

Index

- abatement see emissions reduction policy; policy instruments
- allowances and allocation see emissions trading scheme (ETS); Korea, establishing a carbon market
- Anderson, B and C. di Maria 52
- Annex 1 governments 128
- Australia 14, 20, 26, 29–30
- Bali Action Plan 2, 128–9, 142
- Baxter, M. and M.A.Kouparitsas 149–50
- Benbear, L.S. and R.N. Stavins 25
- biofuels 25, 32
- Blyth, W. 79–80, 82
- border carbon adjustments (BCA) 127–44
 - climate-trade nexus 127–9
 - disputes under WTO rules
 - extrajurisdictional application of domestic laws 137–9
 - future dangers of 142–3
 - shrimp-turtle dispute 134–5
 - Thai cigarette import levy 133, 135–6
 - emissions allowance requirements 129, 140–41
 - grandfathering/free allowances 136–7
 - implementation challenges 141
 - import allowance requirement approach 137
 - ineffective inducement 140
 - proposed measures embraced by US 130–31
 - US Congressional Climate Bills 131–40
 - competitiveness concerns 131–2, 136, 139
 - length of grace period 132–3
 - permit allocation and 136–7
 - rescinding last resort provision 139
 - scope of punishment 132
 - WTO rules and 141–2
- Bovenberg, A.L. and I.H. Goulder 136
- Bradley, Richard A. 7, 78
- Brazil 32
- Brown, Gordon 31
- Buchner, B. 49, 51
- building sector in Korea 193–4
- Cancun Agreement 2
- cap-and-trade system 40, 42–3, 107, 118, 128
- car manufacture in Korea 192–3
- carbon leakage see leakage and industrial competitiveness
- carbon market see emissions trading scheme (ETS); Korea, establishing a carbon market
- Center for Strategic and International Studies 18–19
- centralized counter parties (CCPs) 214–15, 216–17
- China 139–40, 142–3, 150, 168–70
- clean development mechanism (CDM) 6, 41–2
 - global transactions share 54, 55
 - clearing houses 54, 214–15, 216–17
- climate change impacts 18–19, 129
- climate change policy see border carbon adjustments (BCA); emissions reduction policy; policy instruments
- Climate Strategies study 61–2, 63
- commercial and residential sector programs in Korea 193–4
- Commission of the European Communities (CEC) 37
- comparability 129, 130–32, 135, 142–4

- competitiveness see leakage and industrial competitiveness
- Copenhagen Summit 85
- cost of mitigation 14–35
 - as under-estimate, and implications of 33–4
 - damage projection disparities 18–20
 - modelling on mitigation levels 19–20
 - global survey (2050) 15–16
 - national level 21–4, 34
 - developing countries 23–4
 - starting emissions intensity 22–3
 - under a common global strategy 21–3
 - using purchasing power parities 24
 - participation, importance of 26–9, 33
 - first-mover advantage and 25, 32
 - industrial protection 28
 - leakage risks 27–8
 - trade in permits and 27
 - poor policies 24–6, 33–4
 - relating to biofuels 25
 - renewable energy mandates and 25–6
 - uncertainty as source of cost 26, 81–2, 203
 - short-term transitional costs 29–31, 33
 - demand surges 30–31
 - spillover impacts 31–2
- Delarue, E. 51
- demand side management (DSM) 192
- Denmark 32
- derivatives market 213–14, 216
- developing countries
 - mitigation costs 23–4
 - participation incentives and commitments 113–15, 118
 - terms of trade 150
 - trade-climate nexus 129, 142
 - vulnerability to climate change 111
- economic growth
 - and costs see cost of mitigation
- GDP performance
 - in Korea 183–5, 187, 197, 200
 - in OECD countries 58
 - per capita income, projected losses 1
 - impact of EU ETS on 57–9, 70
 - in Korea see Korea, terms of trade decline
 - political economy and see political economy
- electricity generation 60, 67, 83, 93, 181
- Ellerman, D. 49, 51–2
- emissions
 - global
 - atmospheric carbon dioxide concentrations (1960–2009) 103
 - by country and region 3, 91, 200
 - by developed and developing countries 111
 - climate change damage projections 1, 18
 - energy related 89
 - sectoral emission share 92
 - electricity generation 93
 - Korea
 - energy-related CO₂, by sector 180–81, 183
 - main indicators 182
 - projections 183–4
 - major gases 182
 - medium term reduction targets 201
 - per unit of GDP (2005–2030) 183–4
 - total of GHGs (1990–2006) 180, 181
 - by sector 208
 - under EU trading scheme 41, 51, 67
 - emissions allowance requirements (EAR) 9, 129, 140–41
 - emissions reduction policy 7, 78–96
 - challenges posed by existing capital structure 79–81
 - EU performance and 46, 67, 69
 - investment decision drivers 83–5
 - key emitters, differences among 84–5
 - permit trading system and 202–5

- policy development (macro-scale)
 - 88–90
 - emissions (1980–2030) 89
 - framework for stabilization 90
 - main emitters and sources 90–92
 - sectoral focus 92–3
 - technology, diffusion and funding 93–5
- policy development (micro-scale)
 - and investment decision 81–2
 - focus on energy efficiency 85–90
 - end uses 87–8
 - recommendations (2000–30) 86, 87
 - refurbishment/replacement choice 81–2, 85–6
- reductions necessary to achieve stabilization 79
- see also* Korea, green growth and energy policy; policy instruments
- emissions trading scheme (ETS) 6–7, 39–71
 - achievements of, and lessons learned 57, 68–71
 - allocation periods 40, 44, 48, 68
 - allocation system performance (to 2012) 42–5
 - lessons learned 68–9
 - allowances market, development of 53–7
 - achievements and lessons 57, 68–9
 - demand drivers 55–6
 - growth in volumes and values 54, 55
 - launch period 56–7
 - phases 1 and 2, disconnection between 57
 - price evolution 54–6
 - auctioning 42, 67–8
 - Australian debate 26
 - coverage 41, 68
 - decentralized decisionmaking 43–4
 - competitive distortions 46–7
 - inefficient allocation of abatement targets 45–6
 - race-to-the-bottom effect 46
 - derivatives trading 213–14
 - economic growth and 57–9, 70
 - emissions reduction
 - carbon abatement 69
 - future targets (from 2012) 67
 - free allocation 42–3, 44, 67–8
 - implications of 48
 - incentives which are perverse 47
 - rent-seeking 47
 - windfall profits 47
- future policy objectives 66–8
- industrial competitiveness, carbon leakage and 59–66, 70
 - asymmetric increases in costs 60–62
 - disaggregated level 62
 - pass-through to output prices 62–4
 - qualifications to 61–2
 - definitions 59–60
 - economic growth and 57–9, 70
 - incidence of leakage 66
 - innovation potential and 64–5
 - investments and 65
 - product and service differentiation 65
 - trade restrictions and 65–6
 - transport costs and transport hazards 64
- main features of 39–42
 - allowance allocation 41
 - banking and borrowing 40
 - coverage 41
 - external JI and CDM projects 41
 - operational rules 40
 - trading periods 40
 - transaction registries 41–2
- market shares by instruments, EU 213
- overall performance 70–71
- over-allocation and abatement performance 45–6, 48–53
 - definition of over-allocation 49
 - phase 1 estimates 50–52
 - conclusions drawn 52–3
 - standards of reference 49
 - study indications and findings 52–3
 - verified emissions (2005–06) 49–50, 57, 69
- problems in the system 45
- standard (ideal) system 42–3

- see also* Korea, establishing a carbon market
- end uses 87–8
- energy and climate change policy see emissions reduction policy
- energy intensive industries 132, 136, 140
- energy sector 7, 11
 - coal-fired 80
 - electricity generation 60, 67, 83, 93, 181
 - low carbon program in Korea 194–5
 - price regulation 207, 209–10
 - response to launch period of EUAs 56–7
 - share of emissions 208
- energy tariffs 118
- European Climate Exchange (ECX) 213–14
- European Union (EU)
 - compliance issues 117
 - emissions trading scheme see emissions trading scheme (ETS)
 - global agreement and 29
 - market shares by instruments 213
- Feilhauer, S. 51–2
- first-mover advantage 25, 32
- Frankel, J. 18, 24
- free allocation 42–3, 47, 67–8, 206
 - based on grandfathering 42, 44, 136–7, 209–10
- free trade rules see border carbon adjustments (BCA)
- G-cubed model 24
- Garnaut Review of Climate Change 14, 18, 19–20
 - estimates on global agreement offers 29
 - short-term forecasts 29–30
- GDP growth performance
 - in Korea 183–5, 187, 197, 200
 - in OECD countries 58
 - per capita income, projected losses due to emissions 1
- General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT) 133, 134–5
 - Article XX 137–8
- Germany 25–6, 51–2
- Gleneagles Summit 87
- Global Trade and Environment Model (GTEM) 15, 21–2
- grandfathering 42, 44, 136–7, 209–10
- Green Growth National Strategy 10
- greenhouse gases (GHGs) see emissions
- Hahn, Chin Hee 1, 10, 148
- Heml, Dieter 14, 31
- Hodges, H. 31
- Hourcade, J. 61, 63
- Howes, Stephen 14
- industrial competitiveness and carbon leakage see leakage and industrial competitiveness
- industry sector programs in Korea 191–2
 - car manufacture 192–3
 - demand side management (DSM) 192
- Inter-Ministerial Committee on the Framework Convention on Climate Change 188
- international cooperation 2
- International Energy Agency (IEA) see emissions reduction policy
- International Energy Agency Countries 95
- International Panel on Climate Change (IPCC) 15, 19, 27, 79, 102, 179
- Japan 140
- joint implementation (JI) 6, 41–2, 54, 55
- Kaplinski, Raphael 150
- Keohane, R.O. and K. Raustiala 117
- Kettner, C. 49–50
- Kim, Chong-Sup 150
- Korea Electric Power Corporation (Kepco) 207
- Korea, city temperatures 3
- Korea, establishing a carbon market 11–12, 199–218
 - carbon market characteristics 211–15

- anonymity and transparency 211–13
- centralized counter parties 214–15
- derivatives market 213–14
- reduction costs 211–12
- carbon market design suggestions 215–17
 - price discovery and risk management 210–11
- government green growth plans 200–201
- market-based reduction policy 202–4
- permit trading system as financial market 210–11
- permit trading system as reduction policy
 - allocation method 206
 - hybrid model 206
 - market-based versus tax 202–4
 - market failure 204
 - upstream and downstream approaches 205
- power market 207–10
 - CBP and price regulation 207, 209–10
 - share of emissions 208
 - upstream market structure 207, 209
- see also* emissions trading scheme (ETS)
- Korea, government action plans 188–90, 199–200
- Korea, green growth and energy policy 179–97
 - commercial and residential sector programs 193–4
 - electricity sector programs 194–5
 - emissions
 - energy-related CO₂, by sector 180–81, 183
 - main indicators 182
 - projections 183–4, 188
 - major gases 182
 - total of GHGs (1990–2006) 180, 181
 - energy demand
 - production and demographics 183–4
 - projections (to 2030) 184–5
 - energy efficiency target 190
 - government plans and agenda items 188–90
 - investment and incentives 192
 - industry sector programs 191–2
 - energy conservation 191
 - new and renewable energy 195
 - competitiveness and 197
 - public opinion and 196
 - targets, by source 196
 - technology innovation 190–91
 - transport sector programs 192–3
 - see also* emissions reduction policy
- Korea, terms of trade decline 148–76
 - China's trade expansion and 168–70, 176
 - regression equation 169–70
 - results: industry level data on manufacturing 174, 175
 - results: product level trade data 170–74
 - decomposing changes 151–68
 - country price and goods price effect 152–4, 164–6
 - export and import price of goods 154–61
 - aggregate price deflators correlated 157–61
 - export price index construction 155
 - products eliminated 155, 156
 - recent trends, and drivers of 151–2
 - price indexes 152
 - results 164–6
 - earlier studies related to 149–51
 - green growth and 174, 176
 - oil prices and 148, 149, 151, 169, 174
 - regression analyses 169–70
 - results 170–74
 - trade structure and 161–4
 - Korea, under UNFCCC 3
 - Kuznets theory 104, 108
 - Kyoto protocol 2, 6, 84
 - common but differentiated responsibilities 129, 139–40
 - costs and trade permits 18, 27
 - implementation problems 127–8

- Lampert, Robert J. 82, 83
- leakage and industrial competitiveness
59–64, 70
abatement/innovation potential and 64–5
definitions 59–60
incidence of leakage 66
incomplete participation and 27–8 industry exposure to asymmetric cost increases 60–62
disaggregated level 62
pass-through to output prices
62–4
variables and qualifications 61–2 investment and 65 product differentiation and 65
trade restrictions and 65
transport costs 64
transport hazard 64
US policies and 139
- leakage through incomplete
participation 27–8
- Lee, Sang-Hyop 1
- Lenton, T. 18
- Luntz, Frank 110
- marginal abatement costs (MAC) 43
- McKibbin, W. and D. Pearce 27
- Mind the Gap: Quantifying Principal-Agent Problems in Energy Efficiency* 87
- mitigation see cost of mitigation estimates; emissions reduction policy; emissions trading scheme (ETS); Korea, green growth and energy policy; policy instruments
- Montreal protocol 132
- National Institute of Meteorological
Research (NIMR) 3
- Nordhaus, William 102
- nuclear power 195, 197
- Obama, Barak 128–9
- Oh, Jin-Gyu 10–11, 179
- oil 94, 148, 149, 151, 169, 174
- participation 26–9, 32, 33, 40, 205–6
- per capita income, projected losses due to emissions 1
- policies see emissions reduction policy
- policy instruments choices and effects of 1–2 constraints against efficient application 8–10 diverse approach to, and its weaknesses 24–6
market shares by, EU 213
see also emissions reduction policy
- political economy 8–9, 99–119
as international collective action problem 105–15
climate as nonexcludable public good 106–7
compliance issues 117–18
wealth transfers and energy tariffs 118 cost estimates see costs of mitigation estimates
- costs and benefits of innovation distribution across nation-states 110–13
public opinion and 107–10, 119
time consistency and credibility 113–15
domestic politics 115–17
policy instrument choice 99–100, 115–16
policy solutions versus climate change reality 101–5
carbon emissions and economic development 104
GHG concentrations 102–3
internalizing costs 101
public goods and participation incentives 101–2
shifting stabilization levels 102–4
uncertainty as source of cost 26,
81–2, 203
- Prebisch, R. 150
- Presidential Committee on Green
Growth (Korea) 189–90, 195
- refurbishment and renovation 81–2, 85–6
- renewable energy 25–6
share, in Korea 195
wind and solar 32
investment implications 83
- rent seeking 26, 28, 47

- Rothenberg, Lawrence 8–9, 99
 Ryu, Sung-Hyun 10, 148
- Seven Runners Program 191
- Sijm, J.P.M. 6–7, 39
- Singer, Peter K. 150
- Smith, J.B. 19
- Song, Min-Kyu 11–12, 199
- spot/forward markets 54
- Stavins, Robert N. 113–14
- Stern Review 1, 15, 18, 31–2
- Sweden 52
- tax 27, 137, 141, 202–3
- technology development and diffusion 93–5 identification of import carbon content 141
 IEA countries' expenditure 94 in relation to costs 2, 25, 31–2 innovation policies in Korea 190–91 uncertainty and market failure 204
- temperature increase 3, 18–19, 179
- terms of trade see Korea, terms of trade decline
- Thailand 133, 135–6
- trade barriers 118
- trade decline see Korea, terms of trade decline
- trade measures see border carbon adjustments (BCA)
- trading scheme see emissions trading scheme (ETS); Korea, establishing a carbon market
- transfer programs 24
- transport sector programs in Korea 192–3
- uncertainty 26, 81–2, 203
- unilateral trade measures see border carbon adjustments (BCA)
- United Kingdom 25, 63
- United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC) 2, 111, 127
- Bali Road Map 2, 128–9, 142
- comparability responsibilities 143
- Korea under 3
- Kyoto protocol 2, 6, 84
- common but differentiated responsibilities 129, 139–40
- costs and trade permits 18, 27
- trade compatibility 127–8, 131
- United States of America 9–10
- citizen perception of environmental problems 109
- Clean Energy and Security Act (2009) 131, 136
- corporate average fuel economy standard (CAFE) 115–16
- costs of mitigation 18, 108–10
- Lieberman-Warner Climate Security Act (2008) 131–2, 139
- unilateral trade measures see border carbon adjustments (BCA)
- Waxman-Markey bill 131, 139
- upstream and downstream approaches 204
- value-at-stake impacts 61
- Villepin, Dominique de 130
- Waxman-Markey bill 131, 139
- Weitzman, Martin 19
- Weyant, J. 16
- Widerberg, A. and M. Wrake 52
- World Economic and Social Survey* 32
- World Energy Outlook* 88, 90
- World Trade Organization (WTO)
 core principles 127, 138
- disputes 9
- extrajurisdictional application of domestic laws 137–8
- findings on shrimp-turtle dispute 134–5
- future dangers of 142–3
- good faith efforts requirement 133
- Thai cigarette import levy 133, 135–6
- Yoon, Kyoung-Soo 1, 11–12, 199
- Zhang, Zhongxiang 9, 127

