

Contents

List of figures and tables	vii
List of contributors	viii
Preface	xiii
Acknowledgments	xvi
Introduction: The transformation of transnational private regulation: enforcement gaps and governance design	1
Fabrizio Cafaggi
PART I RETHINKING THE PUBLIC–PRIVATE DIVIDE
1 Enforcement of transnational public regulation	41
Richard Stewart
2 Enforcing transnational private regulation: models and patterns	75
Fabrizio Cafaggi
3 National courts and transnational private regulation	131
Eyal Benvenisti and George W. Downs
4 Non-judicial enforcement of transnational private regulation	147
Colin Scott
PART II JUDICIAL ENFORCEMENT OF TRANSNATIONAL PUBLIC REGULATION
5 Judicial models of international law enforcement	167
Francesco Francioni
6 Multilevel judicial protection of ‘rule of law’ in transnational regulation requires ‘struggles for justice’	182
Ernst-Ulrich Petersmann

PART III TRANSNATIONAL PRIVATE REGIMES: CONTRASTING JUDICIAL AND NON-JUDICIAL ENFORCEMENT ACROSS SECTORS
7	Privatizing the adjudication of international commercial disputes: the relevance of organizational form Kevin E. Davis	211
8	Enforcement of private transnational labor regulation: a new frontier in the anti-sweatshop movement? Cynthia Estlund	237
9	Financial private regulation and enforcement Geoffrey P. Miller	263
10	Transnational private regulation of the Internet: different models of enforcement Federica Casarosa	279
11	Enforcement of transnational private regulation of advertising practices: decentralization, mechanisms and procedural fairness Paul Verbruggen	302
PART IV CONCLUSION
12	The enforcement of transnational private regulation: a fictitious oxymoron Sabino Cassese, Elisa D'Alterio and Maurizia De Bellis	331
	Index	373