CEOs 439, 442, 444, 448
  - effect on race and migration 424
  - role in career advancement 427
- testosterone 245–7, 254
- Tharenou, P. 61, 224, 421, 427, 433–7, 444–5, 447, 457
- ‘think manager-think male’ 12, 27, 409
- Third World feminism 70–72
- Thomas, D.A. 272, 392
- Thomson, P. 222, 417–18, 454
- Tiedens, L.Z. 179, 187, 191
- tilted group (gender distribution) 52, 57
- Time Warner Inc. 400–401
- Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 121
- tokenism 52, 57
- tokens 52–3, 59–60, 373
- Train-the-Trainers programme 116
- trainee general manager (TGM) programme 460
- training and development
  - access to 19
  - facilitators 427
  - programs for SH 134
  - tenure limitations on access to 421–2, 425, 427–8, 429, 430
  - women-only 407
- transnational feminism 70–72
- transnational research 78–9
- Tung, R. 369, 370, 372, 376, 377, 378
- turn-taking 243, 254
- Tyler, K. 369, 372, 382

- underrepresentation of women
  - as CEOs 436
  - explanations for 54
  - in leadership positions 272, 277
  - in masculine industries 162–3, 170–171, 173
  - negative consequences of 51
  - personnel audits and benchmarking for diagnosis 58–9
  - in professional services firms 290, 291, 298

- in software services sector 353
- worldwide spread 62
- unfairness 152–3, 243
- uniform group (gender distribution) 51–2, 61
- United Kingdom (UK)
  - career opportunities for ethnic minority women 77
  - ethnic/gender identities 75
  - quotas 107
  - as role model 1
  - surgeons 171
  - women in management 9, 56
  - women on boards 163, 180, 339–51, 467
- United States Merit Systems
  - Protection Board (USMSPB) 122, 124
- United States (US)
  - CEOs in 433–48
  - pay disparities 143
  - PSF study 294–301
  - quotas 107
  - race and ethnicity 64–80
  - sexual harassment legislation 121–3
  - women faculty 308
  - women in academic STEM fields 326–7
  - women in management 6, 8, 9, 56, 87
  - women majority in workforce 270
  - university education 2, 8–9, 24, 92, 99, 107, 111, 199, 290, 307–8, 326–7, 334–5, 340, 357, 435, 439, 442
  - unwanted sexual attention 123, 124, 127–8, 132
  - ‘up or out’ model 290
  - upward mobility 74, 164–5, 235
- Van Emmerik, I.H. 51, 56, 57, 61–2
- van Vianen, A.E.M. 163, 164, 170, 172
- Varna 365
- verbal displays and requests (SH) 122
- Vinnicombe, S. 1, 87, 173, 180–182, 196, 214–15, 230, 269, 271, 272–3, 290, 293, 294, 340, 342, 344, 347, 348, 379, 407, 408, 413, 465, 467
- visibility 173, 374, 379, 381
- vocal cues 276–7
- Vodafone 465–7
- voice, sex of see sex of voice
- volunteering 92, 94
- Von Glinow, M.A. 435, 444, 445
- Walsh, J.S. 23, 379, 391
- ‘war for talent’ 2, 3
- Wasti, S. 120, 123, 124
- Watts, D. 213, 217, 225
- West, C. 203, 269, 270
- Western feminism 70–71
- white matter 239–40
- wide-verbal-repertoire (WVR)
  - speech and bridge brains 257–8
  - style of communication 255–7, 260–261
- Williams, J. 178, 183, 187, 190
- Williams, W.M. 5, 235–6, 242, 245, 327, 329, 335, 336
- Willness, C.R. 119, 129–30, 131
- Wirth, L. 5, 54, 290
- Wittenberg-Cox, A. 3, 5, 21, 24
- women acting like men 258, 299
- ‘women-friendly’ programs and sectors 300, 357
- women of color 66–7, 71, 73, 76, 394–5, 403
  - see also* African-American women; Black and White women
- ‘women thing’ 106–8
- women’s leadership team (WLT) 463–4
- Wood, J.L. 238, 239, 243, 249, 253
- Wood, J.T. 247, 250, 252, 253
- work addicts 14
- work experiences 19
- work-family conflict 17–18, 30–32, 54, 307, 326–37, 434, 475
- work-life balance 28, 92, 94, 290, 297–8
- working hours
  - faculty 308, 313, 317–18, 358
  - lengthy 13–14, 331, 355–6, 371
- workplace cultures 14
- zero tolerance policies 134
- Zimmerman, D.H. 203, 269, 270