

---

Contents

---

List of figures	vii
List of tables	viii
List of contributors	ix
Foreword	xx
Philip R. Wood

PART I SECURED TRANSACTIONS LAW, ECONOMIC IMPACT AND REFORM

1. How do creditor rights matter for debt finance? A review of empirical evidence John Armour, Antonia Menezes, Mahesh Uttamchandani and Kristin van Zwieten	3
2. The influence of the UNCITRAL Legislative Guide on secured transactions Spyridon V. Bazinas	26
3. A single framework governing secured transactions? Comparative reflections Frederique Dahan	62
4. Implementing Shari'ah-compliant collateral security regimes: Select issues Michael J.T. McMillen	97
5. Levelling the legal playing field: What the law can and can't do to improve women's access to secured finance Clare Manuel	132

PART II SECURED FINANCING: MANY FACETS AND CONTEXTS

6. Untying the Gordian knot: Farmers, banks, insurers, warehouse receipts, commodity exchanges, collateral managers and access to credit Nicholas Budd	167
7. Sowing the good seeds: The Brazilian experience of agriculture financing Christian de Lima Ramos	193

8. The potential of factoring for improving SME access to finance Ivor Istuk	212
9. Security in project finance and PPP and the implications for secured transactions law: “Security is a shield, not a sword” Jan-Hendrik Röver	235
10. Keeping it real: SME financing, secured transactions and risk appetite Tom Johnson	255
11. Financial collateral arrangements and the financial markets Edward Murray	286
12. Fundamentals of taking security interests in bank accounts Marek Dubovec	326

PART III TRENDS AND PERSPECTIVES FOR REFORM

13. Secured transactions law reform in Russia: A tortuous but ultimately successful journey Natalia Nikitina and Julia Lymar	357
14. Reforming an established secured transactions legal system: Why and how Morocco is approaching the challenge Mustapha Mourahib and Ouns Lemseffer	374
15. Taking stock of Romanian secured transactions after 15 years of reform: A mapping of past, present and future milestones Victor Pădurari and Andreea Simona Burtoiu	403
16. Piecemeal reform: Is it the answer? Louise Gullifer	421
17. What makes a good law of security? Richard Calnan	451
Index	487